WARREN OF DIALECTIC SOCIETY WINS JUNIOR ORATORICAL CONTEST

T. L. Warren and F. A. Grissette of Di and Dan Byrd and W. E. Horner of Phi in Contest

ATTENDANCE IS SMALL

The Junior Oratorical Contest was won by T. L. Warren of Lenoir, who spoke on "Liberty and the Blue Laws" last Saturday night in Gerrard Hall.

That no legislation can change essential and inherent liberty, and that the ideal commonwealth was reached not by legislation alone, were the principal points in Warren's speech.

J. D. Dorset is Elected Business Manager of The Carolina Magazine by Dialectic Society.

The election of Edwin Matthews as editor-in-chief of the Yackety Yack, and J. D. Dorsett as the business manager of the Magazine, were the chief features of the regular weekly meeting of the Dialectic Society.

The resolution brought up before the society for an open forum discussion was: "Resolved, That the action of the Interstate Commerce Commission in fixing the intra-state rates in North Carolina was unwarranted."

W. E. Wiles gave an interesting talk on the life of Marion Butler, telling how he rose to the United States senate, giving the details of his political career, and his connection with the Farmers Alliance.

J. W. Ervin, business manager of the Yackety Yack, presented an amendment to the constitution to the effect that there be no associate editors of the Yackety Yack elected; but that they be appointed by the editor-in-chief and the two business managers.

J. B. Miller of China Grove and Charles Perry of Balsum have been initiated in Sigma Phi Epsilon.

FIGHTING FRESHMEN DOWN STRONG OAK RIDGE AGGREGATION

Moore, Fresh Pill-Tosser, Out-Twirls Phillipie in Tense Extra Inning Struggle on Emerson Field

AIR-TIGHT FIELDING

Playing excellent ball throughout, and materially aided by the major league pitching of Moore and the timely hitting of Al Johnson and Pittman, the Freshmen won a ten inning pitchers battle by a 2 to 1 score from Oak Ridge last Saturday afternoon on Emerson Field.

Oak Ridge, with a victory over Davidson to their credit, were by far the favorites; but Fred Patterson had a surprise for them in the form of his resurrected second team and newly discovered pitcher, Moore who serenely fanned seven men and allowed but six scattered hits.

Oak Ridge got the lead in the second when Richardson reached first through Woodard's error, went to second on a sacrifice by Hood, and came home on Rouse's single.

For the next five innings the score remained the same, both pitchers getting in some tight places but always managing to safely extricate themselves.

Box score and summary table for the game between Carolina and Oak Ridge.

Score by innings table for the game between Carolina and Oak Ridge.

Summary: Two base hits: Johnson, A. Sacrifice hits: Fox, Johnson, Moore, Hood, Rouse. Struck out by Moore 7, by Phillipie 4. Bases on balls: Off Phillipie 3, off Moore 4, hit by pitcher: Booner.

PLANS ARE COMPLETED FOR ELABORATE SATYR CARNIVAL APRIL 29TH

G. S. Wimberly, John Shaw, and Jonathan Daniels Are to Lead Satyr Figure.

BENEFIT, THEATRE FUND

Plans for one of the largest and most spectacular events of the college year are being perfected by the Dramatic Order of Satyrs, under whose auspices an elaborate carnival and midnight frolic will be given on the evening of April 29th, at 11 o'clock, immediately after the first performance of the Carolina Playmakers' plays.

Order blanks from a costumer in Philadelphia have been obtained and orders will be taken at the Y. M. C. A. Monday, the 18th, for any type of costume desired to be rented for the occasion.

Mr. Richard Crozier and his daughter, Miss Dalores Crozier, of Raleigh, N. C., well known for their delightful dancing in many such entertainments given in Raleigh, have accepted an invitation to dance two numbers here.

- 1. Dance, "The Skaters," Dr. Richard Crozier and Miss Dalores Crozier. 2. Buck Wimberly, by himself. 3. Tumbling, University gym team. 4. Modern dance, Woodword Williams and partner. 5. "Dance of the Clowns," Dr. Richard Crozier and Miss Dalores Crozier. 6. Satyr Figure, Dramatic Order of Satyrs. 7. Grand March with Favors, Ensemble.

The last number before the grand March, the tapping of the new Satyrs, will be one of the most attractive features. George S. Wimberly has been elected leader of the dance and John Shaw and Jonathan Daniels have been chosen as assistants.

With the combined attraction of the seventh series of Carolina folk plays today and Saturday evenings, the baseball game with N. C. State Saturday afternoon and the carnival Friday night a delightful week-end is anticipated.

CONSTRUCTION CAMP TO BE ERECTED SOON

Camp and Railroad Spur to Facilitate Speed in New Building Program.

A large construction camp is to be erected just off the campus for laborers who will be employed in working on the new buildings that are to be put up according to the building program.

