CAROLINA MEETS DEMON DEACONS THIS AFTERNOON

Final Encounter on Emerson Field Ends Three Games Series.

SAPP LIKELY TO PITCH

Person of James May Hurl for Baptist—Last Game in Chapel Hill.

This afternoon the Demon Deacons from Wake Forest College will be seen in action on Emerson field for the first time this season when they play the Tar Heels the third and final game of the series between the Deacons and the Duncans. The game is scheduled to begin at four o'clock, and since the Deacons have captured both of the previous affairs, the Duncans are expected to put up a strong fight to prevent the Baptists making the count three straight. The game will be the last one to be played on Emerson field this season.

Just who Coach Duncan will call upon to do mound duty this afternoon is not known. In Tuesday's affair with the Duke University Blue Devils Bill Poyner and "Lefty" Westmoreland occupied the mound, leaving only Odell Sapp to work against the Deacons today. However, "the Duke" could give either Westmoreland or Poyner the assignment since neither of them pitched over three innings Tuesday.

Person, who sent the Tar Heels down to defeat in last Friday's Deacon affair in Pinehurst, is liable to get another fling at the Duncans today. The hefty right-hander made his initial appearance of the year last Friday and showed quite a bit of stuff, although the Tar Heels touched him for 12 safe swats. Should he fail to fill the bill, James is the next logical Deacon twirler, since both Sorrell and Simmons are ineligible to pitch against the Tar Heels. James has been steadily turning in victories for the Deacons this year, and should go very well against the Tar Heel "murderer's row."

Saville and Major Fiske Confer on River Problem

Thorndike Saville, Professor of Hydraulics and Sanitary Engineering, has recently returned from Chattanooga, Tennessee, where he, as the representative of the North Carolina Department of Conservation Development, conferred with Major H. C. Fiske, engineer officer of the War Department, in regard to the investigation of the Tennessee River and its tributaries, which has been made with a $750,000 appropriation from Congress. Since the Hiwassee, French Broad, and Pigeon DRivers of North Carolina are tributaries of the Tennessee River, the Department sent Mr. Saville to receive information in regard to the possibilities of water development there.

Under the jurisdiction of the Federal Department several applications for water development are being made there now.

Brother Ill; Poole Unable to Lecture

D. Scott Poole, author of the Poole Bill, failed to come and deliver the lecture which was scheduled to be given Tuesday night in Gerrard Hall under the auspices of the Dialectic Society. Members of the Di received a wire from him Tuesday morning stating that on account of the serious illness of his brother he would be unable to give the address at the appointed time. He said that he hopes to be here and speak on the subject of evolution at a later date.

At the meeting of the Dialectic society Tuesday night the members decided to extend the invitation to a later date, more convenient for Mr. Poole.

DUNCAN USES FOUR PITCHERS

Bill Sharpe and Moose Tenny Are Important Factors in Carolinas Scoring—Pearce Hits Well.

The Duke University Blue Devils were out for sweet revenge for the two defeats that the Tar Heel aggregation had handed them, and last Tuesday afternoon they pounded four Tar Heel hurlers' offerings to all corners of Hanes field to defeat Coach Duncan's cohorts by a 17 to 9 count.

After the game enthusiasm throughout the Duke campus ran wild. An immense "shirt-tail" parade was formed, and about seven or eight hundred of the Duke students filed down the Main Street of the Bull City gallantly swinging onto each other's shirt tails. The old college bell was rung, and Durham was literally "painted red" in honor of the Blue Devil victory over the Tar Heels.

"Lefty" Westmoreland started on the mound for the Tar Heels but the Blue Devils stick artists solved his teasers in the second frame and tapped him for five safe bingles to count for six runs and the port-sider retired in favor of "Big Bill" Poyner who fared little better than did his predecessor and was sent to the showers in the fourth frame when the Duke men got next to him for 2 hits and 2 runs. Ed Mackie, the Tar Heel right gardener, then tried his hand on the mound, but he was slightly wild and retired in the seventh stanza and "Red" Whismat took the mound.

