

WALTER LIPPMAN SLATED TO GIVE FINALS ADDRESS

Prominent New York Editor and Author Secured as Commencement Speaker.

EDITORIALS AMONG BEST

Address Will Be Delivered in Memorial Hall, Monday, June 6th; Lippman has Gained Reputation as Editor, Author, Diplomat and Journalist.

Walter Lippman, well-known New York author and editor, is to deliver the commencement address at the University in Memorial Hall at 11:00 o'clock Monday morning, June 6.

This address by Mr. Lippman will be one of the biggest features of the entire commencement program. As editor, author, diplomat and journalist, now serving on the editorial staff of the New York World, and his editorials are considered among the best in the United States.

Mr. Lippman is originally from New York City. He secured his A.B. degree from Harvard in 1909; and since that time he has been active in journalistic work. At one time he was associate editor of the New Republic, but gave that position up in order to join the staff of the New York World.

During the World War Mr. Lippman was one of President Wilson's most valuable advisors, and since the war he has been an ardent champion of the plans of President Wilson as embodied in the League of Nations and the World Court.

Among the works of Mr. Lippman as an author are the following: A Preface to Politics, The Political Scene, "The Phantom Public," "The Stakes of Diplomacy," and "Public Opinion." In addition to these books Mr. Lippman is the author of numerous articles which have appeared from time to time in such magazines as the Atlantic Monthly, Metropolitan, and Century.

Mr. Lippman has been declared to be a brilliant writer, a clear thinker, and a forceful speaker.

PRITCHETT NEXT CINDER CAPTAIN

Dick Freeman to Be Varsity Manager and Dave Young Freshman Manager.

Hoyt Pritchett, Tar Heel two-miler and a rising senior from Greensboro, was elected captain of next year's track team at a banquet held at the Tar Heel Club Tuesday evening. Pritchett has just concluded his second season on the Carolina cinder squad, and in his two years of competition has forged his way to the peak of the two-mile rank. He established a new University record for the two-mile, formerly held by Johnny Purser of Charlotte, when he won this event in 9 min. 48 sec. in the dual meet with Virginia. Pritchett also set a new record of 9 min. 57 sec. in the State Conference meet, which was held at Greensboro. To top the season he won the two-mile, setting a new record of 9 min. 57 sec., in the Southern Intercollegiate Conference meet held this year at Baton Rouge, La.

In addition to this excellent track work, Pritchett was a member of the Cross Country Team that took the Southern title at Athens, Georgia, last fall. Twice he has run the mile on the University's four mile relay that won this event in the annual Georgia Tech Relay Carnival. Pritchett is the vice-president of the rising Senior class.

The managers for the Varsity and Freshman track teams were also elected at the banquet. Dick Freeman of Fremont was elected the manager of next year's Varsity track squad. Charlie Burns of Wadesboro and Fred Johnson of Raleigh will be the assistant track managers. Dave Young of Raleigh was elected manager of the Freshman track team.

Prof. A. H. Patterson requests that all candidates for degrees meet him at Memorial Hall, Thursday afternoon, June 2, 2 o'clock to rehearse Commencement Day exercises. The Deans of the various schools are also requested to be present then.

DIRECT SENIOR CLASS

Above are pictured the officers of the retiring senior class who have led their group through one of the most controversial years in the history of the University. They are now at the closing hours of a successful term of office. Reading from left to right, they are as follows: A. E. Warren, student council representative; C. E. "Red" Smith, president; J. J. McMurray, vice-president; and Z. M. Williams, sec.-treasurer.

Reviewer Enthusiastic Over New University Year Book; It Will Be Distributed Monday

Yackety Yack Is One of the Best Ever Issued, Says Prometheus.

ART WORK BY STUDENTS

Mistakes in Printing Cause Delay in Receiving Shipment of Annuals; Cuts Are Perhaps Most Pleasing Feature.

(By Prometheus)

Due to unavoidable mistakes in printing, the Yackety Yack did not appear on the campus yesterday and today. Information was given out during the first part of the week that the year books would be given out at the Yackety Yack office Friday and today and many disappointed men have so besieged the editor with dire threats of malice that he has taken refuge in a far city. However, he will be on hand when the annuals appear Monday. The printers have expressed their deep regret in regards to the misprints and promise to have the year books in corrected form on the Hill by Monday.

