

W. H. C. Library

TAR HEELS
versus
GAME-CKOCKS

The Tar Heel

TAR HEELS
versus
GAME-CKOCKS

Volume XXXI.

Chapel Hill, N. C., Friday, October 13, 1922

Number 6

CLASS SECRETARIES MEET AND HELP GRANT SOLVE CLASSIFICATION PROBLEM

Discussion at Supper in Episcopal Parish House Results in Steps Toward Better Organization.

MANY IDEAS EXCHANGED

Twenty-one permanent secretaries and acting secretaries of alumni classes ranging from 1888 to 1922 were guests at a supper given at the Episcopal parish house last Wednesday evening. Afterwards an informal discussion of ways and means for getting a complete classification of all living alumni was held under the direction of Dr. L. R. Wilson, who presided at the meeting, and Daniel L. Grant, permanent secretary of the general alumni association.

Before the discussion began a word of welcome to the visiting secretaries was voiced by President Chase, who emphasized the importance of the kind of work the alumni association is engaged in and its significance for the University.

Dr. L. R. Wilson, chairman of the meeting, made a short introductory talk, showing the relation of the work of students, faculty, trustees and alumni. He then turned the meeting over to Mr. Grant, who presented to the group some phases of the difficult task confronting him as general secretary and called for discussion. Stating emphatically that the loyalty of the alumni in most cases was not to be doubted, Grant laid great stress on the difficulty of getting in touch with them and getting them lined up with alumni work as organized in the general association.

"The purpose of this meeting," said Grant, "is not to talk about the glories of being University men but to discuss practical means of linking up 11,000 alumni with the work of the association and forming, if possible, a permanent secretaries' bureau for the purpose of better carrying on this work."

The main difficulty, as brought out at the meeting, in classifying alumni lies in placing a man definitely in a certain particular class. He may have entered with one class, graduated with another, and possibly attend re-unions with a third. After some discussion a motion introduced by Dr. J. G. Murphy was passed. This motion provided that an alumnus will be placed in the class with which he graduated, if he obtained a degree, and in the class with which he entered if he does not graduate, but that all alumni dissatisfied with their classification be permitted to ask for change through their class secretary, a questionnaire being sent them for the purpose of finding out their class affiliation, along with other desired information.

It was also voted that the general secretary be given authority to appoint a committee for the purpose of drawing up a manual for the use of permanent class secretaries in the per-

Russian Symphony Artists Captivate Large Audience

Modest Altschuler Completely Captivates Audience With Smiles and Wit—Program Ends With "Dixie"—Record-Breaking Crowd—Excellent Orchestration.

Playing before one of the largest audiences ever assembled in Chapel Hill to hear a concert of its kind, the Russian Symphony Orchestra, directed by Modest Altschuler, completely won the hearts of nearly seven hundred hearers in Memorial hall Wednesday night. The orchestra, under the directorship of Altschuler, a master mind and genius of orchestration and directorship, rendered seven numbers, composed by the world's most famous musicians. The numbers were masterpieces of inspiration.

Modest Altschuler himself completely won the hearts of his audience, especially toward the last. His announcements of the numbers to follow were full of spicy wit and humor. Especially was this true of the two numbers rendered as encores that he composed. His is a sunny, resourceful disposition, and he contributed much to the success of the concert and the playing of his Russian musicians.

Several Russian numbers were offered, but the program was not confined to Russian music alone. Selections were rendered from Beethoven, Wagner, Grieger, Liszt, Tchaikowsky, Lindoff, Verdi, Altschuler and John Powell, the latter being a Southern product of the musical world, and who has appeared in North Carolina on more than one occasion.

The only solo part of the program was rendered by Elias Broeskin, with the orchestra furnishing his accompaniment. Broeskin is well known all over this country and Europe, and has a winning personality, musical power, and a wonderful command of violinistic technique which enabled him to present the

(Continued on page two.)

CAST FOR "SEVENTEEN" IS SELECTED AFTER TRYOUTS

Play Will Be Given in High School Auditorium November 10 and 11.

The cast for "Seventeen" has been selected by the cast committee of the Playmakers after the most successful tryouts held in some time. Rehearsals have commenced and the plan is to be given in the auditorium of the Chapel Hill school on Friday and Saturday evenings, November 10 and 11.

Nearly 75 people tried out for the 14 parts in the play and a wealth of material of all kinds was unearthed. A surprisingly large number of freshmen were among the would-be Thespians, and their showing was altogether excellent.

