

DAVIDSON IS DOWNED

Red and Black Puts Up Spirited Fight.

CAROLINA TEAM CRIPPLED

Davidson Starts Off Aggressively, But Carolina Comes Back For Victory.

With team battered, and the four mainstays of the defense, Homewood, Fuller, Parker, and Bridges, out of the game, Carolina met Davidson Saturday in Winston-Salem in a lively tussle. Coach Trenchard's statement that he would be satisfied if Carolina made a couple of touchdowns on Davidson proved true, for the score was 16 to 3 in favor of Carolina, and Coach certainly is not wearing a dissatisfied look. In the first half Carolina enthusiasts seemed to show some trepidation lest Davidson's steady team should do what Davidson students had hardly hoped for,—win from the White and the Blue. It is true, Davidson met Carolina plays, and even anticipated them, but while she made four downs, Carolina made fifteen. Although at the outset of the game the Red and Black's desire seemed to be to hold Carolina, they soon gathered determination to score and made a place kick from the 30 yard line. The first half ended with score 3 to 0 in favor of Davidson.

In the second half Carolina came to, and made the two touchdowns that saved the day.

At the end of the first half two yards were all that was needed to score a touchdown, and a fumble by Tayloe after he had already crossed the goal line in the third quarter cut off another. Forward passes played an important part in the game. Winston's 40 yard run for a touchdown being started in this manner. Carolina completed six forward passes and intercepted two more while Davidson completed but four and intercepted only one. On these passes Carolina more than doubled the ground gained by Davidson.

As for those who starred, the choice falls on Tayloe and Winston, while Bob Burnett was on the receiving end of several forward passes. Tandy played his usual steady game and Ramsay repeated history, by breaking through and blocking what might have been a second place kick by Davidson.

The lineup:

CAROLINA	Position	Davidson
Williamson	Right end	Creighton
Gay	Right tackle	Anderson
Jones	Right guard	Vandeventer
Tandy	Center	White

PORTERHOUSE GOING UP

North Carolina Club Expresses Such Sentiment.

The North Carolina Club held its regular fortnightly meeting Wednesday night, November 4, presided over by Professor E. C. Branson, President of the club. Doctor Hamilton and President Graham from the faculty and about one hundred students, members of the county clubs, attended. E. R. Rankin was elected treasurer.

At every meeting of the club one of the members reads a short paper on some economic or civic problem vital to the State. At this meeting J. M. Daniels of the Law class told some facts about "North Carolina's Decreasing Meat Supply." He said in the course of his talk that North Carolina's meat supply is already lamentably low, that she is not producing enough for her own consumption, that tho the South has all the natural facilities desirable for live-stock raising, she is not doing her part—and that if the meat supply continues its rapid decrease portenhouse steak will soon be a dollar or more a pound.

At the close of the meeting there were handed out to those present copies of the "Syllabus of Home-County Club Studies", which presents the purpose of the Club—to study the county and state conditions and problems social, sanitary and economic, and through knowledge thus gained, to offer sympathetic and helpful cooperation. The Syllabus also outlines a plan of county study for those interested in the movement.

Much interest has been aroused by this "Home-County study" movement. Northern men warned Prof. Branson that it would fail, that southern college men would not be interested in the questions he dealt with. "But", said Prof. Branson in closing the meeting, "I shall write to one of those men tonight and tell him that it is succeeding at the University of North Carolina, that tonight a hundred students were at the meeting eager to know and solve the problems of their counties."

The next number of the Star Course will be presented by the Mendelsohns, a quartette of charming young women who will sing and recite.

EUGENE C. BARNETT

Carolina's Representative in the Orient

COLLEGE TO RAISE FUND

Money To Be Raised For Continuation of Mission Work

EUGENE BARNETT

In 1912 there went out from Chapel Hill to Hangchow one of the choicest spirits that was ever on this campus. In the two years that he was secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association and graduate student in the University he was heartily adopted into the family of loyal Carolina men. He is now representing the faculty and students of the University at a great student centre in China, working mightily for Christ and the more abundant life in the new China. Barnett was personally chosen for this strategic post by Mr. John R. Mott.

Hoke Black as chairman of the Barnett fund is conducting a campaign to raise $500 for his support. He is eager that every man have a share in Barnett's great work among the students at Hangchow.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT RESULTS

Capehart Wins One Varsity Place. Other Not Yet Decided.

The finals of the tennis tournament were played last week. Winston forfeited to Jernigan. In the semi-finals Rutledge beat Herty 2-6, 6-4, 6-1, and Capehart beat Jernigan 6-1, 6-4.

