

PLAYMAKERS ATTEMPT GREAT UNDERTAKING IN SECURING ENGAGEMENT

Madam Borgny Hammer and Company, Famous Scandinavian Players to Present Play.

WILL BE HERE MARCH 6

The engagement of Madam Borgny Hammer, the great Norse actress, formerly of the National Theatre of Christiania, Norway, and Mr. Rolf Fjell, formerly of the Central Theatre of Christiania, by the Carolina Playmakers to appear here in Memorial Hall on March 6, is the greatest undertaking of any dramatic organization ever at the University.

Madame Hammer received her training in the National Theatre of Norway, and the privilege of being taken into this training, which is a national institution, is the greatest honor that can come to a Norwegian in this field of work. When she left her country several years ago she was already well established there as an actress of national reputation.

Since coming to America her new critics have compared her with Mary Garden, Mrs. Fiske, and Nazimova, while her native critics associated her name and acting abilities with those of such world figures as Eleanor Duse and Sarah Bernhardt.

Mr. Fjell, who plays the stellar role in "The Master Builder," Ibsen's play which is to be presented, is as well known in Norway for his singing as his acting. When he left his native country eight years ago he was considered by his countrymen as the greatest living Norwegian tenor. His success as an actor in America has been equally as well received.

Mr. Fjell appeared first with Madame Hammer at the Central Theatre of Christiania several years ago and has been with her ever since except during the period when she acted at the National Theatre of Christiania.

"The Master Builder" is one of Ibsen's greatest plays, and the two famous players are to be assisted by a distinguished cast of American actors. The play will, of course, be given in English, and because of the reputation of the production and the principals the Playmakers have seen fit to utilize Memorial Hall for the performance. The capacity of the Play House is too small to accommodate the large audience which is expected to hear the play.

Prices are to be cut as low as possible so that everyone can attend the performance. The seats of Memorial Hall are to be arranged to give the best advantage to the audience and price fixed according to their situation. It is a gigantic undertaking on the part of the University's dramatic organization, but the quality of the play and the cast was sufficient to warrant the venture.

ANNALIST CARRIES STORY BY PROF. MURCHISON

University Faculty Man Writes About "The Latest Work on Price Maintenance."

The "Annalist," one of the leading magazines in the country on finance, commerce, and economics, carried an article in the February 13 issue, written by Professor T. C. Murchison of the school of commerce of the University. His subject, "The Latest Work on Price Maintenance," Professor Murchison reviewed the case of the Beechnut Packing Company with the Supreme Court and pointed out the significance of the case.

The Beechnut Company had been fixing the re-sale prices of commodities of all its mail order houses and having the ordinance strictly observed by the reports of special agents, and in view of the fact that this practice suppressed competition among retail distributors, the Federal Trade Commission strongly protested against this act since it was a violation of the anti-trust laws. The commission ordered that the Beechnut company "desist from directly or indirectly recommending, requiring, or by any means bringing about the re-sale of Beechnut products by distributors, whether at wholesale or retail, according to any system of prices fixed or established by respondent, Beechnut company."

CONTEST NOTICE.

Midnight of March 1st is the very last minute that contributions for the Sigma Upsilon short story contest may be submitted.

Send in your story now. You've got just as good a chance to win as any other freshman, but you'll have to act quickly, as absolutely no stories may be submitted after the closing date.

Announcement as to the award will be made as soon as possible after the close of the contest, and the winning story will be published in the Carolina Magazine.

All contributions should be mailed or handed to J. J. Wade, Chapel Hill. It is not required that the manuscripts be type-written, but such is preferable.

DURHAM QUINT WINS OUT OVER CHAPEL HILL HIGH

Midget Quintet From Bull City Eliminates Chapel Hill Five By 40-17 Score Tuesday Night.

Durham high school took the Chapel Hill high school into the fold and out of the championship race here Tuesday night to the tune of 40 to 17. The beautiful passing and accurate shooting of the Durham high team was about the best seen in these parts lately, barring no team, high school or college.

Durham took the lead early in the game and never gave Chapel Hill a chance. Three field goals in succession, almost before the noise had died down from the first gave the Bull City team a more decisive lead. Near the close of the first half a spurt by Durham ran the score up to 23 to 11, and from that time on the game was on ice.

The second half opened with Chapel Hill showing more stuff. Two long field goals by Wilson and McIver put speed in the team and for a few minutes they looked almost as good as Durham. The snappy passing of Durham came to the rescue at once and the score began to gradually mount, for Durham.

