

VIRGINIANS TAKE ANNUAL CLASSIC IN GREENSBORO

Crowds of Pretty College Girls Flank Tar Heel Rooters.

HOLLAND WINS THE GAME

Carolina Marked Up Lone Tally in Fifth Inning on Double Steal by Bonner and Holsouser.

Playing to packed stands and bleachers, on a field that was fringed with the overflow from the stands, the Virginia Cavaliers won the annual Carolina-Virginia classic from the Tar Heels at Cone Park in Greensboro last Saturday afternoon by a count of 2 and 1.

The leaders of the largest crowd to ever witness the classic began to stream into the bleachers and grandstand by two o'clock, and by three o'clock the best seats were all taken. The greatest attraction of the afternoon outside of the game came at 3:15 when the girls from N. C. College came on the field in a body, and, marching in single file, formed a big U. N. C. on the field. As an additional stunt the girls from Carolina's "sister college" marched into the stands reserved for them and raised small blue umbrellas at a given signal.

While the teams took their preliminary practice the cheer leaders got into action and began to get the pep stirred up. Greensboro College girls occupied the right field bleachers, and next to them were the Carolina cheering sections with the "N. C." girls on the left. The girls from both schools did some effective yelling, and the Tar Heel rooters responded with the peppiest they have shown since V. M. I. was turned back in football.

At 3:30 Bill Holden announced the batteries for the classic and called "play ball." Virginia acted as home team, and the Tar Heels took the field. Holsouser pitched airtight ball from the start and the Cavaliers were not able to advance as far as second base during the first three frames. Only thirteen batters faced him in these innings. Friedberg walked in the first, but Johnson and Stanton flashed some fast fielding and pulled a double killing, cutting off Friedberg at second when Bronough drove one to Johnson. Holsouser yielded one hit in these three frames.

Virginia started the scoring in the first of the fourth. Friedberg opened the inning with a double into the crowd in center field. Bronough singled behind him and Friedberg raced home with the first marked of the game. Unversagt struck out, and Holland hit one into the crowd, landing on second on the play. With one away it looked like another Cavalier score was on the road, but Holsouser tightened down and fanned the next two men.

Carolina marked up her lone tally in the fifth. Thomas singled to open the inning, and the college bleachers went wild; but Johnson hit into a double play and forced Thomas at second. Holsouser.

BLANKET FEE VOTE PASSES STUDENTS

Becomes Effective Next Fall—Buccaneer Added and Price Reduced—To Be Permanent.

The blanket fee for the Publications Union was voted in Monday by a landslide of 571 to 59. Eleven invalid ballots were thrown out.

Beginning next year the fee is to be reduced from $5.50 to $5.00, and in return for the yearly fee each student will receive the Tar Heel, Yackety Yack, Carolina Magazine, and Buccaneer, instead of only the first three as formerly.

The Publications Union was founded two years ago as an administrative body, exercising complete supervision over all the student publications through its representatives, the Publications Union Board elected yearly by the union, providing for their administration, and giving each student every publication. The blanket fee of $5.50 was adopted by the students for a probation period of two years, at the end of which time it was to come up again for a vote of the student body as a permanent measure.

During the past two years the Publications Union has functioned very efficiently. The student publications have been put on a sound financial basis and have greatly improved in quality. Efficient financial management has enabled the union not only to reduce the fee to $5.00, but to include the Buccaneer in this fee.

Some changes in the publications are included in the plans for next year. The Tar Heel will probably be increased in size, either to a four-page tri-weekly or a six-page semi-weekly. Additional reductions in the space rates for the Yackety Yack will also be made.

FOERSTER REJECTS THE LEHIGH OFFER

Was Proffered Headship of English Department.

BELIEVES IN UNIVERSITY

Has Been Professor Here for Several Years.

Norman Foerster, professor of English in the University and authority on American literature, has just rejected an offer of the headship of the department of English at Lehigh University.

