

All-University Track Meet To Be Held This Afternoon

EMERSON FIELD
Meet Sponsored by Intra-Mural Athletic Association.

SECOND ANNUAL AFFAIR
Complete List of Fourteen Events Will Afford Wide Choice For The Participants.

After putting on one of the biggest track meets held on Emerson Field last year the Intra-Mural Athletic Association will sponsor their second annual All-University outdoor track meet on Emerson Field this afternoon. Beginning at 2:00 o'clock it will take in fourteen events on the regular track and field schedule, with some of the distances modified to suit the condition and state of training of the runners at this early season date.

Every student in the University who has not made a letter in track or taken part in the University of Richmond Indoor Games in February will be eligible to enter the events today. The elimination of the lettermen and varsity stars will make the competition more fair to the embryo cinderpath stars and will create more interest in the meet.

The purpose of the meet is to create more interest in track and field sports among the students as well as to furnish one of the events on the Intra-Mural Association's regular program of sports for the year. Every man in the university who has shown any ability in track in any way in the past has been mailed a special card inviting him to enter the meet today. However, if any student failed to get a card, it does not mean that student cannot enter.

Should Draw Spectators
The meet is the first chance this spring for the student body to see the prospective varsity and freshman stars in action, and a large crowd should turn out to see the men in action. Last year one or two men were uncovered in the Intra-Mural competition who had talent in the track and field game and there may be men found in this meet today that will garner quite a few points for the Tar Heels or Tar Babies during the coming season.

The complete list of events will afford every man a wide choice to enter.
All of the field and running events will be held as in regular meet. The field events include shot-put, discus throw, javelin throw, high jump, broad jump.

JOURNALISM CONTEST WILL BE HELD HERE

Third Annual Contest to Determine Best High School Publications Conducted by Extension Division.

Regulations governing the third annual contests in high school journalism for North Carolina schools were announced today by the University Extension Division, under the auspices of which the contests are held.

There are two contests running simultaneously, one to determine the best high school newspaper, and the other to pick the best high school magazine.
The purpose of the contests is to encourage excellence in high school journalism.

Regulations governing the newspaper contest require that schools competing send a file of its papers for the scholastic year 1925-26 to the Committee at Chapel Hill on or before May 25, of this year. Files of magazines for the year should be sent on or before the same date. In both contests the work must be done by the students, although "there may be some degree of faculty supervision", the school principal being expected to explain the degree of faculty responsibility.

The University Extension Division will award permanent trophy cups to the winners of each contest.

The committee in charge of the contests is composed of N. W. Walker, chairman; J. F. Royster, C. A. Hibbard, L. R. Wilson, E. R. Rankin, Secretary; Gerrard Johnson, and E. W. Madry. All communications should be addressed to Secretary Rankin.

An excellent response has been accorded the two previous contests. The award of first place in the magazine contest of 1924 went to Purple and Gold, of the Raleigh high school, and the award of first place in the newspaper contest of 1924 went to High Life, of Greensboro high school. The Hillbilly, of the Asheville high school, was awarded first place in the magazine contest of 1925, and The Hi-Rocket of the Durham high school, was awarded first place in the newspaper contest.

COACHED WINNING PLAYS

L. V. HUGGINS

The Winston Hi Players, under the direction of Huggins, won both the original and professional play contests here Thursday. Mr. Huggins was a member of the 1925 senior class and, besides being cheer-leader here was also a playmaker and inter-collegiate debater.

FROSH BASEBALL PROSPECTS GOOD

Practice Going Forward Earnestly With Examinations Over.

COMPETITION IS STRONG
Many Former High School Stars Out For Tar Baby Team.

With the advent of the first real spring weather of the year, Coach Robbins Lowe's freshman baseball candidates are going through stiff work-outs each afternoon on the freshman field. Coach Lowe has his men out early each afternoon and works them until the sinking sun makes it impossible for the players to see the ball.

Practice was called to a halt last week during examinations, but now that they are over, practice is expected to go forward at full sway. There are approximately 50 men out for the various positions and Coach Lowe is going to have a colossal task in deciding who will fill the places on the first nine. From all appearances, it looks as though there is better material on hand this year than there has ever been before. There are at least two players out for every position on the team of known ability and who have been outstanding in their high and prep school careers.

So far as is known, all the outstanding men on the squad passed their work and there will be no hitch here.

Fred Beap, all-state catcher who performed for Casey Morris' championship team last year, will probably get first call for the receiver's job. He has a world of experience behind the plate, knows how to handle pitchers, and is very proficient with the willow.

The pitching problem is the biggest one that Coach Lowe is facing. Up to the present time, there has not been an abundance of men out for this department who look like real hurlers. Shuler, star guard on the Tar Baby football team last fall, has been leading the hurlers in the early practices but he is handicapped due to the fact that he has not had very much experience. Marshall and Thomas, both Woodberry Forest products, have also been showing up well on the hillcock and it looks as though they will make the grade. "Steve" Ingram, who used to toss the horsehide for the High Point highs, is also showing a world of stuff and should be one of the mainstays of the mound corps.

