V. P. I. OVERWHELMS VARSITY IN RALEIGH

Bocock's Team Too Much and Carolina is Defeated in a Hard Game

THE FINAL SCORE WAS 26 TO 0.

V. P. I. Successful With Forward Passes and Her Heavy Backs Plug the Line. Three Hundred Students Accompany the Team

The Carolina Varsity fell before the attack of V. P. I. in Raleigh last Saturday to the tune of 26 to 0. It was the hardest fought game Raleigh has seen in a long time and one for which the team deserves much credit. The way in which the heavy V. P. I. backs were fought off was enough to rouse the sidelines more than once to cheers of admiration.

One touchdown came in each quarter and only after overcoming the most stubborn resistance. Carolina threatened to score in the second quarter. From near the center of the field Wakeley reeled off 25 yards. Tillett immediately raced 25 more and brought the ball to the 4-yard line. With four tries for the remaining distance and a touchdown almost a certainty, time was called before the teams could line up.

V. P. I. presented a veteran team, skilled under the thorough coaching of Branch Bocock. Carolina probably had the advantage in weight in the line, but the V. P. I. backs were an unusually heavy, hard running set and more than made up for discrepancies in the line. Legge, who has caused trouble for Carolina before, was in great form and gained well. Burrus and Schultz are easily the best tackles that Carolina has played against this year and Burrus was particularly hard to stop on a tackle-around play. Hughes at end starred in handling forward passes. It was perfection in this play that enabled V. P. I. to roll up four touchdowns. Two forward passes led directly to scores. From the center of the field long passes were made to Hughes, who gained 30 yards. Then the backs plugged the line for short gains, 3 and 4 yards at a time down to the goal line. The last touchdown came after a punt was blocked on Carolina's 16-yard line. All the scores were made against a stubborn defence and it is significant that three touchdowns came in the last three minutes of each quarter. The game was no walk-over and there is no reason for discouragement by Carolina supporters. V. P. I. simply took advantage of her opportunities.

Tillett played well through the game. He gained long distances running back punts and tackled fiercely. Applewhite, Big Abernathy, Strange, Dortch, Huske and Moore fought hard all the time and did much to hold down the score.

MANAGER MEBANE RESIGNS

L. P. McLendon Has Been Appointed His Successor

L. P. McLendon has been appointed by the Athletic Council as manager of the football team in place of B. H. Mebane who resigned the position owing to his leaving college. The change, coming in the middle of the season is particularly unfortunate; but the council has immediately secured a capable and experienced man. McLendon graduated from A. & M. in 1910. He was manager of the 1909 football team at A. & M. and gained much valuable experience. He came to the University to study law in the fall of 1910, passed the state board last February, and is now practising law in Chapel Hill and taking a few courses in the University. He has already taken hold of the work in an active manner and should manage the team successfully the rest of the season.

FRESHMEN BEAT PREPS Warrenton Overcome by 1916; Score 22 to 0

The Freshman football team went over to Warrenton last Friday, under the shadow of Ratty Ranson's one good wing, and beat the Preps to a frazzle. The final score, 22 to 0, resulted from three touchdowns and a safety. They failed to kick one goal.

Although the Freshmen were materially outweighed, they had the ball practically all the time. Most of their gains were on short end runs. Their own goal was never threatened, as the Warrenton boys seldom made first downs, although they pulled off two forward passes.

The Freshmen made one touchdown a quarter, except the first, when a fumble on Warrenton's five yard line prevented scoring. Parker, full, probably did the best work for '16, making two touchdowns. Fore, at quarter, played a heady game. He handled his team well. Joyner did good work on end, and Reid gained well. The most spectacular feature of the game was Parker's thirty-five yard run for a touchdown with an intercepted forward pass.

Referee, Ratty Ranson, '14. Umpire, Graham, Jr., of Warrenton. Time-keeper, Royster, '16. Quarters, 10 minutes.

In the Di society last week, the query "Resolve that constitutionality granted, the United States Congress should enact an inheritance tax law". Friday night Mr. Lindon made the best speech. Saturday night the affirmative won and Mr. Walon made the best speech.

LITERARY SOCIETIES TO AID PREPSCHOOLS

Queries and Material to be Supplied Gratis to Embryo Debaters

C. E. McINTOSH, '11, THE ORIGINATOR

New Plan by Which the University Will Help Develop Debating Material in Secondary Schools of the State

In order to stimulate among the secondary schools of the State greater interest in debating, and especially to encourage greater activity in inter-scholastic debating, the Dialectic and Philanthropic Literary Societies of the University have submitted a plan for a High School Debating Union to the high schools of the State. The plan, which looks to the natural extension of the literary society work of the University, the head of the State's educational system, to the high schools, the lower part of the States educational system, is in brief this:

The Di and Phi Societies will suggest a query to be discussed on a given date by the high schools entering the Union, (this date to be determined by the Societies after they have ascertained the wishes of the schools themselves), and will furnish from the University library, free of cost, in pamphlet form, such material as will enable the students to comprehend and discuss intelligently the various points covered by the question. Other sources of information will be indicated from which the teams can obtain additional material if they desire it.

