German Club Plans Elaborate Series of Easter Dances With Weidemeyers Furnishing Music

Record-Breaking Crowds Expected to Attend Annual Hops.

DUES MUST BE IN SOON

Club Has Only Fifty Vacancies to Be Filled Before Holidays.

A record-breaking crowd is expected to attend Carolina Easter dances. Reports have reached German Club officials that a veritable swarm of boys and girls will turn Hillward for the spring revelry. Weidemeyer's famous orchestra will be the source of irresistible attraction for North Carolina's social set, and elaborate decorations will supplement the charm woven by the jazz kings.

The executive committee of the German Club met Tuesday night and laid plans for one of the most brilliant and enjoyable sets of dances ever to be given on the campus. It was decided that there would be five dances, including the Junior Prom, Sophomore Hop, a junior order dance, and a sophomore order dance. The initial "work-out" will be held Thursday afternoon from four-thirty to six-thirty. This hop will be followed by a series of dances which will take place Thursday evening from nine till one, Friday morning from eleven to one, Friday afternoon from four-thirty to seven, and Friday evening from nine until one.

This concludes the dances given by the German Club, but the Phi Kappa Sigmas have decided to add more punch to the party by giving a tea dance in their home, Saturday afternoon from four-thirty to six-thirty. The executive committee has ruled that no additional dances will be permitted on the hill Saturday, but the merriment will be prolonged that night by a script dance in Durham, at the Washington Duke Hotel, with Weidemeyer furnishing the music.

There will probably be a meeting of the German Club before Easter. Professor W. S. Bernard will address the Club on the (Continued on page three)

TAR HEEL ELECTS NEW SUB-EDITORS

Bobbitt, Shohan, Johnson, Spearman, and Creech Are Promoted.

At the last meeting of the retiring staff of the TAR HEEL held Wednesday night, Joe Bobbitt, Tom Johnson and Judah Shohan were elected managing editors for next year; Walter Spearman was selected to serve as contributing editor, and Walter Creech was made assignment editor.

Johnson and Shohan have just finished a year as reporters, and Bobbitt held the position of assignment editor last year. Creech, who succeeds Bobbitt, has also served a year as reporter. Walter Spearman, a reporter also, will be the contributing editor. His is the position held last year by Dave Carroll of "The Driftwood Fire" fame.

A man to hold the office of associate editor, a new position, will be appointed by the new editor.

RETIRING EDITOR

J. T. Madry relinquishes his position with this issue after spending one year at the helm of "the leading college tri-weekly newspaper in the South." "J. T." formerly served one year as a reporter and last year as Managing Editor.

CAVALIER TRACK TEAM TO APPEAR HERE THURSDAY

Virginians Bring Strong Array of Cinterpath Artists for Meet.

FAST DISTANCE EVENTS

McPherson and Cummings Will Renew Ancient Rivalry in the Dashes.

The University of North Carolina track squad takes on one of the biggest dual tests of the season here next Thursday afternoon when the Virginia Cavaliers invade the Tar Heel cinder realm. The Tar Heels defeated the Cavaliers two years ago for the first time in the history of the Virginia-Carolina track and repeated that triumph last year by an overwhelming score.

This year, however, Coach Bob Fetzer has lost many of his Tar Heel track and field stars, and the Cavaliers are coming in search of revenge. Pop Lannigan, venerable Cavalier trainer and track mentor, has developed a fast crew of runners and a brilliant group of field men this spring, and he is making a strong bid for the laurels the Virginians held so long in Dixie cinder circles.

The attention of track fans through this section will be part (Continued on page four)

Silhouettist Coming

Expert Picture Cutter Will be Here during Next Week

A renowned silhouette artist, D. W. Vernon, of New York, will be in Chapel Hill all next week under the auspices of a local church organization. He will set up headquarters in the People's Bank building and will be prepared to serve all comers there at a reasonable charge.

Mr. Vernon cuts the silhouettes out of black paper with a tiny pair of scissors while you wait, completing the operation by mounting the likeness on white cardboard. It is said that pictures may be made not only of individuals but of groups as well.

