

DEBATERS FROM WILSON RECEIVE COVETED TROPHY

Team That Won Aycock Cup in 1924 Repeats and Wins
Cup Permanently.

OF COURSE IT RAINED

Charlotte High School Won Track
Meet—New Records Set In Spite of Slow Track.

High School Week has come and gone and the victors are jubilant over the results. Wilson, Charlotte, Greensboro and Lexington high schools won silver loving cups in the debates, the track meet, and the tennis tournament, respectively.

The Greensboro high school, represented by William Scott, won the singles in tennis, and Lexington, represented by Wood Dorsett and Hamilton Hargrave, won the doubles.

Charlotte high school won the 13th annual interscholastic state track meet, which was held here April 10, with 30 3-5 points, followed closely by Greensboro with 29 and High Point with 18 points. This makes the third time in three years that Charlotte has walked off with the championship, thereby taking permanent possession of the silver loving cup.

In spite of the fact that rain fell throughout the meet, making the track slow, five new state records were established by the high school athletes.

The Wilson high school by a vote of 3 to 2 defeated the Winston-Salem high school in the final debate, which was held here on the night of April 10, and carried the Aycock Memorial cup home for permanent possession by virtue of winning two years in succession. Incidentally, the representatives of the winning team were the same ones that won here last year.

Wilson was represented by Miss Catherine Ware and Fred Carr, who upheld the negative side of the query, Resolved—That North Carolina should ratify the port terminals and water transportation act. Winston-Salem, represented by Miss Nell Efrid and Joe Carlton, upheld the affirmative.

Dr. J. F. Royster presided over the debate and E. R. Rankin served as secretary. The judges were Professors H. H. Williams, W. S. Bernard, M. L. Ferson, H. M. Wagstaff, and L. R. Wilson. N. W. Walker presented the Aycock memorial cup to the winners.

M. C. S. Noble presented the cups to the winners in the interscholastic track and tennis tournaments.

TAR BABIES PLAY WEAVER COLLEGE

Meet Collegians Here This Afternoon.

DAVIDSON ON TOMORROW
Frosh Have Long Trip Through State of Virginia.

The victorious Tar Heels, winners of nine consecutive diamond contests, after playing Maryland at College Park Monday and Tuesday and Georgetown at the nation's capital Wednesday, will return to home territory to engage Lenoir-Rhyne Friday on Emerson Field.

The student body is looking forward to seeing its team again in action on its home diamond. It's Virginia trip was a phenomenal success and Friday afternoon the Tar Heels are expected to place another North Carolina team on the shelf as far as state honors are concerned.

Pre-game dope seems to point all in favor of Fetzer's blue and white nine, but baseball is ever uncertain. Lenoir, by virtue of a belated ninth inning batting rally, recently nosed out the Guilford Quakers who have twice trailed the slugging Tar Heels by only one marker. But Carolina's consistently steady pitching staff and her equally consistent slugging tip the scales in her favor. With the unparalleled success of their Virginia trip to give them confidence the Tar Heels will enter the contest Friday as general favorites.

For next week Bonner's aggregation has three games carded, all three of which will have important results on the race for the state championship. Tuesday the Duke University nine will journey over to Chapel Hill to hook up with Carolina on Emerson Field. Thursday the Tar Heels hop over to Wake Forest to engage Gharriety's Demon Deacons and Saturday they play a return game with Duke in Durham. Eight of the remaining games are to be played at Chapel Hill, so the students will have plenty of chances to see the team in action.

The following men have handed their names to Dean J. F. Royster as candidates for the Mangum Medal: W. S. Berryhill, W. H. Coltrane, D. R. Hodgson, C. R. Jonas and J. M. Saunders.

DALE RANSON

CAPTAIN 1925 TRACK TEAM
The track team last week scored its first victory over Virginia in the University's history. The relay team lowered the Southern mark at Atlanta Saturday. Ranson participated in both big meets.

The Easter dances, which began Tuesday evening of last week and continued through the night, were well attended and took a high place among the dances held here in the past. This year Swain Hall was used and spring weather and blue skies helped to make them a success.

The Sophomore Hop was held Wednesday morning, with Fuller Brown, of Asheville, leader, and Horace Strickland, of Nashville, and Gus McPherson, of Raleigh, assistants.

The Gorgon's Head dance was held Wednesday afternoon, with Jack Cobb, of Durham, leader, and Stacy Smith, of Asheville, and Lawrence Watt, of Asheville, as assistants.

DEFEAT VIRGINIA ON CINDER PATH FOR FIRST TIME

Cavaliers Downed in Charlottesville by Heavy Score,
83-43, Last Wednesday.

MORE RECORDS BROKEN

Defeat William and Mary—Relay Team
Lowers Southern Mark In Georgia Tech Races.

