

JULIA CLAUSSEN TO APPEAR HERE ON WEDNESDAY

Famous Opera Singer of the Metropolitan Co., Sings Here February Sixth

PAPERS PRAISE HER MUCH

Mme. Julia Claussen, who is to appear in concert in Memorial Hall at 8:15 February 6th, has received enthusiastic receptions and glowing criticisms at all of her performances. According to all the Atlanta papers, Mme. Claussen scored an individual triumph when she recently sang in "Aida," with the Metropolitan Opera Company. The Pittsburgh "Sun" says, "Mme. Claussen sang with ease and clarity." "Mme. Claussen is to be numbered among the supremely great artists. Combining with her statuesque, Amazonian presence a voice of robust grandeur, wide range and perfect intonation, she completely dominates the concert stage and imparts an emotional intensity to her interpretations that is decidedly moving and highly satisfying."

Mme. Claussen was born at Stockholm, Sweden. Beginning the serious study of voice at the age of 18 when she became a student at the Royal Academy she made her debut at the Royal Opera four years later. Her first American appearance was made in Chicago in 1912 where she was an immediate success in such roles as Brunhilde and Carmen.

It was in the latter character that Mme. Claussen proved herself the great Carmen of the age. Her magnificent art and gracious personality combine to captivate her audiences. She is a Carmen of great dramatic power.

Mme. Claussen has received many tributes to her art. She has received the rare distinction of being awarded the Jenny Lind Medal from her own government and also being admitted to the Royal Academy of Sweden, the youngest member ever elected to that scientific and artistic

WRESTLING AND BOXING WILL BEGIN NEXT WEEK

The Wrestling-Boxing elimination contest will get into full swing next week with four carnivals. In order to take part in these meets it is necessary that the men wishing to do so be registered through their dormitory managers at the Intra-mural office forty-eight hours before the contest.

Regular Intra-mural individual scoring will be kept for all who participate. The team scoring will be calculated as follows: Boxing-knockout, five points; win on points, three points; Wrestling-fall, five points; win on points, three points. The classes will be the following in both wrestling and boxing: 115, 125, 135, 145, 162, and 175 pounds. A man may wrestle and box in the same class if he so desires.

All the wrestling matches will be five minutes duration for each class, and the boxing bouts will consist of three two-minute rounds with one minute intermission between rounds. All the matches will take place at 7:30 o'clock in the indoor field, unless otherwise announced.

Soccer practice is being held every afternoon from 4:15 to 5:30 on the Intra-mural field. Everyone who is interested in soccer is invited to come out. Practice will last one week longer than expected due to bad weather and the inability to get an early start. The regular series will start on February 11.

A CAPELLA CHOIR WILL GIVE CONCERT SUNDAY

The next of the current Sunday afternoon concerts will be given at the Presbyterian Church at four o'clock Sunday afternoon February third. The program will be a combination of organ recital and numbers by the A Capella Choir. It will be remembered that this Choir made its first appearance in December and that it was considered to be the best choral organization which has existed in Chapel Hill for a great many years. It consists of sixteen picked voices from the Campus and Town. On the coming program it will sing two Russian numbers and the "Sanctus" from Gavnod's celebrated "St. Cecilia Mass." The organ numbers will be played by Mr. Weaver who is an Associate of the American Guild of Organists and who is at present Dean of the North Carolina Chapter of the American Guild of Organists.

MONK McDONALD

Monk McDonald, whose individual battle with Jimmy Simpson was one of the chief features of the Trinity game. Monk should give the opposition plenty of trouble on the northern trip.

TWO BANQUETS HELD

Two Fraternity Banquets were held in Gooch's Banquet Hall last week-end. The Acacia Fraternity held a banquet in honor of Mr. W. E. Ekblaw on Friday night. Saturday night the Gamma Phi had a regular get-together Banquet, with several guests.

The Acacia members met at seven o'clock at the Gooch Hall to celebrate the first visit of Mr. Ekblaw, Champaign, Ill., who is grand secretary of the national Acacia Fraternity. The Secretary is making a visit to the chapter for the purpose of investigation and to confer with them on a plan of building a new house.

At nine o'clock Saturday night the Gamma Phi members met at the Hall for a six course dinner, which lasted till eleven-thirty. Dr. Edwin E. Sparks, ex-president of Penn. State College, was the chief speaker. The other speakers were Mr. B. C. Beckwith, a graduate of Trinity and a prominent lawyer of Raleigh, Bowie Millican, instructor of English, P. K. Schuyler of Raleigh, and Coach Alexander of Durham.

