

UNIVERSITY SIGNALLY HONORED WHEN CHOSEN FOR SOUTHERN CONFERENCE TRACK MEET

caught wondering aimlessly around, and so for the protection of visitors as well as contestants, everyone not having permission will be shunned from within the enclosure.

Coach Bob has submitted a mandamus to University students asking their cooperation in keeping themselves and strangers back in the stands, and at least to set a powerful example for the others by remaining just as far away from the track as they are asked to.

Every student should feel a sense of loyalty and pride in the knowledge that Carolina has been accorded an unusual honor and distinction by being the host to the conference.

One of the most interesting features of the meet will be remarkable array of notables who are coming to Chapel Hill from all over the country, to act in the role of officials. Probably the two most foremost exponents of the cinder game in the country are J. V. Mulligan and C. W. Street. The former is to serve as starter and the latter is to be the Referee. Mr. Street, of the Birmingham Athletic club, has refereed the Southern conference track meet for the past four years, and the Tech Relays a number of times. Starter Mulligan, of Georgetown, is another nationally known figure, who has had a wide and varied experience in track affairs for about twenty years. He has started more South Atlantic meets than any other individual, as well as several outstanding National indoor meets. He has also served in many different capacities as an official in the celebrated Penn Relays. Pres. Chase, of the University, will act as Honorary referee of the meet.

The real cream of the famous assemblage, however, is found in the personnel of the Games Committee. Nowhere is there a more distinguished list of men, so outstanding in the Southern Athletic world. The Games Committee is as follows: W. A. Alexander, of Ga. Tech; S. A. Boles, of Kentucky; Forest Fletcher, of W. & L.; W. D. Chadwick, of Miss. A. & M.; M. S. Bennett, of Sewanee; M. J. Donahue, R. A. Fetzer, of U. N. C.

"Al" Doonan, of the Atlantic Athletic club, the man who runs the Southern Conference Basketball tournament so politely for the sole benefit of the University of North Carolina, who has won the tournament for the past four out of five years—will act in the responsible office of Chief Finish Judge. H. L. Hesler will be Chief Timer. W. C. Parker will be clerk of course. Capt. Gibson will be Head Inspector.

Every school in the Conference has signified their intention of sending representatives to the meet, except the University of Mississippi. But as in every group may be found some outstanding individual, so in the Conference meet may be found some teams who are rated above the rest as far as good track aggregations are concerned. The institutions which are supposed to have the best chance of coping the meet are the University of North Carolina, University of Virginia, Auburn, Kentucky, University of Maryland, Louisiana State University, Mississippi A. & M., and Tennessee. All of these may come through and then again some dark horse—the bane of all experts' existence—may pop up and run off with the meet.

U. N. C. HARRIERS WIN FROM STATE IN MEET SATURDAY

two first places each for 10 points.

Sides, of State, gave Gus McPherson a hard race in the century and, in the 220, Gus beating him out by only a very narrow margin. The State sprinter is unusual in taking a standing start, while most sprinters take a crouching start. Some good performances were brought in the distance events. Red Pritchett ran the two mile for the first time this year and finished over a hundred yards in front of his mates. Despite the gruelling race under the hot sun Red turned in the fastest time registered by a Tar Heel this year, 10 minutes, 17.8 seconds. Elliott stepped the fastest three-quarters in the mile ever seen on the local track, but coasted in on the final lap to win in 4 minutes, 30.8 seconds. Elliott has run the mile in 4 minutes 29 seconds.

The Fetzerites are unusually strong in the hurdles this year. They took all but one place in the meet Saturday and in the State track meet at Raleigh they copped the first three places in both the low and high hurdles. The capture of the hurdles events in the Virginia meet played a big part in bringing home the bacon. From the spectators' point of view the barrier jumps are certainly the most popular of all track events. The sprint and graceful rising over the barriers have their charms even for the fair sex.

CONFERENCE OF Y. M. C. A. STUDENT LEADERS ENDS

to give new ideas and suggestions to the representatives. Next year the Conference will meet at Duke University, it was decided Saturday.

The Saturday morning session was called to order by the President, Mr. H. K. Platt, of N. C. State. The first theme for discussion was "Finances." The means used at each institution for raising funds were fully explained, and several methods of increasing these funds were explained and discussed. Outside obligations and foreign work were brought up.

