Smoke out the facts!!

No better cigarette can be made than lame

R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO CO., Winston-Salem, N. C.

Be Sure

To Put Your LAUNDRY SLIP in your

BUNDLE before sending it to : : :

The Laundry U. N. C.

For anything electrical, see M. D. FOISTER Electrical Contractor

Phone 234, Chapel Hill, N.C.

It pays to advertise in the Tar Heel-our readers know a good thing when they see it.

READ THE ADS-IT PAYS! and rude.

PALM BRANCH REPLACES RED FLAG FOR MAGAZINE (Continued From Page One)

Among the editorials we find "No Time for Culture," a venomous thrust into the vitals of the oncoming materialism of the South. We are advised to lay aside our material growth, ensconce ourselves in some shady nook. and "let the rest of the world go by." Nothing consrtuctive there. Also the editorial headed, "Some Things Needed Here" is strangely out of place in the setting occupied. In a very paternal manner senior classes in the future are given some good advice on "how to be naughty and yet be nice;" in other words, they should incorporate and assist the State in its building program. The two other editorials strike a responsive note, "The Future of Art in the South" and "North Carolina as HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL a Field for Creative Writing" are in full harmony with the contents.

Among the contents, "Why Not a Poetry Society for North Carolina?" is a well balanced pot pourri of opinion asking that we divert a small measure western champions. of our efforts from material growth and give more to the literary upbuilding of the state. A poetry society is suggested as a channel.

bread and butter materialism, crass of young football artists.

the budding fertility of the other.

"The Physician" is a short story with a rather worn theme, but entertaining. A hermit dies in the Burke county mountains, leaving a writing descriptive of his identity. The finder s none other than the "long lost son." "Sheiking the Muse in the Bozart' gives the Southern realist a black eye, now and forever more. The Southern to weak-kneed serenading romanticism in preference to robust realism.

"Archibald Henderson-An Appreciation" is an appropriate and interestingly sketched sidelight on a wellknown personality.

"A New Deal for Southern Literapresents the need for greater critical appreciation, unbiased by sec tional prejudice, if the South would construct a literary fabric worthy of the

"A Southern Renaissance in Arts" sical repertoire.

CHAMPIONSHIP WILL BE SETTLED ON SATURDAY

(Continued from page one)

teams to victory, Marvin Ritch the involving very small outlay of equip-Charlotte teams, Fred Morrison the ment and furnishing splendid exercise. Chapel Hill teams, and Robert O. Burns It gives excitement and interest enough "The Collegian and Culture," by the Fayettevilel team. The heavy Ashe- to lead to the formation of not only Nell Battle Lewis, attempts to bury ville team is handled by Coach Frye, class and college teams, but even state that happy expression that "College is who has developed a powerful football and interstate leagues. the world in miniature," saying that machine that has met no equal in its college is the last chance station to forward march to western honors. The grab on to that intangible something New Bern team, handled by Bardin, are visiting their son, Dr. F. P. Venfamiliarly known as "the Carolina Spir- Harrell and Hardy, has taken the meas- able. it." The college world is said to grate ure of all its opponents this season and but harshly with that outside world of is a fast moving, quick thinking bunch Miss Pattie Lewis, of Raleigh, is on

The encounter between New Bern Dr. and Mrs. Battle.

"The South in Art," by Dr. Archi- and Asheville on Saturday will, it is oald Henderson, is characteristic of the believed, be well worth the seeing, not writer. He goes to the heart of the alone from the color and glamor that South's "Sahara" problem, and takes always attend the annual renewal of the reader there with him. Dr. Hen- the state high school championship, but a hopeful note, says also from the fact that without doubt that the South is fertile in literary abil- a corking good football game will be ity and prosperous industrially, and staged by the young athletes who are suggests that the prosperity of one aid fighting for the honor of their schools.

FROM THE TAR HEEL 25 YEARS

Mr. N. C. Long had an unpleasant adventure on the road from Durham last Wednesday night alone in a buggy. When about four miles this side of Durhas he was held up by three men. They writer is advised to confine his abilities got five dollars in money. Two of the men were white and the other was black. Mr. Long thinsk he could identify the men if he should see them

> "Mr. Cleophus Allen of the University will speak tonight on 'Christianity' at the Court house at 7:30."-The Greensboro Telegram.

Of the four women now in the University, only one will graduate with the class of '98, iMss Sallie Stockard. She hopefully awaits the time when music is an alumna of Guilford College, havas one of the beaux arts shall come into ing been graduated from that instituher own in the Southland, and even tion last June. Miss Stockard will be broadly hints that "jazz," the much the first woman who has ever enjoyed abused, has a place in the future mu. the distinction of receiving a diploma from the University of North Carolina. "Carolina Folk Plays" is a review She, like the other "co-eds," is taking of the recent addition to Carolina's a high stand in her classes. MiSs bibliography in the way of folk plays. Stockard is a cousin of the poet, Henry Jerome Stockard.

Why is it that the game of basketbal has never been introduced into the University? In the short time that it has been a claimant for popularity in the athletic world is has made wonderpionship, defeating Winston - Salem, ful progress and has become a leader among the sports at some of our chief Guy Phillips coached the Raleigh colleges and institutions. It is a game

"For me? - and it's a KODAK

I've always wanted one."

That's an expression, by the way, that we hear time and time again at this store-particularly around Christmas-"I've always wanted a Kodak."

It's the ideal gift and our stock is complete and up

Autographic Kodaks $6.50 up-Brownies $2.00 up

FOISTER'S

Josephus Daniels Says--

"I am very glad to see that your Com-pany is building up a large life insur-ance business. I was glad to take a policy in it, and am glad to commend it because I know that the principle upon which it is established is sound and that the men in charge of it have business ability of the highest order combined with integrity and honesty."

A. W. McALISTER, President

H. B. GUNTER, Vice-President and Agency Manager

Capital $1,000,000

Is guaranteed to relieve Headache, Neuralgia, LaGrippe, Earache, almost instantly. If it fails to relieve, your money will be

UNIVERSITY JEWELRY

Rings, Pins, Seals and Other Novelties at ONE-THIRD OFF REGULAR PRICES

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS

ONE-THIRD OFF REGULAR PRICES

UNIVERSITY and CLASS PENNANTS and

PILLOWTOPS

-at-ATTRACTIVE PRICES

A. A. KLUTTZ CO.

THE PLACE TO GET

Gifts of Distinction

Select your Christmas Gift for "Her"

Priscilla Art Shop

420 West Main Street

DURHAM, N. C.