

ONE HUNDRED AND SIXTY-FOUR SCHOLARS PREPARE FOR FINAL STRUGGLE

Forty-one Schools Represented. All Arrangements Made for the Great Contest. Every Effort to Entertain Young Visitors

THE TWENTY-TWO YOUNG LADIES ARE ENTERTAINED BY FACULTY AND OTHERS

The final stage is set. The arrangements have all been made down to the smallest detail. Tonight at 7:30 will open the last battle for the Aycock Memorial Cup. Fifteen days ago 150 schools throughout this great Commonwealth were represented by their best in the great second annual elimination for final places. 3,000 people listened to the pros and cons of the initiative and Referendum of the 150 schools, 41 qualified for positions by winning both sides. Two teams of two each will represent each school, making 164 contestants, 22 of these are young ladies. Practically every school is accompanied by a member of the Faculty or a chap-erone.

Representatives from about twelve schools arrived last night and were taken in charge usually by students from their towns or counties. Among those arriving last night was the Manteo team from Roanoke island. E. W. Joyner '13, is a member of this delegation which is composed of four young ladies. If anything were needed to prove the interest the schools are taking in the debate the example of Manteo should be sufficient. In freezing weather and through a driving snow one of the teams, young ladies both of them, drove across Pamlico Sound in an open motor boat and then by conveyance eighteen miles through the country to debate with their opponents. Needless to say, they won.

TWO INTERESTING PAPER

Holmes and Pearson at the Historical Society.

The Historical Society held its regular meeting Monday evening in the Chemistry building. In the absence of the chairman Dr. Hamilton, Mr. Boscman presided over the meeting. Two papers of especial interest to North Carolinians were read.

Mr. Pearson led off with a paper on the Quakers in Wayne. The paper was chiefly interesting because of the fact that Mr. Pearson himself is a Quaker and knew his subject intimately.

The main paper of the evening was read by Jimmie Holmes on his own personal knowledge of the Ku Klux in Alamance. His account was well illustrated with stories told him by personal friends who were actors in the stories they told. He spoke vividly of a man who would not reveal the secrets of the Klan even after being hung three times. Negroes, carpet-baggers, elections, marshal law, and lynchings figured throughout in vivid array. The paper showed intimate knowledge of facts and vital personal interest.

Mr. W. S. Wilkinson, 1887, of Rocky Mount was a visitor on Hill last week.

FRESH WIN TRACK NOT A 1ST. PLACE

Score 38 Points, Sophs Second with 34, Juniors 2

"GOATIE" WRIGHT BROAD JUMPS 22:10

In a fast and interesting meet Monday afternoon, the Freshman Class won first honors with 38 points. The other classes scored as follows: Sophs, 34; Law, 22; Senior, 21; and Junior 2. The meet was in charge of the Varsity track men, under the direction of Manager Whitaker and Captain Sears. The events were run off in "big league" style, and was a marked success from the standpoint both of management and of records.

Among the new men, the most notable showing was made by Oliver Rand, who, after finishing second in Harrison's fast mile, went back in the half-mile and pushed "Ratty" hard for first place. In the hundred yards, Rogers gave promise of developing into a fast sprinter.

It is noticeable that the Freshmen won the meet without winning a single first place. Their victory came by snatching seconds and thirds. The fact that the old men, though not Varsity men, shut out the new men from first places, demonstrates the efficient training that the whole track squad has received for the last two years.

The winners and records are:

High Jump—Graham and Wright tied for first and second places on 5:5; Hoffman, Jones and Jones tied for third.

Mile—Harrison, first; time 4:55 second, Rand; third, C. Sloan.

Shot-put—Axley, first; distance 34:3; second, Ramsey; third, Tomlinson.

100 yards—Wright, first; time 10 3-5; second, Rogers; third, Mebane.

Quarter—McDuffy, first; time 56; second, Graham; third, Petrea Pole vault—Ranson, first; height 9:7; second, Isley; third, Davis.

Low Hurdles—Struthers, first; time 28 4-5; second Hoffman; third, Telfair.

Hammer—Axley, first; distance 110:4; second, Parker; third, Dysart.

Half mile—Ranson, first; time 2:11 1-2; second, Rand; third, H. Sloan.

220 yards—McDuffy, first; time 25; second, Hoffman; third, Taylor.

Discus—Axley, first; distance 90:11; second, Kagle; third, Ramsey.

Broad Jump—Wright, first; distance 22:10; second, Hatcher; third, Hoffman.
