

FROSH DEBATERS MEET DAVIDSON

Affirmative Team Debates in Gerrard Hall Tonight—Negative at Davidson.

The initial freshman inter-collegiate debate of the year is scheduled to take place tonight between the University of North Carolina and Davidson College.

The query is: Resolved, that all inter-allied war debts be cancelled by the United States. The affirmative of this question is upheld by Mercer Blankenship of Charlotte, and J. Cohen of Hendersonville. The negative is sustained by John Mebane of Greensboro and J. A. Lang of Carthage. The negative team left last night for Davidson, while the affirmative remains here and will debate Davidson's negative tonight at 8:30 in Gerrard Hall.

Davidson is known to be exceedingly strong in the forensic field, having won in several contests in which the University of North Carolina was concerned.

All four of the contestants for Carolina have had previous experience in the debating field. Mebane and Blankenship have taken an active part in the debates in the Di Senate, while Lang and Cohen represented the Phi Assembly in its annual freshman debate with the Di.

MUSICIANS MOVE TO PERSON HALL

Music Department to Be in New Home at Opening of Summer Session.

The University Music Department is at last to have a new home after having drifted from building to building for eight years. Person Hall will be the new playground for the devotees of Orpheus, while the space now employed in New West will be given to other uses. Individual offices, spacious classrooms, private teaching space, and a large rehearsal room will provide a striking contrast to the crowded and poorly lighted quarters now used.

Paul J. Weaver, head of the Music Department, told a reporter that during his first four months as a professor in the University that he had to wander from building, accompanied by his students, seeking vacant rooms in which to teach. Last year the TAR HEEL, the Di Senate, and the Journalism Department all shared the same rooms, while shortly prior to that time classes in Music, Latin, and German all combined to make a tuneful Tower of Babel.

Person Hall will be occupied for about two years, pending the preparation of permanent quarters, and all necessary shifts will be made by the end of May in order to have the new space ready for use during the first summer school.

NET TOURNEY TO OPEN HERE FRIDAY

Locals Doped to Lose in Annual Southern Conference Tournament.

The Southern Conference tennis tournament will start Friday afternoon at two o'clock on the Varsity courts. There are about ten teams entered from all parts of the South, including Florida and Georgia Tech, both of which will have very strong players entered. Four men are entered from each college in the meet, all of whom will play singles, and together will make two doubles teams.

Slade of Florida, who won the tournament last year, will probably be the ultimate winner, although Berry Grant of Georgia Tech plays a consistent game and will very likely give him much trouble. Carolina has practically no chance at all of even placing a man in the semifinals, but Waddell might strike an unusually good streak and go far.

CHEERIOS MAKE PLANS FOR GAME

Fee of One Dollar Will Take Rooters to Greensboro.

The Cheerios met in Gerrard Hall last night to make final arrangements for their trip to Greensboro for the annual Virginia-Carolina baseball game Saturday. The meeting was in charge of C. E. Waddell, as Kike Kyser, the organizer of the Cheerios, is in a hospital in Raleigh suffering with appendicitis.

A large number of Cheerios are expected to be present at the game Saturday. They will not be lacking in support, for on one side of them will be the girls from Greensboro college and on the other the girls from N. C. C. W.

Arrangements have been made to carry all Cheerios to the game for one dollar. This makes it possible for all members to attend the game, so far as expenses are concerned.

FRATERNITIES MAKE HIGH AVERAGE GRADE

The average grades made by the various fraternity chapters on the campus for the fall and winter terms of 1927 was higher than the average grade of the academic student body. Twenty-four fraternities surpassed the student average, while only twelve fell below the line. Pi Beta Phi (Women), Pi Kappa Phi, and Sigma Delta headed the list, and Acacia, Chi Omega (Women), Theta Phi, Alpha Chi, and Zeta Psi followed closely.

R. L. Dula Dies at Lenoir Saturday

Mr. Robert L. Dula, former student of the University, died at his home in Lenoir, N. C. last Saturday, May 7, after a brief illness as a result of high blood pressure.

He was the son of Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Dula of Grandfather Park Estate, Lenoir, N. C. He was a graduate of the University, having received the degree Bachelor of Science in Commerce in 1922. Last fall he returned to Carolina for graduate work in the Commerce School, remaining in school for the fall and winter quarters. At the time of his death, Mr. Dula was 28 years old.

Mr. Dula became ill after an attack of high blood pressure week before last. The funeral was held at Lenoir Sunday afternoon.

While at Carolina he took an active interest in the affairs of the campus. During the two quarters that he was in school this year he contributed to the Open Forum column of the TAR HEEL frequently and his articles were given considerable attention on the campus.