OX SHUFORD AND AD WARREN WILL ENTER TOURNEY

Carolina Pugilistic Stars to Fight in Boston April 26.

BOTH STRONG CONTENDERS

Neither Has Suffered a Defeat From Intercollegiate Boxers This Season.

University of North Carolina athletic authorities have decided to enter Captain "Ox" Shuford and "K. O." Warren, outstanding Tar Heel boxers, in the annual Senior National Amateur Tournament, scheduled to begin in Boston April 25. Coach Crayton Rowe is leaving nothing undone in the training of the two men for the big meet.

Shuford and Warren won the Southern Conference titles in the heavyweight and light heavyweight classes, respectively, at the first annual conference tournament held at the University of Virginia the first week of March. Later they entered the Junior National Tournament at Cincinnati, O., but Warren was ruled out of the competition because he had won the junior light heavyweight title at Philadelphia last year, and Shuford lost a close decision to Dave Knost, afterwards winner of the heavyweight crown.

Warren and Shuford are undefeated in intercollegiate boxing this season, and Warren has suffered only one defeat in four years. Out of eight fights won this year, all except one was by a technical or actual knockout. Shuford's record was almost equally impressive.

Miss Maude Lee left for Raleigh today, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Cale K. Burgess.

PROMETHEUS DISCOVERS NUMEROUS CAMPUS ELECTION THAUMATURGISTS

Bull and Andy Have Unanticipated Opposition from Dula and Carroll—1554 Politicians Harass Single Voter—Speculation Rife Concerning Moon Mullins' Face Reference.

(By Prometheus)

The campus has been thrown into a state of thaumaturgy as a result of the recent campus elections. Many cherished fond hopes until the final counts were made and then the defeated ones forced a pathetic smile over haggard and drawn faces and slowly dragged their weary feet to some nearby boarding house.

Andy and Bull Run Close Race

A feature of the election was the brazen attempt on the part of some men to rail-road two campus characters into appropriate offices. When the ballots were counted, it was found that Bull Gardner's name had been penciled out on a number of tickets and the name of R. L. Dula substituted. It was also found on several ballots that Andy Anderson's name had been smitten from the list and the name of Dave Carroll substituted.

There is a faint rumor current that Mr. Carroll went into cahoots with some other famous politician and, under the cover of Carroll's Ivory Soap complexion and cherub wings, attempted to wrest the editorships of the two leading campus publications from the hands of the worthy Messrs. Anderson and Gardner. It is evident that the campus

FIVE TAR HEEL TRACKMEN ENTER RELAY CARNIVAL

Daniels, Elliott, Pritchett, Russ and Tilley Compose the Team.

RACES TO BE AT ATLANTA

Frosh Cinderpath Stars Will Meet Varsity Here This Afternoon.

Thursday evening witnessed the departure of five stars of the Carolina track squad for the third annual Georgia Tech relay carnival at Atlanta Saturday of this week. The Tar Heels have entered this meet for the past two years, each time making an excellent appearance.

It was decided only to enter the four mile relay and the two mile. Elliott, Pritchett, Daniels and Russ will compose the four mile team while Pritchett or Daniels will take a leg in the latter event. It is possible that Pritchett will enter the open two mile in which he holds the present unofficial southern record. Captain Gus McPherson who has been out of practice for more than a week will not be on hand to defend his dash honors.

In the past relays Carolina has been extremely fortunate. In 1925 a quartet composed of Purser, Ranson, Bell and Buchanan captured the four mile relay, incidentally setting a record of 18 minutes and 36 seconds.

In view of the fact that the Freshman and the remainder of the varsity squad are idle this week-end it was decided to stage a meet between the yearlings and the old men Saturday afternoon. The Tar Babies will probably give their older brothers quite a run for their money as the varsity will be somewhat weakened by the absence of the quintet participating in the Atlanta meet.