"Steve" Puresch, who used to cavort around the infield for the Rockingham and Shelby teams, and Edison Foard, of Charlotte, who was captain of the Tar Baby football eleven last fall, are having a neck-and-neck race for the first base job with Foard probably having a slight edge over his adversary.

At the keystone sack, Harkrader, Dixon, and Jessup are the outstanding performers with very little difference between the trio. All three are good fielders and fairly good hitters. Jessup has probably had the most experience of any, he having played on the strong Pomona team, which captured the state

ASHMORE JOINS COACHING STAFF HERE NEXT FALL

Widely Known Mentor Will Be Head Coach of Basketball and Baseball.

WAS FORMERLY AT IOWA
Coaching Staff Has Been Considerably Bolstered This Year—Further Changes Pending.

A valuable addition has been made to the coaching staff of the University in the person of James N. Ashmore, baseball, basketball, and football star at the University of Illinois about 20 years ago, who has accepted the position here of head coach in baseball, basketball, and assistant in football. His services will become effective with the opening of the fall term.

Ashmore has served very successfully as athletic coach at several universities.
He was head coach of basketball and baseball and assistant in football at the University of Iowa at the same time Howard Jones was football coach at that school. Jones is now at the University of Southern California.

Following graduation from Illinois he entered the professional baseball field, and then for a number of years coached athletics at James Miliken University, Decatur, Ill. From there he went to the University of Colorado, where he was very successful until the war. He entered the service and on his discharge he went to Iowa. Following that he coached baseball, basketball, and football at De Pauw University, where he remained until eighteen months ago.
After serving for a year with the National Amateur Athletic Association he quit athletics to enter business and is now with the United States Rubber Company of Chicago.

The University is very successful in having obtained Ashmore. The main work of the athletic committee since the resignation of "Bill" Petzer has been to reorganize and build up a coaching staff, and Ashmore will help on the staff a great deal. It was no easy task to get him. Some months ago he paid the University a quiet visit, and although he expressed himself pleased at the situation no agreement could be reached in the way of a contract. The University authorities have been negotiating with him ever since in an effort to come to terms.

With the appointment of Ashmore, the reorganization of the University's athletic coaching staff has progressed to the stage where alumni may view the coaching situation with considerable optimism. Assurance is given that all branches of University sports will be in the hands of competent instructors—mentors who already have demonstrated their abilities in crucial tests.

The staff is not yet complete, the athletic authorities say. It is understood that two or three other changes are to be made, announcement of which prob-

SWARTHMORE TO DEBATE IN OPEN FORUM TONIGHT

Visitors Will Argue Curtis-Reed Bill With University Debaters.

IS SECOND OPEN FORUM
Alvin Kartus and H. V. Chappell Will Represent University in Annual Contest.

The second open forum debate of the year will be held tonight at 8:30 in Gerrard hall, when Swarthmore College and the University of North Carolina will discuss the Curtis-Reed bill providing for a federal department of education.

All those who heard the contest with Swarthmore last year on the subject of American recognition of Russia will remember the excellent showing her representatives made and will want to attend the debate tonight. Swarthmore is a Pennsylvania institution which ranks high in scholarship and forensics. It will be recalled by many that the president of Swarthmore, Frank Aydelotte, is secretary of the National Rhodes Scholarship Committee.

In recent years there has been considerable agitation for the federalizing of every governmental activity to a greater or lesser degree. We have national highways and federal aid to state

JITNEY FARES TAKE FIRST UPWARD JUMP

Chapel Hill-Durham Fare Remains the Same—Costs More to Go to Raleigh and Greensboro.

The motor bus company operating the safety coaches between Raleigh and Greensboro has been granted a 50-cent increase in fare between the two cities.
The tariff from Durham to Greensboro has been increased from $1.75 to $2.00, and the fare to Raleigh has been raised to $1.00.

The Chapel Hill-Durham fare remains the same, and is now more in proportion to the new rates than it was before the increase on the other routes as granted by the Corporation Commission.

Fayetteville Club Plans To Have Outing For Easter

A large crowd was present at the first meeting of the Fayetteville Club to be held this quarter. The meeting was held Monday night in the social room of the "Y."

