

Boxers Leave for Lexington

Tar Heels Clash With Washington and Lee and V. M. I.

The University of North Carolina boxing team left last night for Lexington, Virginia, to take on Washington and Lee Thursday night and V. M. I. Saturday night. These two dual meets will be the last engagements for the Tar Heels before the Southern Tournament, to be held at Charlottesville, March the 4th and 5th.

Both V. M. I. and Washington and Lee have suffered defeat by other teams. Virginia has defeated both the Cadets and the Generals by decisive scores. Washington and Lee has also been defeated by V. P. I. Carolina has an unblemished record and will only have to put these two teams out of the way to annex the Southern Championship. Florida, V. P. I., Georgia, and Virginia have fallen victim to the blows of the Tar Heel Mittmen.

For the last two weeks Coach Crayton Row has had the entire boxing squad hard at work in the Tin Can. Many new men have come out and some of the old "standbys" have shown marked improvement. Cummings, a featherweight, has improved very much since the first of the season and will make the trip to V. M. I. and W. and L. Byron Holmes, who boxes in the lightweight class, has forged to the front in the ranks of lightweight boxers and will help Russell hold down the 139 pound division this week-end.

Those who made the trip are: bantamweight, Ern Carpenter; featherweight, Cummings and Meiggs; lightweight, Russell and Holmes; welterweight, Ed Butler; middleweight, Charlie Brown; light heavyweight, "K. O." Warren; heavyweight; Captain "Ox" Shuford. Coach Crayton Rowe and Manager Bill Way will accompany the fighters on their trip.

The freshmen will have their first meet of the season when they meet the Cadet freshmen at Lexington Saturday night

TRACK MEET HERE COMES ON MARCH 7

Many Men Are Training for Intramural Department Event.

Plans are now practically complete for the annual Indoor Track Meet which will be held in the Tin Can on Monday night, March 7 at 7:30 o'clock. The Intra-mural athletic department is directing the meet.

Recent improvements in the Tin Can have made it possible for the high jump, broad jump, and shot put to be placed on the program and to be held in a regular jumping pit. The pit will be used for the first time at the coming meet.

Much enthusiasm is already being shown in the meet by the large number who are training for their favorite events at the Tin Can and on the cinder path each day. There were 116 students who entered into the meet held a year ago, and one record was smashed.

Johnny Pearson carried off the highest individual score last year and he was awarded a gold medal. Pearson was very instrumental in bringing Ruffin, his dormitory, up to second place in honors. J carried off the dormitory honors with 35 points followed by Ruffin with a close total of 29 points.

Kappa Sigmas Will Dance In Duke Hotel

Tomorrow night the social life of the week-end will be inaugurated with a dance at the Washington Duke Hotel by the Kappa Sigma Alumni of Durham. The Grail and a group of fraternity pledges are scheduled as dance hosts Saturday.

The Kappa Sigma affair is being given by the Fraternity's alumni in Durham in honor of the Carolina Chapter, in the ballroom of the Washington Duke tomorrow night beginning at nine-thirty. Invitations have been received by all the fraternities on the campus and have been sent to the Kappa Sigma chapters of Duke and North Carolina State. Kike Kyser and His Orchestra have been engaged to play tomorrow night.

The Kappa Alpha, Zeta Psi, and A. T. O. freshmen have planned a "twilight" dance for Saturday evening at six-thirty in the Carolina Inn ballroom to immediately precede the Grail hop. Invitations have been sent to the fraternities here. The Buccaneers will play.

Climaxing the program of dances the Order of the Grail will entertain Saturday night until closing time with an affair replete with innovations and surprises. The Buccaneers will play for this function also.

HIGHLIGHTS OF ACTION IN "THE BIG PARADE"

The first screen story of Laurence Stallings, noted newspaper man, novelist and playwright, has been through the forest with snipers and booked for an engagement at the Pickwick Theatre Thursday, February 24. This is "The Big Parade," a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production directed by King Vidor and starring John Gilbert. This unusual photoplay will be presented here by a complete touring organization including an orchestra of twenty pieces.

The plot of "The Big Parade" might be written in one sentence—An American Boy goes to France. Jim Apperson, son of a rich family, leaves for France without any heroic musings. Slim, a riveter, and Bull, a bartender, are in his company and they become buddies for the duration of the big adventure. We follow them through their training in a rural French village where Jim meets Melisande and immediately forgets about the girl he left at home.

Then the big parade! The long line of lorries moving to the front. Melisande is left standing in the road clutching one of Jim's hob-nailed shoes. This is an exquisite scene, intelligently directed. Then the march machine guns everywhere. The rhythm of this unbeatable advance of khaki-clad figures makes a deep impress. On and on until the climax in the shell-hole when Jim goes over the top to avenge his two pals. You'll never see such a scene pictured on the screen again!
