

EASTER SOCIAL SEASON WILL BE BRILLIANT WEEK

Holiday Dances Will Begin on Thursday and Continue Thru Saturday; Weidemeyer to Play.

The gloom caused by this week's mid-term quizzes will be more than dispelled by the happy thought of the near at hand Easter dances. Text books will soon be displaced by date books, and the University beaux will be chafing impatiently under the yoke of waiting for their hopes to materialize. Their lady friends will bring rays of merriment to the campus on Thursday, April the twenty-first.

After four days of rest for the much anticipated event, the terpsichorean artists will hurry back to the Hill for three days and nights of uninterrupted pleasure.

The social curtain will be raised by a dance Thursday afternoon at four-thirty. Girls, alumni, visitors and students will pour into Chapel Hill all during the day. By that night, the big guns should be settled down to a steady barrage of romance and revelry.

Charming feminine talent from the South Atlantic states will grace the dance floor, and all the nearby girls' schools will be well represented. Sweetbriar, N. C. C. W., Converse, G. C., Hollins and many others will send large delegations to the Old North State campus. The Phi Kappa Sigmas are to have a house-party for the occasion, and this will serve to augment the number of girls present.

Weidemeyer's orchestra, gifted exponents of peppy jazz and soft, dreamy waltzes, is to be the dancers' inspiration for the whole set of hops, and this fact alone will be a big drawing card. The German Club committee has planned to have the ballroom elaborately decorated and many attractive novelties are in store for the merrymakers.

PHI TURNS DOWN PRO-CHINA BILL

Motion Favoring Withdrawal of American Interests from China Is Defeated.

The discussion of the Phi Assembly last Tuesday night was featured by a resolution favoring the withdrawal of all American interests from China. After much discussion a vote was called and the bill defeated.

Mr. Crewe in upholding the affirmative side stated that the action taken by the United States in the Chinese affair was contrary to the supposedly democratic principles of our nation, and that the government was merely pursuing a doctrine of dollar diplomacy. Mr. Mewborne also supporting the measure brought forth the fact that we, the United States, were meddling in a foreign matter, which could best be settled by the Chinese people.

In opposition, Mr. Whitley argued that when the American consul and his wife have to take refuge in a building to keep from being killed by Chinese soldiers it is not time to withdraw our troops but rather to increase their number.

The other resolutions, Resolved, that the Phi Assembly favor trial marriage by contract, and that the Phi Assembly favor government ownership of railroads brought forth little discussion.

It was understood by the Society that its sophomore debaters were to oppose the soph debaters of the Di but the Dialectic representatives did not appear.

The speaker appointed Tom Caples as representative on the debate council.

FOERSTER TO READ WORKS OF '90's

Thursday Reading To Be from Poets of "Mauve Decade."

This afternoon at 4:30, Murphey 215, Mr. Foerster will read from authors of what is popularly known as the "Mauve Decade." This term has been recently applied to the 1890's, and the authors to be used will illustrate the spirit of revolt current in American life and literature of this time. This event will constitute one of the regular Thursday readings that have been instituted by the English department.

Jeanne Gordon, a Star of the Metropolitan Opera Company

writes:

"I love to sing Carmen and during the performance I smoke a Lucky Strike. They never irritate my throat. They are kind to my voice and delightful in flavor."

You, too, will find that Lucky Strikes are mild and mellow—the finest cigarettes you ever smoked, made of the finest Turkish and domestic tobaccos, properly aged and blended with great skill, and there is an extra process—"It's toasted"—no harshness, not a bit of bite.