The cast committee is greatly encouraged over the results of the tryouts, especially the showing of the freshmen. An accurate account of all the material present at the tryouts will be kept by means of a card index system with a view to future productions. This file will from now on keep track of all available dramatic talent and possibilities on the Hill and will thus greatly facilitate the casting of future plays.

The parts for "Seventeen" were allotted as follows:

Willie Baxter, three retained—T. B. Livingston, N. M. Cates, J. Fagge; Genesis, W. N. Coxe; Lola Pratt, Dorothy Greenlaw; May Parcher, Katherine Batts; George Cooper, F. H. Hursay; Mr. Baxter, LeGrande Everette; Mr. Parcher, W. J. Fauoette; Jane Baxter, Martha Royster; Ethel Boke, Bessie Davenport; Johnnie Watson, A. L. Purington; Joe Bullitt, F. Nance; Wallie Banks, E. H. Tompson; May Brooks, Adeline Deuham; Mrs. Baxter, Kyttye Lea Frazier.

Glee Club Officers Have Been Elected

C. N. Siewers, of Winston-Salem, has been elected president of the Glee Club for the coming year. John Mendenhall has been chosen vice-president and Harold Ross business manager.

At present there are 50 men on the glee club squad. The personnel of the glee club will not be definitely determined until the last of next week or possibly later, and Mr. Hamilton is especially anxious to secure some more good tenor voices.

A trip to eight cities in the western part of the state is planned for the middle of November. The tour will extend as far west as Spartanburg and Asheville. In the spring a trip to the eastern part of the state will be taken.

More Carolina students than ever before are taking private lessons in music. The registration is almost double that of last year, and Mr. Hamilton and Mr. Sheldon both have their time well taken up.

Russian Symphony Artists Captivate Large Audience

Modest Altschuler Completely Captivates Audience With Smiles and Wit—Program Ends With "Dixie"—Record-Breaking Crowd—Excellent Orchestration.

Playing before one of the largest audiences ever assembled in Chapel Hill to hear a concert of its kind, the Russian Symphony Orchestra, directed by Modest Altschuler, completely won the hearts of nearly seven hundred hearers in Memorial hall Wednesday night. The orchestra, under the directorship of Altschuler, a master mind and genius of orchestration and directorship, rendered seven numbers, composed by the world's most famous musicians. The numbers were masterpieces of inspiration.

Modest Altschuler himself completely won the hearts of his audience, especially toward the last. His announcements of the numbers to follow were full of spicy wit and humor. Especially was this true of the two numbers rendered as encores that he composed. His is a sunny, resourceful disposition, and he contributed much to the success of the concert and the playing of his Russian musicians.

JUNIOR CLASS ELECTS HOLSHOUSER PRESIDENT

Wins By Large Majority Over Other Two Candidates—Giersh Is Vice-President.

After an exciting period of the usual politics, speculation, and suspense on the part of the several candidates, the Junior class election was brought to a close Tuesday afternoon at C. A. Hotel-houser, of Salisbury, was elected president on the first ballot by a sweeping majority.

Two other men were in the race for the presidential offices besides Holshouser—Dan Burns and Tom Woodard. The final count gave the winner 129 votes, almost twice as many as his two opponents put together.

(Continued on page two.)

VARSIITY RESTS SECOND HALF, SCRUBS COMPLETE VICTORY

Twenty to Nothing Defeat for Trinity Requires Little Effort on Part of Fetzer's First String—"Red" Johnson Watches Game From Bench.

Trinity's wonder team was swept off their feet here Thursday afternoon, the varsity scoring two touchdowns in the first eight minutes of play. Coach Fetzer sent in his second team after the first half. The scrubs were not satisfied with a 13 to 0 triumph and scored another touchdown near the end of the game. The time-keeper's whistle robbed them of an additional one.

Trinity received the kick-off on the 15-yard line and punted on the second down. Fred Morris skirted left end for 29 yards, then after off-tackle gains by McDonald and Sparrow went through Trinity's line for a touchdown. Blount made the kick good.

Following consistent gains through line and around ends, McGhee carried the ball over for Carolina's second touchdown. In the last five minutes of play, with the ball on the five-yard line, a pass, Merritt to Sparrow, netted the third and last addition to the score.

Red Johnson, held in reserve for the South Carolina game Saturday, watched the contest from the bench.