Mr. Foerster was offered the position several weeks ago and has given his best consideration to it. The offer is very tempting, carrying with it a stipend of $5,000 and added equipment for research in his field. His belief in the future of the University and his hope for its increased greatness influenced Mr. Foerster to reject such a flattering opportunity.

Dr. Foerster graduated at Harvard in the class of 1910 and received his M.A. degree at the University of Wisconsin. He was appointed an associate professor of English in the University in 1914 and became a full professor in 1919. He wrote Nature of American Literature and has made several contributions to various journals and magazines, especially in the field of American literature.

ANDREWS LOAN FUND ESTABLISHED BY HEIRS

Colonel Andrews Was Trustee of the University and a Prominent Railroad Builder.

President Chase has recently announced the establishment of the A. B. Andrews loan fund of $2,500 by the five children of the late Colonel Alexander B. Andrews, a trustee of the University from 1885 until his death in 1915, for many years a member of the executive committee, and to whose memory the University has placed a tablet in Memorial Hall.

The fund is established for deserving students in honor of Colonel Andrews. As he was a prominent railroad builder, preference will be given to the students from those counties in which he built railroads or in which are located railroads with which he was connected. These counties are Buncombe, Burke, Chatham, Cherokee, Davie, Durham, Forsyth, Granville, Haywood, Iredell, Jackson, McDowell, Macon, Madison, Moore, Orange, Richmond, Rowan, Surry, Swain, Vance, and Wilkes.

The five donors of the fund are William J. Andrews, class of 1891; Alexander B. Andrews, class of 1893; Mrs. Jane A. Marks, Montgomery, Ala.; John H. Andrews, class of 1897; and Graham H. Andrews, class of 1903.

Miss Rockwell Stages Greek Play

Miss Ethel Rockwell, of the University Bureau of Community Drama, has gone to Flora McDonald College at Red Springs where she staged a Greek play last night. This is one of the few Greek plays ever staged in North Carolina. It was an outdoor presentation, the stage being the college veranda.

Miss Rockwell will return by way of Charlotte where the annual Charlotte pageant will be given Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday. It is expected that numerous other Chapel Hill residents will also go to Charlotte for the pageant.

Announcement has been made by President Chase to the effect that Glenn Frank, editor of the Century Magazine, will deliver the commencement address on June 10. Rev. Ashby Jones, pastor of the Ponce de Leon Baptist church of Atlanta, Ga., will deliver the Baccalaureate sermon on June 7.

TRACK TEAM WINS THIRD PLACE IN S. I. C. TOURNAMENT

Holt Moore Sets New Record for 220 Low Hurdles.

EIGHT RECORDS BROKEN

Meet Was Fastest Ever Held in South—Mississippi Aggies Win for Third Consecutive Year.

Carolina took third place at the annual Southern intercollegiate track meet held at Sewanee, Tenn., last Saturday, in a contest undecided until the last event of the day. The Tar Heels trailed only a few points behind Louisiana State, the runner-up, and the Mississippi Aggies, winner for the third consecutive year. The meet, with almost perfect weather, resulted in the shattering of eight S. I. C. records, among which was the setting of a new mark of 25.1 seconds for the 220-yard low hurdles by Holt Moore, speedy Tar Heel hurdler.

The victorious Mississippi team garnered 29 points, Louisiana State a close second with 26, and Carolina scored 21. The other teams scored: Vanderbilt, 19 1-2; V. M. I., 17; Auburn, 10; Kentucky, 10; Washington and Lee, 8 1-3; Clemson, 6; Alabama, 5; Georgia Tech, 5; University of the South, 3; V. P. I., 2; University of Mississippi, 1. Brady, of Kentucky, who won all of the points credited to his team, and Foster, of V. M. I., led in scoring with 10 points each. They were also among those to set new records.

The meet was the fastest ever held in the South, as evidenced by the large number of records shattered. They were as follows:

Foster ran the 110-yard dash in 9 8-10 seconds. He also gave a new mark to (Continued on page four)

BIRTH CONTROL TO BE DEBATED

First Time Prominent Colleges Debate Question.