All secondary schools of North Carolina, however supported, offering regular organized courses of study above the seventh grade, and not extending in their scope and content beyond a standard four year high school course, as defined by the State Department of Education, shall be eligible for membership in the Debating Union.

All schools accepting the offer of the Societies and thus becoming members of the Union shall be arranged by the Societies into groups of three, for a triangular debate, the status and standards of the schools, their proximity, accessibility and convenience of location to be considered in forming the groups. Each school of each triangular group shall agree to form two debating teams of two members each, the one to uphold the affirmative side of the query, and the other to defend the negative side. The team debating at home shall in each case uphold the affirmative side of the query, and the visiting team shall in each case defend the negative side.

Any school that shall win both the affirmative and the negative sides of the query in this triangular contest shall be entitled to send both its teams

STATE COLLEGES UNITE

Plans Made for a Basketball Association

A basketball association has been formed among the North Carolina colleges. On Saturday night representatives from A. & M., Wake Forest, Trinity, Elon, Guilford, and Carolina met in Raleigh and laid the foundations for an organization which promises much for athletics in the State. The men present were: W. C. Hopkins, of A. & M.; J. A. Rand and Prof. Wilson, of Trinity; T. B. Henry and Carey Dowd, of Wake Forest; R. S. Doak, of Elon; C. G. Doak and H. A. Stewart, of Guilford; R. O. Huffman and Nat Cartmell, of Carolina. These men elected officers as follows: President, R. O. Huffman; Vice-President, J. A. Rand; Secretary, C. G. Doak. A few simple eligibility rules were agreed upon. Trinity may not become a member on account of the rules of the S. I. A. A. Other meetings will be held later and the organization made more perfect.

What chiefly interests Carolina men is the fact the association means the renewal of relationships with A. & M. and Trinity, something long desired by the student body. If it works successfully, it may lead to baseball and football contests. While in Raleigh Manager Huffman arranged a basketball game with A. & M. in Raleigh on February 22nd. A return game will be played in Chapel Hill, the date to be decided upon later.

CONFERENCE ON READING

Under the leadership of Prof. E. K. Graham between forty and fifty men met in the Y. M. C. A. Monday night for the purpose of starting a Conference on Reading. Those behind the scheme simply wish to suggest valuable and interesting books to any student who wishes to read on his own accord.

Prof. Graham distributed lists of books which he had prepared. The seventy-odd volumes include biography, political studies, essays, and fiction. There is no required work, nor anything at all formal about the Conference. It was conceived to help those students who often want something to read and don't know what to get. This list is, in a sense, preliminary. If anyone, for instance, becomes interested in biography or essays, wishes to read additional books, he may obtain suggestions from members of a committee is made up of Archibald Henderson, J. G. deR. Hamilton, J. F. Royster, J. M. Booker, C. L. Raper, H. H. Williams, L. R. Wilson, T. P. Cross, G. M. McKie, and G. M. Sneath.

At various times members of this committee will give informal talks of a suggestive and interpretive nature on subjects connective with reading. Any student may become a member by seeing Prof. Graham. Freshmen and Sophomores are especially urged to take part.

THE FIRST ISSUE OF THE ALUMNI REVIEW

High Standard Set for All future Numbers of the Magazine

DR. L. R. WILSON EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

Much News of Interest to Alumni and Friends of the University, and Many Pictures Add to Its Attractiveness

One of the most attractive publications that have appeared in this state in a long time is the University of North Carolina Alumni Review, the first issue of which has just come from the presses of The Observer Printing House. It is published by the Alumni Association. Dr. Louis Round Wilson is editor. The associate editors are: Dr. George T. Winston, class of 1866-1868; Dean Edward Kidder Graham, 1898; Dr. Archibald Henderson, 1898; Mr. William S. Bernard, 1900; Mr. John Kenyon Wilson, 1905; Mr. Louis Graves, 1902; Mr. F. P. Graham, 1909, and Mr. Kenneth Tanner, 1911. Mr. Walter Murphy of Salisbury is managing editor. It will appear monthly except in July, August, September and January.

For months this initial number has been awaited with some eagerness and in quality and quantity of contents it has proven itself worth waiting for. The Alumni Review is a dream come true and yet it is believed to be but the beginning of greater things.

At the university commencement of 1911 a concerted effort was made looking to an efficient organization of the alumni in this and other states so that they could be correlated into a working force that would be of powerful assistance to the institution in doing its duty and playing worthily its part in moulding the future life of the State and Nation. An Alumni Council of fifteen was formed, the terms of five members to expire each year. That council approved the idea of such a publication as is issued by some of the great universities of the North and it set to work assiduously to make such an one here a possibility. Field efforts by Mr. W. H. Swift of Greensboro and Mr. Murphy of Salisbury, with the cooperation of Carolinians throughout the State, brought hopeful results and the university men believe that the way is now paved for splendid work.

There are 7,000 alumni and it is expected that practically all of these will subscribe to this publication, every page of which tingles with live news of interest to university men. This will make it an advertising medium of distinct and peculiar value. The price is $1 yearly.