DORMITORY ASSOCIATION HOLDS MONTHLY SMOKER

The Dormitory Association held its monthly smoker in the dining room of the Presbyterian church Monday night at 6:30. The ladies of the church, in their usual way, served the boys a very dainty and delicious supper.

Mr. Comer began the program by giving a brief discussion of the work before the Y. M. C. A., and the desire of the co-operation of the whole student body. Mr. Burch followed Mr. Comer with a few words in regard to the present dormitory conditions, and his desire to meet the boys half way in keeping the rooms and campus clean and home-like. Old West is to have hot water in the very near future, and Steele is to be repaired. It was suggested that the University put a waste paper basket in each room for the trash that is collected, and hold the occupants of the rooms responsible for them. This was left to the representatives from each dormitory to bring up before the boys.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. A discussion of Intra-Mural Athletics followed. There are from four to eight basketball games every afternoon in the new Gym. There are also soccer practices on the field; coaching in wrestling and boxing is being given also every afternoon and the number of participants is encouraging.

On Friday night of this week at 7:30 in the new Gym there will be held an indoor track meet. Each dormitory is allowed 25 men and gets one point for each man out, and five for the winner in each branch of sport. The winner in each sport, down to the fourth man, will receive a colored ribbon as a trophy for his achievement. The events to be held are:

- 75 yard dash
- 60 yard three-legged race.
- 60 yard low hurdles.
- 1-2 mile race.
- Broad jump.

TRACK SQUAD IS HARD AT WORK

Coach Bob Fetzer Has Been Busy With Preliminary Preparations for Track

Coach Bob Fetzer has been busy for the past few weeks with preliminary preparations for lining up his track prospects for this season. A mixed squad composed of both Varsity and Freshmen has been at work in the new indoor field for the past three weeks. The training has now been transferred to the outdoor board track, and when weather permits the candidates will be transferred to the cinder path. Bad weather will not interfere with the progress in training, as the indoor track will be at the disposal of Coach Bob's charges whenever Jube Pluvius happens to soften the cinders on Emerson Field.

Several letter men and other good looking material have already answered the call and are having daily workouts under the eye of the coaches. However the track officials are anxious to increase the squad and urge everyone who is interested to come out for practice. It will be some time before the regulars are picked and until then every candidate has an equal chance.

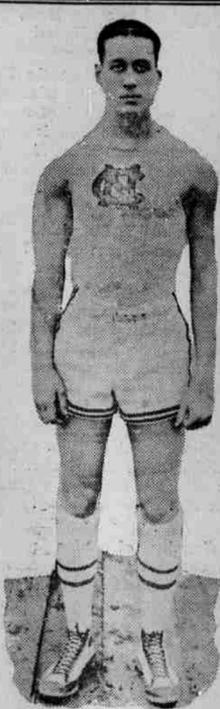

The Intra-mural association is helping to stir up interest in track by staging all-University meets. This program will be initiated tonight by putting on a preliminary meet at the indoor track. The final championship meet will be staged March 8.

T. B. Smiley, pole-vaulter and letter man of the squad of 1921, is back in school this year and has already begun training.

The letter men who will be on the squad this season are: O. M. Abernethy, Capt. O. L. Giersch; X. T. Keel; A. D. Milstead; L. H. Moore; C. C. Poindexter; J. R. Purser; M. D. Ranson; R. L. Ranson; A. M. Scarborough; G. F. Seyffert; C. H. Yarborough; T. B. Smiley.

The following men from the last season's squad are considered good prospects: J. V. Ambler, M. D. Bonner; D. A. Brown; J. P. Corbett; C.

BILL DODDERER

Bill Dodderer, whose acquisition to the team this year plugged up the hole left by Carl Mahler. His work at Center last night won favorable comments from the large crowd that flocked to the Tin Can.

The names of Mr. Harry F. Comer, general secretary of the University Y. M. C. A., and of Dr. Harold D. Meyer of the department of sociology appear on the program which has been prepared for the Durham Older Boys' Conference which will be held at the Durham High School, February 2. Mr. Comer will speak on "Christian Standards of Growth," and Dr. Meyer's subject will be "The Christian Standard of Life."

JACK DEMPSEY AGREES WITH PRESIDENT CHASE IN ACTION

World's Heavyweight Champion Says That the President Was Probably Right in the Action He Took in Calling Off the Proposed Exhibition in Chapel Hill

By J. M. SAUNDERS

"Well I don't know but what President Chase did the right thing after all, because you can't always tell and it does not always pay to take a chance." This was the comment Jack Dempsey, world's champion heavyweight who gave an exhibition in Raleigh Wednesday night, had to make on the decision of President Chase in regard to the proposed Dempsey exhibition in Chapel Hill. Bill Cox, who is a student here, a boxing enthusiast and an admirer of the champion, had plans underway to bring Jack Dempsey to the Hill for an exhibition, but they were cut short by the stand taken by the President that such an exhibition was legally questionable and might bring forth much criticism from the state at large.

