WRESTLING TEAM ENDS SEASON WITH VICTORY OVER STATE COLLEGE

Every Match Won Except Light Heavyweight—Four Falls and Two Decisions on Points.

COMPLETE SCORE IS 26-5

The Carolina wrestling team ended the 1923 season by winning from N. C. State by the score of 26 to 5 at Raleigh Thursday night. Carolina won every match except the light heavyweight tilt. Osborne of State won from Burke of Carolina in six minutes and 56 seconds. Matheson, Waters, Hagan and Poindexter won by falls, while Vick and Schwartz won on points.

In the first bout Schwartz of Carolina and Sherman of State, the featherweights, hooked up and when the nine-minute period was up the decision went to Schwartz.

Sherman tried to pull the iron-man stunt and wrestle Hagan, Carolina's 129-pound class man also, but he was not equal to the occasion and Hagan won with a head-scissors and a body weight.

The lightweight bout, in which Vick of Carolina and Lewis of State battled, was won by Vick on points after 15 minutes of wrestling. This match was rather slow during the first nine minutes, but in the extra periods the affair livened up a bit, and the fans were treated to some real wrestling.

In the 149-pound class Matheson of Carolina defeated Memory of State after six minutes of furious wrestling. The grapplers went at each other in this bout with more pep than had been shown up to this point.

In the middleweight clash Waters of Carolina was too much for Turnage, the State representative in the class. Waters won after four minutes and 58 seconds. At this point the score was standing Carolina 21, State 0.

The light heavyweight tilt with Burke of Carolina and Osborne of State contending, proved to be the only bout in which the State team was able to make a good showing. Osborne won in six minutes and 56 seconds.

The final clash of the meet was between the heavyweights, Poindexter of Carolina and Beatty of State. Poindexter tipped the scales at 186, while Beatty weighed 182. Poindexter won by a fall in six minutes and two seconds, six minutes and two seconds.

CHAPEL HILL WEEKLY MAKES ITS APPEARANCE

The Chapel Hill Weekly made its first appearance last week. This new publication is edited by Louis Graves, a professor in the English department of the University. The first issue was attractive, well made up, and carried a great deal of both local and county news. The editor says that the newspaper is essentially a county paper; it intends to give the public a digest of all happenings of interest to the citizens of Chapel Hill and Orange county.

Favorite Skits at Annual Carolina Smoker Make Hit

Dr. Booker's "Tut-ankh-amen," Evolution of Co-ed and Triple Beds of 1950 Are Features—Trotter Presides—Williams, Connor, Odum and Chase Introduce Stunts.

(By HENRY D. DULS)

With a bang but a bang, the annual Carolina Smoker took the campus by such a storm last Friday night that it caused President Chase to pronounce it "the best Carolina Smoker we have ever had." Admirably portraying "some favorite spot-lights in Carolina life from 1792 to 1950," a well-planned and well-prepared program was executed very neatly, debarring several unavoidable delays which gave a fire some and long-drawn-out aspect to the affair at times.

As Ye Grande Tonstunator and Master of Ceremonies, J. P. ("Pike") Trotter, acting as the first student ever to preside at the smoker, had the situation thoroughly in hand throughout the evening, even at the time when his opening address presenting Mr. Horace H. Williams introduced ice-cream and a jazz piece by the Boll Weevil Orchestra, with which the professor was unable to compete.

1792-1848

The ice-cream and music being consumed, Professor Williams arose and presented the first three "skits" of University history; namely, the periods 1795, 1812 and 1848. "The really big things for the University," said Mr. Williams, "are ahead; and I wonder,

CAPTAIN A. M. McDONALD

"Monk" McDonald piloted his team through fifteen straight victories without the assistance of a regular coach. His sterling qualities as a leader, his staunch Scotch fighting spirit, and versatility on the basketball floor, make him one of the greatest players ever representing the University. Always at his best against strong teams, McDonald has overthrown many a monarch of the court game. He was selected for all-Southern in 1922 and all-state this year.

PHI SOPHOMORES WIN INTER-SOCIETY DEBATE

Rogers and Saunders Out-argue Cocks and Justus on Child Labor Question.

The society won the sophomore end of the annual fresh-soph debate held in Di hall last Saturday night by a two-to-one vote. J. M. Saunders and L. T. Rogers of the Phi upheld the negative side of the query: "Resolved—That there should be a constitutional amendment passed providing for federal regulation of child labor." W. J. Cocks, Jr., and E. L. Justus, of the Di, upheld the affirmative.

