

TAR BABY FOUR ENTERTAINS STUDENTS IN CHAPEL FRIDAY

SNAPPY SONGS AND LOTS OF PEP MAKE PROGRAM A SUCCESS

Friday morning in Chapel, the Tar Baby Quartet, composed of Messrs. Nichols, Thompson, Ogburn, and Everett, entertained the students who were assembled there. This is the second number of the musical series which has been scheduled for Chapel exercises this year.

The quartet took its hearers by storm and from the very beginning sang snappy songs with a lot of pep. Their first number was "Floatin' Down," and at the end there was such an outburst of applause that they soon reappeared with "You Don't Need the Wine to Have a Wonderful Time." The second number was "Shine On, Oh, Silvery Moon," and the encore was "Roll Dem Bones." Then the applause was greater than ever and a third number, "I'm Going Right Back" was given with encore, "I'm Tired of Livin' in the Country." Applause again burst forth, but as it was their last number the quartet did not reappear and the audience dispersed but a hope of hearing them again in the near future.

NUCLEUS DEPOSITED FOR A PLAYMAKER THEATER FUND

IN THE FUTURE ALL PROFITS WILL GO TO THIS FUND

Sometime in the near future when you return to Carolina as a proud alumnus some student friend of yours will ask you to go with him to the evening performance at the "Playmakers Theatre."

Then he will lead out through the maze of new buildings to a grassy little knoll capped by a beautiful little building resembling an old Grecian temple. You will know from the very looks of the building itself that it fosters the beautiful in life and the good in art. This is the Playmakers Theatre. This is the goal towards which the Playmakers were aiming when they started the Playmakers Theatre fund at a meeting of the Executive Board recently when each member present contributed a dime and a penny as the nucleus of this fund. The bank account has been opened and the fund has begun with a deposit of a dollar and a penny. In the future all profits from Playmaker productions will be deposited to the credit of this fund. It will require about $200,000 to build and equip a theatre such as the Playmakers are planning.

Posters urging college voters to cast their ballots for dry men only are being mailed to all colleges and universities of the country this week by the Intercollegiate Prohibition Association.

Camel CIGARETTES

Dear Old Boy PETE:

Dallas, Texas, Sunday.

This corner of the U.S. mainland is so wonderful in its bigness and bustle I guess I go mouth wide open and eyes staring! Why, Pete, Texans don't talk in miles—it doesn't mean anything! They'll tell you that this place, or that, is an all day trip, or two days and a night distant, etc! And, old yardstick, you've got the feet, just let it sink in deep that Texas is not only over 800 miles wide but it is our fifth state in population!

Heard a bird in the Adolphus hotel say that when he comes off the west border he figures he's close home to Baltimore when he's across the Lone Star state! Say, try that jump between Texarkana and El Paso! Some jaunt!

Pete, everything grows big down here—business as well as folks' hearts! I like the way they never forget! Here I was walking on Main Street yesterday when as fine a type of man as ever wore one of those broad Texas smiles came up to me. "How are you, lieutenant," says he. "maybe you'll call back that day at Camp Dick when I brought over a bunch of Camels for the boys," he continued. Right there a camel conference started!

Golly, Pete, this party coins camel compliments faster than the mint makes money! "Lieutenant," says he, "I know when I'm set! I've smoked cigarettes for five years! (NOW LISTEN, PETER!) I know Camels and I know their marvellous mild, mellow body and refreshing flavor and wonderful Turkish and Domestic blend! A million Camels wouldn't tire a smoker's taste!" Pete, that's some testifying!

Between you and me, I'll be gazing at tall buildings and things around 43rd & Broadway—N-E-W Y-O-R-K—about the hour this note hits Boston's Back Bay! Write me at the same old stand!

Sincerely
Shorty.