For the Blue Devils, Thompson opened the game hit was sent to the showers in the seventh verse after "Hat" Hatley and Mackie had obtained two two-baggers as a beginner for the inning. Thomas took the mound and allowed the Tar Heels two more hits in the next two innings.

Pitcher Thompson was the hitting star of the day with a brace of four-baggers and a single out of four trips to the cushion. In the second frame Thompson lunched "Lefty" Westmoreland for his first base knock, and came back in the

YACKETY YACK TO BE FINISHED SOON

Several New Features Inaugurated in the 1926 Volume.

DISTRIBUTION ON MAY 25

Junior and Senior Sketches Not to Be Arranged Alphabetically.

Only a few more days and the Yackety Yack will be here to beguile the weary hours until vacation; in fact, it should come out about the twenty-fifth of this month.

The staff hopes that the 1926 Yackety Yack will prove itself to be bigger and better than any of its predecessors. Within its 448 pages it contains many features. A Vanity Fair section will be devoted to the beauties of North Carolina and a section will be devoted to dance. The Crackety Crack, a miniature Yackety Yack by Percy McIver, is the laugh feature.

The annual will contain the usual junior and senior sections; however, these will not be alphabetically arranged. An index will be placed in the back of the book so that the haphazard arrangement of names will cause no difficulty. Sixteen pages will be devoted to colored views of the campus and points of interest about the University. Several interesting historical notes will be included; among these will be a picture and history of the tablet plundered from Old East during the Civil War and only recently returned.

This Yackety Yack is dedicated to Mr. Leslie Weil of Goldsboro, who is a member of the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees and one of Carolina's most prominent alumni. Miss Margaret Wellons of Smithfield is sponsor. Edwards and Broughton Printing Co., of Raleigh, have done all of the printing and engraving of this year's Yackety Yack, and Wouten and Moulton of New Bern have done the photography.

The annual will come to the campus through the labors of the following men and women: A. C. Summerville, editor; W. T. Peacock, assistant-editor; H. P. Brandis and A. S. Kaptus, associate edi-

CAMPUS SET FOR THE FINAL HOPS

Coral Gables Orchestra and Naylor's Aces to Play.

TOTAL OF SIX DANCES

Commencement Ball, Wednesday, the 9th; Final Grand Ball Thursday, the 10th.

With the quarterly nightmare of final exams set for only two weeks off the attention of the campus is also turning toward the brighter side of commencement, namely the final dances. Jan Gaber and his Coral Gables Orchestra and Naylor's Aces will furnish the music for the dances.

There will be a total of six dances held, beginning on the 8th of June and continuing through the 10th. The German Club dance on the first night will open the festivities with Naylor's orchestra playing. The same orchestra will play for the combined morning and afternoon dance from eleven till two a. m. Beginning with the commencement ball Wednesday night, Jan Garber's Coral Gables orchestra will furnish the music for all the remaining dances. The sophomore hop comes Thursday morning from eleven till two o'clock and the shiek's dance in the afternoon from five till seven. The grand finale to the festivities will come Thursday night at the German Club Ball. This will be the biggest event of the season and will last until two o'clock. At the final ball the new German Club officials will be officially installed in their positions. The figure by the old and new officers will be the outstanding feature of the ball. The final dances are to be held in Swain Hall and no expense is being spared in the execution of the decorations.

GELTCH CONCERT FRIDAY PLEASE THOSE PRESENT

By REVIEWER

We went to hear Waldemar Geltch "The Violinist With A Message" with some misgivings. For a man to be named Waldemar, to be a violinist, and above all to be "The Violinist With A Message" is, well, a bit too much.

However, we, unlike the rest of the campus were furnished tickets, and we had to write a review so we went. And right here we bow deeply to Mr. Geltch and apologize sincerely for our doubts. Either he has seen the light, and decided

Dancers Must Pay German Club Dues

All students expecting to attend the final dances which are to be promoted by the German Club must pay their dues at once according to information from the Club officials. Freshmen may now join the Club and those wishing to do so should send $15.00 to Winslow McIver, Treasurer of the organization, at Sigma Chi fraternity house. This fee will cover the initiation charges and the assessment for the final dances. Other new members must send in $25.00 for initiation fee and yearly dues. No one will be allowed to join after May 25.

