CAROLINA WINS OVER V. M. I. CADETS WITH POWERFUL OFFENSIVE

Queen and "Billy" Carmichael Stars for Fetzer's Team—Cadets Show Splendid Team Work.

GAME HOTLY CONTESTED

Carolina defeated V. M. I. in the first game of the northern trip at Lexington, Friday night, taking the larger end of a 31 to 26 score. The game throughout was toughly contested and featured by excellent team work, both on the part of the Tar Heels and the Cadets. The Carolina offense, the best seen in Lexington this season, according to the Richmond Times Dispatch correspondent here, was the main factor in the victory for the Tar Heels.

The V. M. I. team displayed excellent team work but was off shooting. Captain Bunting, of the V. M. I. team was absent from the game, and Campbell their fast forward was forced from the game near the end of the second half. Carolina took the lead early but scoring four points before Campbell registered a field goal. From that time until the end of the game it was a steady grind for both teams, Carolina maintaining her lead with two exceptions.

Near the end of the first half the score was tied, 15 to 15, but a foul goal gave Carolina a 16 to 15 lead before the half was up. Earlier in the half the score had been 10 to 10 with both teams playing a strong defensive game.

Green and Billy Carmichael led in the scoring for Carolina, securing three field goals each. McDonald secured two field goals and C. Carmichael, playing the leading floor game of the night, secured two field goals as well.

From start to finish the game was interesting and enthusiasm was kept at a high pitch throughout by sensational bits of dribbling on the part of both teams, and beautiful passing in the part of Carolina. The passing game played by the Tar Heels was the finest they have exhibited this season, and was the main factor in the V. M. I. defeat.

Ryder and Campbell for V. M. I. were the outstanding men. Both played an excellent floor game and secured four and three field goals respectively.

DR. NATHAN VACCINATES ALL CAMPUS JANITORS

Some Humorous Scenes Occur When the Fifteen Darkies Go Through the Ordeal—Took Persuasion.

As a result of the small pox scare, 15 husky janitors were vaccinated by Dr. Nathan state health officer, Thursday afternoon in the basement of Alumni building, only after they were finally convinced that the vaccination was absolutely necessary for their own safety as well as for the safety of others. The broom-wielders were none too anxious to have their tanned skin pricked by the needle, and it took an oily flow of talk from Dr. Nathan, Mr. Birch, and Mr. Pickard to finally line them up for the operation.

A humorous scene was offered when Dr. Nathan, who weighs all of 300 pounds, and whose professional aspect was none too consoling to the black cloud, took off his coat, laid out the necessary materials, and called for the first victim. The janitors wanted to roll the bones to decide who would be first, but one especially black boy sprang a surprise when he volunteered first, and baring his dusky arm, walked up unsteadily, rolling his damp eyes Heavenward as if seeking guidance.

When Dr. Nathan applied the needle to the squirming darky, the other janitors seemed to enjoy the fruitless efforts of the victim to keep a stolid countenance, and he became the target for several bits of African humor: "Sam, Yo' lookin' pale, sho nuff," "Is dat a earthquake or Sam's knees knockin'?" "Would a glass a' mule he'p, Sam?" "Looks dot boy jump! he'll hump his haid on the ceiling, directly." But when Sam's amused audience were called up one by one, they suddenly became serious and went through the same convulsive shivers, shimmings, eye rolling, as did Sam.

All the janitors had a tendency to pull down their shirt sleeves over the scar immediately, but when Dr. Nathan told them that the blood would get on their sleeves and would vac-

GENERALS HAND TAR HEELS FIRST DEFEAT OF SEASON 38 TO 25

Washington and Lee Has Little Trouble Winning From Carolina on Home Floor in Lexington.

CART CARMICHAEL STARS

(Special to Tar Heel)

Lexington, Va.—Washington and Lee defeated Carolina on the Washington and Lee court Saturday night, 38 to 25, the first defeat experienced by the Carolina team, and the second game on the northern trip. Cart Carmichael was out of the game part of the time on account of his bad knee. During his stay in the game he was the outstanding man on the Carolina team and the best man on the court.

