DR. GRAHAM FAVORED ACTIVITIES BUILDING

(Continued from Page 1)

tion room for friends visiting the University; in short a Student Activi-ties Building. Memorial to President Graham President Graham recognized this as one of the most urgent needs of

as one of the most urgent needs of the University and the student body. He was thinking and planning for it at the time of his death. In fact, he had gone so far as to draw up tenta-tive plans for such a building. And when the Trustees and faculty of the University met to consider a memorial they decided that the most fitting memorial would be this Student Activities Building which represented the desire and the hope of President Graham, and at the same time em-bodied his interest and his service to Carolina men.

Carolina men. What Will it Mean? Most men say that the extra-curri-culum activities represent the most important part of college life. Wheth-er that be true or not, there is no one who does not know that these or-ganizations and activities springing naturally from student consciousness of their needs, growing out of the of their needs, growing out of the natural desire to associate themselves together for mutual purposes, con-stitute a most important element of college life.

And especially in this University, on this campus, where student life is richer, where student standards are higher, where the University is governed and directed by the students themselves, the great, bare, outstand-ing need is a Student Activities Build-ing which will replace the home-less and unorganized condition of col-lege activities with their haphazard lege activities with their haphazard meeting places, by drawing into and co-ordinating in a common home col-lege activities already existent, and by providing for needs keenly felt but hitherto unprovided for. The most important element, the most representative thing, that which makes this college life, this Carolina spirit, what it is, is not only without stimulant or incentive, but without a home! home!

Think what it will mean to you to have this home of student life where the students can meet together! Think what it will mean to the life and spirit of your organizations to have such a place to meet in! Think what it would mean to enrich the life of the campus by this Graham Memorial!

Statewide Significance

President Graham was a statewide and more than statewide figure. The University, too, through its alumni in every community, is a vitalizing or-ganism inwrought into the life of the State. The University campus which represents at present with an atten-dance of 800 men, 91 counties, and which in normal times represents every county and nearly every commu-nity in the State, is statewide in its influence. And this Student Activities Building, this Graham Memorial, is a cause big enough to appeal to every citizen in the State, if we can make him see it vitally.

Success of Campaign Depends on Students

termine the response of the citizens of the State who are not alumni, is going to decide whether or not this memorial building is to be erected. What is Your Part?

What is your part, your responsi-bility in this? What are you willing to give to see this building on the campus and to realize that it was erected while you were a student, and that you had a share in its erection?

It is to cost $150,000. What is your part of that? We must think in big terms. Two years are allowed in which to pay-two summers in which to work.

One college in the State with a stu-dent body of 250 pledged over $10,000 to the cause of their Alma Mater. Already on this campus two Caro-

Already on this campus two Caro-lina men working their way through college save signified their willingness to pledge $50 a man. Another has con-tributed $100. What will you do? It may mean sacrifice to some. But it's a sacrifice of service. It is in the name of President Graham. It is in the memory of his life. It is in appre-ciation of his service. It will be in the spirit of Carolina—it will write your love for President Graham, your love for Carolina, into a living monu-ment of service to your Alma Mater, ment of service to your Alma Mater, and to the future generations of col-lege students who live here.

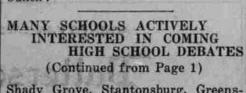

UNIVERSITY ORCHESTRA IS ORGANIZED

The University orchestra has re-cently been organized and is rehears-ing daily. Although it is not as large as in past years it is the best musical organization that Chapel Hill has ever had. The personnel is as follows: Lindsey, violin; Rontaller, clarinet; Parker, cornet; Lucas, trombone; and Denham, piano.

The Orchestra is preparing a pro-gram of standard numbers to be presented in the near future; this will be followed by a popular concert consisting of rags, trombone smears, popular songs and other novelty numbers.

The Warren County men, formerly connected with the Halifax County Club, met in the County Club room of Club, met in the County Club room of the Y. M. C. A. last Friday night and organized a Warren County Club. The officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: F. G. Miles, of Warrenton, President; N. P. Hayes, of Wise, Vice-President; A. B. Bob-bitt, of Macon, Secretary-Treasurer; John H. Kerr, Jr., of Warrenton, Rep-resentative on North Carolina Club; and F. H. Hunter, of Warrenton, Press Reporter. Plans for the furthering of the Graham Memorial Fund in the the Graham Memorial Fund in the county and for the University Extension work were discussed and outlined.

Everybody is out showing their class muscle these days, are you in this bunch?

