U. N. C. WINS SOUTHERN CONFERENCE TRACK MEET

SOCIAL PROGRAM MAKES WEEK-END A GREAT SUCCESS

House Party and Dances Feature Week-End Program.

TWO DANCES SATURDAY

Order of Grail and Zeta Psi Give Enjoyable Affairs Saturday Evening.

The week-end is over. The heavily burdened social calendar has disposed of its heralded events. The five dances, three house parties, banquets, bridge parties, and teas are things of the past. The girls have left and the copies of Emily Post have been returned to the Library. The socially inclined are on their last legs but are gazing wistfully back at the crowded events of the past week-end. In a word, the biggest week-end of the year is past and "it's all over but the shouting."

The season started Thursday night with the Kappa Alpha dance, followed by the Senior Ball and the Sigma Nu dance Friday night and the Grail and Zeta Psi dances Saturday. The Track Meet Saturday afternoon was the feature of the week-end; its success was typical of the social events also. The S. A. E., Sigma Nu, and Tau Epsilon Phi Fraternities gave house parties which supplied an abundance of feminine talent on the campus. Girls from all over the south visited the Hill and brought the glamour of romance with them.

Grail Dance at Gymnasium

Saturday night the Order of the Grail closed its social calendar for the year with an enjoyable dance in Bynum Gymnasium. Although being held at a most opportune time for a dance, the Saturday night affair was not up to the usual standard of Grail dances. The fact that other social functions were in progress at the same time caused a slump in attendance and the dance enjoyed the distinction of being the first Grail dance of the year which was not overcrowded. Notwithstanding these facts, those attending the dance found themselves amply entertained. The Southern Conference Track Meet brought a good many visitors, and Carolina's victory lent a spirit of gaiety to the occasion. Good

TAR HEELS WILL GO TO DURHAM TODAY

Will Meet Duke on Hanes Field This Afternoon.

FINAL OF THREE SERIES

Poyner or Sapp Are Slated to Face Thomas of Duke On Mound.

Today Coach Duke Duncan's Tar Heel aggregation will invade the Duke University Blue Devil camp in Durham for the third and final game of the series between the two nines. Carolina has won two straight games from the Duke men and has high hopes of making the count three in today's affair.

The Duncanites have played exceptionally good baseball in the last four exhibitions, although they have lost two out of the four trials. They journeyed down to Wake Forest last Saturday and played the Demon Deacons a hard-fought contest only to take a 4 to 3 licking. In that affair the Tar Heels played errorless ball, and had it not been for the generosity of the Duncanite chunkers in handing out free passes to first the game might have been won. They came home and pounced on "Shirt" Smith Tuesday for a 9 to 2 victory over the Guilford Quakers, and handed the Duke Blue Devils a second defeat Wednesday by an 8 to 7 margin, only to lose another contest to the Deacons in Pinehurst Friday by a 11 to 4 count. They invaded the Quaker camp Saturday determined to make the count two straight, but J. Pluvius decided otherwise and a deluge of rain prevented the game. In these four contests the Tar Heel stickmen collected 52 base knocks and scored 24 runs to their opponents 40 hits and an equal number of markers.

Either Bill Poyner or Odell Sapp will probably get the hurling assignment against the Blue Devils today, saving "Lefty" Westmoreland for the third Demon Deacon affair which will be played on Emerson field Thursday. Thomas will in all probability try to "come back" at the Tar Heels this afternoon. The Duke twirler got away to a bad start

SOUTHERN CONFERENCE TRACK CHAMPS

TAR HEELS LEAD IN TEAM SCORES WITH 22 POINTS

Virginia Is Second, With L. S. U., Clemson and Auburn Close Behind.

CLEMSON'S GREAT RECORD

Seven Records Are Broken in Finals Saturday—Elliott and Watt Are Carolina Stars.

The Tar Heel track team did not prove very hospitable as host to the Southern Conference track teams here for the fifth annual conference track championships last Friday and Saturday, for Coach Bob Fetzer's cindermen stepped out in front and appropriated the biggest and best slice of the pie for themselves. The North Carolina team score of 22 points was accounted for by first places by Elliott and Watt, a second place by Fordham, third places by Elliott, Watt and McPherson, and fourths by Pritchett, McPherson, and Ambrose.

The meet began and ended as a four-sided duel for top honors, with Virginia, Louisiana State University and Auburn taking the other parts. The Cavaliers piled up 18½ points and took second place, followed by the L. S. U. runners with 17 points. At the last moment Clemson College nosed out the Auburn Plainsmen for fourth place with 15 markers, leaving Auburn to bring up fifth with 13 counters.

And in that Clemson showing there lies an interesting sidelight on the big meet. The Tiger track team was composed of only three men, but what a trio that was! Roy, O'Dell and Newman came, saw, and conquered both time and distance. Three first places, two new conference records and fourth place in team ranking comprised the spoils they carried away, and only Jupiter Pluvius prevented a third record from falling before their attack.

While these five teams waged the track battle of the century, fifteen other conference schools were scrambling for the stray places that escaped the leaders. The other teams, with the points scored, were: Kentucky, 12½; Maryland, 12; V. P. I., 8; Georgia Tech, 6½; N. C. State, 6½; V. M. I., 6; Georgia, 5½;

REP. POOLE HERE TO SPEAK TONIGHT

Legislator Speaks Here Under Auspices of Di Senate.

MEMORIAL HALL—8:30 P.M.

Will Discuss Evolution and His Views on Effective Legislation.

Representative D. S. Poole, of the North Carolina House of Representatives and Democratic candidate for the State Senate, will speak in Gerrard Hall, tonight at 8:30, on the subject: "Organic Evolution and why state legislation is needed to prevent its being taught in State Institutions."

Mr. Poole will be introduced by President Chase, and since his subject deals with one of the foremost questions before the state today, his speech is to clear up a great deal of the confusion and misunderstanding concerning the bill and its interpretation.

The "Poole Bill" was introduced by Rep. Poole and was referred to the Committee on Education. The Committee, after much discussion, gave the bill an unfavorable report, the deciding vote being cast by Chairman Henry G. Connor. Then a minority report was made in favor

FROSH TRACK TEAM WINS FROM ASHEVILLE

Sandlin, of Carolina, High Scorer In Meet Here Yesterday Afternoon.

Final Score 65½ to 51½.

By taking seven first places and displaying fine teamwork the Tar Baby cinder artists nosed out the Asheville High School track team yesterday afternoon on Emerson Field by the score of 65 1-2 to 51 1-2. The freshmen mopped up in eight events and took all three places in the discus and javelin. J. Pluvius held off on his rain and hot sun prevailed, while a slight breeze was the only drawback for a perfect day for track.

Sandlin, of Carolina, took high point honors of the day by taking first places in the 440 yard run, javelin throw, broad jump, and tying J. Sawyer, of Asheville High, for first place in the high jump. J. Sawyer, of Asheville High, coppered the second place in high scoring with 12 1-2 points. Koenig was next with 12 points, while his teammate, P. Sawyer, trailed with 10 points.