The Tar Heel cinder path artists of Carolina brought home the bacon from the contests in which they participated during the Easter holidays. With the scalps of two Virginia institutions already hanging from their belts, they invaded the sister state and added two more victories to their credit.

Last Wednesday Carolina defeated the Cavaliers for the first time in the history of track relations between the two rival institutions, the score being 83 to 43. Coach Bob's men continued their record-breaking spree, equalling the record for the 100 and establishing new marks in the 220 and the high jump. They won a decisive victory, taking 10 first places, while Virginia got but four.

McPherson and Castleman, who were old rivals, met for the first time in college varsity competition in the hundred. Giersch led the century run to the 80-yard mark and looked like a probable winner, but McPherson came from the rear to win in a brilliant finish from Castleman in 10 seconds flat. In the 220, McPherson went to the mark against five men, all of whom had outrun him before. He clipped one-fifth of a second off the furlong, negotiating the distance in 22 seconds flat, thereby establishing a new University record and bettering the state record. McPherson also tied for second place with Darby, of Virginia, in the high hurdles, which made him high point man of the meet.

Ambrose raised his own record in the high jump to 5 ft. 11 1-2 in., which betters both state and University records. In the broad jump he barely missed setting a new mark. On his first jump he made 22 ft. 4 in., just one inch short of the college record.

Carolina made a clean sweep in the mile run and shot put. Giersch ran a splendid race in the low hurdles, equaling the record of 25 flat set by Moore last year. Woodard did excellent work in the broad jump, getting almost 22 ft. Corbett and Smiley reached a very creditable height in the pole vault, trying for first place. Goodwin ran the two mile race in good form and followed Purser to the tape.

Summary:
100-yard dash—Won by McPherson, Carolina; second, Castleman, Virginia; third, Teague, Carolina. Time, 10 sec.

One mile—Won by Bell, Carolina; second, Ranson, Carolina; third, Buchanan, Carolina. Time, 4:28.

Javelin—Won by Walp, Virginia; second, Fordham, Carolina; third, Barber, Carolina. Distance, 166 ft. 6 in.

120-yd. hurdles—Won by Moore, Carolina; second, tie between Darby, Virginia, and McPherson, Carolina. Time, 15 2-5 sec.

High jump—Won by Ambrose, Carolina; second, Irvine, Virginia; third, Asbury, Virginia. Height, 5 ft. 11 1-2 in.

Discus—Won by Gieves, Virginia; second, Tyler, Virginia; third, Fordham, Carolina. Distance, 111 feet, 3 inches.

220-yd. dash—Won by McPherson, Carolina; second, Castleman, Virginia; third, Teague, Carolina. Time, 22 sec.

Pole vault—Corbett and Smiley, Carolina, tied for first place; Stevens and Lobban, Virginia, tied for third place. Height, 10 ft. 8 in.

William & Mary Meet
On the day following the meet at Charlottesville the Carolina trackmen administered defeat to William and Mary to the tune of 83 1-3 to 42 1-3. This was regarded a good meet, and competition was strong in many of the events. The Tar Heels captured nine first places, leaving five for the Indians.

Edwards ran his best race of the year when he came within 4-5 of a second of the 440 record. He covered the quarter in 51 4-5 seconds, the fastest time made

ALL ASTIR HERE TEN YEARS AGO

Ten years ago today Edward Kidder Graham was inaugurated as President of the University of North Carolina in the most elaborate inaugural ceremony ever held here. Prominent citizens and teachers from all over the country gathered here for the occasion.

The late Governor Locke Craig, as chief executive of the state and president ex officio of the Board of Trustees, inducted Dr. Graham into the office of University President. In performing this duty the Governor paid the high tribute that "The man and the hour have met." President Graham was a graduate of the University of North Carolina, and according to the inaugural number of THE TAR HEEL ten years ago, he was, as a student, "a recognized leader, a wonderful debater, an ardent athlete, deeply and sanely spiritual, and a brilliant student." He was editor of THE TAR HEEL, and was librarian, professor, dean, and acting President in rapid succession before becoming President.

Edward Kidder Graham died on October 26, 1918. Only recently the scaffolding of the central unit of the great memorial being erected to his memory was torn away. The interior of this section is yet to be completed, and two more units are to be added as soon as funds become available.

TAR HEELS PLAY LUTHERAN CREW

Meet Lenoir-Rhyne On Emerson Field Friday.

DUKE HERE TUESDAY

Varsity Enjoyed Victorious Virginia Trip.