OXFORD UNION PLAN

Large Crowd Expected for Argument Tomorrow Night.

Birth control is the question to be fought out tomorrow evening in Gerrard Hall when State College and Carolina meet at 8:30 in a debate under the Oxford Union plan.

The query for this debate is one upon which there has been much interest centered of late and one that has been discussed to some extent in small groups, but this is the first time that two prominent colleges have engaged in debate on the question: "Resolved, That the dissemination of knowledge concerning birth control by contraceptive methods should be legalized throughout the United States." Since this question has never before been debated by two major institutions it is to secure considerable prominence by being reported for the "Debate's Annual."

As stated this debate is to be conducted under the Oxford Union plan, in which each college has one man on each side of the question. There is to be but one rebuttal and that will be by the first speaker of the affirmative who will have five minutes. However, after the debate the audience will be allowed to ask the debaters any questions that they may choose to bring out further light on the question. When there are no more questions the debate will close and the audience will render the decision; there will be no other judges.

As this question is of vital importance to present day life it is expected that the largest crowd for any debate this year will be out. The speakers will be: Affirmative, L. T. Bledsoe (Car), and J. Alvin Wilson, (State); negative, A. M. Fountain, (State), and L. B. Kennett, (Car).

Oxford College Director to Present Playmaker Reading

Elise Graham, dramatic director of Oxford College, will present the monthly Playmaker reading in Gerrard Hall at 8:30 next Sunday evening. Assisted by a group of musicians from the department of music of Oxford College, she will give a dramatic reading of Milne's "The Romantic Age", which was one of the most successful plays produced in New York last season.

Miss Graham, who has a very charming personality, is a professional reader of great ability and has had considerable platform experience.

The library is trying out a new plan which will be helpful to faculty members. Bound technical magazines may be borrowed by members of the faculty for seven days at a time. Continuance of this circulation of periodicals depends upon the co-operation of the faculty.

DEBATERS RETURN FROM DISASTROUS TRIP IN KENTUCKY

Defeat Kentuckians for Only Win But Lose to Berea and Center.

DISPUTE CENTER VICTORY

Unusually Large Audience Attends Debate—University Speakers Entertained at President's Home.

Carolina's Kentucky state debating tour ended rather disastrously, the Tar Heels winning but one out of three debates on the tour. Berea College defeated the Tar Heel forensic artists last Wednesday night in Berea by a 2 to 1 decision; Thursday night Carolina defeated the University of Kentucky by a 2 to 1 decision, and Friday night the second debate defeat of the trip was administered by Center College, which won a 2 to 1 decision of the judges.

The North Carolina speakers were Sidney G. Chappell and Malcolm M. Young. They debated the query, Resolved, That Congress, by a two-thirds vote should be empowered to override Supreme Court decisions declaring Congressional acts unconstitutional. The Tar Heel victory was on the negative side of the query. The two debates on the affirmative were lost.

Between 600 and 800 people, it is estimated, attended the debate at Berea. The Berea team was upheld by Messrs. Robbins and Porter, with Porter's rebuttal as a special feature. The debate at Berea was very closely contested and Berea is reported to have had the best team on the trip. President Hutchins, of Berea College, entertained the University speakers at his home, tendering them a reception following the debate.

TENNIS SQUAD IS BACK FROM NORTH

Lost Only to Two Strongest Teams in East.

LAST MATCHES THIS YEAR

All Five Members Have Been Able to Show Skill.

The Carolina tennis team returned from their northern trip last Sunday night. They won two of the four matches played, losing only to the two strongest teams in the East, the United States Navy and Swarthmore.

The team left Chapel Hill last Monday night a week ago, taking Solomon, Fuller, Whitaker, Poole, and Blaylock. The men ranked as above in the singles matches, and Solomon and Fuller played as the first doubles team, and Whitaker and Blaylock second.

St. Ann's college was met at Annapolis on Wednesday, Carolina winning without the loss of a set.

