Mr. Fonville at Y. M. C. A.

In one of the best speeches ever heard here Mr. D. R. Fonville spoke on The college man and the ney of Charlotte, a graduate of the University of Virginia; a Phi Beta Kappa man, and an intercollegiate debater. This business man is one who really looks at the Bible in its right sense. In this speech, one of the finest and most effective made in Gerard Hall, he laid emphasis on the college man's need of knowledge of the Bible. And this book he said, was the book of all books—it was better than any novel, any work of fiction or romance, better than history or any book of adventure. At the end of his speech Mr. Fonville gave his best wishes for a great and successful year to the Y. M. C. A.

We are all deeply indebted to this gentleman for a speech so full of thorough good sense and we hope that we will again have the pleasure of hearing him.

Carolina Men Coaching

At least two members of last years football team will do active coaching this fall. "Captain Bob" Winston is at Bingham School at Asheville where in addition to teaching he will have charge of all branches of athletics. His proteges will be on the Hill in action against the the Varsity on October 19.

"Jock" Manning is coaching at Stetson University, Florida. Mrnning played three years as end here and had one years experience as coach at Horners School. He has a thorough knowledge of the game and is well qualified to coach. The success of both of these Carolina stars is confidently expected.

Mrs. Klutz Gives Reception

A delightful reception was given on the beautiful lawn of Mrs. A. A. Klutz on Tuesday afternoon of last week to the Rev. Dr. Moss, who has recently returned to Chapel Hill to take charge of the Presbyterian Church here.

Those receiving were Mr and Mrs. Klutz, Mr. and Mrs. MacKie, Dr. and Mrs. Wheeler, Mrs. Archer, and Mrs. MacIntosh. Delicious refreshments were served by Misses Elizabeth Bain, Louise Venable, Elma Williamson Christine MacIntosh, Anrie McGehee, and Lettie Ames.

Mr. C. T. Woollen, University Proctor, has been elected Treasurer of the Athletic Association. All the financial affairs of the Association will be in his hands. Mr. Woollen and Athletic Director Cartmell will together perform the duties of Graduate Manager.

On last Saturday night at the regular initiation, sixty three new men were taken into the Phi society.

George Whitaker has been initiated into S. A. E. Fraternity.

Library Regulations

The following regulations are considered necessary for the proper use of the library. Strict compliance with them is expected.

Students and members of the faculty are subscribers to the library and are entitled to library privileges.

Other persons who desire to use the library may become subscribers upon payment of the regular library fee of four dollars the year, two dollars for six months, one dollar for three months, fifty cents for one month, and twenty-five cents for two weeks.

Persons who are not subscribers may not borrow books on a subscriber's name.

Not more than three books may be charged one name at the same time.

To secure books, look in the dictionary card catalogue for [a] name of author, or [b] title of books, or [c] subject. Write call number indicated on catalogue card, author's name and title of book on upper half of call slip. Write your registration number and name on lower half of call slip. Use a separate call slip for each book wanted. Hand slips thus filled out to attendant at the desk.

Fines for books kept over fourteen days, including the day of issue, will be imposed with exact regularity at the rate of five cents per day. The date on the pocket or flyleaf of book is sufficient notice when the book is due.

Failure to pay fines within three days after they are due will debar the delinquent from the further use of the library.

Reference books for class use or debate may be taken out at 8:30 p. m. and returned at 10 a. m. of the following day. A fine of five cents per hour or twenty-five cents per day is charged on them if they become overdue. On Saturday they may be taken out at 4 p. m. and kept until 10 a. m. on Monday.

Magazines are not issued for use outside of the library until they are bound, and then they are treated as special reserved books.

Mutilation of books or magazines, or defacement by writing in them, must be paid for by the purchase of a new copy.

Any conversation in the library, except to obtain books desired, is absolutely forbidden.

Continued disregard of these regulations will cause the offender to forfeit the right to use the library.

Library hours are as follows: 9:30 to 1:15, 2:00 to 5:00, 7:00 to 9:30 on week days except Saturdays; 8:30 to 1:15, 2:00 to 5:00, Saturday; 2:30 to 4:30 Sundays.

Mr. Marvin L. Ritch, secretary to Congressman E. Y. Webb, left last night for Washington to enter Georgetown University and continue his studies in law. Mr. Ritch was granted a leave of absence by Mr. Webb until the last of November. He will also play football and will be one of the Georgetown eleven.

Freshmen Meeting Quiet

Without the customary 5 a. m., depot meetings-on-the-sly, the Freshmen met in chapel Monday morning and held a meeting under the supervision of the student council. Each candidate was named with a great whoop—in fact, it was a bunch of lusty-lunged youngsters. The officers elected are as follows: Bryce Beard, Pres.; Jos. S. Huske, Vice Pres.; Clifton W. Beckwith, Secretary and Treasurer. Besides these, Royster was elected manager of the foot ball team and Patterson manager of the class track team. An offer by the Golden Fleece to manage the Freshman finances was accepted unanimously.

Lawyers Organize

A meeting of the law class was held September 20th for the election of class and moot court officers for the ensuing term. The class was well represented and much interest was shown in the election.

The meeting was called to order by retiring president, J. T. Johnson. Mr. Alexander, who is noted for his soaring flights of oratory, held the class in breathless suspense when he placed Mr. W. L. Warlick's name in nomination for president. In his speech he described Mr. Warlick as being a fit object and good presidential timber, which must have been the opinion of the class as he was elected unanimously. Mr. Warlick, although he was very much embarrassed at the honor thrust upon him, stated in a short speech that with the help of the class he would make this the best class of the century. Although this is a broad statement we feel satisfied that he is a man that is able to back up what he says.

The next office, vice-president, was conferred upon Mr. G. H. Ward, an able student who stands high in the esteem of the class.

Mr. W. F. Taylor was described as being a good collector and was accordingly elected secretary and treasurer.

Frank P. Graham, was elected councilman. Next followed J. W. Hester, sheriff of moot court; E. F. McCulloch, clerk; and H. E. Stacy, solicitor. We are certain that the would-be attorneys will find a "foreman worthy of their steel" in our solicitor. J. T. Johnson, J. W. Morris, Jr., and L. A. Swicegood were elected a moot court committee.

Hamilton Elected on Council

A. L. Hamilton of the Senior Class has been elected member at large of the council. W. G. Harry and A. L. Hamilton were the nominees. Harry received 157 votes; Hamilton 172. The council at present consist of Welter Stokes, '13, D. H. Carlton, '14, Philip Woolcott, '15, Frank Graham, Law, J. N. Tolar, Medicine, L. H. Winstead, Pharmacy, and A. L. Hamilton. One more member is to be chosen yet, a senior selected by those already elected.
