

Do You Remember

Old Rip, Mrs. Rip, Hendrick Hodson and His Dwarfish Crew?

This grand old story of Washington Irving has been puppetized by George Mitchell.

These wonderful little creations of Tony Sarg will act, speak and tell you this story in a most remarkable and entertaining way.

To-Night

GERRARD HALL

Reserved Seats 75c-$1.00 — Balcony 50c

PHILANTHROPIC HOLDS DEBATE PRELIMINARIES

Taylor and Bradley Chosen From Sophomores, Saunders and Rogers From Freshmen.

Monday night in the Philanthropic Society Hall and Gerrard Hall the preliminary contests for representatives from the Phi in the coming Sophomore and Freshman inter-society debates were held.

In the Phi Hall the Sophomores held forth, with Messrs. B. S. Bowden, L. B. Taylor, J. A. Bradley and Z. T. Fortescue competing. These gentlemen upheld the affirmative side of the query, "Resolved, That the eighteenth amendment should be repealed." The judges, Messrs. A. T. Johnson, W. J. Barefoot, and M. H. Wolff chose Bowden and Taylor as the regular debaters with Bradley as an alternate. The Sophomores threw bombs with real contents into the would-be arguments of future opponents of the negative, and all four delivered interesting and well drafted debates.

At the same time plots were being formed against the affirmative by the gentlemen of the negative, the Freshmen debaters, in their preliminary contest speeches in Gerrard hall. Messrs. J. M. Saunders, L. T. Rogers and Davis were the Freshmen competing.

The arguments of all three men were good and well-defined, with Saunders and Rogers presenting more clearly the speeches of debaters, while the paper of Davis was a splendid type of the real orator's work. The judges, Messrs. B. C. Brown, F. B. McAll and W. D. Perry selected Saunders and Rogers as the representatives of the Phi in the coming debate and chose Davis as the alternate. Mr. D. G. Downing presided over the meeting in the Phi hall, while J. Y. Kerr presided in Gerrard hall.

The coming debates between the Sophomores of the Phi and the Sophomores of the Di and the Freshmen of the two societies respectively, will be the last of the series of debates between the two classes during the present year. Heretofore, the contests have been pretty evenly divided between the two groups in respect to victories, with the Phi winning all of the inter-society contests that have been held this year, possibly with the exception of one.

These debates will open the contests for the present quarter. The inter-collegiate preliminaries will be held on February the 5th, and the preliminaries for the Junior oratorical contest will be held on the 13th of this month. After these contests forensic aspirants will have a period of rest until the spring quarter comes and preliminaries for the oratorical contests and the commencement debates will be held. From the group of debaters who were out on Monday night some excellent material will be derived for the future inter-collegiate contests.

DAVIDSON ANNOUNCES 1922 FOOTBALL CARD

Davidson, Feb. 1.—The 1922 football schedule of Davidson college was announced today. The card carries ten dates, but so far efforts to obtain a satisfactory game for November 11, have been unavailing.

The schedule:
September 23—Elon College at Davidson.

September 29—Presbyterian College of South Carolina at Clinton, S. C.

October 7—Georgia Tech at Atlanta.

October 14—Wake Forest at Charlotte.

October 21—Virginia Poly Institute at Davidson.

October 28—Trinity College of North Carolina at Charlotte.

November 4—North Carolina State at Raleigh.

November 13—Open.

November 18—University of N. C., place undecided.

November 30—Furman University at Greenville.

self as one of the cleverest base runners in the state. For the remaining outfield positions Fetzler will have a wealth of material to choose from out of the sluggers from the 1921 first-year nine.

Undoubtedly the prospects for the season of 1922 are bright, and nothing less than a prolonged streak of rainy weather or other such undue hard luck can keep this year's Carolina nine from repeating or even bettering its 1921 record.

Pertinent Points

In Life Insurance

TRY THIS WITH A COIN.

Flip a coin 10 times and the results will vary from heads once and tails nine times to tails once and heads nine times.

Flip a coin 300 times and you won't miss heads 150 and tails 150 times enough to differ.

Just so the LAW OF AVERAGE in life insurance changes your uncertainty of success as an individual into absolutely certainty as a member of a group, when you join with hundreds of other Carolina men in enjoying a Jefferson Standard Policy.

The University Agency, Inc.

President, John Umstead, Jr.
Vice President, Bill Harris
Secretary-Treasurer, Bill Andrews
Manager, Harding Butt

Agents: Leonard Epstein, Gus Reavis, Dewey Dorsett

WOFFORD OUTCLASSED BY THE TAR HEELS

South Carolinians Never Had Chance to Win—Final Score, 54 to 26.

Carolina literally swamped Wofford here Thursday night by the overwhelming score of 54 to 26. Clearly outclassed in every phase of the contest Wofford failed to make the game interesting for the varsity and Coach Fetzler gave the second and third teams 15 minutes of experience. Not once did the visitors lead and succeeded in shooting only six field goals during the entire game.

Carolina's varsity began, after 14 minutes of play, when the score stood 28-8 in favor of Carolina, the second team went in and finished the first half. First half closed 28-10 in favor of Carolina. The varsity also opened the second half and ran the score up to 44-13. At this stage of the game Carolina's third team entered and were allowed to finish the game, making six field goals in eight minutes of play.

Clever work by C. Carmichael, Green and McDonald, for Carolina, were features, whiel Lindsay, for Wofford, made one field goal and 14 fouls out of 20 chances. C. Carmichael pitched 10 fouls out of 13 chances, and copped four field goals. There was little excitement and the game was dull and listless throughout. This is Carolina's fourth scalp in succession, having come off victorious in every college game this season.