In the match with Swarthmore the next day Carolina won only the singles match played by Poole, fourth man. The match was hotly contested and every one of the singles matches went to three sets, with the exception of that of Solomon.

During the whole trip Solomon suffered with a bad arm which he got during the state tournament here some time ago, and which was made worse by having to play in the Southern tournament and the succeeding matches.

Friday afternoon Georgetown was met at Washington. Carolina lost one of the singles matches and one of the doubles, but took the other four matches.

Navy was met at Annapolis on Saturday afternoon. Their team is recognized as the strongest collegiate team in the East, and had defeated all of the colleges that it has had matches with. Among those teams which have fallen before it are Princeton and Johns-Hopkins.

Carolina won one of the doubles and two of the singles to Navy's three single matches and one double. In the singles Fuller and Poole gained victories and in the doubles Whitaker and Poole defeated their men.

There will be no more matches for the team this year, due to the nearing of the examination period.

The team has won every match played with the exception of the two mentioned above. Two Carolina men are to play for the title of state singles champion—Whitaker and Solomon. Solomon and Fuller were runners-up in the Southern intercollegiate tournament.

That is the record of the team this year. While there have been no individual stars, the team has maintained a high level of playing and the difference between first man and fifth has been but little. Besides the five men on the team, there have been three or four very promising men on the squad, who will help in building up a team next year (Continued on page three)

FINAL GAME WITH WAKE FOREST ON EMERSON FIELD THIS AFTERNOON

SONG IS DEDICATED TO THE GLEE CLUB

The University Glee Club has been endowed with another singular honor. Mr. Weaver has received a copy of a song written for and dedicated to the Glee Club. Dr. Daniel Protheroe, of Chicago, the foremost composer of vocal music in the country, has dedicated his new song entitled, "A Song of the Road," to the local club. The setting of the song is taken from Wordsworth's poem by the same name.

The Glee Club feels highly honored at receiving such recognition from so great a composer and next season they will use it as one of their main features on their programs.

PRETTY GIRLS FETE CAROLINA SHEIKS

Campus Lawn Is Scene of Brilliant Spectacle.

HAS AIR OF ROMANCE

Defeat Is Forgotten Amid Pleasures of the Night.

The N. C. C. W. girls did their best to ease the feelings of the Carolina boys after the loss to the Cavaliers when they opened the gates of their campus to the University student body on Saturday night and issued a general invitation to the boys to attend a big reception as honor guests. The reception is an annual affair and is looked forward to with as much expectation as the big game. For a Carolina boy to go to the game and miss the "N.C." party on the night after the game is like eating a dinner and missing the dessert, and but few of the Tar Heels were guilty of this omission.

Hundreds of brilliantly colored lights furnished the illumination for the occasion and lent an air of romance to the beautiful campus. The crowds of pretty girls, North Carolina's best, and the Carolina boys moved in an endless procession over the grounds, milling in and out, going nowhere, just looking for a good time. They all succeeded in their quest, and the defeat of the afternoon was forgotten in the pleasures of the night.

The officials forgot their iron-clad rules and extended the time limit a little further than usual, but at 10:30 the big campus bell rang to close the party, and the orchestra played "Home, Sweet Home" while the various couples returned to the dormitories, and the visitors left with intention to never miss another one of the annual N.C.-Carolina receptions.

SERVICE PLANT MOVES TO MODERN QUARTERS

More Efficient Service Now Possible—Complete Line of Electric Fixtures Being Carried.

The University Consolidated Service Plant has been occupying its new quarters in the remodeled Strowd garage since May 1.

From its cramped space in a single room of the basement of Alumni building the Service has moved into a large and well arranged building. The old Strowd garage has been completely remodeled and furnished so that the Service plant has a neat, clean and attractive office. It comprises the electric light and power, water, coal, and telephone service for the University and the town. In addition they sell a complete line of electric goods, lamps, ranges, fans, fixtures, percolators, and electric refrigerators.

The ground floor of the building is taken up with the sales room and office, and on the second floor are the stock room, workshop, and the fixture and display room. A service man is on duty until 10:30 p.m. and any student who has trouble with lights or water can get free service by calling.