"Y" PLEDGES PUT UPON NEW BASIS

Canvassers and Banquet Abolished by New Plan.

VOLUNTARY DONATIONS

Students to Sign Pledges Next Fall When Registering.

A committee of upper classmen and Y. M. C. A. secretaries have worked out a new plan for financing the work of the Y. M. C. A. for next year. The new plan will go into effect at the beginning of the fall quarter and it is believed that it will help to solve the big problem which faces the Y each year of securing the pledges and collecting them.

By the new plan, students will voluntarily make their pledges to the Y at the time of registration at the beginning of the fall quarter and they will be paid to the treasurer of the Y. M. C. A. at the time the student pays his bills to the university. The purpose of this new plan is to relieve the student body of the worry and confusion caused each fall by finance campaign committees canvassing from room to room throughout the fall quarter. It is believed that this new plan will prove much more successful than the one heretofore used and that the necessary finances will be secured at the minimum cost of time and money.

The Y. M. C. A. is flatly opposed to a blanket fee covering Y. M. C. A. contributions, preferring that, as is the case in all religious organizations, that all financial aid should come on a purely voluntary basis. Every semblance, therefore, of a blanket fee has been avoided. The new plan provides that instead of a large and expensive banquet each fall from which one hundred to one hundred and fifty canvassers go out, that there shall be some half-dozen members of the Cabinet stationed in the registration line in Memorial Hall and in a quiet and dignified way, they will give every student who registers an opportunity to make a pledge to the Y. M. C. A. at that time.

This committee will also have charge of the collection of the necessary data for the Student Directory and issuing the Athletic Pass Books at the time of registration.

SIGMA NU HOUSE PARTY COMES TO END SUNDAY

Approximately Forty Girls Are Week-End Guests of Fraternity—Banquet Saturday Evening.

The Sigma Nu's third and most successful house party of the year came to an end Sunday. There were approximately forty girls entertained at the Sigma Nu house and the visitor's contributed much to the success of the week-end on the "Hill."

Besides the many other events on schedule for the entertainment of the girls at the Inn Saturday evening, the Sigma Nus entertained at a banquet in honor of the house guests. Dr. W. J. Matherly was toastmaster and President Chase, who was an honor guest at the banquet, made a short speech. Two attractive favors were given the visiting girls; a sport swag stick and an ivory cigarette case with the Sigma Nu seal. Mrs. J. C. Lyons chaperoned.

Among the week-end guests were: Bliat Dillard, Betty Bryan, Virginia Verner, Frances Garner, Martha Hardy, Roberta Walker, Bettie Rose Phillips, Martha Lee Borden, Lib Barber, Annie

PBK Candidates Have to Register

A call has been issued from the office of the Registrar for the names of all those men who think that they will be eligible for election to Phi Beta Kappa at the close of the present quarter.

A new ruling of this national honorary fraternity makes it possible for any Juniors or Seniors who were not eligible at the close of the Winter Quarter because of not having off some required course or not having obtained the scholastic grade that is required by this fraternity to be able to get off the required work or to raise their grade to the necessary standard to become one of the wearers of "the golden key". Those who think that they will be eligible at the close of the present quarter are requested to hand in their names to W. B. Pipkin, H. R. Marsh, H. C. Klingenschmitt, or the Registrar by Saturday, May 22. The initiation will take place during commencement.

SENATE ATTACKS PHI BETA KAPPA BUT BILL FAILS

Motion Made to Abolish Phi Beta Kappa At University.

DISCUSS OPEN PRIMARIES

Business Meeting of Di Senate Next Tuesday to Be Last of Year.

The Dialectic Senate met Tuesday night in its hall in New West building. The regular routine business was attended to and after that the Senate settled down for some animated discussion on various bills of interest.

The first bill to be brought before the Senate was a bill to eliminate the present system of open primaries and substitute in its place closed primaries.

Senator Kennett spoke in favor of the bill. He stated that each party voted in the primary more or less separately. A closed primary would allow party leaders the chance to get together and thrash out the character of a man. With open door you are not able to get out and oppose your opponent because he is usually in your own party and to oppose him would be slaying your own party. Behind closed doors the thing could be fought out and a man's character really determined as to whether or not he was fit to run for office.

