NO NEED TO WORRY

In these days when the dogs of war are snapping at our heels, when military training and mobilization seem to be the next steps, and when the war problem is becoming an intensely personal question of what part you yourself are going to take in it, it is reassuring to learn that there is no need to worry. The following is the philosophy of the French soldier, which Life found in Miss Kathleen Burke's White Road to Verdun and reprinted; but isn't it worth re-reprinting?

Of two things one is certain, Either you're mobilized or you're not mobilized;
If you're not mobilized, why, there is no need to worry.
If you are mobilized, of two things you are certain, Either you're behind the lines or on the front.
If you're behind the lines there is no need to worry;
If you're on the front, of two things one is certain, Either you're resting in a safe place or you're on the front.
If you're behind the lines why worry?
If you're exposed to danger, of two things one is certain, Either you're wounded seriously or you're wounded slightly.
If you're wounded slightly there is no need to worry,
And if you're wounded seriously of two things one is certain, Either you recover or you die.
If you recover there is no need to worry;
If you die you can't worry.

THE MISSING LINK

Carolina has entered upon a new era in athletics. We have just beaten Virginia in basketball for the first time in our history, but this was no surprise to us. We have an excellent opportunity to make it a clean sweep this year with the gym and track teams going good, the debating up to the usual standard, and the base ball team in fine shape. The next thing to be considered is the student body. Are the students doing their share? Of course we all want these teams to win and when questioned in regard to their attitude they are all there. But when it comes to an actual point of yelling they sometimes lay down on the job. This, it seems to me, was the case at the Davidson basketball game. Except for a few short periods during this game, the silence was oppressive and as a consequence the team did not display the brilliant work, which it has shown since. It is the general opinion on the campus that we could lick them any time, and it is so. The increase of spirit was quite noticeable in the V. P. I. game. Say! do you remember the result? Then came the strong V. M. I. bunch who had beaten the big V quintette. At this game the band was on hand and every one had lots of "pep." Result—we beat them to death. After the 35-24, no need to mention the game, a big bon-fire was built and some two hundred of the thousand who should have been there, displayed "some pep." Carolina is coming into her own, 7 to 0, 35 to 24, and what shall it be next? We have the teams. All we need is lots of "pep." With the student body full of the old time ginger we can't be beat. "Give 'em hell, Carolina."

NEW BOOKS NOW IN LIBRARY

Five hundred and thirty new books have been received by the Library between January 1 and February 8, and because of the interest shown in the last review article some of the most noteworthy novels are mentioned:

Wells, H. G.—Mr. Britling Sees it Through.

McFee, William — Casuals of the Sea.

Wharton, Edith—Xingu.

Locke, W. J.—Wonderful Lear.

Tarkington, Booth — Penrod and Sam.

Tarkington, Booth—Seventeen.

Galsworthy, John — The Free-lands.

Harris, Corra—Circuit Rider's Widow.

Sedgwick, A. D.—The Encounter.

Tagore, Rabindranath — Hungry Stones.

Lagerlof, Selma — Emperor of Portugallia.

Bennett, Arnold—Lion's Share.

Bennett, Arnold — Price of Love.

Shaw, G. B.—Androcles and the Lion.

Masefield, John—Locked Chest.

Herivien, Paul—Trail of the Torch.

Sudermann, Hermann — Norituri.

Hauptman, Gerhardt — Parsival.

Galsworthy, John—A Sheaf.

Maeterlinck, Maurice — Wrack of the Storm.

Tagore, Rabindranath — Fruit Gathering.

Tagore, Rabindranath — Stray Birds.

Crothers, S. M.—Pleasures of an Absentee Landlord.

In biography, the very interesting O. Henry Biography of Dr. C. Alphonso Smith which has been so widely criticised and praised has arrived. Many other biographies have just come, among which are H. J. Ford's Woodrow Wilson and Bradford's Portrait, of Women.

Students who attended Dr. Spingarn's lectures will be particularly interested in the two books of Benedetto Croce—Philosophy of Vice and the Philosophy of Hegel. These are what some of the students, who "take" philosophy, call "deep." It must be confessed that to understand them, they must be very carefully read, but those who are interested in the new movement in literary criticism will undoubtedly be fully repaid by a thorough study of Grace.

(To be Continued)

Mr. A. R. Williams, General Secretary of the Baraca-Philathea State Convention, will speak to the Baptist Baraca Class Sunday morning the 4th at 9:45 and to a joint meeting of Baracas and Philatheas at the Christian Church Sunday afternoon at 3:30.

SPRING FOOTBALL PRACTICE DRAWS OUT A GOOD CROWD

Spring training for football started off last Monday with plenty of ginger and snap, in spite of the hot weather. Forty candidates—a record spring squad—got out suits and reported to Coach Campbell on the field behind the South Building. The fact that most of the men who reported goes to show the interest the new class has already taken in Virginia's downfall.

The coach, assisted by a few letter men of last season's team, have been drilling the men in the ground principles of the pigskin game. Falling on the ball, tackling the dummy, forward passing and light signal practice have been on the program each day. Friday light line tackling and a short scrimmage was held, the field being too wet to stand much work.

There are candidates out for every position, those trying for backfield positions being slightly greater in numbers. The practice will probably continue until the hot weather makes it too hard on the men.

SINGERS MAY STROLL AGAIN

Rumors are abroad that the "Merrie Musicians" or—as the Tar Heel facetiously styled them two weeks ago—"those good looking fellows" are to stroll forth to Greensboro on the night of the Virginia baseball game to give a joint concert with the Normal warblers.

This is an innovation in this state. Harvard and Yale have been doing it for years, but this is the first time it has been done here. The boys will be called on for extra orchestra numbers and some more songs. The orchestra will play a group of Moskowski's Spanish Dances, and numbers by Grieg, Tschakoff, and a Mozart Overture. Vocal numbers added will be a couple of songs by Mendelssohn.

The Normal's side of the program has not yet been announced.

A BOULEVARD TO CHAPEL HILL

Since our prospects for getting an interurban from Durham to Chapel Hill any time in the near future seems to have vanished into thin air, the people of the two towns should be especially interested in Dr. Pratt's efforts to get a model boulevard between the two places. Dr. Pratt is trying to have the state furnish a part of the labor for the grading. Then he will induce manufacturers of paving material to furnish pavement for exhibition purposes. It is understood the Chapel Hill man has secured the promise of co-operation of many of the manufacturing enterprises. The fact that a good roads institute is held in Chapel Hill every year, when many engineers from all parts of North Carolina gather to study road improvement and pavements, will make the manufacturing concerns especially interested in getting their products before the men who will be very largely in charge of the construction of good roads.—Ex.

PROPOSITION IN AUTOMOBILE GEOMETRY

An automobile is the shortest distance between two points.

The price of a whole automobile is twenty-one times more than the sum of the price of its parts.

All automobiles are not the same automobile, for if they were, then automobile agents would have nothing to talk about, which assumption is absolutely absurd.

IF some folks changed their own temp'rments they'd be better satisfied with those of their neighbors'.

A neighborly idea—pass your tin of VELVET.