DR. KEMP P. BATTLE, FORMER PRESIDENT, DIES QUIETLY AT RESIDENCE (Continued from Page 1)

from the effects of the war and a financial panic was adding distress to poverty. "Nothing daunted by these evils and inspired by a lifetime love of the Uni-versity, Mr. Battle set vigorously to work and canvassed the State fo. funds. No other man would have un-dertaken the task, and certainly n other man could have accomplished it. other man could have accomplished it. He appealed to the alumni and to pa-triotic men not alumni, through the press, by letter and by personal in-terview. The result was $20,000 and the revival of the University. "But funds were lacking for sup-port of the institution as well as for its equipment. The faculty had to be paid and the laboratory provided with apparatus. The tuition fees were en-tirely inadequate to meet these ex-apparatus. The tuition fees were en-tirely inadequate to meet these ex-penses. With wise foresight, Mr. Bat-tle had provided for this emergency. Upon his representation of the needs of the University, the General As-sembly appropriated for its annual support $7,500, being the interest on the Land Script Fund of $125,000 donated to the State by the National Government. Government.

"These two funds, both secured by Mr. Battle, enabled the institution to open its doors September 6, 1875. During the hundred years of its exis-tence the University had never received more loving service nor more valuable aid than was rendered in 1875 by the Honorable Kemp P. Bat-tle. Nor were his services to stop there. Called to the presidency of the institution in 1876, he gave with un-reserved devotion for fifteen years the support and guidance necessary to support and guidance necessary to carry it through poverty, obliguly, and popular indifference. He em-ployed his own credit to supply deficiencies in its treasury, made known its needs to the Legislature, and its needs to the Legislature, and secured annual grants for its support; bore with patience calumnies, and by lectures, by articles in the press, and by organizing and successfully con-ducting a series of popular summer normal schools, firmly established the University in the affection and confi-dence of the people." In 1891 Dr. Battle resigned from the presidency and became head of the

In 1891 Dr. Battle resigned from the presidency and became head of the newly established department of His-tory which had been made possible by his efforts. Under his guidance, the department of History became one of the leading departments of the Uni-versity. Since 1907 he has been Pro-fessor Emeritus of History. Through his long years of service to

Through his long years of service to the University Dr. Battle won the esteem and affection of the whole State, but it is to the students of Carolina that he has most endeared himself. His friendship and sym-pathy, his vigorous interest in ev-erything and every person with whom he has come in contact made an im-pression on the linear and ideals of pression on the lives and ideals of every student of the University. The influence of his lovable personality will live in the hearts of all those who have had the privilege of know-ing "The Grand Old Man of the Uni-

an an and a second of the second second second second

Judge for yourself-Compare murad with any 30 Cent Agarette

Alabers of the Elighest Grade Turkish and Egyption Generaties in the World

We who are now in college knew President Graham. We represent the President Graham. We represent the four classes that have been in the Uni-versity during the time of his Presi-dency. We have felt the inspiration of his presence, and the gripping power of his personality. We are here and know the vital need for this Student Activities Building. We realize more keenly than others its value to the student, to the Uni-versity and to the State. The terms in which we think of

The terms in which we think of President Graham and his meaning, the terms in which we think of the memorial and its meaning, the stan-dard and the pace which the students on this campus set, is going to deter-mine the response of the alumni throughout the State, is going to de-

A DAU AU AU AU AU Her Dhoto AWAW AWAWAY

Have it Framed Before it Becomes Soiled

> BIG ASSORTMENT OF MOULDINGS

FOISTER'S

Shady Grove, Stantonsburg, Greens-boro, Elizabeth City, Rocky Mount, Ahoskie, Durham, Kinston, South Mills, Enfield, Wendell, Roanoke Ra-pids, Almond, Wentworth, Rowland, Washington Institute, Falkland, Carpids, Almond, Wentworth, Rowland, Washington Institute, Falkland, Car-thage, Teachey, Louisburg, Cherry-ville, Salisbury, High Point, Hillsboro, Belhaven, Mt. Olive, Stanley, James-town, Dover, Walnut Cove, Dixie School, Creedmore, High Shoals, Jackson Springs, Stony Creek, Eden-ton, Craven Farm Life, Advance, Jackson, Taylorsville, Pinnacle, Troutman, Poplar Branch, Clarkton, Wise, Leaksville, Nebo, Biltmore, Lu-cama, Sylva, Asheville, Denver, Man-teo, Hamlet, Falling Creek, States-ville, Seaboard, Selma, Grifton, Chad-born, Milton, Charlotte, Trinity, Lowe's Grove, South Port, Dallas, Fremont, Pinesville, Kings Mt., Dob-son, Morganton, Chandeler, Gastonia, Chapel Hill, Lumberton, Fairmont, Asheboro, Bethel Hill, Cameron, Mat-thews, Cornelius, Macclesfield, Bailey, Atlantic, Oxford, Seven Springs, Windsor, Middleburg, Huntersville, Mt. Holly, Godwin, Siler City, South Buffalo, Guilford, Four Oaks, Mt. Gilead, Sneads Ferry, St. Pauls, Vass, Stem, Cary, Knap of Reeds, Laurin-burg, Merry Oaks, Brevard Institute, Aberdeen, Kennesville, Tabor, Hert-ford, Rutherfordton, Mills River, Bes-semer City, Courtney Snow Hill, Bain Academy, Waynesville, Cool Springs, Smithfield, Clemons, Norwood, Mon-roe, Saluda, Seminary, Newton, Ay-den Seminary, Weldon, Wadesboro, Kenley, Elise.

