

THE TAR HEEL

OFFICIAL ORGAN OF THE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION OF THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA

Volume XXVIII.

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., NOVEMBER 27, 1919

Number 8

Gridiron Classic To Be Staged Here For First Time

The University of North Carolina Football Squad

VIRGINIA, ALTHO BEATEN OFTEN THIS YEAR, HAS DEVELOPED STRONG TEAM

OLD DOMINION TEAM OUT-PLAYED VANDY BUT LOST 10-6

THEY'RE AT TOP-SEASON FORM

October 4, Richmond College 0, University of Virginia, 0; October 11, Maryland State 13, University of Virginia 0; October 18, V. M. I. 0, University of Virginia 7; October 25, Harvard 47, University of Virginia 0; November 1, Central College of Ky. 48, University of Virginia 7; November 6, University of Georgia 7, University of Virginia 7; November 15, Vanderbilt 10, University of Virginia 6.

Virginia's record for the season has been an uphill affair, as shown by the above summary. With the sum of her opponents score 119 against her sum total of 22, it might seem that the Orange and Blue supporters would be doubtful as to the outcome of the great Southern classic, but such is not the case. The first and middle of the season were anything but indication of a comeback such as has been the case as shown in the more recent contests against Georgia and Vanderbilt, and the old saying about the bad beginning and good ending seems in a fair way of being again proven.

In the opening contest of the season with Richmond College resulted in a 0-0 tie, which was quite an upset in football circles. The following Saturday saw Virginia go down to defeat before the strong Maryland aggregation. But the following game the Old Dominion eleven came back, and defeated Virginia Military Institute 7-0.

Virginia then journeyed North to meet "fair" Harvard's squad, only to

(Continued on Page 2)

Glee Club Returns From a Successful Tour of West N. C.

The University Musical Clubs returned Sunday from their annual western tour, on which they scored a great success in every town. The program offered a variety that would suit the taste of any critic. It consisted of vocal solos, quartets, and ensembles of numbers of the orchestra of various types and of peppy renditions by the mandolin club. The club will show in Chapel Hill on December 5.

The personnell of the club this year is of a very high standard. Mr. Weaver, Director of Music for the University is in general charge and is a very excellent musician indeed. Ben Cone and Ed Lindsey are his assistants while Jimmy Howell is business manager. Besides these the Club consists of the following: Rondthaler, Lucas, Horne, Ross, Powell, Turrentine, Craven, Barden, Davis, Edgerton, Poindexter, Smoot, Nichols, Thompson, Alexander, Proctor, Tomlin, Lackey, Everett, Blount, Hawfield, Simpson and Bivoks.

BIG GAMES TODAY

- N. C. vs Va., at Chapel Hill, N. C.
- N. C. State vs. Wake Forest, at Raleigh, N. C.
- Ga. Tech vs. Alabama Poly., at Atlanta, Ga.
- V. M. I. vs. V. P. I., at Roanoke, Va.
- Furman vs. Davidson, at Greenville, S. C.
- S. C. vs. The Citadel, at Columbia, S. C.
- Vanderbilt vs. U. of South, at Nashville, Tenn.
- Georgetown vs. Centre, at Georgetown.
- Kentucky vs. Tenn., at Lexington, Ky.
- Columbia vs. Brown, at New York, N. Y.
- Pittsburgh vs. Penn. State, at Pittsburgh.

CAROLINA HAS PLAYED HARD GAMES BUT HAS EVEN BREAK THUS FAR

BLUE AND WHITE HOLDS RUTGERS AND YALE TO SMALL SCORES

BEATS N. CAROLINA STATE TEAM

And Then Strikes Slump, Tying Tennessee and Losing to V. M. I.

- October 4, Carolina 0, Rutgers 19.
- October 11, Carolina 7, Yale 34.
- October 18, Carolina 6, Wake Forest 0.
- October 23, Carolina 13, N. C. State 12.
- November 1, Carolina 0, Tennessee 0.
- November 8, Carolina 7, V. M. I. 29.
- November 15, Carolina 10, Davidson 0.

Carolina's Total 43, Opponents, 94. The University eleven has won three games, lost three and tied one. This on its face would seem a drab and uninteresting record; but this is not so. Our team is an unusual team in an unusual football year. Take, for example, our three defeats. Rutgers beat us in the first game of the schedule. That does not mean that our team is weak. Rutgers has a powerful eleven, and the team made a most creditable showing. In that first game the Carolina line gave promise of being one of the strongest on the Southern gridiron.