During the first half Washington and Lee practically put the game on ice, the Carolina team being badly off in shooting, securing only two field goals. The two Washington and Lee guards were exceptionally good and held down the Tar Heel shot throughout the game.

At the end of the first period, the score stood 13 to 9 in favor of the Generals. From the start of the second half Washington and Lee played rings around the visitors and ran up the score by a series of beautiful shots from the floor by Lake, Hines and Glenn. Although North Carolina battled gamely W. and L. worked in perfect unison from almost every tip off and succeeded in penetrating the visitors' defense from the middle of the floor.

Lake scored twenty of Washington and Lee's points while Glenn and Thomas also starred. For the visitors C. Carmichael played a consistent game at center.

The line-up and summary:

No speaker may use quotations without making it clear that he is quoting and the entire amount of quoted matter may not exceed 200 words. Every contestant will be required to submit to Professor McKie a written statement of the subject he proposes to use.

COMPETITION KEEN IN PRELIMINARY FOR INDOOR TRACK MEET

Freshmen Win First Indoor Class Meet, With Sophomores Coming Second.

NEW MATERIAL IS FOUND

The preliminary indoor track meet held Friday night, with over 50 men competing and witnessed by a good number of spectators, was won by the Freshmen, who rolled up 18 points. The Sophomores followed second with 11 points. This contest being the first of its kind held here, marks a new era in the advancement of track at Carolina, and it is generally thought that the success which attended it will cause more men to both go out for the team and to come out to see the meets. The interest of the spectators never lagged from the start to the finish. Yarborough, with 8 points, was the highest scorer.

Competition for places in the four events—20 yard dash, 20 yard hurdles, standing broad jump, and running jump—was extremely sharp, and ties for places resulted frequently. In case of a tie both of the men were allowed to run in the semi-finals. Among those taking away honors were a large number of men who up to this time were practically unknown in local track circles.

All of the events were carried through with a snap and on account of this, despite the large number of entries, and the big number of heats that had to be run in each contest, the meet was finished in a two hour period.

With the large amount of new material uncovered in the preliminary meet, Carolina's chances for winning the state inter-track meet are good. Especially keen competition should develop among the dash men. Doyle, a Sophomore, ran in good form in the meet, and promises to furnish good opposition to both Woodward and Sinclair. Woodward ran in the dashes in the meet, but because of an operation performed for appendicitis, a few weeks back, he was not in very good shape. The track team has a little less than three weeks before the state clash, and Bob Fetzer is losing no time in getting his team in the pink of perfection.

Doyle, a Sophomore, carried away first honors in the 20 yard dash, running the distance in 2.4-5 seconds, and winning in a walk. Yarborough,

KOCH REQUESTED TO GIVE AID PLANNING PLAYHOUSE

University of Michigan to Build $400,000 Theater and Want Suggestions by Tar Heel.

In a recent letter from J. Raleigh Nelson, chairman of the faculty committee on the theatre in the University of Michigan, to Professor Frederick H. Koch, a request came to the Carolina professor for suggestions in regard to a $400,000 theatre to be erected there. Dr. J. H. Hanford, who was here last year, and who did distinguished work in the English department for several years, has also written to Professor Koch requesting him to try and make arrangements to visit the northern university and lecture on folk playmaking and the community theatre.

As set forth in the daily newspaper published by the University of Michigan its purpose is to have "A real University theatre, containing within its walls facilities for all campus productions, large and small, and giving Michigan a commanding position in educational dramatic work among all the universities throughout the country." The committee has been at work on the plans for the building for over two years.

Professor Koch says that this will be the largest and most expensive theatre of its kind in America, and he is very anxious to aid the Michigan authorities in their work if it is possible for him to do so. He has been engaged in work of the kind for many years, and it was because of his long experience in dramatic activities in American universities

AUTOMOBILE AND ENGINE COLLIDE RAILWAY CROSSING NEAR DURHAM RESULTING IN DEATH OF FOUR MEN

TWO NOT SERIOUSLY HURT

University Community Shocked Over Sad Affair—Boys Were Well Known and Popular.

