Five campus offices will be filled in the run-over elections today for candidates who failed to receive a majority in last Tuesday's elections. The polls will be open in front of Gerrard Hall from 10:00 a. m. to 4:00 p. m., according to C. R. Jonas, president of the student body, who is directing arrangements for the vote casting.

E. Cox and Harry Weatherly; vicepresident sophomore class, "Wop" Moore and Kenneth Gay.

ED BUTLER STILL IN THE OLYMPIC FIGHT TRYOUTS

His Defeat by Mendez Not Counted Because Victor Was Not an Olympic Contender

Contrary to general belief Ed Butler was not put out of further competition for a berth on the American Olympic boxing team. He was beaten in his second fight in Baltimore in the sectional tryouts for the team; but the man who defeated him, Hector Mendez, Argentine consul at Baltimore, was not an American citizen and therefore not eligible to represent America in the Olympics.

Butler was picked by the A. A. U. boxing committee at Baltimore to go to the final tryouts at Boston, April 23rd and 24th, because in their opinion he was the most capable and experienced welterweight among the eligible men of his class. Mendez had been allowed to participate only after long deliberation on the part of the boxing committee because of the fact that the tournament was not only being held for tryouts for the Olympic team but was a boxing tournament for the South Atlantic.

In the first round of fights Wednesday night Butler easily outpointed Ernest March, representing the Emorywood Athletic club in three rounds. Marsh used a cover-up style of fighting and Ed was unable to knock him out. Mendez in the same bracket knocked his man in twenty seconds.

An hour later Butler took on Senor Mendez in what proved to be the "most colorful bout of the evening." By using all the boxing skill at his command Ed managed to keep away from the terrific straight-from-the-shoulder punches of Mendez. Newspapermen gave Butler the first round. Butler's strength was sapped by his first fight and the second round found him at the receiving end of a shower of straight lefts and rights that nearly laid him low. Mendez was not so aggressive in the third round and Butler emerged from the fight "the first man in the state of Maryland to last three rounds with the Argentine Consul."

Mendez was on the 1924 Olympic team from Argentina and beat the American welterweight in Amsterdam, but was later beaten. Since coming to this country he has had 17 bouts and has won them all by knockouts before the end of the second round. He will also represent his native heath in the Olympics this year.

The Tar Heel captain received a tremendous ovation on the first night of the tournament and when it was announced Thursday night that Ed was going to Boston in spite of his defeat the crowd nearly took the roof off. Fight experts around Baltimore believe that Butler would outpoint Mendez if he were given another week to train and if he was fresh.

Dr. English Bagby, Dr. J. F. Dashed, and J. H. McFadden, all of the psychology department, attended the meeting of the Southern Society for psychology at Lexington, Va., April 6-7. Two former Carolina men, Dr. W. W. Rogers, of New York University, and Professor H. W. Martin of Emory University, also attended the conference.

Australia has appropriated $1,575,000 for promotion of its airways.

ART EXHIBITION IN CHAPEL HILL

Southern States League Will Show Pictures in Person Hall April 23.

Chapel Hill, for the first time in its history, is to finance and bring here an exhibition of original drawings and paintings. It is a community venture, backed by the art department of the Community Club and by a committee headed by Paul John Weaver. The Southern States Art League Circuit B. traveling exhibition is to arrive April 20. It will be shown in Person hall morning and afternoon during the following week, free to all. The citizens of Chapel Hill are asked to show interest in bringing art into the village by contributing a dollar (or more, or less). Checks should be sent to Mrs. Mary Graves Rees.

The pictures are all by artists who were born in the South or have lived here as long as five years. Southerners from all over the United States send contributions to the annual shows of the Southern States Art League, and out of the hundreds of canvasses and drawings submitted only a limited number are selected for the circuit exhibitions. In this way the pictures as a whole represent the best work of our native artists. The scenes are many of them typical of the South and are interesting to us on that account. There are oil paintings, watercolors, etchings and charcoal drawings. Some of the exhibitors are artists of national reputation. The Southern States Art League has its headquarters at New Orleans. It was organized about seven years ago at Charleston and last year held its convention there. This spring it will hold a convention at Birmingham and an opening exhibition at the same time. From this exhibition, as has been the custom in previous years, the circuit shows will be chosen for next winter.

Every contribution, no matter how small, from students or college organizations will be gladly received.