R. Hackney, Durham center, was the leading scorer from the court. He secured six field goals while Green and Kelly, Durham forwards, registered five each. Green also secured three fouls.

For Chapel Hill, Wilson was easily the most consistent player in the game. He played hard from start to finish, handling the ball well, passing with speed, and guarding closely. Roberts and J. McIver also played a good game at center and forward.

The game was rough. At times it looked as if the little Durham forwards would be smothered, and one time a little fellow went in between two of the Chapel Hill giants and came out on his neck. He recovered quickly and kept on playing a good game.

Line-up and summary:
Chapel Hill Position Durham
Cole ..... Green
Right Forward
Roberts ..... Kelly
Left Forward
McIver, J. .... Hackney, R.
Center
McIver, S. .... Hackney, B.

Inter-Fraternity Basket Ball Race Now On. Arranged by "13"

The Inter-Fraternity basket ball champions are being selected for the present season. Each fraternity bidding for the honor is playing off a schedule arranged by the "13" and up to the present time Delta Tau Delata and Sigma Alpha Epsilon are leading.

The S. A. E.'s defeated the Sigma Nus early in the season. D. K. E. took out A. T. O., and S. A. E. won over D. K. E. The Delta's ran all over Sigma Chi and the next issue will carry reports on the game between the Delta's and the Kappa Sigmas. Other fraternities have entered the race but have not played games yet.

YELLOW JOURNAL FALLS SHORT OF EXPECTATIONS

"Scurvy" Enough But Sadly Amis in Many Phases—Plays Up Wrong Men and Organizations.

Wow! The Yellow Journal has thrust itself among us.

It claims to be a "scurvy sheet," and falls far short of its pretensions. It is scurvy, certainly, but it falls far short of our expectation of what such a journal should be. Some of it is good, a lot of it merely passable, and a great deal of it is just downright rotten, but the greatest flaw that we perceive is not in what's included, but in the glaring oversights and omissions which make the journal so very narrow, and lacking absolutely in perspective.

The Playmakers got much more than their share of hard knocks, and Professor Green, if charged at the regular rate for advertisement, must be hopelessly insolvent. The fraternity write-ups were good in spots, but showed a bitterness in one or two instances which smacked certainly of personal animosity. The editorials would have appeared well in a much less frivolous publication; in fact, there was a more or less dignified tone voiced in them that was not strictly in color with the rest of the sheet.

The very fact however that none of the orders, either Junior or Sophomore social, or Senior honorary, were even mentioned constitutes the most glaring blunder possible in such a publication. Many men, dominant factors in campus social and political life, were absolutely ignored while others relatively unimportant and unknown figured prominently in the columns.

We note that the next issue will be out in May. No doubt there will be sufficient time for the board of editors, which after all isn't such a sphinx-like assembly as they would have it appear, to profit by past mistakes and gather enough real stuff to put out a real "Scurvy Sheet."

CITY UNION WILL HOLD MEETING SUNDAY NIGHT

All Members of Various Church Organizations Are Urged to Be Present.

The second union meeting of the City Union will be held in the Episcopal Church on Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock under the auspices of St. Hilda's Guild and the Brotherhood of St. Andrew of that Church.

The City Union is an organization composed of all the young peoples societies of the different churches on the Hill. It was organized last fall, and held its first meeting at the Christian church, and later a social at the Presbyterian church.

Following the same plan this quarter the meeting will be held as stated above with the following program: Evening service conducted by Andrew D. Milstead of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew; "Ideals of the Union," by James A. Bradley, of the Christian Endeavor, president of the City Union; minutes, by Miss Alma Holland of St. Hilda's Guild, secretary of the City Union; talks on the work of their organizations by Miss Mary Yellott of St. Hilda's Guild and William A. Lillycrop of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew; social gathering in the parish house.

All members of the following organizations are especially urged to attend, though everybody is cordially invited: Christian Endeavor, Epworth League, B. Y. P. U., St. Hilda's Guild and Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

Big Party To Be Thrown Tonight In Swain Hall—"Carolina Smoker"

An Unusual, Gripping, Fascinating Series of Stunts Is Arranged for the Sum Total of Fifty cents a Head—The Special Co-Ed Broadway Whirl Will Be Rare Treat.

