THE VERY LATEST DOPE

Virginia Fears Going Stale. N. C. in Great Shape.

The whole attitude at both the football camps has changed during the last few days. Last week Virginia thought in terms of four and five and six touchdowns to nothing. Now it's all we going to keep them away from our goal line. The query of how well are we going to hold them has turned here to, do you think honestly that we can beat them?

Georgetown nozed out on Virginia. She weighed only 165 pounds on the average. Carolina went up against the heavy W. & L. team, outweighed nine pounds, and held them close—much closer than the score indicates. Here's how the weight proposition stands: Carolina averages 170 pounds, Virginia from 177 to 181, according to which two of four men start the game. Georgetown, weighing twelve pounds lighter than Virginia, defeated her.

Carolina showed her phenomenal improvement in the game against Wake Forest. She scored 29 points November 15 and could have made it 40 as easily. Earlier in the season one lone touchdown was all.

The Virginia squad faces the possibility of going stale. Several members of the squad have been kept off the field entirely for days at a time to get them freshened up. They are over-trained and face the possibility of going to pieces.

On the other hand the Tar Heels are in excellent shape. Not a man is injured. Coach Pendleton says that he has never seen a squad in such excellent shape. The team has been trained up to this one game. Everybody is in the pink of condition. All last week the squad scrimmaged hard. Each day showed a wonderful improvement. Bluthenthal's presence has put new life and ginger into every man. A whole series of new plays have been added. Albert Cox says this is superior to any that has gone up against Virginia in the last four or five years. Head Coach Trenchard declares this team knows more football and has a better fighting spirit than any Carolina team in many a day.

The lineup in the back field is not fully decided upon yet. The biggest problem is whether to start Ervin or Parker at Full. Ervin is easily the best line plunger on the squad and Parker is equally excellent on defensive work. Parker weighs 157 pounds 5.10 1-2 in height, 20 years old. This is his first year.

Other likely substitutes are:

	Lbs.	Height	Age
Boshamer T.	164	6.1	3-4
Lord O.	144	5.9	1-2
R. Burnett R. H.	148	5.9	20

Ask those who heard Mrs. Chilton.

On to Richmond!! "Everybody's doing it."

A CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM

Remarkable Tar Heel Record In 1892 Season

Every member of the University of North Carolina football team, champion of the South in 1892, is not only alive but is prosperous 21 years later. By many critics in North Carolina this is considered the most remarkable team ever turned out in the South.

Of that number two have been judges, one has been speaker of the State general assembly, others have developed into physicians and ministers, others into business men and one into one of the foremost chemists in the United States.

The Carolina team of 1892 played three of its hardest games in one week—starting out Wednesday of Thanksgiving week and ending on Saturday of the same week. Fifteen men, including the manager, went on the trip, and not a single substitute got in any of the three games. No player was injured or otherwise incapacitated. Taking into consideration that it won the championship of the South in four days in the same week, that only eleven men played in the three big games, and that all the men are alive and prosperous, the Carolina team of 1892 challenges comparison with any team in the country.

The players are: A. S. Barnard of Asheville, W. A. Devin, J. C. Biggs of Raleigh; W. M. Gibbs of New Bern; J. T. Pugh of Boston; G. R. Little of Pasquotank county; E. M. Snipes, James Kirkpatrick of Greensboro; Walter Murphy of Salisbury; Charles Baskerville of New York City.

The three games are: Defeated Auburn at Atlanta on Wednesday 68 to 0. Defeated Vanderbilt at Nashville Thursday 24 to 0. Defeated Virginia at Atlanta Saturday 26 to 0.—Greensboro Daily News.

Wilson County Club Smoker.

On Thursday night, November 20th, at 10 o'clock, the Wilson County club met in the mission room of the Y. M. C. A. for an hour of good fellowship and feasting. There were fourteen men present together with Prof. M. C. S. Noble, who gave a short interesting talk on the value that friendly association while in college would be to each man after leaving the University. After a brief summary by the president, of the work of the Club, everyone helped himself to the nice spread of good things to eat on the table. For over an hour feasting and pleasant conversation were carried on, everyone present having a most enjoyable time.

The query for debate in the Di Society Saturday night was: Resolved that the National government should own and operate the telephone and telegraph systems. The negative won; E. D. Warrick made the best speech, and W. R. Watson and W. C. Wright deserved honorable mention.

Chemists Loaf Officially.

The Chemistry department has been held almost to an absolute standstill since Wednesday night by the fact that the gas machine went broke. At some time Wednesday night the bolt which holds the controlling weight of the machine stripped its threads. The machine was again put into commission on Monday afternoon, much to the sorrow of the chemists.

"Si" Parker was initiated into Sigma Chi Saturday. "Si" is out of college this year, but was a member to the local which was granted a charter in Sigma Chi.

Mr. Rand, father of Oliver Rand, was on the Hill Sunday.

Amphoteroben has taken in the following men: Kenneth Royal, George Strong, L. B. Gunter and Tom Boushall.

Dr. Herby returned Friday from a visit to Washington D. C., where he has been attending the National Conservation Congress.

RECEIVED WITH APPLAUSE

Mrs. W. C. Chilton at Chapel Last Friday Night.

The second number of the Star Course series given in the chapel Friday night by Mrs. C. Chilton was a attended, and, judging by the applause, greatly enjoyed. Mrs. Chilton's rendition of "Polly of the Circus" here last year is still pleasantly remembered and to this was partly due the large attendance. Mrs. Chilton in beginning expressed her pleasure at having a second engagement in Chapel Hill and then began her rendition of Uncle Remus stories. The fact that Mrs. Chilton followed so closely on Mr. Wyche, who dealt with the same subject matter, added more interest to the entertainment. Mrs. Chilton's imitation of negro dialect was unusually good, and the Brer Rabbit stories which she told kept the audience continually laughing. She briefly traced the life of Joel Chandler Harris from boyhood to old age, telling of his struggles to get an education, his subsequent connection with the small magazine called "The Countryman", and the success which later attended him. The whole intertainment was thoroughly enjoyed.

TWO BASKET BALL GAMES

Freshmen and Juniors Have Easy Pickings.

Class basket ball has opened up with victories for the Juniors and the Freshmen. The Seniors were defeated by the Juniors Friday night by the score of 26 to 0. On Wednesday night the Sophomores scored only two points against the Freshmen's 38. Contrary to what the score would indicate, both games were hard fought and held the interest of the large crowd of spectators. There was a marked absence of rough playing; each game was won by superior team work.