Senator Houchins stated that he thought the present system was all right. In open primary a person may go to the polls and vote as he pleases. He should feel morally bound to support the policies of his party. In a closed primary a man must swear that he votes as his party does.

A bill to the effect that the Phi Beta Kappa be abolished at the University was next brought up. Senator Kennett defended this bill also. He stated that the group did not see the bill from the right standpoint. A Phi Beta Kappa man has to make sacrifices to belong to that group. He stated that there were men of many types, mainly speaking, the one-cylindered man and the two, four, or even six-cylindered man. The one-cylindered man could see college only as a place to get book learning and not to get the broad part out of it that could be gotten. They are willing to sacrifice everything to be the wearer of a little charn. The Golden Fleece is an organ-

BRANDON TRUSSELL'S SON INJURED IN AUTO WRECK

In a collision Sunday morning the young son of Mr. Brandon Trussell, a research student of the Rural, Social and Economic Department was badly scratched on the forehead and cut on his head when a Dodge car driven by H. D. Carter ran into Mr. Trussell's car from behind as it was turning in the passageway leading by Old West Dormitory. The impact of the collision forced the child who was sitting in the front seat through the windshield.

Mr. Trussell's car was thrown on to the sidewalk almost against Old West. It cannot be determined whether the collision was entirely accidental or not.

The child was carried to the infirmary and Monday afternoon Dr. Abernathy reported that the boy was in no serious condition.

BEST STUDENT TO RECEIVE SILVER LOVING TROPHY

Preston Davie to Give $500 Prize Annually.

ON STUDENT BODY VOTE

Tar Heel Has Charge of Polla—Cup to be Presented Award Night.

This year's Award Night, Tuesday evening, will witness the presentation of a distinctly new type of prize to some Carolina student.

Preston Davie, of New York, is offering a silver cup in memory of his ancestor, General William Richardson Davie. According to Mr. Davie's letter to President Chase, this cup is to be awarded "by the gentleman attending the University to that one of their number who in their judgment, expressed by their vote, has best exemplified during the university year ending 1926, in character, scholarship, and sportsmanship, the ideals and traditions of the university."

It is especially fitting that this trophy cup be memorial to General William Richardson Davie, who is recognized as the founder of the university, one of its most prominent alumni, and a former governor of North Carolina. The Governor William Richardson Davie Cup will serve as an added memorial to Davie Poplar and Davie Hall.

The cup, valued at the sum of five hundred dollars, is the work of an expert silversmith and is of a beautiful and graceful design. It is on exhibition at the Book Exchange.

The terms of this gift require that the student sentiment should express itself with regard to the individual to whom the cup is to be awarded. THE TAR HEEL, as the organ of student opinion, was asked to conduct a student poll on the matter.

THE TAR HEEL staff will serve as an elections committee and the election will be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. Voting will begin Thursday morning and the polls will be open until sunset Saturday. A ballot box will be placed in the Y. M. C. A., where it may be easily reached by all the students as they go to and from classes. Each ballot must contain the name of the man voted for and the registration number of the voter.

The man to whom the cup is to be awarded must receive a majority of the votes cast by Saturday night. If no majority is received by any man in the election, the contest will be decided

BIBLE COURSE TO BE GIVEN THIS SUMMER

Y. M. C. A. Has Arranged for a Non-Credit Religious Course to Be Taught by Rev. Lawrence.

Through special arrangement with the University authorities, the Y. M. C. A. announces the establishment in the first term of summer school a course in Bible, a non-credit course for which no fee will be charged, which will be given as a regular university class by Rev. A. S. Lawrence, rector of the Chapel Hill Episcopal Church.

Rev. Lawrence, holding the degrees of A. B. and M. A. from Columbia University and B. D. from General Theological Seminary, is especially well fitted for the instructorship of such a course. The class will meet five hours a week, from Monday through Friday, at 11:30 a. m.

This course is open to all summer school student and is especially designed to assist all who are called upon for Sunday school, church, or chapel leadership back in the town where they teach. The course will be very thorough but non-technical and non-theological. The Bible is the only textbook used, although