The affirmative contended that federal regulations were necessary because of the low standards in most of the states, the national character of the economic problem, and the physical and sociological detriment of the lack of such a law. W. J. Cocks made good use of available statistics to prove the first point, and pleaded for the amendment in justice to the child, to the parents and to society. E. L. Justus spoke of the low physical and mental standard of the American people. "One-third of our men were unfit to fight," said Mr. Justus, "and the average mental age is only 13 years."

The negative, on the other hand, contended that a constitutional amendment was undesirable and unnecessary. J. M. Saunders showed how the dual system (Continued on page three)

TAR HEEL SUPREMACY IN THE SOUTH ATLANTIC UNDISPUTED

Although Failing to Come Through Southern Tournament, Carolina Quint Establishes Envious Record—Undeclared During Regular Season—Catholic University Ranks Second.

(By R. C. MAULTSBY)

Carolina failed to win the Southern tournament, but Captain McDonald's quint captured South Atlantic honors, in many respects the equal of the Dixie title. There were several exceptionally strong teams in the field, but the Tar Heels exceeded all others in consistent playing and were not defeated during the regular season. Ten contenders for South Atlantic supremacy fell before the versatile attack of the Blue and White.

Catholic University, of Washington, D. C., had a powerful five that defeated Navy 21 to 19, but lost to Virginia 29 to 28. The Orange and Blue was overwhelmed by Washington and Lee and Carolina, but in turn administered a 36-17 licking to the fast Generals. Virginia Poly won two of three games from

BASEBALL ASPIRANTS ARE WORKING OUT EVERY DAY

Coach Fetzer's Return From Atlanta Puts New Pep Into Early Preliminary Training.

With Coach Fetzer back on the Hill, baseball practice has begun in earnest. The squad has been working out under the direction of Captain Morris for several days and it is expected to be in shape for the opening of the season in about three weeks. There will be an experimental period in which Coach Fetzer must decide upon possibly two infield positions and select his outfielders.

"Casey" Morris is regarded as a fixture behind the bat, while Sam Wrenn, Davidson catcher in 1921, is one of the best in the state. McGee, Starling and Bonner are also available to assist in the backstopping. "Mule" Shirley will not receive much competition at first base nor will McDonald at short. If McLean answers the call of the "Great American Game" he will of course be stationed at his old position, second base.

Third base will be a problem to face. Fred Morris is gone and it will be a hard matter to find a man capable of filling his shoes. Bonner, who played left field last season, has held down the hot corner in years gone by, and might be just the fellow for the place. Griffin, of last year's squad, is also a likely candidate for the position. Jimmy Ragsdale, Preston Edwards, and McGee are experienced infielders as well.

Ed Sweetman and Bonner are the old men to return in the outfield. If the former is switched to the inner works, two capable fly chasers will have to be found to envoir around in the gardens. Gibson, of last year's freshman team, is a clever fielder, a fair batter, and a fast man on the paths, and will have to be reckoned with before the positions are finally settled.

The acquisition of Frank Cox, star Yale left handed pitcher, will probably strengthen the twirling department considerably. Bryson will probably have his best season and pitch a large share of the games as he is the only tried right hander on the staff. Allen Moore is being counted on to come through with some fine pitching before the year, is through and John Caffey is a hurler of no little ability. Coltrane and Ferebee, from last year's freshman team, have plenty of stuff and will be watched with interest.

FLU EPIDEMIC STILL CLAIMING VICTIMS

The epidemic of influenza and bud colds does not seem to have abated very much during the past week, but is spreading, if anything. The college infirmary has been filled to its maximum capacity all during the week and has been for the past few weeks. There is hardly room to care for the patients and Dr. Abernethy is at present visiting 12 students who are confined to their rooms with the flu. Although the epidemic is of a mild nature it is getting to be rather serious because of its general prevalence.

Again the medical authorities are urging that the proper precaution be taken to guard against this epidemic. The infirmary is fast being overcrowded and in case this thing spreads much more the infirmary will be entirely inadequate to care for the patients.

CAPTAIN-ELECT WINTON GREEN

Green, who is a Wilmington youth, was elected to captain the 1924 quintet, which promises to be just as strong as the two preceding it. During this season, his second on the varsity, the fast forward scored 68 field goals, topping the list in this respect. He is a clever shot from any position and plays the floor well. Green was picked for all-state.

FRESHMEN WILL HAVE INTER-COLLEGIATE DEBATE

Trinity and Wake Forest to Be Met by Carolina First Year Word Artists.

