P. E. Seagle, '06, of Raleigh, spent several days on the Hill last week.

Mrs. Wheeler has as her guest Miss Mary Lyman of Westfield, Mass.

Miss Louise Venable left Saturday to visit friends and relatives at the University of Virginia.

Miss Elizabeth Nicholson of Salisbury who has been the guest of Miss Elma Williamson, returned home Tuesday.

Miss Christine McIntosh, who has been in Fayetteville and Clayton for several weeks, returned to Chapel Hill Saturday.

Warrenton has thirty men united in a club. They have as officers, C. Smith, President; A. Cooper, Vice President; W. D. Pruden, Secretary & Treasurer.

Pitt County club is so far the smallest Club organized. It has six members. S. C. Moore is President, H. Cox, Vice President, C. Worthington, Secretary & Treasurer.

Five of the western mountain counties have united to form one club. Their officers are as follows: T. Jones, President, T. E. Story, Vice President, E. M. Coulter, Secretary & Treasurer.

The Wake County club has thirty members. They have the following men for officers: Tom Boushall; President; Phil Woolcott, Vice President; O. Mashburn, Secretary & Treasurer.

Granville County, besides having a Horner Club, is represented by a County club. It has for officers: H. Hester, President, A. Booth, Secretary and Treasurer. There are fourteen members.

Oak Ridge, with thirty-five members, has the largest of the Prep school clubs. They elected the following officers, D. H. Carlton, President; Little Abernathy, Vice President; A. B. Hamilton, Secretary and Treasurer; H. B. Hester, Corresponding Secretary.

A delightful Hallowe'en party was given on the night of Oct. 31 at Capt. Smith's residence for the benefit of the B. Y. P. U. One of the features of the evening was the admittance fee of one cent per foot. Refreshments of Witches Brew, Owl's Nest, Devil's Food, etc., were served by several young ladies.

In response to Dean Graham's appeal for a united and active system of county clubs, the following organizations were formed last week. There are about 375 men in such organizations at the present time. The Horner club was formed with eighteen members. They elected for officers, I. R. Williams, President; C. E. Ervin, Secretary; B. B. Sears, Secretary & Treasurer.

The boys from Robeson county met a few days ago and re-organized their county club. The following are officers: A. A. McKay, President; I. W. Carter, Vice-President; W. B. Townsend, Secretary and Treasurer. The club will hold a banquet here later in the fall. Papers dealing with the history of Robeson will be worked up by members of the club.

A very pleasant entertainment in the form of illustrated songs and tableaux was given on Thursday night by the young ladies of the Episcopal church, assisted by a male quartette consisting of Messrs Weeks, Dancy, Sneath and Payne. The songs were accompanied by Mr. Clement at the piano and Prof. Wilbur Royster on the violin.

Monday night in Chapel the Press Association held its first meeting for this year. The meeting was well attended, about forty men, representatives of papers throughout the State, being present. Much interest was shown in the work the Association hopes to accomplish this year. The Association will meet every Friday night. Members of the faculty and newspaper men from out in the State will be invited to make informal talks at these meetings. At these meetings, too, the regular weekly letters of current college news, together with stamped envelopes, furnished by the University, can be secured. The following officers were elected: S. R. Winters, President; W. S. Beam, Vice-President; M. R. Dunnagan, Secretary; D. L. Rights, Treasurer.