The reviewer was fortunate enough to receive a review copy and from this he has gleaned the material for this article.

Probably the most striking and pleasing feature of the Yackety Yack is the cuts. The engraving has been done well and the color scheme throughout the book is harmonious. All the art work has been done by men on the campus and they are to be congratulated on the excellence of their work. Last year, if we remember correctly, the art work, or most of it, was done by professionals, but this year's art staff has done a much better job. The cuts do not look like so many drawings purchased over a counter. Truly the most commendable part of the annual is the cuts and color work.

The sepia tone has added much to the senior book. The photographs and cuts show up a great deal plainer than did those of last year. The cover is (Continued on page four)

President Chase to Speak at Colleges

Leaves Today on Trip to Give Commencement Talks.

President Chase has accepted a large number of invitations to address the graduating classes of various colleges in North and South Carolina.

On Saturday Dr. Chase will leave Chapel Hill to give the commencement address at Due West Women's College at Due West, S. C. After the University executive leaves Due West, he will go to Coker College and deliver the final address at the institution on the 31st. President Chase will then return to North Carolina and address the members of the senior class of Catawba College at Salisbury, N. C.

Westmoreland to Captain Baseball Nine Next Season

Joe Westmoreland, of Canton, N. C., premier southpaw hurler for the Carolina Varsity was elected Thursday night as captain for the 1928 season. At the same time Rufus Little of Greensboro received the managership for the next year.

"Big Joe's" election came as a fitting climax to a most successful season, having practically pitched the Tar Heels into the state championship by winning six out of eight of his state games. Westmoreland's most outstanding day was in the Davidson game when he hurled beautiful ball to gain the honor all pitchers aspire to—a no-hit game.

Last year was Lefty's first season on the Varsity, but his work was not noticeable then as he was troubled by an old injury to his fingers.

GRANT TENDERS HIS RESIGNATION

Alumni Executive Secretary to Study in New York Next Year.

Daniel L. Grant, Executive Secretary of the General Alumni Association and Editor of the Alumni Review, has tendered his resignation to Alfred M. Scales, President of the Alumni Association. In the statement, which Mr. Grant sent to Mr. Scales, he stated that his resignation would take effect in October.

Mr. Grant came to the University administration five years ago, when he became the head of the Alumni division. During this time he has performed his duties remarkably well and has completed the groundwork of organizing the association.

The two outstanding movements in the program, which Mr. Grant has supported, have been the monthly issuance of the Alumni Review, a magazine in which all material about former students has been published, and the publication of the Alumni Handbook. The Alumni Handbook embodies a very close study of the past, present and the future work of the University.

The retiring secretary has been very active in Alumni work throughout the country. Last year the National Association of Alumni Secretaries met in Chapel Hill and elected Mr. Grant as the president of the organization.

Mr. Grant stated in his letter to Mr. Scales that he wished to study more intensely the problems of the alumni secretaries and that he intended to go to New York where he will do some special work. The Carnegie Foundation made the study possible by making a grant to the University. (Continued on page eight)

DANCE PROGRAM COMPLETED FOR COMMENCEMENT

Finals Will Be Held in the Gymnasium and Not in Swain Hall.

VACATE ROOMS JUNE 6TH

Hitches Came Up in Plans But Settled; Dancers Must Vacate Dormitory Rooms by June 6 for Summer Schoolers; Expecting Crowd.

Due to the fact that Carolina Finals conflict with the opening of summer school, there has been some difficulty in completing the plans for the spring hops. However, with the cooperation of President Chase, C. T. Woollen, and Dean Walker, the dances may be carried out as originally planned. This concession is made on one condition, which must be strictly observed. It is that all dormitory rooms must be released by six o'clock, Monday evening, June the sixth, so that the University may have time to prepare these rooms for summer school use. It is absolutely necessary that this ruling be adhered to, for any personal belongings found in the dormitories after the allotted time will have to be moved out into the halls.