Johnston Gets "Y" Presidency-- Ashby Tar Heel Editorship in Hectic After Election Runoff

LEADS WRESTLING

Voige Gardner, Greensboro lad, was recently elected to the captaincy of the Carolina grapplers for next season. He has been victorious in every meet this year, working in the 145 pound class. Gardner has been one of Coach Quinlan's most diligent workers throughout the recent highly successful season.

CAROLINA ENTERS BIG FIVE DIAMOND RACE HERE TODAY

N. C. State Meets Tar Heels on Emerson Field This Afternoon.

TECH HAS VETERAN TEAM

Coach Ashmore Has Developed a Heavy Hitting Aggregation.

The Carolina baseball team will play its first game in the "Big Five" series here today when it goes up against the Techmen from N. C. State. The game will be the Tar Heels' second intercollegiate contest this year. It will be called at 4 o'clock.

Carolina's 8-7 victory here Monday over Elon put the Tar Heels in the lead for state championship honors, as Elon had previously defeated both Davidson and Wake Forest. No other game is scheduled with the Christians.

State dropped its opening tilt to Wake Forest when James, Deacon hurler, won his own game with a home-run. The hitting of the two teams was about equal, and the Tar Heels are looking for a hard scrap in the Tech game.

Coach Doak has a number of old men back this year, and the (Continued on page four)

Playmaker Reading

Dr. Archibald Henderson Will Read Tomorrow Night.

The Playmakers' reading for April, at half past eight tomorrow evening, will be given by Archibald Henderson. Before Mr. Henderson left this week, to address the Southern States Art League in Charleston, he neglected to tell Mr. Koch what he had selected for the Sunday evening program. But it will be something about George Bernard Shaw—probably the reading of excerpts from Shaw's books, with accompanying comments.

Mrs. J. M. Sharpe of Reidsville visited her daughter Miss Susie Sharpe this week.

OVER 1300 VOTES ARE CAST

Patterson Gets Frosh Presidency—Beard Is Senior Student Councilman.

Casting a vote of approximately 1,330 votes, the campus emerged yesterday afternoon from one of the most hectic political battles held on the campus in recent years. Plunging through mud and rain, political supporters rushed man after man to the polls. Cars were brought into service and all afternoon a steady file of automobiles halted in front of the Y. M. C. A. and Memorial Hall where the polls were moved on account of the rain.

Nash Johnston, candidate for the president of the Y. M. C. A. polled a vote of 779 over Galen Elliott's 547; and Jud Ashby led Holt McPherson for the editorship of the TAR HEEL by 191 votes.

The votes cast in the election last Wednesday for the Publication Union Board had to be thrown out due to a misunderstanding on the part of the students in the method of voting and ninety votes were cast out in yesterday's election count, due probably to the same reason. The P. U. count last night gave Bill Perry the presidency with a total of 581 votes. Mutt Evans came second with 512 and John Marshall third with 477 votes. The following is a complete count of yesterday's elections:

- P. U. Board
- Joe Bobbitt, 426.
 - Mutt Evans, 512.
 - Charlie Nelson, 185.
 - Walter Creech, 426.
 - Kenneth Jones, 351.
 - John Marshall, 477.
 - Bill Perry, president, 581.
 - Glenn Holder, 445.

- Editor of Tar Heel
- Jud Ashby, 760.
 - Holt McPherson, 569.
- President of Y. M. C. A.
- Galen Elliott, 547.
 - Nash Johnston, 779.

DR. GLENN FRANK WILL SPEAK HERE

President Wisconsin University on Extension Conference Program.

Dr. Glenn Frank, well-known educator and editor, will be one of the principal speakers at the twelfth annual meeting of the National University. Extension which is to be held at the Carolina Inn on April 25, 26, and 27.

As president of the University of Wisconsin Dr. Frank has earned wide recognition, and his visit to the University of North Carolina will be a significant event of the year. This is not Dr. Frank's first visit to Chapel Hill as he delivered the Commencement address here two years ago.

Dr. Frank's visit is regarded as particularly significant. The University of Wisconsin has the largest Extension Division in the country, and its acting dean now is Chester D. Snell, who (Continued on page two)
