

Monogram Club Gets Its Petition Passed

The student body voted upon the Monogram Club power to nominate candidates for cheer leaders last Monday morning in Chapel. C. C. Poindexter, president of the club, presented the petition of the wearers of the N. C. to the students. He emphasized the fact that some change in the system of selection was necessary to obtain a large and efficient group of cheer leaders. He suggested that the students allow the Monogram Club to nominate the cheer leaders, the student body retaining the right to elect them. In this way the men whom the cheering really affects will have the opportunity of seeing that there are quite a number of efficient cheer leaders on hand who are true representatives of the Carolina spirit.

Poindexter stated that all the details of the new plan had not been worked out as yet, but that the candidates would be tried out before their being nominated so that the student body may judge every man. A motion was made and passed practically unanimously that the Monogram Club be given the right to nominate the cheer leaders.

Coach Bob Fetzer also made a talk, emphasizing the need of more men out for track. He stated that each man here had individual athletic responsibility and that it was necessary for every man in the student body to shoulder his part if the athletics of the University are to keep pace with the expansion of the other branches. He also declared that the students of the South's foremost institution should get away from thinking in terms of State competition, for there is so much more material here to build a good team from than there is anywhere else in the State. If we utilized our talent here as much as do the smaller institutions, then we would be absolutely on top in every sport.

Track the sport in which practically every man can find an event to help his individual athletic responsible, to personally excel, and to develop his body. Coach Bob drove home the fact that track is one of the most desirable sports to go out for on account of its being a more nearly amateur sport than any of the others and on account of the individual's effort is rewarded to a greater extent in track. In issuing a call for all men interested, he further declared that track offered a great opportunity to get out of athletic parasite class and that the record of the team is limited only to the individual's effort.

That the women students of Wisconsin are unanimously opposed to drinking, and that they have declared themselves willing to cooperate to the fullest extent possible with the Union board and other men's organizations which have instigated the opposition, is the consensus expressed by 2,000 Wisconsin women in a recent mass meeting. The adoption of this resolution is said to mean clearly that Wisconsin women on the whole will refuse to associate with men who have been drinking; this stand to apply not only to students but to returning alumni and visitors as well. In their agitation against drinking, the students are blaming the difficulties at Homecoming and in connection with other games upon visitors who come to Madison for the occasion.

It was suggested by a student of M. I. T. that men living in the dorms place indicators similar to those traffic cops use, on their doors to indicate whether or not the inmate of the room is in the mood to receive callers. "Stop" is evidently intended to indicate that study is in progress and callers are not wanted, and "Go" means welcome.

Noted Authority Speaks on Insulin

Dr. Albert L. Walters, head of the department of pharmacology and experimental medicine of Eli Lilly and Company, drug manufacturers of Indianapolis, Ind., will explain the use of insulin in the treatment of diabetes in a lecture to the University branch of the American Pharmaceutical Association here on Monday night, March 24.

Dr. Walters is an authority on the use of insulin. Following the discovery by Dr. Frederick G. Banting and his colleagues in Toronto, the Lilly research laboratories were invited to assist the Toronto investigators in the production and the purification of the product.

Dr. Walters was graduated from Johns Hopkins University in 1912. In view of the many cures for diabetes already claimed as the result of the use of insulin, Dr. Walters' lecture is expected to draw a large crowd.

The lecture here will be on "Insulin: Its Properties and Clinical Use." A blanket invitation has been extended pharmacists and physicians in the state and it is hoped that many will avail themselves of the opportunity. The lecture starts at 8 o'clock.

These teams have been picked from two which were submitted by men who saw all the high school games here.

The Citadel Alumni on the Hill will probably be interested in hearing that Freddie Wagener, all-state tackle, has been recently elected Captain of the Varsity for 1924.

Mrs. Collier Cobb is visiting relatives in New Orleans. She will be away about six weeks.
