TEAM PLAYS HARVARD AT CAMBRIDGE TODAY

ONLY FEW SLIGHT INJURIES RECEIVED IN GAME WITH PRINCETON

HOMEWOOD IS COACHING ENDS

Brisk Practice Held at Cambridge Friday Morning and Afternoon—Team Will be Here Monday at 10:30 A. M.

The work of the squad during the early part of the week was rather light, in order that the men might have time to thoroughly recuperate from the hard battle with the Princeton team last Saturday. None of the players were hurt save for a slightly strained muscle here and there. Doctor Lawson pronounced them all in good shape before they left for Harvard. A few changes were made in the line-up of the varsity. Tennent is being tried out at halfback and seems to be in his right place. His work in the Princeton game shows him to be able, on account of his weight and drive, to hit the line hard and to take the punishment both on offense and defense. Crawford is playing right tackle and Ramsey right end on offense, and the reverse on defense. Ramsey and Tayloe both have consistently shown their ability in getting down under punts, and the change makes it more difficult for the opposing team to gain ground by running back punts. This change is, however, merely a trial.

Coleman and Folger are improving the height and distance of their kicks, giving the ends plenty of time to get down. Both these men punted well in the Princeton game, Coleman toward the end of the game handled a bad pass behind our goal line and pulled off a kick that was close to sixty yards. The whole team is getting more drive and are going well.

The team left for Harvard last Wednesday night. They boarded a special car at Durham and arrived at New York at 12:47 P. M. Leaving there at three o'clock they got to Boston at 8:43 P. M. Thursday. They spent the night at the

DR. BATTLE DESCRIBES CEREMONIES IN LAYING OF FIRST CORNERSTONE

The sweetgums and dogwoods and maples were relieving with their russet and golden hues the general green of the forest. A long procession of people for the first time is marching along the narrow road, afterwards to be widened into a noble avenue. Many of them are clad in the striking, typical insignia of the Masonic Fraternity, their Grand Master arrayed in the full decorations of his rank. They march with military tread, because most of them have seen service, many scarred with wounds of horrid war. Their faces are serious, for they feel that they are engaged in a great work. They are proceeding to lay the foundations of an institution which for weal or woe is to shape the minds of thousands of unborn children; whose influence will be felt more and more, ever widening and deepening as the years roll on, as one of the great forces of civilization.—Dr. Battle's History.

QUERY FOR HIGH SCHOOL DEBATING UNION CHOSEN

"Resolved, that the Federal Government should own and operate the railways," is the query recently announced by the committee of the High School Debating Union for the 1917 contest.

The contest this year will be conducted in accordance with the same general plan that has been followed in previous years. The High schools entering the contest will be arranged into groups of three for triangular debates. Each school will furnish two teams of two members each, one team to uphold the affirmative side, and the other to defend the negative. Any school that wins both its debates will be entitled to send both teams to the University, when the best affirmative and the best negative team will be selected, by means of preliminary contests, to debate in Memorial Hall for the Aycock Cup.

The first part of April, the date for the final contest at Chapel Hill will mark the fifth year of the Debating Union's existence. In the four contests that have been held since 1913, Pleasant Garden, Winston-Salem, Wilson, and Graham have been the winners. Last year 1300 high school students representing 325 schools participated in the contests, and it is estimated that 80,000 people of this state listened to the discussions of these debaters. This year the committee is confident that there will be fully 350 schools enrolled in the Union.

The first University Sermon of the series of 1916-1917 will be delivered in the Chapel of the University on Sunday, October 15, at 11 o'clock A. M., by Rev. N. H. D. Wilson, of Goldsboro, N. C., of the Methodist Church.

Mr. Wilson is a Carolina man, a member of the class of 1886. He is a devoted son of the University and has rendered his Alma Mater efficient service.

He has held the office of Presiding Elder and has served many important churches.

U. N. C. CELEBRATES 123rd ANNIVERSARY

PRINCETON 29 CAROLINA 0

FAST WORK OF TIGER MACHINE TOO MUCH FOR TAR HEEL ELEVEN

Carolina lost to Princeton last Saturday 29 to 0 in a game which was marked by good playing on the part of Carolina and superior playing on the part of Princeton. The score at the end of the first quarter was 12 to 0 and it looked as if the Tar Heels were gaining favor in the game—but the remaining three quarters were marked by rapid plays of Haas, Brown, Eddy, Funk and others of the Princeton back field. ## A WILSON-BICKETT CLUB FORMS AT CHAPEL HILL

Hon. Victor S. Bryant, of Durham, spoke here last Wednesday before a large group of students and townspeople interested in forming a Wilson-Bickett Club. Mr. Bryant outlined the work and achievements of the Democratic Party in North Carolina—starting as far back as the Reconstruction days and bringing it up to the present campaign.