The Executive Committee of the German Club met Tuesday night, and put the finishing touches on their preparations for what is expected to be one of the best sets of dances ever held on the campus. The most important decision was the the hops will be held in Bynum Gymnasium instead of in Swain Hall, because of the conflict with the opening of summer school. The sponsors for the different dances were determined upon, and the whole course was mapped out.

Expect Crowd
A large crowd of girls, alumni, and students is expected to attend, and elaborate entertainment is in store for the merry-makers. There will be an alumni banquet during Commencement week, and this fact will further augment the number present. (Continued on page five)

Negro Issue of Magazine and Senior Number of Buccaneer Are Found Above the Average

Last Issue of Magazine Is the Product Solely of Negroes.

EDITED BY VIRGINIA LAY

(By Prometheus)

The Negro issue is out! Coming as a distinct surprise to the campus, the last number of the Carolina Magazine is the product solely of negroes. To those who are familiar with Opportunity, a journal of negro life, the Magazine contains many familiar names; to those who are acquainted with the Negro Literati, the Magazine offers a great source of further study, as it has attempted a representative contribution of Negro life and art.

Lewis Alexander of Washington, D. C., who was selected as honorary editor of this number of the Magazine, recently made a trip south in the interests of Fire, a new magazine of the Niggerati; as the negro intellectuals term themselves. Mr. Alexander was instrumental in the assembling of material for this Negro issue. Charles S. Johnson, editor of Opportunity, A Journal of Negro Life, also assisted greatly in expanding the field and has contributed an article, representative of the Negro intellectual which serves as "a key to the issue and an identification of the writers."

Featuring in this issue is "The Negro Enters Literature" by Charles S. Johnson; "Symphonies," by Arthur Huff Fauset; and two drawings from "Emperor Jones," by Aaron Douglas. In the article by Mr. Johnson, there is set forth in lucid style a brief review of the negro in literature. The author says: "Although the saga of the transplanted African has been scarcely more than marginal notes to the drama of America, no wholly intelligent view of the new world development is possible which does not embrace the experiences of the new world development is possible which does not embrace the experi-

Commencement Program Begins Next Friday With The Class Day Exercises

Troxell Is Praised for Appearance with Famous Werrenrath

Charles Troxell, instructor in the University Music Department, sang "Elijah" with Reinald Werrenrath, America's foremost baritone, in Charlotte last Tuesday night. The oratorio was sponsored and presented by the Charlotte Choral Society, and the choice of Mr. Troxell as tenor may be regarded as a definite tribute to his talent.

The Charlotte Observer has the following comment on the performance:

"Charles Troxell, well known and popular tenor of Greensboro, shared solo honors with Reinald Werrenrath. Mr. Troxell is a singer of experience and sound musicianship, and his vocalism possesses a smoothness and timbre rare in a section where a dearth of good tenor material is manifest. He was heard to best advantage in that most popular of all tenor arias, "If with all your hearts," and his interpretation measured up to what we have come to desire in one who attempts this great piece of writing."

Petty Waddill Is New Cheer Leader

Unanimously Chosen Yesterday in Unopposed Election.

Petty Waddill, rising senior from Henderson, was unanimously elected Cheer Leader for the year 1927-1928 yesterday when no other candidate was nominated for this position.

Waddill was Kike Kyser's right hand man this year. He did excellent work in helping the Cheerios get to Charlottesville, and to Greensboro for the Carolina-Virginia football and baseball classics.

Negro Issue of Magazine and Senior Number of Buccaneer Are Found Above the Average

Final Buccaneer Is Parody of Yackety Yack; the Cover Best.

SENIORS HAVE A SECTION

(By Prometheus)

The last number, the Senior number, the Comic number of the Buccaneer is off the press. For the first time this year the comic magazine has taken on a personal touch and incidentally has touched rather forcefully the seniors to whom the Yackety Yack is devoted.

This number is a mild take-off of our dear annual. Refraining from publishing the well-known well on the cover, the artist portrays his idea of the collegiate senior stepping out with his diploma tucked under his arm. The cover, by the way, is one of, if not the best, that has appeared on the Buccaneer this year. The color combination is extremely good.