The line-up:
Carolina (54) Wofford (26)
Greene.....LF.....Collins
Perry.....RF.....Lindsay
C. Carmichael..C.....Tillinghast
McDonald.....LG.....Stokes
W. Carmichael..RG.....Rogers
Substitutions: Wofford—Childs for Stokes; Rogers for Williams, R.

Carolina: Mahler for Greene, Ambler for Perry, Graham for McDonald; Purser for W. Carmichael, Williams for C. Carmichael. Neiman for Greene, Wright for Perry, Mahler for C. Carmichael, Lineberger for McDonald, Brown for W. Carmichael.

Field goals by scrubs: Carolina—Neiman 1, Wright 2, Masler 2. Time by halves: 20 minutes. Referee, Baldwin, Trinity. Timekeeper, Spruill

A Humane Mayor.
Talk about Sunday blue laws, here's a decree issued not long ago by the mayor of a little commune in the Pyrenees: "Whereas, the young people of the commune are wont to meet and dance every Sunday after mass, and the noise they make frightens the cocks, hens and all other animals of the village, we hereby prohibit dancing within the bounds of the commune during the hours in which the domestic animals take their repose."—Boston Transcript.

CAROLINA AND TRINITY MEET IN GYMNASIUM HERE SATURDAY NIGHT

(Continued From Page One.)

small Trinity court has always been a handicap to Carolina, accustomed to playing on the big gymnasium court here. Trinity, on the other hand, used to playing on their small court, has never been able to play the same brand of basketball here as in Durham.

It will be a battle royal tomorrow night. Anyway it is figured, the game will doubtless be close and exciting. If Carolina wins chances for State championship honors are mighty bright, though the team will still be forced to play Trinity on her own territory. If Trinity wins, the odds will be all with the Methodists for state championship honors for 1922. There is hardly any other candidate in the state for state honors, now that Wake Forest and State have succumbed to both these teams. However, if Davidson should spring out with a real aggregation, there is a chance that the Wildcats will have to be counted. Also, Elon, and some of the smaller colleges may speak up for a show down, should they win from some of the bigger colleges later in the season.

Fetzler's team is in fine shape for the contest tomorrow night. The same line-up that faced State will probably be used, with Captain "Cart" Carmichael at center, McDonald and "Billy" Carmichael at guards and "Sis" Perry and Green running as forwards. If this team can get together with the same teamwork that made the 1921 quint one of the most talked of basketball teams in the south, Trinity nor no other southern team will be able to stop the powerful combination.

CAROLINA DEFEATS STATE COLLEGE IN RALEIGH

(Continued From Page One.)

out of a possible fourteen. Green and "Cart" Carmichael were probably the most effective players of the game. The former shot five pretty court goals, while the Carolina captain played his usual fast game, showing flashes of brilliancy at times. For State both Groome and Park played creditably on the offense, and Homewood played a strong game at the guard position, doing much to break up the tactics of the Carolina machine in its style of play.

The Carolina quint far outplayed State, but was not so brilliant as in many games last season, and as hopes are entertained for the team to be this season. It played a hard, steady, game, but there was none of the brilliancy that might be expected from such a combination of reputed basketball stars. The ten days rest and training did much good in making the team better in many respects, but the showing made against State Wednesday night did not indicate that state championship would be easy to cop.

Coach Fetzler made no substitutions except when McDonald was forced out of the game, and Purser took his place. State made several changes during the course of the game, Harry Hartsell evidently endeavoring to get a line on the best combination that he could get.

The line-up and summary follow:

Carolina (30)	N. C. State (17)
Position.
R. F.
Green	Park
L. F.
Perry	Long
C.
C. Carmichael	Groome
R. G.
McDonald	Johnson
L. G.
W. Carmichael	Homewood

Substitution for Carolina: Purser for McDonald.

Substitutions for N. C. State: Jeannette for Johnson; Curtis for Long; Kinnette for Curtis; Long for Kinnette; Johnson for Homewood.

Carolina Scoring: Field goals, Green 5, Perry 1, C. Carmichael 4, McDonald 1, W. Carmichael 2. Foul goals: W. Carmichael, 4 out of 10.

N. C. State scoring: Field goals, Park 1, Long 1, Groome 2, Jeannette 1, Johnson 1. Foul goals: Groome, 2 out of 6; Park, 3 out of 8.

Referee, Lewis, Greensboro "Y." Umpire, Knight, Durham "Y."

It's not the things we do

That we so often live to regret. It's the things we might have done. Every middle-aged man will tell you that he regrets not having begun to build up his insurance early in life. You have their experience to guide you. Don't make the same mistake they made and put it off too long.

Insure Today With

The Southern Life & Trust Co.

GREENSBORO, N. C.

Assets, $5,000,000 Capital, $1,000,000
Insurance in force, $50,000,000

"Invest Your Money Where You Pay Your Taxes"

FLOWERS

For All Occasions
Hibberd, Florist, Durham, N. C.
Chapel Hill Agent:
EUBANKS DRUG CO.

We Strive to Please Carolina Men

J. C. BRANTLEY, Druggist

Masonic Temple Raleigh, N. C.

Cigars Sodas

Coke Cigar Store

Raleigh, N. C.
SPORTING GOODS

Candies Periodicals

University Cafeteria

Breakfast Dinner
7:30 to 9:30 12:00 to 2:30
Supper—6:00 to 7:30

ESSIE BROTHERS

SPECIAL ICE CREAM THIS WEEK