

BOXING SEASON GREAT SUCCESS, SUMMARY SHOWS

Team Won All Dual Meets and Second Place at Conference Tournament.

(By Henry C. Lay)

The Carolina Boxing Team has just completed the most successful season it has ever had. By winning all of the dual meets and taking second place at the Southern Conference Tournament, it has set a record that will serve as a goal for future boxing teams.

With four veterans from last year's team Coach Crayton Rowe developed a team of battling pugilists that went through the season with marked success. Butler, Warren, Shaw and Shuford were letter men and Bobbitt, Wike, Nash Johnson, Steve Purches, Brown, Baird, Rees and Meiggs came up from the varsity and freshman squads. Much has been said about the men who fought in matches, but little or no credit has been given to those who have been manhandled by the regulars in their preparation for meets. Boxers say that it is not so much the actual fighting that they mind but that the hard training is what gets under their skin. Too much cannot be said of the hard work and sacrifice the scrubs underwent in training the leatherpusher for fights.

Review of Season

Carolina opened the season by annexing a 5 to 2 victory from the University of Florida in the Tin Can. This was the first intercollegiate boxing meet to be held at Chapel Hill. Warren and Carpenter furnished the bright spots of the evening in the light heavyweight and bantamweight scraps, both giving exhibitions of classy boxing.

The leatherpushers literally smothered V. P. I. under an avalanche of blows to win the second meet by a score of 5 to 1. Russell and Captain Shuford gathered in technical knockouts in the lightweight and heavyweight bouts while K. O. Warren stretched his man on the canvass in the second round. Russell staged one of Kit Guard's stunts by coming back with a knockout blow after being knocked through the ropes.

Georgia was the next team to fall victim to the Tar Heels' punches, 4 to 3. The welterweight bout was the cream of the meet with two former school-mates, Charlie Brown and Haly, as contestants. Brown got the decision after four rounds of hard fighting. K. O. Warren went out of his weight to fight Captain Lucky, All-Southern Tackle, in the heavyweight bout. He knocked down Lucky twice in the first round for the count of nine and once each in the second and third periods to get the decision.

Carolina handed Virginia the first defeat they had suffered south of the Mason-Dixon line in boxing. The Cavaliers had only been beaten in the history of boxing at that institution by Colgate and Penn State. Carpenter and Brown went four rounds with their men in the bantamweight and middleweight scraps, to win, although these men did beat them out in the tournament held later in the season. K. O. Warren won a technical knockout in the first round.

The fifth victory for the Tar Heels was a 4 to 3 win over Washington and Lee. Warren and Captain Shuford got technical knockouts in the heavier weights, Ed Butler the decision in the welterweight bout and Carpenter got a forfeit in the bantamweight class.

V. M. I. gave Carolina the hardest fight during the entire season but came out at the small end of a 4 to 3 score. V. M. I. captured the first three bouts by good margins. Ed Butler and Charlie Brown swapped weights and both won in the middleweight and welterweight scraps respectively. K. O. Warren easily won his fight and Shuford topped off the evening's entertainment with a knockout over Moorman in the heavyweight class. Moorman was dead to the world for 22 minutes and lost three teeth.

Lose Championship

Carolina was doped to win the Southern Tournament, but Virginia kicked over the old dope bucket and took the big end of the score. However, Butler, Warren and Captain Shuford came through in the fights to win first places. Carpenter, Cummings, and Brown each took a third place to count in the scoring. Ed Butler, K. O. Warren and Ox Shuford came through the season without suffering a loss, while Brown and Carpenter were only defeated twice.

The summary of the season follows: N. C., 5—Florida, 2. N. C., 5—V. P. I., 1. N. C., 4—Georgia, 3. N. C., 5—Virginia, 2. N. C., 4—Washington and Lee, 3. N. C., 4—V. M. I., 3. Southern Conference Tournament: Virginia, 22; Carolina, 18; Florida, 10; Georgia, 9; V. P. I., 5.

Mangum Medal

All candidates for the Mangum Medal should file their subjects with their respective deans by April the first, the dean of students announced yesterday. The preliminary orations take place early in May.

The Mangum Medal in Oratory was established in 1878 by the Misses Mangum, late of Orange County, in memory of their father, Willie Person Mangum, of the class of 1815. Since their death it has been continued by his granddaughter, Mrs. Stephen B. Weeks, and is awarded to the member of the Senior class who delivers the best oration at commencement.

Mr. Frederick Keppel, director of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, visited Chapel Hill recently. It was through Dr. Keppel that the University obtained a fund for the furniture and equipment in the Playmakers Theatre. He has displayed a keen interest in the activities of the institution, particularly those relating to the arts.

A special performance by the Playmakers was given for him, and after it was over he complimented the Playmakers for their achievements in the production of folk drama.

He was entertained at a luncheon at the Carolina Inn.
