DANCES A SUCCESS MANY OF THEM NEW

The Girls Have Gone But No "Sad Birds" Seen As Yet On Campus

A NUMBER OF YOUNG ALUMNI ATTEND

Frank Drew With Mrs. P. H. Winston Led Gimghoul Dance. Gorgon's Head Friday Afternoon. George Strong And Miss Julia Manning Led German.

"The old order changeth yielding place to new".

So doth the dance. The square dance and Virginia reel gave way to the waltz and two-step. These skipped and dipped ahead into the Boston. Now we do these with "Hesitation." The Boston, sad to relate, has fallen into the "Kitchen Sink." And you may not believe it, but at every dance we can see a "Lame Duck" or a "Horse Trot." Did you ever see a "Castle Walk" by a "Great Big Blue-Eyed Baby?" The dances were new and strange to Chapel Hill society, but we are glad we made their acquaintance. There was plenty of pep, too, but some thought there was a little "Too Much Mustard."

But take it all in all, frivolity thrown aside, the dances were "Some Smoke." "That Old Girl of Mine" said, "I am 'San Francisco Bound,' but 'Take Me Back, Back, Back to Carolina'". Alas, alas the girls have gone, and left us only "The Curse of An Aching Heart"! The guilty ones are Misses Mary Dortch, Julia Borden, Eunice Borden of Goldsboro; Claudia Lewis and Elise Lloyd of Durham; Julia Manning, Elizabeth Johnson, Betsy John Haywood, and Katherine Crews of Raleigh; Serena Dalton, Margaret Fletcher, Elizabeth Hill, and Mary Horton of Winston-Salem; Cornelia Dowd, Miriam Parker, Evelyn Blake and Anne Dewey Chambers of Charlotte; Alice Noble, Gueda Elliot, Mary Patterson, Christine McIntosh, and Josephine Daniels of Chapel Hill; Laura McGill Cannon of Concord; Kate Northrop of Wilmington; Helen Patterson of Wilson; Anne Henegar of Knoxville, Tenn. Sadie Williams of Augusta, Ga. Helen Julian of Thomasville; Annie Frey of Greensboro; and Josephine Stewart of Savannah, Ga.

The Thursday night dance, given by the Order of Gimghouls, was led by Frank Drew with Mrs. P. H. Winston. The assistant leaders were Lenoir Chambers with Miss Anne Dewey Chambers; and E. J. Lilly with Miss Margaret Fletcher.

The Order of Gorgon's Head gave an informal dance to the faculty and students at their lodge Friday afternoon from four until six.

The final ball given by the German Club on Friday night was led by George Strong with Miss Julia Manning. The assistants were W. C. Lord with Miss Miriam Parker and Avon Blue

LITTLE ABBY DEAD.

Succumbs to Attack of Typhoid at His Home in Charlotte

R. B. Abernathy '15, better known as "Little Ab" in college, a brother of L. L. Abernathy, the captain of this year's football team, died of typhoid fever in Charlotte Tuesday.

Last season Abernathy was fullback on the Varsity, and had been on the squad the year before. This year he played as sub-center. He was a member of his class baseball team.

Wednesday morning in Chapel, after Dr. A. H. Patterson had read the sad telegram telling of "Little Ab's" death, the University Quartetsang "Integer Vitae" with the entire student body standing.

Today at noon the college bell was tolled at the time of the funeral. W. P. Fuller, representing the Junior class and the Varsity football team, went to Charlotte to attend the funeral, which took place Wednesday at noon.

STARRY CONSTELLATION

Initial Performance of Glee Club Well Received.

Last Friday night the Glee Club set forth its wares to the public. Upon the worth of their performance would depend their before-Christmas trip. It must be said that, judging from the concert Friday night, their planned trip should be a striking success.

The work of the club as a whole deserves high praise, but the individual stars go farthest in assuring the success of the organization.

Messrs. Sneath and Meeks made their fame last year and seem to have added to it this year. Of Mr. Epps' rendition of "A Perfect Day" much must be said in commendation. He sang well last year, but this fall sees a great improvement in his voice, his enunciation and tone. He bids fair to be the "song hit" of the State.

Mr. Wright at the violin is the headliner of the club. It should be said that considering age and experience he certainly is a wonderful violin player.

With all this lavish praise it cannot help but be seen that the Glee Club will, this year more than ever, send the name of U. N. C. throughout the State.

The Trip.

The Glee Club leaves Thursday morning for a three-day trip. The cities lucky enough to book our musical organization on this first tour are: Goldsboro, Thursday; Wilson, Friday; and Raleigh, Saturday.

Kenneth Royall has returned from Boston where he attended the annual convention of Delta Kappa Epsilon.

AUTHORITIES CONSIDER NEW RULES

Rules to be Made Identical with Virginia's In Main Points

INTERPRETATION TO BE THE SAME ALSO

Five Months Residence Rule Changed to One Year. October 12th Registration Abolished Entirely. Professional Coaching and Training Table Unmolested.

Actuated by a desire to elevate our system of athletics to an even higher position than they occupy at present, the athletic authorities at the University are considering a new system of rules or regulations governing athletics here at the University. The proposed regulations are, in all important respects, the same as those of the University of Virginia. In fact, the only difference between Virginia's regulations and those proposed for Carolina is on the subject of professional coaches and the training table. Virginia forbids both; Carolina will continue both.