Tonight at 1 o'clock Swain Hall will be turned into a fairyland of brilliant colors, the very gayest and electrifying festival of the entire year, at which time the Carolina Smoker Intoxicant will be presented by local talent in beautifully decorated costumes, including an unusual, gripping, fascinating program of stunts and the co-ed Broadway whirl which is 100 proof full of joy and fun.

It is announced that this program

COMMITTEE PLANNING AN ELECTION SYSTEM

Campus Cabinet Has Men at Work in Effort to Submit Better Plan of Holding Elections.

The elections committee of the campus cabinet is making a detailed study of systems in vogue at other institutions, according to a report submitted by Mr. Comer at the regular meeting of the cabinet Monday night. The committee will have completed its investigations and be ready to make some very definite suggestions at the next fortnightly meeting, said Mr. Comer.

It is the opinion of members of the cabinet that the present haphazard method of conducting elections will fall down entirely under conditions brought about by an enlarged student body and a proportionately increased number of activities. The committee was appointed for the purpose of studying this situation at Carolina and other large institutions where student government is in force, with a view to working out an effective plan that would prove satisfactory.

Investigation so far has shown that in most of the larger universities elections of officers for the various activities are pooled, all taking place on a fixed, well-advertised election day, in many cases a holiday or half-holiday being granted for the occasion. At some institutions primaries are held before the regular election in order to eliminate some of the candidates and thus shorten the ballot.

The committee believes that any system to be satisfactory must insure a maximum percentage of students voting intelligently, as well as an like! What material for a sermon on modern youth! Oh, that the Rev. Mr. McMahon could have been there. From the underworld of the gym came a knight, without hat or cap, without coat or vest or tie, with hair wet from his recent annual, with towel and soap and sponge—B. Ben, efficient system of balloting and counting votes. Any suggestions will be welcomed.

Besides Mr. Comer, the other two members of the committee are L. J. Phipps and G. B. Porter.

NEW DIME CATCHER IS THE POLAR BEAR BAR

Students Relish New Delicacy According to Sales at Five Stores. Inventor Is Rich.

The latest and most successful dime-catcher to appear in the University town is here in the form of the variously termed "Polar Bear Bars," and "Eskimo Pie." Casual inquiry at the five local concerns which have this delicacy for sale indicates that between a hundred and fifty and two hundred dozen bars of the chocolate coated ice cream are being sold daily—that is around two thousand.

The invention of the Chicago dairyman certainly seems to tickle the palate of the Carolina man, as the figures show that every man is having his every-day and quite a good number are going back for the second helping.

It is said that the inventor of the new confection was a poor man—an ordinary laborer in a dairy plant—sixty days ago, and that he has prospects of millions from his patents covering the process whereby the ice cream is coated with chocolate. Reports has it that more than a million and a half of the bars are being sold daily, in which case the inventor's royalty of five cents on the dozen, runs into quite impressive figures.

FAIR VISITORS ON CAMPUS.

(By G. W. L.)

With a great display of finery knit silken hosiery and dainty feminine characteristics five fair damsels appeared suddenly upon the campus Monday afternoon apparently from some unknown source and threw the occupants of all the dormitories into a fit of intoxication.

The ambitious studes of South, Old West, Old East, Carr, and all the rest of them were trying to while away the balmy afternoon by studying in spite of the call of spring, the beautiful sunshine and the singing birds. But it was not so to be. The pretty chickens were seen coming from between Old West and Gerrard by a loud-mouthed Freshman who gave the alarm.

Five of them there were, and five daintier pieces of Eve's flesh could not have been found. Heads were forthcoming from many windows, dogs and janitors stared at the new Eden on Carolina's campus, and from a top-most window of South building some of the campus' most famous celebrities saw more than they had ever dreamed of gazing upon.

HIGH SCHOOL BASKETBALL CREATING MUCH INTEREST

Keen Competition Among Schools in Both East and West—One-Half Teams Eliminated.

Interest in the outcome of the high school basketball contest increases as the date for the final game approaches. Over half of the teams that entered have been eliminated by now, and the competition keen at the first of the season, is steadily on the increase.

Chapel Hill, winner of the state championship for last year was easily eliminated last Tuesday night by Durham high school. This school, however, is not by itself in not having as good a team as it did last year, and numerous examples of it are seen cropping up.

The final contest for the state championship will be played here on the gym floor about March 10th. The champion of the East will meet the champion of the West and to the winner a silver cup for permanent possession will be offered.