The newly organized Carolina band was on deck in all its glory and added immensely to the enjoyment of the occasion. The Carolina rooting section under command of Captain Froneberger and his able assistants rivalled the band in quantity of noise produced.

Several hundred Trinity supporters were in the stands and lustily cheered their team throughout the contest. Besides the crowd from Trinity there was a large number of alumni on hand to witness the new feature of the University Day celebration.

The line-up and summary:

Carolina	Position	Trinity
R. Morris	Left End	Neal
Fordham	Left Tackle	Hatcher
Pritchard	Left Guard	Taylor
Blount	Center	Simpson
Poladexter	Right Guard	Penn
Hawfield	Right Tackle	Poe
Cocheran	Right End	Carter
McDonald	Quarterback	Smith
Sparrow	Left Halfback	Brown
F. Morris	Right Halfback	Garrett
McGhee	Fullback	Weaver

Score by periods:
Carolina 13 0 0 7—20
Trinity 0 0 0 0—0
(Continued on page three)

Mask and Wig Club To Offer $50 Prize

The Mask and Wig club has offered a cash prize of $50 for the best original story which is suitable for adaptation as a musical comedy. The date for the submission of manuscripts will be announced later.

The club was organized last spring by a group of men who had had experience here or elsewhere in both musical and dramatic organizations. Their purpose is to produce each year an original musical comedy, both words and music to be written by students of the University. All parts in the comedy are to be taken by men.

The plan is much like that of the Triangle Club of Princeton, the Hair Split Club of Wisconsin, and the Paint and Powder Club of Harvard. Each of these organizations puts on one of the most popular performances of the year in its own university. The Triangle Club of Princeton chartered three cars and took a 3,000-mile trip last Christmas.

The membership of the club has not been made known. It is anticipated, however, that elections will be held soon and that the membership will be made known at some auspicious date.

LE CERCLE FRANCAISE MEETS

The first meeting of Le Cercle Francaise was held at the Y. M. C. A. Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. The meeting was of an informal nature and the regular business of the club was discussed. It was decided that the club should meet every Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock, and that every other meeting should be devoted to informal discussion of current events. The remaining meetings are to be given over to the members of the French department. Dr. Dey will address the club at its next regular meeting.

(Continued on page three.)

STROWD WANTS CAMPUS POST OFFICE ESTABLISHED

Proposes Plan Whereby Present Over-Crowded Conditions May Be Relieved and Service Improved.

In view of the crowded conditions and inadequacy of the post-office, Postmaster Strowd is negotiating with the University concerning plans to relieve the present situation. There are now only 881 boxes available in the post-office, of which about 400 are rented by the faculty and townspeople, leaving less than 500 for 1900 students. In order to meet the huge demand, Mr. Strowd is violating a government law which allows one person for each box, but even with this measure, several hundred students are without boxes and are obliged to wait in long lines for their daily mail. This condition entails a greater strain on the post-office force, who are obliged constantly to work overtime, and general dissatisfaction all around.

The proposed plan calls for a central station to be established on the campus, preferably at the "Y," where all student mail can be received and distributed. Mr. Strowd is in receipt of a letter from the Keyless Lock company, of Indianapolis, who offer to set up 800 boxes with combination locks at a roughly estimated cost of $2500 to $3,000. These boxes can be rented to the students, two students to a box, for 25 cents a month, and from this income a $125 a month can be given to self-help students for handling the mail. It is figured that this plan will be profitable to the University as well as to the self-help students, and in time, the cost of setting up the station can be paid from the income.

A representative committee is soon to be chosen to investigate the proposition, and if the University officials decide to enter on the plan, the new central station can be completed by spring. All government responsibility ceases when the central station is established, and thus the great pressure on the main post-office down town will be relieved. Another plan was considered of distributing the mail by dormitory (Continued on page four)

Soph Class After Dues of Members

The sophomore class held its first meeting Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock for the purpose of discussing the business of the class. The question of dues was the first thing decided upon, and the sum of $2 was named as the amount for the entire session. "Squatty" Thomas, president of the class, announced that the class owed the Yackety Yack $125 for last year's picture in the annual, and that the prompt payment of dues would take care of the debt and enough money would be left to finance several smokers, the first of which is to be held within the next month.

North and South Carolina To Battle On Emerson Field

Outcome of Game Will Be Watched With Interest in Both Carolinas—State Game in Raleigh Next Thursday Promises Excitement.