The freshman intercollegiate debate in which Carolina, Trinity and Wake Forest will take part, is to be held on the night of May 5. The preliminaries for this debate will be held on Wednesday, March 28. Two teams will be selected, each to be composed of two men and an alternate. Only freshmen are eligible, but any man in that class may try out, as this debate is not restricted to the societies. The query reads: "Resolved—That the issuance of tax exempt securities should be forbidden by amendment to the Federal Constitution."

The team chosen to uphold the negative for Carolina will go to Wake Forest, there to meet Trinity's affirmative. At the same time the Carolina affirmative will meet the Wake Forest negative at Trinity College, while Trinity's negative is debating the Wake Forest affirmative at Chapel Hill.

DR. GREENLAW'S FATHER IS DEAD IN ILLINOIS

Dr. Edwin Greenlaw returned Monday to Chapel Hill from Flora, Illinois, where he went to attend the funeral of his father, Mr. Thomas Lee Greenlaw, who died suddenly in Chicago after a short illness of pneumonia. Mr. Greenlaw was buried in Flora, Illinois, Dr. Greenlaw's old home.

Carolina, Trinity, Wake Forest, Guilford and Elon Have Entered—Hope Is Entertained for the Last Minute Entry of N. C. State.

(By "THE HAY-SHAKER")

The second state intercollegiate indoor track meet will be held this Friday night beginning at 8 o'clock in the Star Brick warehouse in Durham. Five schools are entered, and the event promises to be one of the biggest affairs of its kind in the South. Carolina will carry 30 varsity men and 25 freshmen to the meet.

The schools entered this year are Carolina, Trinity, Wake Forest, Guilford and Elon. N. C. State is the only school in the state that has announced the intention of not entering, and last minute hope is being held out for them.

Last year the meet was marked by poor organization and fighting features. This year things will assume more order. The fighting arrangements are good, and the high school, military and Y. M. C. A. events are to be held in the afternoon, thus eliminating last season's confusion.

Six high schools are already entered. These are Greensboro, Selma, Durham, Chapel Hill, Oxford and Burlington. Last year these events were very good and Chapel Hill and Burlington entered into a hot contest for state honors, which finally resulted in the latter's winning.

The collegiate meet promises to be

SHEPARD'S FAST FLOCK OF YEARLINGS HAS GOOD RECORD FOR THE SEASON

Only Two Contests Lost Out of Total of Thirteen—Score is 520 to Opponents' 325.

COBB IS HIGH SCORE MAN

Norman Shepard's freshman basketball team made a splendid record this season and upheld the reputation established by Carolina quintets in the past. Only two contests were lost; one to the Virginia freshmen, and the other to Durham high school, while five games were won on the trip to Asheville and through Virginia, which included several prep school teams of high calibre.

Captain Jack Cobb, former Woodberry Forest star, was the highest individual scorer, making over half of the team's points. He made 84 field goals and 106 foul goals out of 177 attempts, and his dribbling, passing and jumping in center were frequently praised by basketball experts.

Billy Devin, who is an all-around athlete, played a fine game at roving guard. He was especially good on shooting from the corner of the court, a difficult position. Buchanan demonstrated his worth as a back court player time and again, and was over on the alert to detect open plays.

Yelverton, Johnson and Milstead alternated at the forward positions. The first two were unusually fast dribblers and led their guards a merry chase in every game. Johnson scored 30 field goals and Yelverton was credited with 27. Billy Devin tied the latter in baskets from the court.

The record made by Shepard's men is as follows:

NEW BULLETIN WRITTEN BY PROF. H. D. MEYER

A new bulletin written by Professor H. D. Meyer of the School of Public Welfare is being sent free to each of the parent-teacher associations of the state.

It contains several pages on the ideals, purposes, organization, development and maintenance of the parent-teachers association. Detailed programs and definite instructions for studying by members of these associations are outlined in the new bulletin.

much better this year than last. At that time the Carolina track athletes had never performed on a board track. There is a material difference between the cinders and the plankway, and as a result last year's records were not as good as they might have been.

In fact it must be admitted that there is a good deal of luck in the short dashes and hurdles, since it is merely a question of getting the best start winning.

The Carolina squad has been training since the middle of January and should be tuned for the affair. Trinity too has been putting out and it seems that a real battle may ensue between these two institutions for state honors. But the Tar Heels have it on the Methodists in one way, and that is that they have been able to train constantly on a board track while their opponents have had to stick to the sinder path. This should be the big balance in the scales that will throw the meet to Carolina.

Carolina's relay team promises to be an especially good one. The medley will probably be composed of Woodard for the 220, Cox for the 880, Milstead the 440, and Sinclair the last 220 in the event. In the regular relay Carolina (Continued on page three)