"I told him all about the reasons why we couldn't have him over, and he agreed that it might bring much criticism to the President," said Cox in an exclusive interview to the TAR HEEL man.

"Well, how in the world did you get a chance to talk to Jack?" I inquired of Bill. And he related the account of his getting a private interview with the pugilistic giant.

"It was like this. I called up Kearns, Jack's manager and told him that I was the one who had been in communication with him regarding the exhibition at the University. Kearns acted mighty fine about it and told me to come on up, he would be glad to see me."

Meets Kearns

"Well I went on up to the Sir Walter where the party was stopping and was shown up to their suite. Kearns met me and shook hands with me. I was very much surprised at the champion's manager."

"Howzat?" put in the TAR HEEL scribe.

"Well my idea of a prize-fighter's manager was one bespeckled with diamonds and jewelry with a high cigar rammed down in the corner of his mouth and talking in a bowery slang. Kearns was anything but such a man. There was no jewelry, no diamonds and no cigars! Kearns took me in the next room to introduce me to Jack. The champion was sitting at a small writing desk doing some writing. He was in his shirt sleeves. The only other person in the room was Teddy Hayes, his trainer, who was lying on the bed reading a book."

"When we walked in Jack stood up, and when Kearns said, 'Jack, meet Mr. Cox, who was to put on the exhibition at the University of North Carolina' the mighty prize-fighter stuck out his hand and said, 'Glad to meet you.'"

"I thought that that would end it," said Bill, "but instead Dempsey pulled up a chair and told me to sit down. He began talking and we talked together for a long time."

"How did he look?" inquired the newspaper reporter.

"He was as brown as a berry, made so by the Florida sun. He had short, crisp, coal-black hair and wears a pompadour. His eyes were continually moving from object to object in the fashion of a wild animal. His every action was quick and rhythmic. He held his head erect. There was one thing that was very evident, and that was his powerful chest. You could just see the power hidden beneath his shirt. I believe that his powerful strength would have been just as much in evidence if he had had on several raincoats."

Dempsey Gives Opinions
"Well what did you talk about?" I asked of Bill.

"Well first I asked him about his opinion on collegiate boxing. He thinks that collegiate boxing will sometime be one of the leading college sports, once it is started. 'I don't think wrestling will have a show when boxing gets started,' said Jack. 'Do you know—who won the championship up at Yale and who later went to Oxford as a Rhodes' (Continued on Page 4)

CAROLINA BASKETBALL TEAM OUTPLAYS TRINITY AND WINS BY DECISIVE SCORE OF 31-20

CHINESE CABARET A HUGE SUCCESS

Big Crowd Attend Cabaret and Supper at the Country Club Thursday Night

There was a Chinese cabaret and supper at the Country Club Thursday night and, despite the Carolina-Trinity basketball game as a worthy rival for attendance honors, some 200 were present.

The affair was Chinese throughout, from the costumes to the food, not to mention the dancing. For days those arranging the party had been rifling the shops of Chapel Hill and Durham to find just the costumes desired, and Thursday night's party was ample proof they did.

Folk who attended most of the parties at the country club say this was the best party ever pulled off there. The more skeptical will undoubtedly take such statement with a grain of salt and dismiss it as puerile exaggeration, but, be it as may, one thing is certain the program was well arranged, and went off without a hitch and everybody had a good time. It was a benefit affair and the proceeds will go toward improving the club grounds.

The party began shortly after 7 o'clock and from then on everything went off in regular cabaret style. Pretty girls, dressed in typical mandarin coats and trousers, served as waitresses and did Chinese dances between courses.

All the cabaret numbers were good. Prof. Paul J. Weaver, as the Geisha girl, and Prof. Otto Stuhlman, as Chinese laundryman, did a singing and dancing act. Theodore Fitch and Mrs. Lawrence essayed a scene from Madame Butterfly and put it over in fine shape.

Jules Welsh, a senior in the University, in a female impersonation, did an aesthetic dance that would make Gilda Gray turn green with envy.

Keyser, a freshman, pulled off some good jokes on University professors and topped off the program with some nifty clog dancing.

In the roles of Chinese dancing girls and waitresses were: Irma Green, Sue Byrd Thompson, Elizabeth Hickerson, Frances Venable, Katherine Boyd, Lucy Lay, Romana Galloway, Nellie Graves, Annie Leo Graham, Cara May Graham, May Culpepper, Genevieve McMillan, Maybelle Penn, Adeline Denham, Betty Winston, Mildred Walker.

