FACULTY SANCTIONS NEW FRATERNITY REGULATIONS
BY A UNANIMOUS VOTE

special regulations set down below. Fraternity men are not allowed to pledge a student to join a fraternity until he has been in the University a sufficient length of time, as follows:—If he matriculates for the first time in the University in the fall quarter he may not be pledged before January 10; if in the winter quarter, before April 10; if in the spring quarter, before October 1st. No student may be pledged during the summer school, though if student remain in the summer school for the full twelve weeks it may be counted for him as a regular quarter towards meeting the residence requirements.

Special Regulations

Eligibility. 1. A Freshman becomes eligible to join a Fraternity after registration for his third quarter in the University, only if he has passed upon five whole courses or their equivalent, with a grade of C or better in at least two whole courses, or their equivalent.

2. Any academic student becomes eligible for a Fraternity after registration for his fourth or later quarter in the University, if he has passed upon seven whole courses or their equivalent.

3. A student who enters an academic course with advanced standing from an approved college or University, becomes eligible for a Fraternity after his registration for his second or later quarter in the University, if he has on the University records a total credit of seven whole courses or their equivalent, of which at least two whole courses or their equivalent must have been passed with a grade not lower than C in this institution.

4. A student in a professional school, if he enters with advanced academic credits, becomes eligible for a Fraternity after his registration for his second or later quarter (or term in the case of Law students) in the University, under the same conditions as other students who enter with advanced standing.

5. Any other student in a professional school becomes eligible for a Fraternity after his registration for his third quarter in the University only if he has passed upon the equivalent of five whole courses with a grade of C or better on two whole courses or their equivalent, or after registration for his fourth or later term, if he has passed upon the equivalent of seven whole courses.

6. A student who changes from the academic to a professional school becomes eligible for a Fraternity under the same conditions as would have obtained had he remained an academic student.

7. A special student in any course becomes eligible under the same conditions as a regular student in the same course.

Each Fraternity must hand in to the Registrar beforehand a list of such men as it wishes to initiate, and must receive from him a written statement as to their eligibility.

Initiation. An eligible student may be initiated into a fraternity at any time after 6:30 P. M. on the fourth day after the day on which lectures begin in any regular quarter.

Interpretation. In case of doubt as to the interpretation of any of the foregoing regulations, the fraternity or fraternities must appeal to the President, or through him to the Faculty, and both appeal and interpretation must be in writing.

Senior Class To Give Dance Commencement

Lo and Behold! The passing class of '23 has started another precedent which is hoped will be followed by every other Senior Class in time to come. Aside from the fact that they initiated the fad of using walking canes, they are now engineering a Class Dance, to which every one is invited—Freshmen included. This dance will be given on June 13, being the opening dance of the Commencement Finals.

The music will be furnished by the well-known Carolina Club Orchestra, which no doubt will be in top form.

Fortunately or unfortunately, according to one's personal feelings, the rules of the German Club will be strictly enforced, as at the other Final Dances.

The committee which was appointed to manage this dance is composed of the following men: P. A. Reavis, chairman; "Icy" Little, "Chick" Holderness, "Johnnie" Bonner, "Tommy" Turner, and E. C. Jernigan.

$5.00 DEPOSIT FEE

According to Treasurer Warren, the system for payment of room rent which was used this year will be used again next year. It requires a $5.00 deposit by June 5 if the student expects to hold the same room next year. The remainder of the rent until January 5 has to be paid by September 15.

It pays to advertise in the Tar Heel—our readers know a good thing when they see it.

Ferebee wasn't at all agreeable and put and end to all such ideas in quick fashion. As the result of this victory Carolina needs only a win against Trinity to place her on a par with that institution. If the Methodists can be made to taste of the bitter waters of defeat the state records of the two institutions will stand firmly tied.

TOMB TO BE ERECTED

With the consent of the Trustees, the class of 1891 has decided to renovate the old sandstone monument, formerly erected over the grave of President Caldwell, and re-erect it to the memory of Wilkes Caldwell, one of the best-loved of the old servants of the University. This old monument, which is now lying in a rather dilapidated condition in the cemetery, is to have a white marble tablet inserted in it, on which the name of "Old Wilkes" will be placed, along with the names of his father, November Caldwell, and two other old University bell-ringers, David Barham and Henry Smith.

The large stone was overturned when the remains of President Caldwell were placed under the present monument erected to his memory in the center of the campus.