The next game of the season brought the second defeat. The white and blue of Yale was too strong for the white and blue of Carolina. Here again, in a game of freakish plays and unexpected breaks, the Tar Heel line was strong. The backfield men could not gain but they showed fight. There is no sign of weakness, no indication of unstable football, in

(Continued on Page 7)

Track Program and Permanent Coach Is Plan of Cinder Squad

The prospects for a good track team this year are quite encouraging. There are six letter men back, Spencer (Captain), Nichols, Black, Rand, Smith, and Norfleet, besides a number of other members of former squads. At present there are about thirty track men in training, either in track or in football, so that when the regular systematic training is begun a fair sized squad will be in good condition. A coach will be secured in the course of a few days.

The manager is at work on an attractive schedule which will be announced as soon as complete. The State meet and the South Atlantic meet are definitely settled upon, but the dates have not yet been set. An early meet with Trinity is pending and between these there is room for two or three more which will be secured as soon as possible. It is hoped that one of these may be with Virginia.

Scores N. C.-Va. Games

1894-Va. 34 N. C. 0
1895-Va. 6 N. C. 0
1896-Va. 46 N. C. 0
1897-Va. 12 N. C. 0
1898-Va. 2 N. C. 6
1900-Va. 17 N. C. 0
1901-Va. 23 N. C. 6
1902-Va. 12 N. C. 12
1903-Va. 0 N. C. 16
1904-Va. 12 N. C. 11
1905-Va. 0 N. C. 17
1907-Va. 9 N. C. 4
1908-Va. 31 N. C. 0
1909-(Virginia cancels)
1910-Va. 7 N. C. 0
1911-Va. 28 N. C. 0
1912-Va. 66 N. C. 0
1913-Va. 26 N. C. 7
1914-Va. 20 N. C. 3
1915-Va. 14 N. C. 0
1916-Va. 0 N. C. 7
265 85
1919-Va. ? N. C. ?

ENTIRE CAROLINA SQUAD SAW ACTIVE SERVICE IN U. S. ARMY AND NAVY

VARSITY SQUAD 100 PER CENT PERFECT IN HUNTING HUN GAME

MAJORITY SAW OVERSEAS DUTY

The entire North Carolina varsity football line-up has seen service in the United States army or navy. The majority have been in action on French battlefields.

Head Coach Thomas Campbell entered the Officers Training Camp at Plattsburgh in April, 1917, and was shortly thereafter assigned to duty with the Third Division. Campbell was in France eighteen months and attained the rank of captain. The coach never saw the first line trenches, much to his regret, but was detailed for duty as a machine gun instructor.

Assistant Coach Graham Ramsey, for two years all-Southern tackle, received his commission as second lieutenant from the first Oglethorpe Camp. Shortly thereafter Ramsey was promoted to the rank of first lieutenant and assigned to the 371st infantry. Ramsey saw action in the Verdun sector in April, 1918, and later received a leg wound in the Champagne offensive that put him in a French hospital for three months. Ramsey was awarded the Croix de Guerre.

Roy Homewood, coaching Carolina's ends, received his lieutenantcy in 1916. Homewood was assigned to the 84th in California. He never got overseas. "Nemo" Coleman, captain and full-

(Continued on Page 2)

GIRLS FROM THE STATE SCHOOLS WITNESS THE BIG BATTLE TODAY

NORMAL, ST. MARY'S, PEACE AND OTHERS ARE EXPECTED

"A wave of feminism" is the description by a student of the inlux of guests expected in Chapel Hill for the Carolina-Virginia game here today. According to reports, this will doubtless prove true, or so it is hoped by many.

St. Mary's will be represented by her Senior Class, with the Rector and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. Warren Way. They will be the guests of Miss Elizabeth Branson and Mrs. Jone Toy.

Five hundred girls from the North Carolina College for Women will probably come by special train for the game. Greensboro College for Women is expected with practically the whole student body. Peace Institute may possibly have a representation of 200 students.

One thousand girls, or thereabouts, dropped down on Chapel Hill in a day. "Wave of feminism" indeed! And all rooting for Carolina! Arrangements are being made to care for these as well as for the hundreds of other feminine guests expected from all parts of the state. Peabody Building will be turned over to the ladies for use on Thanksgiving Day.

The University of Virginia Football Squad