South Carolina faces the Blue and White machine on Emerson field tomorrow afternoon in what promises to be one of the hardest fought games of the season. The outcome of this fray may decide the championship of the two Carolinas.

Coach Sol Metzger and his crew arrived here Thursday to see the Trinity-Carolina game. Yesterday the Gamecocks went through a light practice on Hanes field at Durham.

Last year the Palmetto State lads held Coach Fetzer's eleven to a 7-7 tie at Columbia. With defeat hovering over the Tar Heels, Lowe and Johnson were rushed into the game in the last quarter and after a series of first downs the ball was carried across.

Last Saturday the South Carolinians won from Presbyterian College 7 to 0. The latter had previously beaten Davidson 8 to 7, displaying a strong offense.

Coach Metzger has several players on his team that have shown great ability. Waite, the tackle who intercepted a pass and ran 60 yards for a touchdown against Carolina last year, will be in the line-up. Of the South Carolina backs, Belk, Holland and Rame have been the most consistent ground gainers.

Next Thursday, after only a four days' rest from the two strenuous games of this week, the Fetzer outfit goes to Raleigh to do battle with N. C. State. This will be the most important gridiron contest of the season in the state, and will have much to do with deciding State championship.

(Continued on page four.)

GREAT THROGS ALUMNI, STUDENTS AND FRIENDS ATTEND UNIVERSITY DAY

Day Is Filled With Pleasurable Events—Walter Murphy Addresses Large Audience.

TRINITY GAME IS CLIMAX

Encouraged by ideal weather conditions, by the prospect of a thrilling football tussle between two crack teams that will have a bearing on the state championship, and by the attractive program arranged for the day, a record breaking crowd poured into Chapel Hill to fittingly celebrate the University's 129th birthday. As early as 8:30 the jitneys began to unload throngs of alumni, who immediately laid aside all personal cares to enter wholeheartedly into the joyous spirit of the occasion. The incoming crowd grew steadily until by 11 o'clock the campus took on the appearance of commencement day or the annual game with Virginia at Thanksgiving.

At 11:30, with the suspension of the day's classes, the parade was formed before Alumni building under the head marshal, Dr. Patterson, who headed the procession with President Chase, followed by the band, faculty, alumni, and the various classes. From the humblest freshman to the most distinguished alumnus, the representatives of the University, stimulated by the band, presented a striking appearance to the looker-on. The procession swung around the campus, down the main street, and then filed into Memorial hall for the impressive services of the day. The seating capacity of the hall was taxed to its limit, and the platform was likewise well filled by faculty members and the alumni.

After a prayer by Rev. Walter Patton, Honorable Walter "Pete" Murphy, president of the General Alumni Association, addressed the gathering.

In introducing the speaker, President Chase remarked that there was no man in the state who loved the University more, or would do more for its upbuilding, than Mr. Murphy.

Mr. Murphy's speech was an answer to the question, "Where do we go from here?" He stated that the present University, in all its greatness, was the result of the labors of the old University men, who instilled in the institution a desire for progress. He outlined the development of Carolina from the year 1875, "when it lay asleep," to the present day.

In continuing, Mr. Murphy said that the alumni of the University ardently desired its progress in the future. He outlined some of the plans for future development, and promised that the next General Assembly would not dare refuse further appropriations, and that no one in North Carolina would dare check its onward march.

Mr. Murphy exhorted the University men of today to do all in their power

(Continued on page three.)

MARY D. WRIGHT QUERY WILL BE ANNOUNCED SOON

Any Member of Either Society Is Eligible For This Debate—Intra-Freshman Debate Soon.

The query for the Mary D. Wright debate, which for many years has been the largest forensic contest held at the University each session, is to be announced at an early date. The committee appointed by the Phi society to select the query met this week and is to report its decision to the Di at its next regular meeting. The Di society will choose the side that it will take and the result will be posted in the library. Any member of either society is eligible for the debate. Arrangements are being made for an intra-

(Continued on page two.)

CALENDAR

Saturday:
South Carolina vs. North Carolina on Emerson Field at 3 p. m.
Di and Phi societies, 7:30 p. m.
Monday:
Compulsory chapel attendance for Juniors, Sophomores and Freshmen.
Meeting of Yankee Club in Presbyterian church at 8:30 p. m.
Meeting of North Carolina Club in Phillips Hall at 7:30 p. m.