Flipping over past the first advertisements, we are greeted with a few "typical" campus scenes. From the most sober-minded, these photographs would draw at least a mild chuckle. In one scene, we see a group of garbage cans with the caption, "A Typical Campus Scene." Under another picture of a flight of dirty, rickety, trash-piled steps, we see "Main Entrance to the Library." And under another of a crumbling shack are the startling words "President's Mansion." The prize of the lot is a verdant field of grass in the middle of which a creature of bovinistic form and appearances reposes contentedly. Under this a phrase shockingly proclaims the picture to be "The Freshman Athletic Field; the Freshman in the Center is Playing Tennis."

Gilda Grey
Then the dedication (and here we wonder if it is meant to parallel the Yackety Yack dedication) and next the introduction to seniors. Verily the page fairly wiggles. Did any of (Continued on page five)

Governor McLean Tentatively Accepts Invitation to Be Present.

LIPPMAN FEATURE TALK

W. A. Jenkins, President of Davenport College, to Deliver Baccalaureate Sermon; Senior Banquet Friday Night to Conclude Class Day.

Beginning with the annual Class Day program next Friday and ending Monday, June 6, with the Commencement Exercises in Memorial Hall, the 132nd Annual Commencement of the University will mark the graduation of a record-breaking class of around 281 students.

As is always the case, the commencement exercises will attract a multitude of visitors to the Hill, including many of the state's most noted dignitaries. Governor McLean will probably be one of the visitors. He has tentatively accepted an invitation to attend the Senior Banquet at the Carolina Inn Friday night, which will bring the Class Day Exercises to a climax.

Walter Lippman, former Associate Editor of the New Republic and at present an editorial writer on the staff of the New York World, will deliver the Commencement Address in Memorial Hall at 11:00 A. M. Monday, June 6. He is a speaker of national prominence, and has a nation-wide reputation as a writer.

W. A. Jenkins, President of Davenport College, will deliver the Baccalaureate Sermon in Memorial Hall at 11:00 Sunday morning. He is an alumnus of the University, graduating with the class of 1907.

Hundreds of Alumni will be among the visitors here for the exercises. Ten classes will hold reunions in connection with the Alumni Day Exercises Saturday. Members of these classes will also be guests at a dinner Friday night. A luncheon in their honor will be given in Swain Hall at 1:00 P. M. Saturday. A. B. Andrews, President of the General Alumni Association, will officiate as toastmaster. The annual Alumni Ball, perhaps the most colorful event of the entire Commencement program, is scheduled for the Gymnasium at 10:00 Saturday night. It will be immediately preceded by the President's Reception, which begins at 8:30 at the same place.

One of the features of the program will be a baseball game between the State Champion Tar Heels and the State College Techmen, on Emerson field, beginning at 3:30 Saturday afternoon.

The graduating class is said to be one of the best that the University has ever produced. Its officers include Charles E. (Red) Smith, of Goldsboro, President; Jesse J. McMurray, of Shelby, Vice-President; Zach M. Williams, of Stovall, Secretary-Treasurer; and Addison E. Warren, of Edward, Student Council Representative.

President Smith announced yesterday that practically all plans for the Class Day program have been completed. One of the features will be the election of permanent class officers at the Class Exercises in Gerard Hall at 9:30 Friday morning. These exercises will officially open the Commencement program.

Senior caps and gowns are now ready, and may be obtained at 6 Pettigrew Dormitory, according to President Smith. Commencement invitations may be secured at this room also.

MARKSMEN WILL FIRE FINAL MATCH TODAY; THREE PRIZES OFFERED

The last match of the year will be fired today on the outdoor range of the Carolina Rifle Club. The match will begin at 10:30 this morning, and will be fired through the day. The men will fire in the order in which they arrive at the range, until 2:30 after which time no one will be allowed to start.

Prizes have been donated by Dr. J. V. McGowan and E. R. MacKethan of Fayetteville and M. P. Adams of Florence, S. C. These prizes will go to the three high scorers.