It should be noted that the above are the only differences which can be seen when one reads the two systems. But, in order that there shall be no difference in the interpretation of the rules it is proposed that Carolina's interpretation of each rule be the same as that in use at Virginia.

In contrasting our present system with the proposed one, only a few differences can be found. The academic requirement, that each man shall keep up with his work, remains the same. At present we have the five months residence rule and, until a short time ago, the twelfth of October rule. That means that as we have it now each man, in order to play on a team representing the University, must have attended lectures for five months previous to the game in which he takes a part.

The proposed plan does away with both the five months residence rule and the twelfth of October rule. Instead, the new system proposes a one year's residence rule. That means that every man coming from a college must attend lectures, here at the University, for one year before he can play on a "Varsity" team. It is the same rule as the one year's residence rule now used by Virginia. Virginia would allow a Georgia player of this year to play in the fall of 1914 if he should register at Virginia after Christmas of this year. So will Carolina. It does not mean, however, that a freshman coming from a "Prep" school is not eligible to play on a "Varsity" team, as he is at Princeton, Yale Harvard, and other institutions. Thus it can readily be seen that the proposed rules do not differ to any great extent from those now in use here.

The principal object of the advocates of the proposed rules is to prevent any possible friction

R. M. ROSS WINS DI FINAL

Freshman Final in Phi Contest Next Saturday Night

The Freshman debate in the Di society Saturday night resulted in a well rounded contest between M. M. Williams, J. J. Kirksey, D. V. Carter, and H. D. Sharpe for the affirmative; and R. M. Ross, M. B. Fowler, S. C. Hodgins and C. B. Hyatt for the negative. The negative won. R. M. Ross made the best speech, and was awarded the Society debating pin. The subject debated was, Resolved, "That an amendment to the constitution of North Carolina providing for the initiative and referendum should be adopted." The final contest in the Phi society will come off next Saturday night. The question for debate will be, Resolved, "That the constitution of North Carolina should be amended so as to prohibit compulsory poll tax." The affirmative will be represented by B. J. Lawrence and V. F. Williams, while the negative will be upheld by J. W. Maxwell and Leo Carr.

BASKET BALL BEGINS

Tentative Schedule Issued By Manager Long

With the close of the football season of 1913 all eyes are now turned to basketball. It is a sport that is practically new with the University, having been in vogue here for only a few years, but one that is fast gaining ground.

With the first game coming Saturday night of this week Coach Cartmell and the men under him are working daily in an attempt to perfect themselves and the team work before the team from Elon hits the Hill. Never in the history of basketball at the University has there been such an array of talent as there is this year. There are enough men here to make two whole teams that could clean up the State, and the best part of this is that the majority of these men are either N. C. men or men who have made reputations for themselves at some colleges, Y. M. C. A.'s or prep. schools before coming here. Coach Cartmell believes that the team the University will turn out this year will clean up everybody it happens to run up against.

Elon, with whom the first game is to be played Saturday night, has a strong team. They do not play football and have been practicing basketball all this fall. Last year through some slip or other they beat us. They are coming this year with a stronger team and claim they will make things interesting.

The schedule so far arranged by Manager Cy Long but not yet finally approved, is as follows:

- 1913
Dec. 13 Elon College at Chapel Hill.
Dec. 16 Durham Y. M. C. A. at Chapel Hill.

RALEIGH WINS FROM WILMINGTON HIGH

In Semi-Final For The State Championship Capital City Boys Triumph

GREAT TEAM WORK AND WEIGHT TELL

Raleigh Backfield Stars. Thompson Made Wilmington's Score on Recovered Fumble. Raleigh and Washington play for Championship of State here next Saturday.

"They came; they saw; they conquered." That's Raleigh.

"They came; they saw;" but you can leave off the conquered part. That's Wilmington.

Wilmington and Raleigh High School's met here Saturday to decide among themselves just who was owner of the State High School Championship, and at the end of sixty minutes of good football the Raleigh lads had added up 29 good hard earned points while their opponents could force the pig skin over the goal line but once, and this for six points only. It was four touchdowns and a drop kick to one, but more than anything else it was a victory.

The game, while one sided according to the score, was one of the prettiest seen here this year. Both teams were composed of eleven scrappy men, and the championship of the State was at stake. That was enough. It was sixty minutes of good hard fought, scrappy football with neither side stopping until the game had ceased to be a game.

The one big outstanding feature of the game was the team work put up by the Raleigh crowd. They outweighed their opponents and did not hesitate to take advantage of their weight. They were always on the go. They ripped off twenty here, ten there and uncovered some of the prettiest fake plays that could be imagined. There was football from beginning to end. Wilmington perhaps didn't have the chance to show the work Raleigh put up. They were kept on the defensive at most times and seemed to be troubled with nervousness. Not until the last part of the game did they seem to get to going, and not until the last quarter did their playing equal that of Raleigh.

The first touchdown came after three minutes of play in the first quarter. Raleigh kicked off and Wilmington was held for downs. Bowen was then called on for Raleigh and when he had finished he had zig zagged through the entire Wilmington team and had placed the oval between the up rights for a touchdown. Wilmington again elected to receive, and having gained first down once they kicked. The kick was a bad one though, and Raleigh got the ball on the line of scrimmage. A series of end runs and line bucks carried the ball to Wilmington's ten yard line where Champion carried it over for the second touchdown. Bowen kick-