In the finals Capehart beat Rutledge 6-0, 6-1, 6-1. Rutledge did not play his usual good game. This tournament put Capehart on the Varsity. Rutledge must now play all those Capehart has played in order to make the other place on the team.

Tubby Walk, who on account of injuries at the time the tournament started, did not enter and will challenge the two who win out in the contests for a varsity position.

The High School Football Contest ends on Nov. 14th.

A MEMORIAL TO DAVIE

Daughters of the Revolution Present Granite Seat.

The Davie Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution presented to the University, Tuesday afternoon under the old Davie Poplar, a granite seat as a memorial to General William R. Davie. President Graham accepted it on the part of the University.

The bench is suggestive of General Davie's connection with the establishing of the University. It is said that while looking for a site upon which to build the college, he stopped one day under the poplar which now bears his name, to lunch. The spot was so attractive that he decided further search was unnecessary. Thus the University site was selected.

About three hundred people formed a semicircle around the granite seat still veiled—some two hundred students and one hundred ladies, about half of whom were delegates from the different chapters of the D. A. R. of this State.

At 4:45 Dr. Moss began the exercises with a prayer. Miss Wiley of Durham then made a short opening speech. Mrs. Reynolds of Winston-Salem, President of the D. A. R. of North Carolina, presented with a few appropriate words the memorial to the University. President Graham expressed the University's "grateful appreciation of the generous and discriminating patriotism" of the Chapter. The crowd sang "My Country 'Tis of Thee", "Hark the Sound", and "The Old North State". Led by Charlie Coggin the students present gave a big Boomeray for the D. A. R., and a split Carolina for the Davie Chapter. The memorial was unveiled by Sonny Graham and a little boy from Durham.

In his speech of acceptance President Graham said: "William Richardson Davie for his soldierly courage, his comprehensive statesmanship, and his intelligent patriotism is a figure that this institution, rich in traditions of service throughout the nation's history, joyfully honors. . . . We accept in grateful appreciation at the hands of the Davie Chapter, devoted as it is to the preservation of inspiring memories, this memorial to a truly heroic man. We shall always cherish it not only as a reminder of our great benefactor, but of your discriminating patriotism."

The seat will remain under the Davie Poplar.

Dr. Graham's Inauguration.

As was decided at a meeting of the Executive committee of the University in Raleigh recently, the inauguration of Dr. Graham as President of the University will take place in Chapel Hill sometime during the coming April. The exact date has as yet not been definitely decided upon.

TEAM HARD AT WORK

Hard Scrimmages Characterize Work.

V. M. I. HAS FAST TEAM

Game Saturday Will Afford Sport to Lovers of Football.

Those who have watched football practice all during the season can notice that the squad is now practicing longer and harder than it has any time this fall. The coaches are anxious that the men get over the slump which came between the Georgia and Vanderbilt games. The practice Tuesday was the best of the season so far. It is very difficult to get full Varsity and Scrub teams out by four o'clock more than twice a week because a great many of the men have laboratories.

Homewood, Wright, Bridges, Fuller, Gilman, and very probably Ervin and Hines will not play in the game Saturday. They have as yet not fully recovered from injuries, and the policy of the coaches is not to play a man unless he is in good condition.

Tayloe and Tandy are practicing dropkicking and are showing improvement. Foust is punting better, and as his physical condition is improving, will be making a hard fight for right tackle by Thanksgiving. At end Williamson is playing the best game after Winston, Homewood, and Wright, although Love is pushing him very hard. Allen is getting in good shape, and will start the V. M. I. game at quarterback. Long is improving, but his principal weakness lies in the fact that he has not had enough experience to enable him to judge his opponents' weakness and give plays to take advantage of them. Tayloe is going well at halfback. Since Hines has been out of the game with a charlie horse, Burnett has been playing right halfback and will start the game Saturday. Ervin showed up well in practice last week but is worried by a sore knee. Reid starts well and is gradually overcoming his tendency to trip and fall. He is making a close fight with Parker for fullback. Both are good on defense. Pope has shown great improvement this week at fullback and if he keeps up the pace, will have to be reckoned with before Thanksgiving. Tayloe, J. is showing up well at guard. Jones, J. who is now suffering from minor injuries, although he is light, is playing a heady game. Andrews is big and strong and is fighting hard. Hambley, who is improving in condition and in playing, will give somebody a warm contest for right tackle. Tennent is strong and has plenty of ayy, but lacks fight unless pushed hard by opponents. Valley has
