Bibliography for Fresh Debaters in Library

Attention of first year members of the Di Senate is called to the fact that a bibliography on the freshman inter-society debate has been posted on the bulletin board in the library. There are also a number of books on reserve. It is expected that a number of men will go out for this debate, preliminaries for which will be held in Manning Hall Monday night at 7:30. Each speaker shall have seven minutes first speech and three minutes rejoinder. He may take either side of the question, Resolved: that the McNary-Haugen bill is a proper solution to the farm problem. The second Senate meeting in December is to be turned over to the men selected for the final debate.

PACIFISM DEBATE WITH BRITISH TUESDAY NIGHT

Mr. Darvall, the second man on the team, is of the University of Reading. He is a keen Liberal in politics, having been a delegate of the Constituency to the National Liberal Convention in 1925.

Topic Discussed Here
The third man, John Ramago, is from the London School of Economics and Political Science, and has been for four years one of the most widely known men at that famous institution. He was one of the team which represented the University of London against the Australian team which toured Europe and America. He is prominent in the labor party and a contributor to Labor Journals.

The query is one of great interest at this time. Those who heard Kirby Page's address at the Human Relations Institute held here last spring remember the great appeal that he made for the cause of pacifism, which he declared to be the only sure way to end all wars. Herbert Adams Gibbons and J. J. Cornelius also spoke on this engrossing subject at the Institute. It has been the subject of keen discussion on the campus since last spring.

Professor McKie stated yesterday that immediately after the debate Tuesday night there will be a smoker at the Carolina Inn in honor of the debaters. The Debate Council, the Debate Squad, and former Carolina debaters will be present.

the ends, and they will start at their regular posts. Captain Garrett Morehead and "Shine" Howard will be on the tackle berths, while Bud Shuler and Ray Farris will play the guards. Harry Schwartz, already mentioned all over the South as an outstanding candidate for All-Southern center, will be in the pivot assignment.

Behind this line the starting backfield will likely include Whisnant, quarter; Gresham, left half; Young, right half; and Foard, fullback. This is the same quartet that started the fireworks against Davidson last week.

Dean Royster Gives Bull's Head Reading From Noyes' Verse

Small Crowd Hears Graduate Dean Wednesday Afternoon.

In spite of the heavy rain a small crowd assembled for the Bull's Head reading in Murphey Hall Wednesday afternoon. Dr. James Finch Royster, acting-dean of the Graduate School, read a selection of interesting poems from Alfred Noyes' New Verse.

Among the poems read by Dr. Royster "Hills of Youth," "Dick Turpin's Wrath," "The Highwayman," "Pagan Margorie," "Red of Dawn," and "The Woodcutter" were the most vivid and colorful. However, all the poems were thoroughly enjoyed.

Dr. Royster stated that in 1912 Mr. Noyes was looked upon by the literary world as the most promising young poet at that time, but that his promise has been belied. However, Mr. Noyes has accomplished much in the literary world. As a poet of material that is easily read and as a capital story teller, he is especially famous. His popularity may, in part, be attributed to these two factors. At the age of thirty-two he had the distinction of having written and collected two volumes of poems. During the critical years of the World War he wrote many poems, and in 1927 had another book of his verse published.

DEAN WALKER TO INSPECT SCHOOLS

Education Dean on Trip to Meredith, Louisburg and E. C. T. C.

Dr. N. W. Walker, Dean of the School of Education, left Friday for a two day inspection trip to several colleges which are applying for admittance to the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

Dean Walker will first go to Meredith College at Raleigh and then to Louisburg College, both of which have placed their applications for membership as Junior Colleges. He will later go to Greenville to the East Carolina Teacher's College which is applying for membership in the Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools in Southern States.

Dr. Walker's report will be given when the Association meets in the first of December in Jacksonville, Florida.

Led by Walter Crissman, there will be an open forum discussion of the "Essentials of Christianity" at B. Y. P. U. in the Sunday school rooms of the Baptist church Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock. Two or three speeches by students will furnish the basis for the discussion.

LOOMIS SPEAKS TO Y CABINETS

Makes Address on "Freshman Work;" Plans Made for Thanksgiving.

Mr. C. B. Loomis, Regional Student Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association spoke on "Freshman Work" before a joint meeting of the "Y" Cabinets Monday night. Mr. Loomis is travelling to all of the colleges in the ten southeastern states and giving lectures on College work with particular emphasis on the work of first year men.

The speaker lauded the University and stated that the South and the entire country is beginning to look to Carolina for many things. Mr. Loomis compared the activities and life of a student during his high school days with his life on a college campus. While a student is in high school his relationship is mainly with such things as athletics, literary societies, studies, home-life and church. Although a great many of these activities are continued in college the student has a new acquaintance with dormitory life, publications, fraternities, and even politics. "A student's attitude toward such things as these," stated Mr. Loomis, "is stronger in college than ever before."

Immediately preceding the address, the reports of the various committees on work for the Thanksgiving football game with Virginia were made before the group. The traffic situation under the leadership of Aubrey Perkins is practically complete as to plans. Bobby Watkins, head of the Lunch Counter bureau requested men for the afternoon shift, while the information bureau under J. W. Crew, and the checking department under Killian Barwick need more students to volunteer for work.

Dean Bradshaw and Professors Graham and Meyers, the executive board of directors of the local Y. M. C. A. were present at this meeting.

are expected to put up a wonderful fight for first place. They will pin their hopes on Captain Branyan and Young. Young is a sophomore and has taken first place in all of Georgia's meets this season. He ran the mile in 4 minutes 25 1/2 seconds while in high school, winning the Southeastern A. A. U. championship.

Virginia places its chances for victory on Hitcheson, star distance runner, and Robinson, sophomore flash.

Most of the teams arrived yesterday afternoon and several took light workouts.
