VOL. 24 UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA, CHAPEL HILL, N. C., THURSDAY, JANUARY 8, 1916 NO. 16

CAROLINA TRACK SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED

Contains Five Meets All With Southern Colleges

The Carolina track schedule has been announced by Manager Hackler. It consists of five meets two of which will take place in Chapel Hill. Carolina will open her season when she meets Clemson college early in April and will close it when she enters the S. I. A. A. meet, which will be held in Richmond about the first of May. The other two colleges that Carolina will meet are Washington & Lee and V. P. I., while the state meet will take place in Chapel Hill near the end of April.

The University track team has an unusual amount of good material this year. Among the men who won their letters either this year or last year are Captain Patterson, who runs the quarter mile; Smith, a 220-yard dash man; Johnston, who runs the 100-yard dash; Homewood, a pole vaulter; Ramsay, a shot putter, and Wright, who broke the state broad jump record last year. Gantt, who did excellent work on the University of Virginia track team last year as a long distance runner, is at Carolina now and is expected to show up well in the spring. Little interest is shown in track activities on the Hill, because since Coach Cartmell left two years ago there has been no regular track coach at the university.

The track schedule for this season is as follows:

Clemson college at Clemson college, April 8th.

Washington & Lee at Chapel Hill, April 15.

V. P. I. at Blacksburg, April 22.

State meet at Chapel Hill, April 29.

S. I. A. A. at Richmond in May.

MARRY DURING HOLIDAYS

Chesley Sedberry Weds Miss Brigman of Rockingham

The biggest social surprise of the Christmas season to the students of the University, was the discovery on their return to the Hill that one of their number, Mr. Chesley Sedberry, an associate editor of the Tar Heel and a member of the class of '18 had married Miss Lottie Brigman of Rockingham. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride on Monday January 3 at 12 o'clock, after which the young couple went to Raleigh where they spent several days before coming to Chapel Hill. They have taken rooms at the University Inn, and Mr. Sedberry will continue to pursue his college work.

The Y. M. C. A. will have a discussion meeting Tuesday night at 7 o'clock. The subject will be interesting.

BASKETBALL SCHEDULE HAS 16 MORE GAMES

Five of These on the Hill; Only One Game with Virginia

The Carolina basketball schedule for this season, with the exception of the first two games with the Durham Y. M. C. A., which have been played, is as follows:

January 10, Elon College at Chapel Hill.

January 12, Statesville Y. M. C. A. at Chapel Hill.

January 15, Wake Forest at Raleigh.

February 3, Maryville (Tenn.) at Chapel Hill.

February 7, Virginia at Richmond.

February 8, V. P. I. at Roanoke, Va.

February 9, Roanoke College at Salem, Va.

February 10, Randolph-Macon at Bedford, Va.

February 11, Washington-Lee at Lexington, Va.

February 12, Virginia Military Institute at Lexington, Va.

February 16, Davidson at Chapel Hill.

February 19, open.

February 24, Guilford at Guilford.

February 25, Statesville Y. M. C. A. at Statesville.

February 26, Davidson at Statesville.

March 1, Guilford at Chapel Hill.

This schedule contains 16 games five of which are to be played on the Hill. The first one of these five comes on Monday, the tenth of this month.

CAROLINA TO MEET HARVARD

Harvard on Next Year's Football Schedule, and Probably Princeton

The University football team, in playing Harvard on October 14, takes a stand among the greater eastern colleges which, hitherto, has been closed to all Southern teams except Virginia. And in addition to playing Harvard, according to information received from graduate manager Woolen, a contract with Princeton will probably be closed by the end of the week. The schedule itself still lacks two or three games of being completed. Two weeks is the time set by the graduate manager for the announcement of a completed schedule.

To play Harvard on October 14 means, of course, that there will be no varsity game at Chapel Hill on University Day—October 13.

Among other colleges which Carolina will face on the gridiron next year are: Virginia, Georgia Tech., Wake Forest, V. M. I., Davidson and Richmond College. The management is trying now to arrange a game with the University of South Carolina.

The trip to Cambridge, Mass., where Carolina will meet Harvard on the latter's home grounds will be the longest single trip ever taken by a Carolina team.

THEIR HOLIDAY ACTIVITIES

How and Where The Faculty Spent Christmas

The Christmas holidays found members of the faculty of the University spending their vacation in various cities, some at their homes and others attending some special meeting or convention.

Doctors Foerster and Dargan attended a meeting of the Modern Language Association in Cleveland, O., at which meeting Mr. Dargan presented a paper on "The Irony of Swift."

Dr. W. M. Dey was in Norfolk, Va. visiting relatives.

Doctors J. M. Booker and H. V. P. Wilson were both in Baltimore, spending the holidays with relatives.

The University was well represented at the American Scientific Congress in Washington. Pres. Graham addressed the Educational Division, Dr. Herty was a speaker of the Chemical Division and Dr. Raper was one of the speakers of the Economical Division. Dr. J. G. deR. Hamilton attended a meeting of the American Historical Association at Washington, D. C.

Representatives from the faculty were also in attendance at the meeting in New York of the National Collegiate Athletic Association. Dr. Vernon Howell, Mr. C. T. Woolen, who was also in Boston, Mr. A. H. Patterson and Mr. F. P. Graham, now a student at Columbia University were at this meeting. Dr. C. H. Herty was elected representative for the 3rd district.

Dr. George Howe was in Princeton, N. J. to attend a meeting of the American Philological Association.

DR. HERTY HONORED

Re-elected President of The American Chemical Society

Dr. C. H. Herty has been re-elected President of the American Chemical Society. This is an unusual honor as it is not the custom of the society to reelect its president. During the past year Dr. Herty has been working for closer cooperation between the universities and the industries, and has urged the importance of national self-containment in chemical industries.

For several years the Mason and Dixon line has seemed to be impassable, and Carolina has been forced to content itself with a northern trip to Washington, D. C., with Georgetown as its opponent.—News and Observer.

CAROLINA vs. ELON ON JANUARY 10th

Massey, Elon's Star Guard, Here. Tandy May Be in the Game

The Carolina basketball squad started training in earnest upon arrival on the Hill from the Christmas vacation. Yank Tandy, last year's center, and Massey, star guard on the Elon team last year, have reported to Coach Doak. The squad now numbers twenty. The scrub aggregation is much faster than that of any previous year and is giving the team the opportunity to play real ball.

The season really starts next Monday with the Elon quintette, which has been a strong opponent for several years. The probable lineup for Carolina will be as follows:

Forwards—Johnson, Scruggs, Long.

Center—Tandy, Long, Holding.

Guards—R. Tennent, Andrews, R. Davis.

PROFESSIONALISM DISCUSSED

N. C. A. A. Agitates Problem. University Men There

Many facts of interest to the world of college athletics were brought forth to public view when the National Collegiate Athletic Association met at the Hotel Astor, New York, December 29th. After a morning spent in listening to the discussion of the ideals of college sport, the two hundred and more delegates spent the afternoon learning of the accomplishments in athletics throughout the length and breadth of the land. Representatives of 158 institutions were present, including Mr. Chas. T. Woolen, Dr. Vernon Howell and Professor C. H. Herty from Carolina.

The purpose of the meeting was set forth by Dean L. R. Briggs, of Harvard, who acted as president of the convention. It was, briefly, the betterment of intercollegiate athletics. Many addresses were made and opinions exchanged by professors from widely different sections of the country.

The chief talk was made by Ex-President William H. Taft as the representative from Yale, where he is professor of Law. Mr. Taft has always kept up an interest in athletics since his Harvard days, forty years ago.

The chief subjects discussed