Mr. F. S. King, of Raleigh, made short talks under the discussion of "Relationship," giving fifteen minute statements on the State Y. M. C. A., the National Council, and Foreign Work.

The Extension work of the Carolina Y. M. C. A. was explained by Emmett Underwood. The Blue Ridge Conference was brought up for discussion, and Mr. Comer urged the officers to consider the proposed change in the date of the conference to a date late in the summer. It was agreed that each college should elect their new Y. M. C. A. officers before May 1st each year.

A motion was passed to organize the Conference into an organization with a constitution, the membership to include old and new officers of the Y. M. C. A., and every college in North Carolina to be represented by at least nine officers, with a few having eleven members in the organization. The name of the organization will be decided upon by the framers of the constitution, who will be Mr. Comer, Mr. Britt, Mr. Lee, Mr. McCallough, and Mr. Thomas.

Dr. A. S. Wheeler left Saturday for Cleveland, Ohio, to visit the Chemical Equipment Exposition with a view to finding suitable equipment for the industrial laboratory of the University chemical laboratory.

SUNDAY SCHOOL HEARS MATHERLY

ganized with its local, district, state, sectional, national, and international organization, and the cost of financing such a mammoth organization is too burdensome. More stress is laid on the organization of the church such as to who shall be choir leader and who usher than on the welfare of man's soul, and under such conditions the church is losing its function. Churchanity exists rather than Christianity.

The second point was that educated men do not subscribe to formal church creeds and doctrines. Christianity is not a creed but the living of a Christ life or of being a Christ, he stated. The speaker stated that to him the essence of religion was to love, profess, and practice, merry and to walk humbly with God, and that if the church did not contribute to such it is not worthy of our support. Today too much emphasis is placed on the letter of the law and not on the spirit of the law, and men are halted by the church when they begin to make self interpretations of the law.

"The ministry in the large part is uneducated," said the speaker in taking up his third point. No spiritual and intellectual inspiration is derived from the usual church sermon. As has said Robert Ingersoll, "Most of the preachers are dead owls, sitting on the limb of knowledge, hooting the same old hoot." Religion must be interpreted and related to our daily and modern life. The speaker told how many of the sermons of our preachers may be outlined just after the text is given out, and how we go to church time after time and hear the preacher discourse without any personal interpretation whatever. He explained how divine calling had been over-emphasized on account of the distilled knowledge handed out from some church schools, and added that the church was too cautious in regard to scientific investigation and inquiry. The minister should be the most broad minded, most intellectual, and best educated person in the community since he has to deal with such a heterogeneous group of people," was the closing remark on this point.

The fourth and last point was that God reveals himself in more than one way. Prof. Matherly pointed out just how God reveals himself in His word, in history, in nature, and in Godly Living; showing that there was more religion in godly living than in church organization. He closed by saying, "We cannot only accept philosophy but we can accept the Great Philosopher. We can accept botany as well as the lily of the Valley, geology as well as the Rock of Ages, astronomy as well as the Star of Bethlehem, and animal husbandry as well as the Good Shepherd."

In the eighth frame Finley, who was hitting for Sapp, drove out a smashing triple blow to the center garden and counted when P. Joyner missed the throw to third.

first year hurlers, and Baxter south-pawed them to a 15 to 6 victory.

The University of Virginia's Baby Cavaliers were the victims of the largest score made on the trip when they were defeated Wednesday afternoon 19 to 5. Ingram pitched this game for the Tar Babies. Woodbury Forest was the next team defeated by the locals. Coach Lowe sent Charley Thomas in to pitch this game, and the tall right hander curved his way to a 9 to 3 win over his old team mates.

The first and only defeat was suffered Friday afternoon when the V. P. I. yearlings nosed out a 7 to 0 victory over Ellison. The final game of the journey was annexed Saturday afternoon when Ingram pitched a 7 to 4 win over the Augusta Military Academy at Fort Defiance, Va.

that the Duncanites have exhibited an errorless brand of baseball since they returned from their Eastern trip. The wildness of the Tar Heels was all that gave the victory to the Deacons while the "murderer's row", with "Touch-down" Jones added on, got next to the Demon chunker for nine hits. Such an exhibition today, minus the generosity of the Tar Heel hurlers, will turn in a victory for the "Duke."

The second affair of the week will be played Thursday against the Duke University Blue Devils on Emerson field, and then the Tar Heels will journey down to Pinehurst where they will meet the Deacons in an extra game.
