

GERMAN CLUB IS LAYING ITS PLANS FOR SOCIAL YEAR

Executive Committee Named for Administration—Constitution and Powers Are Explained

McIVER IS NEW PRESIDENT

The German Club of the University of North Carolina announces its organization for the year 1926-27. The administration of all business is vested in the Executive Committee of the German Club. This committee is composed of Winslow McIver, President; John Finley, Vice-Pres.; Frazier Glenn, Jr., Sec'y-Treas.; Baron Holmes, Ass't. Sec'y-Treas.; Fuller Brown,

Chairman of the Committee, and four members selected from the German Club; these are, Kike Kyser, Nash Johnston, Horace Strickland, and Jack Davis.

Last year the Executive Committee drew up a new constitution, which was adopted by the German Club. Several important matters are outlined in this constitution. First, the German Club of the University of North Carolina has supreme and final authority over all dances given in Chapel Hill by any student, students or organization, connected in any way with the University. Secondly, before any dance can be given permission must be had from the Executive Committee of German Club and three men must be named by the group or organization giving the dance as being responsible to the German Club for the execution of the rules and regulations of the German Club in regard to dances.

Along with this new Constitution was adopted a new plan of finances for the German Club. This plan proved to be a great success last year and cut the financial burden on the members to about one half what it had been previously. The whole series of dances, Fall, Easter, and Commencement, are now practically as cheap as one set was formerly. However, because of the fact that this plan had never been given before, several changes have been made which will improve the efficiency of the plan. This plan is explained briefly as follows:

Only members of the German Club, their guests and Alumni are allowed to attend the dances given by the German Club. The membership of the German Club is restricted to three hundred men, each member has to pay a membership fee upon becoming a member and yearly dues while active. The payment of membership fee and dues entitles one to all the rights of the German Club, namely, that of voting for the officers and dance leaders of the German Club and the privilege of attending the dances given by the Club.

The membership fee for new members is fifteen dollars; the dues for all members have been raised to twenty dollars because the dues of fifteen dollars proved insufficient last year. It would have been impossible for the Club to have given three sets of dances last year, but because of the suspension of the Easter Dances, it was able to give the Fall and Commencement Dances.

Mrs. Paul John Weaver gave a bridge party Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. Pratt.

Cheerios Stage Second Show

O-Show that has been seen here.

During the course of the meeting, several new stunts were rehearsed that will be presented by the entire student body at the game today. These stunts will add much color to the affair and will be a novelty for the student body in the way of cheering. Every man will be given a bag of confetti which he will conceal until a given time. Then he will take a handful of this confetti and at a certain place in the yell selected for the stunt, two thousand handfuls of white and blue confetti will go into the air, giving the effect of a cannon having been fired.

Also a thousand balloons are being given to the students by the Pickwick. These will be used on several yells and then on a final yell, at a certain time, all the balloons will be thrown into the air and be allowed to float over the field.

State is coming over with several stunts in an endeavor to rival our two thousand "fighting fools" who have brought Carolina into the lime-light in the past several weeks. If the student body will continue the cheering in the sincere way they have cooperated so far, it will be well nigh impossible for State or any other school to better the Carolina spirited Cheering," Kike declared last night.

High School Classes Begin Practice for Basketball

The girl's basketball team of the Chapel Hill High School has begun fall practice in preparation for a full season during the later fall and winter months. The girl's athletic director, Miss Minnie Atkinson, is giving them rigorous training in view of the coming season.

Bathing Suit Modes Shown in
"Kid Boots" by Eddie Cantor

Clara Bow has worn a one-piece swimming suit on the screen for the first time. So has Billie Dove.

This refreshing sight was made possible while filming "Kid Boots," the gay play that kept New York in spasms of laughter for three years and which comes to the Pickwick Theatre Monday in film form.

Eddie Cantor, creator of the title-role on Broadway, is starred in the picture. In addition to the Misses Bow and Dove, Lawrence Gray also featured.

Cantor wears a bathing outfit and his dive from a high platform into the tank from which water is being drained is one of the Paramount film's gasping laughs.
