

Prizes for Football Proficiency

In order to add a little zest to the spring football practice by creating a bit of friendly rivalry among the men who are out and at the same time offering some inducement for harder work, Coach Trenchard has decided to give five sweaters as prizes for the best work done in punting, drop kicking, passing, catching, and tackling by men who will be back in college next year. Sometime in May there will be held a contest and the person who succeeds in booting the pigskin for the greatest distance will be given a sweater. The best drop kicker, the best passer, and the best catcher will receive one also. At the same time there will be a tackling tournament in which the person who does the best work will receive a twin sweater to the others. Those who are interested can see Coach Trenchard for further information regarding the conditions and the time of the contest.

THREE GAMES RIGHT

Again in the second Leak and Edwards hit safely and Johnson's three base drive scored them. Johnson himself came home on William's single.

In the fourth Johnson doubled to left and scored when Thompson's long fly was muffed. H. Bailey's hit brought Johnson home. Leak added another in the fifth when he scored on Edwards' two bagger. The final count in the eighth resulted from hits by Edwards and Johnson and an infield out.

In spite of five errors Carolina fielded sharply, Edwards in particular handling difficult grounders. He also starred with the stick, getting two doubles and a single, while Johnson led with two singles, a double, and a triple. Graham played well for Davidson. Crayton at first had only one put-out and no assists.

Score by innings: R. H. E.
Davidson 01000000—1 6 2
Carolina 43021001*—11 13 5
Batteries—Osteen, Bell, Wolfe and Alford; Graves and Hart.

TEAM IS READY FOR THE VIRGINIA GAME

ball hard. Johnson is slugging like a leaguer. Capable substitutes in Knowles, Zollicoffer, Rousseau and Norris are waiting to step into the shoes of an injured regular.

Virginia will have her usual strong team. Captain Finaly, Neff, Lile, Fitchett, Landes and Grant are familiar names and the new men are up to the standard. Grant a southpaw, and Neff will likely do the twirling.

In Chapel Wednesday morning M. T. Spears was elected Cheer Leader in place of Walter Stokes, resigned.

Contrary to their first expectations the Glee Club and Orchestra will not give a performance in Raleigh Saturday night after the Carolina-Virginia game. The performance has been called off on account of a competing show that will be there on that night, and on account of other things that also militated against the arrangements.
