TRACK TEAM TO MEET VIRGINIANS

meet, finishing under 10 1-6 minutes, while the best that Daniels, Carolina's strongest runner has done has been about 10 1-3 minutes. Henderson and Goodwin will be the Tar Heel's other representatives.

In the high hurdles Thomas and Smith, who cover the bars in about 16 1/2 minutes, will compete against a team picked from Pearson, Watt, Purser, Buck, and Johnston. The best time for the Carolina runners is also about 16 1/2 minutes.

The Tar Heels have the edge in the low hurdles, Thomas and Smith having a time of 26 4-5 minutes to 26 2-5 exhibited by the Tar Heels.

The Virginians, however, will present their strongest array in the field events. They have lined up for pole vault Flake and Labban who cover the bar at 11 feet, while the best that Corbett and McFayden have done for Carolina is 10 feet 6 inches. In the high jump, the Cavaliers have a slight edge on the Tar Heels, and have a great advantage in the broad jump, shot put, discus, and javelin throw. In the recent meet with Navy, Walk, the Virginia javelin tosser, set a new Virginia record of 180 feet.

HI TRIANGULAR DEBATE CLOSED HERE LAST NIGHT

The second preliminaries were held throughout the day Friday. The negative teams debated in the Phi Assembly Hall and the affirmative teams in the Di Hall from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. The decision rendered by the judges was as follows: Affirmative, Wilson first, represented by Harry Finch and Catherine Ware; Winston-Salem second, represented by Walter Johnson and Katherine Boyles; Negative: Winston-Salem first, represented by Nell Efrid and Loretta Carroll; Wilson second, represented by Elmer Oettinger and Dorothy Perry.

The finals were held last night at eight o'clock in Memorial Hall. Dr. H. W. Chase served as President and Mr. E. R. Rankin as Secretary. The winning school was presented with the Aycock Memorial Cup. This cup becomes the permanent possession of any team which wins it twice in succession. In the past years, the cup has been won by Durham and Wilson.

This is the fourteenth annual contest of the North Carolina High School Debating Union, held under the auspices of the Dialectic and Philanthropic Literary Societies and the University Extension Division of the University of North Carolina. The contest of this year is said to be the best yet, both in quality of debates and in the interest shown. Chief credit for the success is due to Mr. E. R. Rankin, Secretary of the High School Union, who has directed the contests since their beginning fourteen years ago.

THE ROMANCERS TO BE GIVEN IN SPRING

two lovers disappear we find that the fathers are not angry with one another but are causing the disagreement to foster love between the two children. They hire Staford, a swordsman, to pretend to abducte Sylvette. In order to give Percinet the opportunity of rescuing her and winning the regard of her father. The lovers discover the ruse and Percinet goes away. Staford finally arranges things because he won't get his money unless the marriage comes off. Percinet and Sylvette marry.

MISS ROCKWELL'S PLAY STAGED AT CHARLOTTE

vious productions have been quite successful and since a great deal of interest has been shown in the Charlotte performance, it, too, will undoubtedly be most successful.

Miss Rockwell has been in Charlotte for the past few weeks, personally directing all arrangements and rehearsals. She will return to the Hill after the performances.

MANY LOCAL PEOPLE TAKE ASHEVILLE TRIP

George Denny Sends Free Bus to Show Chapel Hillians the Land-of-the-Sky.

With the coming of spring a number of Chapel Hill residents have become interested in the natural beauties of the Western part of the state, and have left their duties for a while to run up to Asheville on sight-seeing trips.

Several buses were sent down from Asheville by the Beverly Hills suburban development during the Easter holidays to furnish those interested in that attractive development with free transportation to the "Land of the Sky". The bus trips were supervised by George Denny who represents the development in Chapel Hill. A pleasant ride over the city of Asheville is given to all those making the trip as prospective purchasers of property in Beverly Hills.

Among those who made the last trip were Mrs. Kent Brown, Mrs. Archibald Henderson, Mrs. M. B. Taylor, Mrs. R. S. King, Mrs. Alice Jones, Miss Brown, Dr. and Mrs. Dashiell, M. L. Radolph, Dr. and Mrs. Edminister and Miss Julia Erwin. Of these several bought property.

There will be other bus trips made soon. The trip will be a pleasant one as the buses are equipped with comfortable seats and they make good time on the run. Other information can be obtained from George Denny, director of the playmakers.

GRANT VISITS OUT-OF-STATE ALUMNI GROUPS

Mr. Daniel L. Grant, Alumni Secretary, is away from the University on a trip in connection with his work. He is visiting Carolina Alumni groups in Chattanooga and Nashville, Tennessee, in Louisville, Kentucky, and in Chicago, Illinois. At each of these places extensive plans have been made for special meetings, banquets, and speeches. Mr. Grant will address the groups.

While on his trip Mr. Grant will also attend the meeting of the Association of Alumni Secretaries, which is held yearly. This year the conference is to be held at the University of Ohio, Columbus, Ohio, April 15, 16, and 17.

CHEER LEADERS GET ADDITION TO OUTFITS

C. written across the front, a gay sash of blue and white, and other accessories, makes the Tar Heel cheer leaders the most nattily attired outfit in the State, and it may be hard for some of the fair sex in the stands to keep their eyes on the game when these boys begin to cavort in front of the cheering section.

Cheer leaders Bob Hardee and "Squatty" Thomas are planning to rig up in their new plumage and take N. C. C. W. by storm one day next week, under the pretext of teaching the girls some Carolina yells. If this is to be an annual event, there is apt to be a superfluity of candidates for cheer leaders next year.

SMITH ELECTED SENIOR PRESIDENT