The Tar Baby baseball team, in playing the Wake Forest freshmen here yesterday, started on an unusually heavy first year schedule. This afternoon the Frosh meet Weaver college here and tomorrow they tackle the Kittens from Davidson college. Saturday the Cadets from Oak Ridge institute, who have twice trounced the full-grown Davidson Wildcats, come to the Hill for a game. This fracas and the State-Carolina track meet will cause practically the entire student body to turn out for the two athletic events.

On May 4, Runt Lowe's crew goes into Virginia and plays six straight games with prep schools and freshman teams. Following their return, three state games are scheduled in leisurely fashion, the Cublets being met in Raleigh on May 13, the Wee Buck Dukes on the Hill, May 18, and the little farmers here on the 22nd.

The schedule follows:

April 22—Weaver college at Chapel Hill.

April 23—Davidson Fresh at Chapel Hill.

April 25—Oak Ridge at Chapel Hill.

April 27—Duke Fresh at Durham.

April 29—Wake Forest Fresh at Wake Forest.

May 4—Augusta Military Academy at Fort Defiance, Va.

May 5—V. P. I. Fresh at Blacksburg.

May 6—Woodberry Forest at Woodberry Forest, Va.

May 7—Washington and Lee Frosh at Lexington, Va.

May 8—V. M. I. Fresh at Lexington, Va.

May 9—Virginia Fresh at Charlottesville, Va.

May 13—State Fresh at Raleigh.

May 18—Duke Fresh at Chapel Hill.

May 22—State Fresh at Chapel Hill.

HAVE POSTPONED CARNIVAL A YEAR

Much Heralded Event Will Not Take Place Until 1926—Schedule
Too Crowded.

The Carolina Carnival will be postponed until next spring, due to the extremely crowded schedule for this quarter.

At a meeting last night of the Carnival Board this move was made. The huge amount of work that would be entailed in producing this big gala occasion would have to be done in such a short time and under such competition from other campus attractions, that the high hopes of the Board for the Carnival would probably be doomed to disappointment. So the event was postponed for a year.

Already this occasion has been incorporated in the University calendar for next year as a definite part of the spring quarter, and plans are under way for it now. It will undoubtedly be in the future one of the biggest events of the school year.

DEAN CONFERENCE BEGINS TOMORROW

Chase Delivers Welcome Address Early Thursday.

THREE DAY MEETING

Will Visit Duke University and N. C.
State College.

The University is host this week to the National Conference of Deans and Advisers of Men which is holding its seventh annual meeting. Dean Rienow, of the University of Iowa, is president of the group. Institutions that are members of the Conference are: Michigan, Purdue, Kentucky, Texas, Miami, Ohio Wesleyan, Princeton, Georgia Tech, Northwestern, Colorado Agricultural College, Colorado, Michigan State Normal, Iowa, Carnegie Institute of Technology, Nebraska, Toledo, Iowa State Teachers' College, Iowa, Michigan Agricultural College, Lafayette, Arkansas, Missouri School of Mines, Wisconsin, Worcester, Minnesota, Illinois, Olivet, Ohio State, Tennessee, Georgia, Kansas, West Virginia, Colorado College, Syracuse, Missouri, Vanderbilt, South Carolina, Oregon, Emory, Pennsylvania State, N. C. State, and North Carolina. About three-fourths of this number will be represented in the meeting here.

The meeting here is especially significant for several reasons. This is the first national body ever entertained at the University. Not until the Carolina Inn was built was it possible for the University to invite groups like this. This is the first meeting of this group east of Kentucky, and it is very probable that on this meeting there will be a discussion regarding forming an eastern section of the conference, to meet separately in alternate years.

The conference programs during the last few years have contained the following items, which indicate the scope of work that is done by the various deans' offices: "Should a student choose his course at the beginning or close of the freshman year? Student forum movement, rooming house inspection, vocational and educational guidance activities in American colleges and universities, maintaining close personal contact with students in a large university, student personnel work, how can students be stimulated to greater and more intelligent interest in problems of the day, relation of fraternities to the university, what should be the scholarship requirements for fraternity pledging and initiation, eligibility requirements for extracurricular activities, student government—its character and extent in various universities."

APE LECTURER WAS NEVER INVITED HERE

German Professor Mixed Up—President Chase States Lecture Never Scheduled.

Further movements in the Chase-Koehler case have been awaited since President Chase issued a statement labelling as "absolutely incorrect" a dispatch in the newspapers to the effect that an arrangement with Dr. Wolfgang Koehler of the University of Berlin for a series of lectures here had been terminated because of differences regarding the discussion of evolution. Dr. Chase said the University had never invited Dr. Koehler to speak here.

Dr. Chase's statement follows:

"I see a statement in Sunday's papers, under a Worcester, Mass., dateline, that the University of North Carolina has terminated arrangements for a series of lectures scheduled to be delivered here by Dr. Wolfgang Koehler, of the University of Berlin, on the ground that his proposed series fringes too closely on evolution to be acceptable.

