QUINT ENDS SEASON BY WINNING THREE GAMES

WINS FROM GUILFORD, DAVIDSON, U. S. C.—EACH GAME SHOWS ADVANCE IN TEAM

A SPECTACULAR SPURT WINS ONE

First Game Listless—Fast and Exciting Game Snatched from Davidson—Lynch Stars—S. C. Smothered by Tar Heel Teamwork and Speed

Returning from a hard trip on which three games were lost, the Carolina quint closed the season on the home court with three straight victories, winning from Guilford, Davidson and South Carolina. Each game showed a decided advance of the team over the last. The Davidson game was a beautiful exhibition of fast, aggressive playing. In the South Carolina game the 'varsity showed more dash than in any game of the season and easily piled up 32 points to their opponents' 3 in the first half.

In a slow and listless game Carolina defeated the Guilford College quintet by the score of 31 to 10. Carolina seemed to have difficulty in finding herself, especially during the first half. Her passing in this half was poor, and her inability to handle the ball cost her several goals.

The team played better during the second half, but the team-work which downed Georgia was lacking. During the last ten minutes of play both teams played bang-up ball.

Groome played the best game for Guilford. Guilford's guarding was good. The line-up:

Carolina	Position	Guilford
Carmichael	.....	Zachary
L. F.
Lynch	.....	Jones
R. F.
Liipfert	.....	Groome
C.
Cuthbertson	.....	Riddick
R. G.
Tennent	.....	Newlin
L. G.

Field goals: Carmichael 2, Lynch 4, Liipfert 2, Tennent 2, Zachary 3, Groome 5.

Fouls: Lynch, 5 out of 10; Jones, 3 out of 8. Referee, Carrington.

A successful spurt in the last ten minutes of play gave the Carolina quint a 28-22 victory over Davidson College last Thursday.

The game was a beautiful exhibition of pretty passing on the part of the home five, and of successful dribbling and shooting on the part of the Davidson team. King, right forward for the visitors, was responsible for 16 of their 22 points. He shot equally well with either hand and put up the best game for Davidson.

The Carolina team regained its form for the first time since the Georgia game. The passing was fast and accurate and the shooting was much improved. With the score 17-13 against them the end of the first half, the home boys went in and held the visitors to two field goals for the whole of the second half. Lynch found the basket with great accuracy during the game, and the ball was "fed" to him throughout. He obtained ten field

Smiling Spring Lures Many Men to Track

Team Must Be Picked from Plentiful and Promising Raw Material—List of Candidates Given—Schedule Is Being Arranged

With the advent of spring and regular weather, the track squad has gotten down to business, and may be seen working like Trojans at Emerson field almost any old day.

The team this year must come entirely from new material, for Farthing is the only letter man back. There is ample opportunity for practically every place on the team, and especially is the prospective team weak in the field events.

The men who have come out so far include: Dashes, Farthing, Harden, Wood; 440, Royall, Love, Wolfe, Pressly; 880, Royall, Love, Ranson; mile, Bynum, Nimms, Massenburg, Ranson; 2 mile, Bynum, Massenburg, Nimms, Coker, Wright, O. E., York; hurdles, Rimmer, Wright, Martin, Price; high jump, Burton, McLaughlin, Kitrell, Penny, Hatcher; broad jump, Hatcher, Kitrell; pole vault, Travis, Crowell, Spencer; weights, Spann, Price, Ramsay.

Manager York is working on a schedule that will probably include meets with Trinity, A. & E., and Wake Forest, in addition to the State meet.

Good Speeches Heard by 1919 Banqueteers

Brilliant speeches and excellent arrangements were the chief features of the second banquet of the class of 1919 held in Swain Hall last night.

A hollow rectangle, filled with evergreens, was the form in which the tables were arranged where Juniors assembled to feel the uniting bonds of a strong class spirit and to enjoy addresses from the guests and members of the class. A patriotic touch was added by the decorations and the favors. In the middle of the rectangle was a large American flag from which radiated streamers of maroon and white, the class colors. The favors were a sensible departure from custom. Instead of horns and rattles, there was at each plate a small, silken U. S. flag, fitting souvenir of a banquet made memorable by its patriotic speeches. At each outside corner of the rectangle was a white column, and strings of colored light were hung between these. More evergreens were banked high behind the columns.

The toastmaster, President Hazelhurst, introduced the speakers. Dean Stacy made the first speech, taking as his subject, "Ambition." He discussed in a vivid manner the ambition of the boy, man, class, and nation. He concluded by showing how helpful an ambition is, and that all these kinds should be correlated. W. E. Price made the response.

Dr. Moss spoke on "The Elemental Man," the man who goes out for the essential things in life, the things that count. The aim of the University, he said, is to produce such men. Miss Virginia McFadyen responded.

MINSTREL BOYS GETTING READY FOR A BIG SEASON

TRY-OUTS ARE HELD—PATRIOTISM TO BE KEYNOTE OF THE SHOW—NEW FEATURES

The various department heads of the Minstrel Association have, with the advent of spring, emerged from their period of retirement and are busy getting things in shape for the biggest year in the history of the organization.

Business Manager Folsom has written to twenty of the principal towns in this state and South Carolina for prospective Red Cross benefits, and already enthusiastic replied are being received. Band Master Parker is arranging the big parade which will be one of this year's features, and the latest pieces of popular and rag time music are being practiced. Orchestra Leader Lindsey is looking over the orchestra which will number twelve pieces, and contain several instruments new to Chapel Hill audiences. Stage Managers Johnston and Burton are overhauling the scenery and electrical effects to decide what is to be added to that department.