The need of new buildings is so acute that all the new ones are to be built within the next 18 months. With this large camp, and the railroad spur much time can be saved in the work.

CAROLINIANS ADVANCE TOWARD CHAMPIONSHIP; DEFEAT TRINITY 4 TO 2

Carolina Overcomes Trinity's Early Lead and Wins Four To Two.

TEAM RETURNS STRONG

Developing a punch that was entirely lacking in the Davidson game, Carolina overcame Trinity's early lead and edged out a clean 4 to 2 victory over the Methodists Thursday on Emerson field.

The contest was the first of the Trinity series and its outcome was eagerly watched throughout the State because of its bearing upon the State championship standing.

Trinity drew first blood in the second, after having lost an excellent chance to register in the first when Carson and Neal singled in succession, but died on the bags when Spikes grounded out to McLean.

Carolina was quick to retaliate, however, and came back in the same frame with two runs. Spruill beat out a pretty bunt to first, went to second and third on successive passed balls.

Carolina registered again in the third. McDonald walked and scored on McLean's slashing two-bagger. Fred Morris advanced McLean on his infield out, and things looked good for another tally, but Shirley fouled out, and Spruill, after drawing his base on balls, was caught out stealing second by Carson on a chance peg.

Trinity annexed her second run in the sixth when Carson reached first on a clean single, and scored on Spike's Texas leaguer and Shirley's error.

Spruill contributed another to the Tar Heels' run column in the eighth, when he singled, his third for the day, and scored on Sweetman's timely drive to center.

Neither pitcher was at his best. Wilson, who has always been regarded with terror by the Methodists, allowed seven hits, while Carroll besides allowing a like number of safeties, also walked five men.

DURHAM HIGH SCHOOL WINS AYCOCK MEMORIAL CUP FOR SECOND TIME

Miss Eunice Hutchins and Ludlow Rodgers Defeat Greensboro by a Unanimous Decision.

800 DEBATERS TAKE PART

A unanimous decision of the Judges gave Miss Eunice Hutchins and Ludlow Rodgers, of the Durham High School, victory over the Greensboro team and the Aycock Memorial Cup, which carries with it the championship of North Carolina, Friday night in the final high school debating contest in Memorial Hall.

This debate was the culmination of one of the biggest State-wide contests that has ever been conducted by the High School Debating Union, and was heard by what Secretary Rankin said was probably the largest crowd that ever heard such a contest here.

These teams had fought their way through the ranks of at least eight hundred high school debates, beginning in the local triangular debates and climbing successfully through the first and second preliminaries here up to the final contest.

The affirmative advocated collective bargaining, on the grounds that it is right in principle and that it is a natural outgrowth of our industrial system that is necessary to the welfare of the workers, while the negative insisted that it was undemocratic, un-American, and unnecessary.

The contest was judged by Profs. H. M. Wagstaff, L. P. McGehee, L. R. Wilson, George Howe, and Archibald Henderson.

Prof. W. S. Bernard presided over the exercises and Mr. E. R. Rankin acted as secretary. The Aycock cup was presented to the victorious Durham team by Prof. H. H. Williams with appropriate remarks.

The teams winning places in the second preliminaries on the affirmative were as follows: Sanford, Scotland Neck, Calypso, Greensboro, High Point, Mt. Olive, Chapel Hill, Washington Collegiate Institute, Leaksville, Goldsboro, Gastonia, Kings Mountain, and Durham; and on the negative, High Point, Scotland Neck, Greensboro, Rock Ridge, Henderson, St. Paul's, Durham, Louisburg, Concord, Washington Collegiate Institute, Chapel Hill, Tarboro, and Goldsboro.

The schools sending debating teams to Chapel Hill for the contest were Black Mountain, Bladenboro, Burgaw, Calypso, Candler, Chapel Hill, Churchland, Columbus, Concord, Durham, Falling Creek, Fayetteville, Gastonia, Glade Valley, Goldsboro, Grifton, Harmony, Henderson, High Point, Huntersville, Jonesboro, Kings Mountain, Leaksville, Lenoir, Louisburg, Marshville, Maxton, Monroe, Mt. Olive, Norlina, Poplar Branch, Princeton, Red Oak, Rock Ridge, Roper, Ruffin, Rutherfordton, Sanford, Scotland Neck, Seaboard, Siler City, St. Pauls, Stonewall, Summerfield, Tarboro, Trinity, Wadesboro, Washington Collegiate Institute, and Waynesville.

SOPHS WILL HOLD BRILLIANT SMOKER

The Sophomores will hold their first smoker of the year tomorrow night, in Swain Hall. An interesting program has been arranged by the entertainment committee.

An orchestra recruited from the local talent is to render music, and extensive "eats" to be made decided upon. Several stunts are to be presented by members of the class. It cannot be turned into a regular dinner dance though, because of the shortage of Co-eds in the class.
