Dance is Scheduled For Saturday Night

The lid comes off Saturday night when the terpsichorean artists from Company A will pirouette gaily on the light fantastic toe. At least, that's the present plan, and if nothing goes amiss, Saturday night will usher in the first company dance. Many fair nymphs will be present and the most unambitious youth has already made it known that he intends to dance off both his shoes. In connection with this it might be well to state that both drug stores have ordered car load supplies of Tiz. A hint to the wise is sufficient, as our good friend Bill Shakespear, did not say.

A committee has been selected to make all arrangements for Company A's dance. This plan will be followed in succession by Cos. B, C, and D. We begin at "look alive."

Some men are handy with their hands, and some with their feet. Some are knockers, and some are kickers.

E. E. Society Meets for Formal Organization

Practically all the members of the Electrical Engineering class were present at the initial meeting in the Alumni Building last Saturday night for the purpose of organization.

Promptly at seven-thirty the meeting was called to order by Prof. Mustard, the instructor in Electrical Engineering, who was then elected by acclamation to act as temporary chairman.

The first business to come before the meeting was the motion to form an organization of the Electrical Engineers. This was unanimous and Mr. Lear was asked to take immediate steps toward having this society recognized by the national organization.

The following officers were then elected: Chairman, Mr. E. C. Balentine; Treasurer, Mr. Haygood; Secretary, Mr. J. E. Lear; Chairman Advisory Committee, Prof. J. H. Mustard; Program Committee—Chairman, Mr. P. C. Smith, Mr. C. H. Smith, and Mr. E. L. Lake.

It is the intention of the members of the organization to make this one of the "Live wire" societies of the University.

It was decided to meet every two weeks, Saturday night at seven-thirty. It was further decided that the meetings should last one hour only in order to not conflict with other engagements.

As Corresponding Secretary, Mr. Lear, who has had considerable experience along that line, intends to secure a series of lecture and educational films which will be exhibited at the meetings from time to time.

Desmond: There's dirty work ahead.
Esmond: What's up?
Desmond: The battalion is going to take a bath.

SHE KNEW THE GAME

Me darling boy, there is a tale
Of first sight love,—hark to it.
Give me your ear,—I say—steer clear,
Lest, by the Gods, you rue it.

A simple youth (so runs the tale
And the lesson sad it teaches)
Was so unwise as to surprise
A damsel eatin' peaches.

The foolish boy was to this time
By love's fierce flame unharrid
But he—alas, was such an ass,
To love one who was married!

He gazed at her with yearning eyes,
He really was quite bad off,
And when, with ruth, he learned the truth,
He shot his bloomin' head off.

Ah maiden, maiden, look at this
How far the moral reaches!
But like a dame who knew the game,
She went on eatin' peaches.
By A. Cynique.

STATEMENT OF GOV. BICKETT

"After giving the matter the most serious thought, there was no man in the state that we could so ill afford to have lost as Dr. Graham. There is no man in the state whose place it would be so hard to fill. The whole state feels that it has suffered an irreparable loss."

Chapel Hill, N. C., Oct. 28, 1918.