Two try-outs for the new men have been held so far and thirty-six applicants have come out. Director Jordan says the material this year is very promising and he promises several surprises for this year's show.

Patriotism is to be the keynote of the production, and series of patriotic tableaux together with a patriotic opening overture, and the latest and best "war" songs will give quite a martial air to the whole offering.

Among the new acts will be, "The Darktown Cabaret," a darky dancing divertissement which promises to eclipse last year's dancing success; an electrical act with electricity doing all sorts of

Many Contesting for Positions on Diamond

Season Prospects Grow Bright As Practice Shows Strong Rivalry for Places on the Team—First Game March 25

With the coming of the warm, spring-like days, all the pent-up eagerness to swing the bat and handle the horse-hide has broken loose and the athletic field has been the scene of considerable activity.

"Baseball practice is coming on well," says Captain Jack Powell and Coach Hearne. A large number of students are out for the team, so that every position is being hotly contested. The pitchers are Powell, Joyner, Willis, Swift and Steele. Younce, Spangh and Adams are showing up well for the position behind the plate. Beanie Kinlaw, of last year's pitching staff, will be unable to come out on account of his work.

At first base Bryant and Henry are showing good form. C. Holding and Grandin are coming out for that position soon. Fiemster is coming out regularly and is doing well at his old place at third. Herty is back at short, and Cordon, Boren, Lenoir and several others are running each other a good race for second base. As usual a good many are trying out for the outfield. Harden, Pippin, Lewis and Little are doing well among these.

H. S. Basketball Race is Narrowing Down

The contest for the State High School Championship in basketball has narrowed down to three High School quintets in the Western and to four in the Eastern part of the State. The semi-finals are to be played off by tonight, the finals by next Thursday night, and the champions of the East and West meet here for the big game next Friday night, March 8.

The largest number of schools ever registered took part in the contest this year; there were nineteen teams in all, nine in the east and ten in the West. Chapel Hill, Durham, Raleigh and Wilson are the four undefeated teams in the East. Chapel Hill plays Durham tonight while Raleigh meets Wilson at the same time.

Winston High School, twice State champions in the last three years, seems to be contesting for that honor again this season. Greensboro and Lenoir are the other two schools in the West.

This is the fourth year of the annual basketball series. Winston won the championship the first and third years, and Durham captured it the second year. The contest this season promises to be as interesting as in former years.

ELISHA MITCHELL MEETING

In a well attended meeting of the Elisha Mitchell Scientific Society Wednesday night, Dr. H. V. Wilson read a paper on "The French Scientists" and Dr. H. W. Chase, one on "Some Recent Tendencies in Psychological Thought."

Dr. Norman A. Forester has been initiated into Sigman Upsilon.

DRAMATIC CLUB CAST IS AT WORK ON PLAY

"THE MAN OF THE HOUR" TO BE PRESENTED BY CHOSEN STUDENT ACTORS

LADIES TO APPEAR THIS SEASON

Much New But Promising Material in This Season's Large Cast—Play by Broadhurst Has Interesting Plot—Rehearsals Being Held

Alwyn Bennett, "The Man of the Hour"—J. Y. Jordan.

Charles Wainwright, The Man Higher Up—Bingham McKee.

Scott Gibbs, A Wall Street Operator—Dougal McMillan.

Richard Horrigan, Political Boss—Fred Cohn.

James Phelen, Alderman from the Eighth Ward—Albert Oettinger.

Perry Wainwright, Brother of Dallas—Lacy Meredith.

Judge Newman, District Judge—Ralph Johnston.

Henry Thompson, Wainwright's Secretary—Ernest Neiman.

Richard Roberts—An Alderman—Ralph Johnston.

Henry Williams—Another Alderman—Chester Burton.

Ingram—The Mayor's doorkeeper—Chester Borton.

Mills, The Butler—Wm. Royall.

Arthur Payne, Newspaper Reporter, Wm. Royall.

Dallas Wainwright, Niece of Charles Wainwright—Virginia McFayden.

Cynthia Garrison, a friend of the Bennett—Elizabeth Lay.

Mrs. Bennett, mother of Alwyn—Marion Wilcox.

The cast above is the one for this year's offering, "The Man of the Hour." The cast has been selected for over a week and rehearsals are progressing satisfactorily. The cast this year is larger than usual and is composed mostly of new actors and "actorines." The new material, however, is very promising and an excellent presentation is looked forward to.

The play is from the pen of George Broadhurst, the author of "What Happened to Jones", which will be remembered here, and several other notable successes. The plot deals with the efforts of the political bosses to control the man they have made mayor, and how he turns against them and their ring, governs the city honestly, exposes their grafting, and in the end, of course, wins the love of the heroine.

The participation this year of the Co-eds in the cast is an item of unusual interest, as it is the first time in the history of the club that this has been done. Suffice it to say that a packed house is expected to greet the local Thespians when the curtains are rolled up in Gerrard theatre.

Sam Calvert left college Wednesday to join the navy. He will spend a short while at his home, Portsmouth, before reporting for duty.

J. O. Dysart and J. G. Cowan, '16 graduates, were on the Hill this week for a few days. They are now first lieutenants, and are stationed at Camp Jackson.