Since the establishment of the inter-high school contests by the bureau of extension in the University, the following teams have won the state championship: 1915, Winston-Salem from Raleigh; 1916, Durham from Winston-Salem; 1917, Winston-Salem from Durham; 1918, Durham from Winston-Salem; 1919, Winston-Salem from Wilmington; 1920, Wilmington from Charlotte; 1921, Chapel Hill from Charlotte.

ARCHITECTURAL MAGAZINE PRAISES A LOCAL EDIFICE

Chapel Hill Presbyterian Church Described in Issue of "Architecture," Leading Magazine.

High praise is accorded the Chapel Hill Presbyterian church by a writer in "Architecture," a magazine published in New York and considered one of the leading authorities on design, is received here with keen pleasure.

"If you have had the pleasure of visiting the University of North Carolina, situated in Chapel Hill—and have wandered across its beautiful campus," says Aaron G. Alexander, the author of the article, "you undoubtedly have noticed, directly across the main street, a church nestling in among its picturesque surroundings. You probably thought it one of those rare old gems which had been overlooked when you were South collecting photographs for the enlightenment of the architectural profession.

"Through the generous co-operation of the donor, James Sprunt, Hobart B. Upjohn, the architect, has erected a building which harmonizes so well with its surroundings that one feels as though it might have been standing a hundred years. From the graceful, stately lines of the front portico, and the fine proportions of the spire, you see that a skillful hand has designed the building. The co-

VIRGINIA DEFEATS TAR HEELS BY TWO POINT MARGIN ON TRIP 31-29

Carolina Loses Second Game of Tour After Hard Battle—Carmichael and McDonald Feature.

PLAY EXTRA 5 MINUTES

Virginia defeated Carolina, 31 to 29, on the Virginia court Monday night in the first game between the colleges this season and the third game of the northern trip. The Virginia game was the second defeat of the season and the second defeat on the northern trip. Virginia won by a lonesome two points, securing them in an extra five minute session when the game ended with the score tied.

Carrington, Virginia forward, was responsible for the two points that defeated Carolina, and with Oppleman, was the best man on the Virginia team. Cart Carmichael and McDonald led the Carolina offensive that came so near to victory only to lose in the extra period.

The floor work of McDonald was an outstanding feature of the game. Green was one of the principal scorers of the game, and with Perry played brilliant basketball. Billy Carmichael bore the brunt of the Virginia offensive and played Carolina's best defensive game.

The Virginia game was the third on the northern trip. After meeting the Army at West Point the team will go to Atlanta for the Southern Intercollegiate Tournament which will decide the southern championship.

The Tar Heels, unless some of the men are out on injuries, will have more than a good chance for the blue ribbon in the southern meet. Judging from the record of the Trinity team through the south, Carolina has as strong a team as any. The tournament will be an elimination affair, and if Carolina draws a good card for the first game they will be strong contenders at the finish.

ORANGE COUNTY SCHOOL NEWS NAME PUBLICATION

Four Page Monthly Live Periodical Published at Hillsboro—Fourth Issue Out This Year.

"The Orange County School News" is the name of a live, new little publication which has recently been established by Dr. E. W. Knight, of the school of education. It is a four-page monthly published at Hillsboro by the Orange county school board and the University department of rural education and devoted to the interests of the Orange county schools, their pupils and patrons.

The publication is a four-page, five column paper and is a model of journalism of its type. It is full of live and up-to-date news of the schools and school work of all sections of Orange county, and in addition to its contents its makeup is arranged to give it an attractive appearance. In addition to the news contents and the editorials written by Dr. Knight, the paper carries some impressive cartoons and some pictorial features. While only three issues have been published yet, the publication has not only gained a very wide circulation in Orange county but has attracted attention in other counties.

NEW CHAPEL HILL CLUB TALKS ABOUT SIDEWALKS

Professor Booker Humorously Suggests Making Town "Venice of North Carolina."

The Chapel Hill town club held its regular two weeks meeting Monday evening in the Presbyterian church at which the discussion of sidewalks was the special feature of the meeting. Over seventy-five townspeople were present.

The nature and purpose of the organization is adequately explained on a card invitation sent to each resident of the village. It reads as follows:

"An informal, wholesome, get-together organization of the men of Chapel Hill for fellowship, fun and for the promotion of a better and greater Chapel Hill. Every white male citizen of Chapel Hill, 21 years of age or over, is a member upon acceptance of the invitation and upon assuming responsibility for the payment of his supper at 50 cents a