UNIVERSITY MAGAZINE SOON TO MAKE APPEARANCE (Continued from Page 1)

and will know exactly what to do. The board is now planning for the first issue, which will be on the Hill the first of March. It is the desire of every member of the board to publish the best Maga-zine ever put out at Carolina. To do this it will require the undivided do this it will require the undivided support of the student body. The Magazine does not belong to the so-cieties or to the board of editors, but it is the possession of the entire stu-, dent body. As such, it is urged to make litiary contributions freely. The editors wish the best stories, poems, short plays, etc., that can be pro-duced by Carolina men.

Editor-in-Chief Rondthaler will make a special appeal for contribu-tions when he returns. versity.

The Tar Heel last week dedicated its issue to Dr. Battle. With this issue it is necessary to speak of him as one who has passed and left a memory alway to be prized as a heritage to the sons and daughters of Carolina.

"Shorty" Griffin, '18, of Goldsboro, spent a few days on the Hill visiting friends. He says that there is nothing like college life, and he ought to know after a taste of army and business life.

"CAROLINA PLAYMAKERS" HEAR FIRST READING OF FOUR ORIGINAL PLAYS (Continued from Page 1)

division. It is planned to put Miss Reid's play of the negro life on at some near future date at the same time to have a complete programme dealing with plays on the same subject.

A good part of the scenery to be used by the Carolina Playmakers has already arrived. Some of this is the finished product, but a good part of it is just raw materials out of of it is just raw materials out of which students gifted along this line are to construct scenery to fit certain plays. Professors Daggett, Rankin, and Lear have this particular phase of the work in hand. The electrical branch of the University say that they can produce any of the light effects desired or needed for any of the productions. Thus it is seen that the Caroling

Thus it is seen that the Carolina Playmakers is a community organiza-tion. It not only includes the actors but the authors; it includes those of artistic and practical trend; it includes faculty, students and the entire community. The membership is not limited, and it is the hope of this organization to give its plays not only in this immediate locality but through out North Carolina.

DR. H. E. JACKSON MAKES LECTURE SERIES ON THE COMMUNITY SPIRIT IDEA

(Continued from Page 1)

ate from grammar school until each student understood the exact method pursued in casting a ballot. This was his trend of reasoning.

Tuesday evening Dr. Jackson spoke upon the subject "The Schoolhouse as the Community Forum." He explained the workings of the old Athe-nian Forum and showed that its principles should be incorporated in every community today. He showed how free speach was not a serious nor menacing privilege, and that if allowed full headway no harm would result. His speech was an argument in favor of the establishment of a forum where everything pertaining to the community might be freely discussed by all discussed by all.

The subject of Dr. Jackson's lec-ture Wednesday night was "The Schoolhouse as a Community Club." He discussed the advantages that would be derived from using the community schoolhouse as a place for social gatherings, as dances, dinner parties, etc. He strongly advocated that some place be established where boys and girls might be brought together under good auspices to engage in social functions that would tend to put them on a mutual ground of understanding each other. If this could be accomplished, that the youth might be uplifted and placed in a po-sition where they would see the noble things of life, he said the jesult would be worth ten times the cost.

His lecture Thursday afternoon at 4:30 concluded his talks on the general title of "The Practice of Citizen-ship," and it was also highly en-joyed by the audience. Dr. Jackson is a most forceful speaker and he puts all his thoughts over with a "punch." He will be, indeed, welcome to any Carolina audience whenever he chooses to return.

When in Durham Visit the Royal Cafe Home of Good Cooking That Feeds You Better