The club was organized with a membership of about 200. Frank Hackler was elected president; Hugh Hester, vice-president; and Clinton K. Hughes, secretary and treasurer.

Dr. Edwin Mims of Vanderbilt University Delivers Address

EX PRESIDENT TAFT MAY COME HERE IN DECEMBER

If nothing unforeseen happens Chapel Hill is going to have the pleasure of another visit by Ex-President William Howard Taft during the first week of December. He will be in the State about that time, and arrangements have been made to have him come to the University and deliver a lecture. Mr. Taft is kindly remembered here by all who heard him two years ago, when he delivered a series of lectures on "The Duties of the American Executive." He is a man of charming personality and an interesting speaker, as well as an undisputed authority on the responsibilities of citizenship and duties of the presidency. The University community will be glad to welcome Mr. Taft back again.

Y. M. C. A. RESUMES WORK IN NEGRO NIGHT SCHOOLS

The negro work carried on by the Y. M. C. A. here began Monday night with the first meeting of the negro night school at the colored Y. M. C. A. on Cameron Avenue. Brief meetings lasting about forty-five minutes are now held every night except Saturday and Sunday. The subjects taught are arithmetic, history, English, debating and hygiene. The following students are assisting in the teaching: Alfred Lindau, Theodore Rondthaler, William Boyd, Parkhill Jarvis, Roland McClamrock, Herman Stephenson and Robert Wunsch.

The negro Y. M. C. A. gave an oyster supper and "possum stew" Thursday night to pay expenses this fall.

FRED FARTHING ELECTED CAPTAIN OF TRACK TEAM

On account of Johnny Johnson's failure to return to Carolina, the track squad was left without a captain. This vacancy has recently been filled by the election of Fred Farthing.

Captain Farthing urges all new men to go out every afternoon and work, since the one year rule does not apply to track.

There will be a cross-country meet with A. and M. this fall and more material is needed to pick from. No coach has yet been decided upon, but the track is open to men after five o'clock and plenty of roads are available for long distance work.

There are only two hard boys in this whole community, and Hugh Dortch is both of them. Joe Conger and Grey Graham dispute his title, however.

"IMAGINATION" ITS PLACE IN OUR LIFE AND THINKING IS THEME OF SPEAKER

MANY MESSAGES ARE RECEIVED FROM ALUMNI IN THIS AND OTHER STATES

With Dr. Edwin Mims, of Vanderbilt University, as the principal speaker, the annual University Day exercises were held in Memorial Hall on Thursday morning in celebration of the 123rd birthday of the University. The celebration was made especially notable by the return to the University of the cornerstone plate of the first building, erected in 1793, which disappeared soon after the Civil War. It was found in Clarksville, Tenn., by an alumnus of the University, who returned it just in time for the celebration. Grand Master A. B. Andrews, of Raleigh, presented it in behalf of the Masons, who originally placed it in the cornerstone.

The exercises began at 10:45, when the procession of students in double file, headed by the band, started from the Alumni Building toward Memorial Hall. Just opposite the Old West Building the line opened to the right and left and allowed the faculty members to pass through. The crowds of students and visitors pouring into the large auditorium soon filled most of its seats.

After the invocation by Rev. W. D. Moss and the singing of the University hymn, President Graham arose to introduce the speaker. "We welcome Dr. Mims to the University," said the President, "not alone because of his national reputation as a writer, but also because of the love we bear him as a former member of this institution. We honor him as a scholar, as a teacher, and as a man of letters, but we rejoice to have him here as a friend."

Dr. Mims in opening his address declared that he did not intend to discuss the European war or the function of the University, or to attempt to solve the social political, or educational problems of the nation; but that he would speak on a very concrete subject: "The Imagination: Its Place in Our Life and Thinking."

In the outset he tried to free his hearers from the notion that imagination is mere "fancy, or poetry, or moonshine." "I maintain that it is one of the regal powers of the mind, that a man of imagination holds the key to many of our most vital needs and problems, that the cultivation of the various forms if imagination is one of the primal needs of the individual and of society." To enforce his belief
