LOCALS

Miss Evelyn Hand of Purois, Miss. is visiting Mrs. Wheeler.

Mr. Perrin Busbee, of Raleigh, spent Saturday here.

Prof. Chas. W. Bain has been initiated into the Senior Order of the Golden Fleece.

Frank Drew and Lenoir Chambers have been initiated into the Junior Order of Gimghouls.

Paul Bennett has been initiated into the Kappa Alpha Fraternity.

Geo. B. Mason, ex-13, who is an attorney-at-law in Gastonia, spent Saturday afternoon and night with friends on the Hill.

Mrs. B. S. Loniak of New York City is spending a few days in Chapel Hill.

Miss Alice Noble has as her guest Miss Alma Peschem of Wilmington, N. C.

Mrs. I. H. Manning left Monday for Goldsboro, she will also visit her plantation near that city.

Mr. T. H. Patrick and Mr. Lewis Whitfield of Clinton spent Saturday in Chapel Hill.

Mr. Cameron MacRae spent several days in Chapel Hill last week with his mother, Mrs. R. S. MacRae.

Miss Elizabeth Nicholson of Salisbury arrived on the Hill Monday to be the guest of Miss Elma Williamson.

Dr. Ben F. Royall, of Morehead City, a former assistant of Biology at the University was among Saturday's "old boys" who came back to the Hill.

P. H. Gwynn, Jr. will be the leader at the regular Thursday night meeting of the Y. M. C. A. His theme will be "The Value of a purpose."

Jos. R. Nixon, '10, of Lincoln, Bahama, and the Di-Society, spent Saturday on the Hill attending the University Day exercises and the football game.

Mr. A. E. Woltz, former Burar of the University, who is now practicing law at Gastonia, arrived in town Friday. He is this week attending the sessions of Superior Court at Hillsboro.

"Ratty" Ranson, the scrappy little half back on the third team, broke his collar bone in a scrimmage Wednesday. "Ratty" ran three plays after the bone was broken and made a touchdown on the last play on a plunge through the line. That is what we call "Guts."

The laboratory of General Zoology and General Botany in Davie Hall has been equipped with handsome oak work tables through the generosity of Mr. Geo. Stephens, an alumnus and trustee of the University. The tables were made at the Kanuga Furniture Shop near Hendersonville, N. C.

A fire caused considerable excitement in Chemistry Hall Monday afternoon. The blaze started from an experiment which was being made by W. L. Jeffries. A large quantity of gasoline and Alcohol caught from the Bunsen burner, and the wood work was severely scorched before the flames were put out by the fire extinguishers. Mr. Jeffries was severely burned on his left arm.

Mrs. Eben Alexander has gone to Greensboro to visit her daughter, Mrs. Paul Schenk. She has been in Chapel Hill for several weeks with Mrs. Patterson.

A Silver Tea was given by the Ladies Guild of the Episcopal Church on the porch of Mrs. McRae's residence Thursday from four to ten. Candy, sandwiches, tea and coffee were served.

The boys from Randolph Co. met a few days ago and organized a county club. The following officers were elected: G. B. Phillips, president; C. A. York, vice-president; R. C. Cox, Sec. and Treas.; B. F. Brittain and A. T. Lewellyn, corresponding secretaries.

S. R. Winters, the University's veteran newspaper man, went to Hillsboro Monday to "cover" the trial of the hazers, Messrs. Hatch, Styron, Merriman, and Oldham. He returned Monday night as the trial was postponed until the next session of Superior Court in Orange Co. which is to be during next March.

Dr. Joel Whitaker, "Doggie" Trenchard, Perrin Busbee, and John Ellington came over from Raleigh for the Wake Forest game. Mr. Trenchard and Dr. Whitaker are old football men, and Mr. Trenchard at Princeton. In addition Mr. Trenchard has coached Carolina teams in the past. He leaves next week for Princeton where he will coach the ends.

A beautiful reception was given on the evening of Friday October the eleventh by Dr. and Mrs. Venable to the Faculty and their friends. Dr. Venable with Mrs. Venable in gray chiffon over pink, and Miss Louise Venable in white messaline trimmed with princess lace, received the guests. The decorations in the hall were golden rods and autumn leaves. The color scheme in the dining room was pink and green, it was carried out in Killarney and Duchess roses and the table decorations of pink ribbon and maline. Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Sneath, Misses Elizabeth Bain and Watson Kasey. Miss Mary Manning poured the coffee. The decorations in the living room were Paul Naron roses. The punch bowl was presided over by Misses Mammie Smith and Christine McIntosh.

CHEMICAL JOURNAL CLUB MEETS

The first meeting for this year of the Chemical Journal Club was held in Chemistry Hall at 7:30 Monday night Dr. Herty was in charge, and gave a very interesting account of this fall's meeting of the 18th International Congress of Applied Science at Washington and New York. His account was illustrated with a display of souvenirs and also of lantern slides showing some of the more noted scientists who attended the Congress.

Dr. Herty's account was followed by the presentation of brief resumes by Mr. W. L. Jeffries and B. H. Knight of two of the more noteworthy papers presented before the Congress.

The whole meeting was very informal in character, and appeared to be thoroughly enjoyed by the large number present.

On Friday night October the eleventh Dr. I. H. Manning gave a smoker at his home in honor of Ground has been broken for the erection of the new Kappa Sigma Hall. It will be between the Zeta Psi house and the Pi Kappa Alpha. The building will be unusually attractive and will add much to the appearance of the campus around the fraternity houses.

P. E. Seagle, '06, who was a member of the famous 1905 football team, was among Saturday's visitors to the Hill. Mr. Seagle is now representative for North Carolina of Ginn and Co., publishers. His headquarters are at Raleigh.