Following the dinner, served in Chinese style and the cabaret numbers, there was general dancing, in the ballroom, while in an adjoining room others interested themselves in a bazaar or played cards.

Those responsible for the program were: Prof. and Mrs. Paul J. Weaver, Prof. and Mrs. S. H. Hobbs, Jr., Prof. and Mrs. Harold Meyer, Prof. and Mrs. Otto Stuhlman, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hyde Pratt.

COMMUNITY CLUB HAS HUSBANDS TO ATTEND

The Community Club, of which Mrs. Walter Patton, is president, had its regular monthly meeting at the home of Dr. Chase, Tuesday night. The members assembled in the east room at eight o'clock, bringing their husbands with them as guests of honor for the occasion. The meeting was the first to which the men-folk has been invited, but since the experiment proved successful others will probably follow.

Dr. Chase was away on business, so when the ladies paired off with the gentlemen, Mrs. Chase had to borrow Parson Moss to make it even. However, Parson Moss is equal to emergencies; so there was no hindrance to the reception.

Mrs. Lawrence, as chairman of the meeting, turned the program over to Mesdames Leavitt, and Caldwell, who with seven of the younger members presented a Tableau of Greek Groups: Muse, Banchantes, Niobe and Daughter, Warrior Maidens, etc. They were dressed in costumes of white and green, the colors of the Club, the lights of the Hall and room were also white and green.

For refreshments, the officers served cream, cake, mints, and coffee, while for further delight a four piece orchestra, with Mrs. Winston at the piano, rendered several well chosen selections.

Both Teams Exhibit Splendid Floor Work, Excellent Passing and Close Guarding

LARGE NUMBER OF FOULS

Crute and Dodderer Put Out On Account of Personals—Caused by Close Guarding

Getting off to a flying start that dazzled her opponent throughout the first half, Carolina defeated Trinity, Thursday night, in the "Tin Can" by a score of 31-20. The biggest crowd that has ever attended a basketball game in Chapel Hill found the new Indoor Athletic Building a vast improvement over Bynum Gymnasium.

Dodderer got the tip-off and the ball was scarcely in play before a foul was called on Trinity. Cobb dropped in one of his tries. Immediately following this Trinity committed another foul and Cobb made good one out of two chances. Spikes then tied affairs up with a shot from the floor. Green rang up Carolina's first field goal, which was followed by one by Cobb. From then on the Tar Heels held undisputed supremacy. Cobb ended the half with a field goal that went through the basket after the whistle rang. The half ended 20-6.

The second half was hard fought and at times slow. Simpson opened the scoring with a field goal and Captain Green immediately offset it with a beautiful shot. Bullock was left wide open and dropped in a goal without the least sign of hurry. Cobb then made the prettiest play of the game when from off his finger-tips, he bounced the ball into the basket while he was on the run. The Trinity team exhibited splendid floor-work and close guarding and the ball saw-sawed up and down the court with an occasional attempt at the basket. Crute left the game for par-

Freshman Football Squad Have Banquet

The numeral men of last fall's Freshman Football squad met at Gooch's Banquet Hall Wednesday night at eight o'clock, for a banquet. All of the eighteen numeral men who are in school at present were present for the chicken dinner which came out in piled up plates. Other edibles related to chicken dinners were also in abundance.

Charlie Norfleet, manager of the Varsity Squad acted as toast master and was ably assisted by E. C. Gregory, manager of the Freshmen Squad. Pierce Matthews, Captain of next year's Varsity was there, together with Coach Bob Fetzer. Coach Fetzer, Capt. Matthews, Gregory and several members of the team made short talks about the same, team spirit, etc.

The whole object of the dinner was to get the team together again and get them to know one another better. It was also a recognition of their efforts to make a better team, to promote a better feeling among the individual members, and get their active support in getting more material for the team from their own class.

BASKETBALL MANAGERS

A meeting of the managers of the Fraternity and Dormitory Basketball League was held Wednesday night and several points which had been under discussion were settled.

The first point cleared up was that regarding the men who played in the Mars Hill game. It was decided that in the light of the purpose of Intra-Mural athletics, the Mars Hill-Carolina game should be interpreted as a varsity game, thereby making the men who participated in that game ineligible for Intra-Mural basketball this season. Rule four, which makes these men ineligible, says: "A man who participates in a varsity or first-year game the ensuing season shall not be eligible for the sport of that season." The decision in regard to the men who played in this game takes effect immediately.

It was also decided that a man must register 48 hours before he participates in a game. Registration includes filling out a registration blank and turning same in at Intra-Mural office. If one team plays a man who is ineligible, it gives the opposing team a chance to contest the game.