Three University students and a local taxi driver are dead, and two other students are in Watts hospital at Durham with minor injuries, as a result of the fearful tragedy that has shocked not only the Chapel Hill community but the state at large. The scene of the collision between the automobile in which the boys were returning from the Fancy Dress dance at State college in Raleigh, and the shifting engine of the Southern railway, was at the intersection of the Raleigh road and the Oxford branch, near the Virginia-Carolina chemical plant, about one mile east of Durham. The death crash occurred at 3:30 o'clock Friday morning.

The dead are:

- George M. (Dick) Hadley, sophomore, Mount Airy, N. C.
  - George T. (Pop) Peoples, commerce special student, Townsville, N. C.
  - C. J. (Charlie) Iceman, sophomore, Monroe, N. C.
  - T. B. Bryan, driver, Dalesville, Ala.
- The injured are:
- J. C. (Jule) Spach, junior, Winston-Salem, N. C.
  - Paisley (P) Boney, sophomore, Goldsboro, N. C.
- Funeral Services.
- None of the men that died were conscious after the wreck, and Peoples, Hadley and the driver met death instantly. Iceman was taken to Watts hospital badly bruised and mangled, and upon examination the authorities announced that his condition was practically hopeless. He died shortly after noon the same day. Relatives of all those dead were communicated with and arrived in Durham some time Friday and arranged with friends of the boys from Carolina, to have their remains shipped to their respective homes for interment. Funeral services were held for each of the victims of the sad event

UNIVERSITY REPRESENTED AT Y. M. C. A. CONFERENCE

H. F. Comer, General Secretary, H. D. Duls and G. H. Leonard Attend Annual Meeting.

The annual state conference of the North Carolina Young Men's Christian Association, including both student and city associations, met in Greensboro last week as guest of the Greensboro Y. The University association was represented by G. H. Leonard, '23, H. D. Duls, '24, and Secretary H. F. Comer. At a meeting held Tuesday morning in the O'Henry Hotel, the annual report of the state committee for the year 1921 was presented, which showed an increase of two student associations in the state during the year. Of the student associations the report says, in part:

"The field for student work consists, as last year, of nine colleges and six preparatory schools. On account of the vacancy in the state student secretaryship, the work has been divided between the boy's work secretary and a special student secretary. The student associations at the University of North Carolina, North Carolina State College and Davidson College have general secretaries."

The report further discusses the voluntary group Bible study, Student Volunteer bands, deputation or "Gospel teams" and many other phases of the student association activity.

At a meeting held Wednesday for student representatives only, Secretary Dwight Chalmers of Davidson College, presided, and led a discussion of the various activities of the

Joe McLean Is Chosen Best Round Man In Annual Senior Vote

Results of Other Places Named—Members of Class Who Had Not Paid Dues Were Ineligible to Vote or Fill Any of the Places—Some Interesting Features.

(By S. L. Apple.)

At a late hour Wednesday evening, the Senior ballot for some of the most representative men in the class came to a close. The ballot boxes were placed in the "Y" two weeks ago in which votes were cast for the election which was to come to an end February 15. The fact that voting eligibility was determined upon, whether or not the Senior class fees had been paid, caused many prospective candidates to come across with their dues, thereby making it possible for the class to have another smoker in the near future without making individual charges.

Joe McLean was chosen for the best all-round with Marion Nash running close second. Jim Phipps occupied a very conspicuous position in third place. By virtue of being president of the Phi Beta Kappa organization here, M. E. Lake had practically no opposition for the best student. The fact that he had made only one "2" during his college course also had a bearing on this vote. Ed Sweetman had a hard race against Marion Nash and Jim Phipps for the most popular, but was elected by a safe majority. Willie Horner and C. J. Williams were the only ones receiving votes for the most energetic. "C. J." won out by a fairly wide majority.

O. M. Abernethy won out for the best athlete over Cannon Murchison and Jacobi. "Ab's" thirty yard drive through the Virginia line in his Sophomore year has probably never been forgotten. "Ty" Porter and Willie Horner had some opposition from Charlie Parker for the best writer. Porter received a fairly wide ma-