The new office of the Service Plant is a credit to Chapel Hill's business block. The principal reason for moving was to keep in closer touch with the townspeople. Mr. Bennett says that he intends to put some chairs in for the benefit of visitors and loungers soon.

Phi Beta Pi to Give Dance Next Friday Night

The North Carolina Alumni Club of the Phi Beta Pi fraternity is to give a script dance at the Gorgon's Head Lodge Friday night from 9 until 1 o'clock with subscription fee of one dollar. The dance is given for the benefit of the settlement school established and maintained by the fraternity at Catlinburg, Sevier county, Tennessee, for the education of mountain children.

Deacons Took First of Series by 2-1 Score.

TIME FOR COME-BACK

Will Have Important Bearing on Standing of Nines in State Race.

PITCHER'S BATTLE EXPECTED

Sorrell Got Better of Argument in Initial Game On Gore Field.

The Tar Heels will be hosts to the Wake Forest Deacons here this afternoon. This is the second meeting with the Baptists this season and will have an important bearing on the final ranking of the college nines in the state race. Though the Tar Heels are virtually out of the race if it is counted on a percentage basis, they will be ready to argue with the other contenders on a basis of comparative scores. However, either way the rating is finally decided, the game this afternoon will be a crucial test of both teams.

In the first meeting between the Tar Heels and Deacons, the Wake county outfit won out by a score of 2 to 1 in a pitcher's duel between Holsouser and Sorrell, but the Hillians, after losing the last two games of the Virginia series, are in a mood to take their revenge out on some other outfit and the Baptists happen to come next on the list.

No matter which way the championship is settled at the close of the season, the first and second places in the rating will depend on this encounter. The Deacons are in the van at the present, with the State Wolfpack and the Tar Heels snapping at their heels. Since the Wake Forest tossers won from the Techmen last Saturday a win for the Tar Heels over the two teams in the other contests undisputed possession of the second rung of the ladder with a chance to argue with the Deacons over the top position.

CARROLL RETURNS FROM TRIP ABROAD

Visits Important Countries of Europe and Brings Back Much Valuable Material.

Dean D. D. Carroll, who has been spending the past eight months traveling through Europe on the Kenan traveling professorship studying social and economic conditions, returned to the University Saturday.

Mr. Carroll visited practically all the important countries of Europe during his visit, and brought to light some very interesting material in regard to present European social and economic conditions. Among the countries visited by Dean Carroll are England, France, Italy, Czechoslovakia, Austria, and Germany. While in England Mr. Carroll spent some time at the London School of Economics and also at several of the leading social research schools throughout Europe.

Mr. Carroll purchased several etchings and rare manuscripts for the School of Commerce while he was away. No announcement has been made yet in regard to just what material was bought, although there is doubtless some very valuable and excellent material on European social and economic problems stored away in the numerous trunks and boxes Dean Carroll brought back to this country with him.

Dean Carroll was accompanied on his trip by Mrs. Carroll and family.

Phi Assembly's Last Meeting To Be Held Saturday Night

The Phi Assembly will hold its last meeting of this year on Saturday night. At this time many important matters will come up to be disposed of, among which are the election of officers for the fall quarter of next year and the policies of the society for the coming year. Since it is the last meeting it is especially desired that all members be present.

The meeting of last Saturday was suspended on account of the game in Greensboro and the large number of boys who were off the Hill.

Chapel Hill Party Leaves for Europe

A party of Chapel Hill women consisting of Mrs. T. J. Wilson, Jr., Miss Elizabeth Bain, and Mrs. Stacy left Saturday night for New York where Mrs. Robert Thompson, of New York, will join them. The party sets sail today for Plymouth, England, on the "America" of the United States lines. There Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Stacy will spend a short time with T. J. Wilson, III, former Carolina student and instructor, where he holds a Rhodes scholarship. After visiting London and points of interest in England, they tour various countries on the Continent. The party will return to Chapel Hill about September 1.