Discussion of plans for an outing to be held during the Easter vacation took up most of the evening. It was decided to have this on Tuesday after Easter.
The party will leave Fayetteville about 7:30 p.m. and proceed to a camping ground on the Fort Bragg road known as "Eutah," where wieners and marsh-

Winston Players Carry Off Honors Of Institute

The third Dramatic Institute of the Carolina Dramatic Association was held under the auspices of the University Bureau of Community Drama four days of this week. The Institute commenced Wednesday and offered each day a series of lectures, business sessions and performances. It will be concluded today by a final talk on programs for chapel exercises and three plays by miscellaneous groups. In connection with this meeting of the Dramatic Association the state-wide dramatic contest finals were held. Representatives of the eastern and western sections of the state again enacted the plays with which they had won their way to the finals. The Wilson High School Dramatic Club, champions of the east, presented Booth Tarkington's Ghost Story and the western champions from Reynolds High School of Winston-Salem gave The Falcon, by Hall and Middlemas. The Winston players were declared winners by decision of the judges. In addition to these plays by professional writers there was a contest for the best original play by a high school student. Two schools entered this contest, Greensboro High presenting Masks Off, by Miss Ruth Heath and Winston-Salem offering The Deserter, by Miss Loretta Carroll. Again Winston won first place, a truly remarkable performance. It will be remembered that this same group of players carried off both first places in the contest last year. Their two winning plays were directed by L. V. Huggins, a former Carolina student, to whom much of their success was due. Bobby Wunsch, another ex-Carolina man was responsible for the coaching of the Greensboro aggregation.

Professor Frederick H. Koch, the founder of the Carolina Playmakers, presided at each of the meetings and saw to it that the visiting delegates were given a hearty welcome. He delivered the opening address and was followed by Professor W. H. Taylor, who spoke on the previous history of the Dramatic Association. On Thursday afternoon George Denny and P. L. Elmore, assistant directors of the Playmakers took the visitors to the Theatre workshop and gave them a demonstration of the methods used in production at the University.
Thursday's program was concluded in the evening by the contests won by Winston-Salem.

Friday morning sessions of the Institute was given over to a number of talks on "Dramatics as an Accredited Subject". The speakers were W. R.
Wunsch of Greensboro High School, Miss Edna Phillips of Asheville High School, and Miss Marguerite Herr, president of the North Carolina English Teachers Association. All stated that dramatics was rapidly coming to occupy an important place in the school

CHASE TO VISIT ALUMNI GROUPS

Efforts Being Made to Create More Interest in Spring Reunion.

EXTENSIVE ITINERARY
Central Meeting Will Serve as Rallying Grounds for Grads.

Plans are now being made for one of the most complete alumni visitations ever to be held by the president and Mr. Grant, alumni secretary, Mr. Grant said a few days ago. The itinerary is not yet complete but dates have been decided upon for several of these meetings.

Dr. Chase is going to visit eight or ten alumni groups at the largest points in the state and these points are to be made the rallying ground for other alumni in all of the sections. These visits are being made with the idea in view of having one of the most successful alumni reunions ever held this spring. The alumni meetings will come this year at the same time as commencement and this should serve to attract a large number of grads. The exact date is June 4-7.

Visits to the following towns on the following dates have been arranged: Winston-Salem, April 7-8; Asheville, April 21-22; High Point, April 26-27; Wilmington, May 4-5; and Charlotte, ule has also been drawn up: Newbern, April 9-10; Hickory, April 23-24; and Fayetteville, April 29-30.

SOCIAL FORCES RECEIVES WIDESPREAD RECOGNITION

Social Forces, published by the Social Science department of the University, and of which Howard W. Odum is editor, is attracting more than local attention, as is evidenced by several letters of commendation which the editor has recently received.

Colonel E. M. House, of New York City, adviser to President Wilson during the war, says: "It is a source of gratification and pride to me to find such an admirable journal as Social Forces being published in the South. I hope it has a wide circulation, for its influence in the direction of its endeavors should be of great value."

Other noted men of the country who have expressed favorable opinion of the magazine published here include President Livingston Farrand, of Cornell University; President E. A. Alderman, of the University of Virginia; President Glenn Frank, of the University of Wisconsin; Dean Boscoe Pound, of the Harvard Law School; Hon. Newton D. Baker, former secretary of war, and H. L.
Mencken, editor of the American Mercury.

VOTE APRIL 1.

Number of Men Appear as Likely Candidates.

AUSTRALIAN BALLOT IS USED Elections Held Earlier This Year and Longer Interval Between Nominations and Elections.

With the time for the annual campus elections drawing near at hand, politics is becoming the chief student interest.
Nominations for the twenty-nine major student offices will be made Monday morning in chapel, with the exception of the class offices which will be made at various places Monday night. Elections will be held Thursday, April 1.

There are a number of probable candidates for each of the major offices. According to present indications, it seems that "Sid" Chappell, Bob Sides, "Squatty" Thomas, and Jim Williams will run for the office of president of student body.
"Kike" Kyser, Zack Owens and Red Smith will probably be candidates for the presidency of the senior class; Billy Ferrell and Walter Kelly for presidency of the junior class; Bill Dodderer and Bunn Hackney for presidency of the Athletic Association. Luther Byrd and J. T. Madry will be candidates for the editorship of the Tar Heel. John Olive and Julian Starr for the editorship of the Carolina Magazine; Bill Peacock for the Yacket-Yack; and Ted Smith for the Buccaneer. The Y. M. C. A. will nominate several men for each office of the "Y". These nominations have not yet been announced. Other nominations