"This statement is absolutely incorrect. Dr. Koehler, who is exchange lecturer at Clark University, has not been scheduled to lecture here, nor has any invitation been extended to him by the University. Had such lectures been scheduled, there is most certainly no reason why they should not be given."

Peace Oratorical Contest May 25th

The state-wide Peace Oratorical contest will be held in Raleigh either May 25 or 26, according to announcement from state headquarters at Guilford college. The contest will be held at State college, with Prof. C. C. Cunningham, the State college professor of public speaking, in charge of arrangements.

Carolina will be represented in the contest and preliminaries will be fixed at the next meeting of the debate council. Men are urged to begin preparation of their speeches now. The preliminaries will probably be held at least three weeks before the final contest.

Carolina's representative, M. A. James, took second place at this contest last year.

TULANE DEBATES HERE SATURDAY

In the Tulane-Sewanee-Carolina Triangle.

DEFEATED TULANE IN 1924

Washington and Lee Debate Here On April 30th.

Carolina debating teams will be busy within the next two weeks. Saturday night Tulane University will come here as part of the Carolina-Sewanee-Tulane triangle. The debate is to be held in Gerrard Hall, beginning at 8:30 o'clock.

The query is Resolved, That the United States should grant immediate recognition to the existing Russian Government." Carolina's speakers, upholding the affirmative, are John F. Cooper, '26, of Clinton, N. C., and Malcolm M. Young, '26, of Durham, N. C. Tulane's negative speakers are George J. Segel and Edmond N. Cahn. It is announced that two of the judges are the Hon. Josiah W. Bailey, candidate for governor in the last statewide primary, and R. R. Clark, editorial writer of the Greensboro News. The third judge has not been selected. Carolina defeated Tulane last year by a 2 to 1 decision. The Tar Heel speakers were C. A. Peeler and G. C. Hampton, Jr.

The Sewanee debate, to take place in Sewanee, Tenn., was scheduled for Friday night, but Sewanee has asked that it be postponed until some time in May. Carolina's speakers are Robert L. Cook, '27, of Winston-Salem, and Theodore B. Livingstone, '26, of Asheville.

Washington and Lee and Carolina will engage in a debate here Thursday night, April 30, on the query of the child labor amendment. Carolina will uphold the affirmative and Washington and Lee the negative. The Tar Heel speakers are A. K. King, '25, of Hendersonville, N. C., and Malcolm M. Young, '26, of Durham, N. C. Washington and Lee's debaters are Wilson M. Roach, '25, and Charles H. Hamilton, '27. Washington and Lee defeated Carolina unanimously last year. This will be the second time that Roach and Young have faced each other in an intercollegiate debate.

The Tar Heel negative of this triangle will face Johns Hopkins in Baltimore and George Washington in Washington, D. C. This team will be composed of Theodore B. Livingstone, '26, of Asheville, and Ernest L. Justus, '25, of Fiat Rock.

STATE HERE FOR MEET SATURDAY

Dual Track Meet in Chapel Hill—
Byrum Will Give Carolina
Stiff Opposition.

Coach Bob's track men are working daily in preparation for a meet Saturday afternoon, when State college will invade Emerson field. There will be fierce competition in the majority of the events, because Coach Miller has been working his men with the meet with Carolina as their objective.

The Techmen have lost two meets, one to V. M. I. and the other to W. and L. However, they defeated Duke, and are out to even their record by a victory over Carolina. State would rather defeat Carolina than any other rival, and would regard a victory as sweet revenge. The Tar Heels will bend their efforts toward keeping their slate clean, and a fast meet can be expected when the two rival institutions clash Saturday.

The stiffest competition will probably be in the dashes. Byrum, of State, won first places in the 100, 220, and 440 in the meet with Washington and Lee. In the field events State is especially strong. Pridgen has been doing good work in the pole vault and broad jump, and the weight events are taken care of by Ripple.

Bad Check Givers Prove Poor Students

In connection with the work of the office of the Den of Students in handling the clerical work connected with the student council program for doing away with bad checks, there has been made a rather interesting comparison of the scholastic record of the men who give bad checks with that of other students.

So far 432 men in the student body have given one or more bad checks this year. Of these 324 have grades that could be averaged. These 324 men made an average grade of 3.75. The general student average for the same period, including these men, of course, was 3.50. This represents a big difference when so many grades are averaged together.

Nearly three-fourths of these men are upperclassmen, and the upperclassmen's average for the same period was 3.31. In other words, the average man who gets into trouble giving bad checks is the man who does not do very high grade classroom work. His carelessness, or inability to handle himself, seems to apply to more than one side of his life.
