WAKE FOREST SUCCUMBS

Fast and Close Game Ends in Victory For Carolina

In one of the fastest and hardest fought games seen at Wake Forest in a long time Carolina defeated Wake Forest by the score of 1 to 0. The teams, according to the box score, were very evenly matched. Shields and Ellis both pitched good ball. Ellis allowed seven hits, while Shields allowed just four. Ellis got two of the four hits garnered on Shields. Both pitchers pitched air-tight ball, especially when men were on the bases.

The fielding of both teams was good—Trust making the only serious bobble when he fell down while going after what seemed an easy out. It was in the third inning. Bailey led off with a single, Lewis bunted and Bailey went to second on the play. Shields hit to Ellis and Bailey was forced out at third. Honig hit a high fly to center. Just as Trust turned to go after the ball he fell, Lewis scoring.

Wake Forest made several attempts to tie the score, but could not hit Shields when a man was on base. In the eighth, Ellis singled and Trust hit between left and center for two bases. Ellis was tagged out at the plate. Trust died on second when Billings fanned.

Carolina was guilty of just one error and that was harmless. The team fielded in mid-season form. Captain Woodall checked every attempt to pilfer a base and also got his hit. Zollicoffer made a brilliant catch off Hensley's bat, which looked good for three bases. Pope and Patterson led in the hitting, each one getting two hits.

Left fielder Lee of Wake Forest broke his finger while warming up before the game.

THE JUNIOR WEEK PLANS

Schedule Completed For Four Unprecedented Days

The final schedule for Junior Week has been completed and is as follows: Wednesday: Junior Oratorical Contest in Gerrard Hall at 8:00 P. M.; Dance given by the Order of Ginghamals at 9:00 o'clock.

Thursday: Class stunts, starting at 10:30 A. M.; Dance given by the Order of the Gorgon's Head 4:00 P. M.; Senior stunt in Gerrard Hall at 8:00 P. M.; Junior Prom at 10:00 P. M.

Friday: Baseball game with Bingham of Asheville at 3:30 P. M.; High School Debate 8:00 P. M.; German Club dance at 9:30 P. M.

Saturday: Baseball game, Carolina vs. Virginia in Greensboro.

The Faculty have granted two holidays, Thursday and Friday, the eighth and ninth of April; and these two days will be fully taken up, according to the schedule. The Senior Stunt advertisements have been posted several days, and have succeeded in arousing the curiosity of the campus to a high pitch. It is understood that the Stunt will take the form of a musical comedy, which is an entirely new wrinkle in the realm of Senior Stuntdom. The performance will start promptly at 8:00 o'clock. Permission has been granted the Juniors to continue their prom until 2:00 o'clock instead of 1:00, in view of the fact that these two entertainments come on the same night.

There will be sixty or seventy young ladies here for the dances, and a goodly number for the high school debate. The Sigma Nu and Kappa Sigma fraternities will have house-parties. Grainer's orchestra from Wilmington has been secured to play for the dances.

The various class stunts, which will take place Thursday morning, are being rounded into form, but nothing has been disclosed as their nature yet. There is, however, every assurance that they will be novel and entertaining.

To make use of a phrase frequently heard, "Junior Week will be there."

Those in charge of the Junior Prom request that tickets be purchased early instead of the day of the dance. Everybody except Freshmen are eligible. Tickets may be secured from J. G. Cowan, F. O. Clarkson, and W. B. Cobb.

Two-base hit—Trust.
Sacrifice hits—Ellis.
Base on balls, off Shields 3; off Ellis 1.
Struck out by Shields 8, by Ellis 5.
Left on bases, Carolina 3, Wake Forest 4.

THE RECENT CLASS GAMES

Unusually Good Baseball Talent Shown by Classes

The Freshmen won a poorly played game from the Seniors Wednesday by the margin of one run. The fielding of both teams was exceedingly ragged, each making seven errors.

Hines and Blount, the opposing pitchers, each showed good stuff, but both were wild. Both teams were weak at bat, few safe hits being made.

Practically all the runs came as a result of errors, only one being earned. The Seniors had a good chance to tie the score in the ninth, but a pretty peg from left field caught the runner at the plate.

Fresh	4	4	7
Seniors	3	5	7

Batteries: Hines and Davis; Blount and Pou.
Umpire: Proctor.

Class Baseball

Thursday the Juniors overwhelmingly defeated the Sophomores in a regular "back alley" game of baseball. After the game, the score was found to be 21 to 8 in favor of the Juniors, although some said the score was larger. The Sophomores used six pitchers or "would be" pitchers. Home runs, three baggers, and errors featured the game.

Juniors	22	20	13
Sophs	8	6	9

Batteries: Plyler and Love; Cambell, Smith, Andrews, Proctor, Burnette, Bacon and Bacon.

Sophs Win 9 to 5

The rejuvenated Sophomores came back last Saturday and put one over the Freshmen. Campbell pitched the first four innings and held 1918 to two runs. The famous Ratty then went in and pitched good ball. The losers started a rally in the ninth that scored three runs, but a good peg to third cut the rally short. Hines pitched good ball for his team but was given bad support.

Sophs	9	9	3
Fresh	5	7	5

Batteries: Campbell, Ranson and Bacon. Hines and Clark.

The Order of the Gorgon's Head will be at home to the Faculty and students at their lodge Thursday afternoon April 8, from 4 to 6 at an informal dance.

Prof. Zebulon V. Judd will attend the Conference for Education in the South at Chattanooga on April 23-30. He will be one of the chief speakers.