They Stand the Test Today

HERBERT C. HOOVER

ALFRED E. SMITH

Along with the run-off elections for campus offices held today, the TAR HEEL's campaign to interest students in national politics will come to a climax with the students choosing as their choice between Herbert C. Hoover, Secretary of Commerce, and Alfred E. Smith, Governor of New York, for the Presidency of the United States.

Secretary Hoover, the Republican candidate, was recently chosen as the official Republican candidate by the local Republican club which held a caucus for the purpose of naming its candidate. Mr. Hoover is nationally, and internationally known for his business ability, power as an executive and at present he is leading the Republican field in piling up instructed delegates which go to the national convention of the G. O. P. held in Kansas City this summer.

Governor Smith who is now spending a two-week vacation in Asheville, is acknowledged the outstanding candidate for the presidential nomination of the Democratic party, whose national convention meets in Houston, Texas, in the early summer. Governor Al, as he is popularly known, was chosen by an overwhelming majority by the campus Democrats in a recent primary held by Taylor Bledsoe, president of the local Democratic Club. Governor Smith has won wide recognition for his administration of the affairs of the Empire State, his liberal views and his genius as a public executive.

DELIGHTFUL DANCE GIVEN BY SENIORS

Beautiful Decorations and Pretty Girls Combined to Make Pleasure for Seniors.

The 1928 Senior class certainly gained the favor of the visiting girls, even if they lost the favor of the underclassmen, for they pulled one of the best dances Saturday night Bynum Gymnasium has seen in many a year.

The Old Gymn has been decorated before, but Saturday night the place was decorated as it has never been before and seldom will in the future. The roof was covered with green and white streamers. A section was left open through which balloons descended on the dancers below at the appropriate time. Tar Heel pines were placed about and gave the gym a true Carolina atmosphere.

The class secured the Carolina Buccaneers for the occasion and they were well rewarded for doing so, for the local orchestra filled the Gymnasium with excellent music from nine until twelve.

Shortly after eleven o'clock the grand march was held. President Ed Hudgins led the figure with Miss Marion Tabor. He was assisted by Jack Davis with Miss Mary Marshall and Bill Neal with Miss Elizabeth Halton. At the conclusion of the figure, the couples were presented with confetti, hats, and various instruments for making noise. All were used extensively.

Shortly before the ball ended a no-break dance was held for the members of the Executive Committee and the officers of the class.

Sophs to Give Dance In Gym on April 27

Second Year Men Following Examples Set by Juniors and Seniors

What next? Now that the Juniors and Seniors have had their dances, the Sophomores decide that they will stage an affair that will eclipse the efforts of their superiors by a large margin. Freshmen are expected to announce a hop to surpass even the Sophomore event.

The dance to be given by the Sophs will be held in Bynum Gymnasium, April 27. Dick Winborne, chairman of the committee giving the dance, states that plans are now underway to make the affair a great success.

As this dance will be held Friday night, it is expected that the Grail will add to the week-end by pulling one of their dances. There also happens to be a baseball game scheduled with V. P. I. for that Friday which will insure a number of visiting girls.

Law School to Hear McLendon Tonight

Durham Attorney to Speak on "The Production of Proof" Before Law Association.

The Hon. L. P. McLendon of Durham will address the students of the Law School tonight at 7:30 in the Law Building. His subject will be "The Production of Proof."

The speaker is one of a series who have been presenting lectures on legal subjects under the auspices of the Law School Association. The express purpose of the talk is to foster better and closer relations between the lawyers of the state and their younger brothers in training in the Law School.

Numerous lawyers throughout North Carolina have become interested in the work of the law students through these Association lectures and through the Law Review, copies of which are sent to them. The Review is published by the students under the direction of the faculty.

The lecture tonight is open to all students who care to attend. Those expecting to enter the Law School at some future date will find it especially interesting and valuable, officials say.

BUCCANEER DEAD LINE FOR COPY IS APRIL 29

All copy for the year's last issue of the Buccaneer must be in the hands of editor Andy Anderson Sunday night, April 29. Any cuts that are to be submitted for this last issue must be in by Wednesday, April 25.

This last issue of the Buccaneer labors under no special name and copy need not conform to any given idea. The editor states that he has almost enough sketches but will need a few more to make out. Copy must be in by this time for the editor wants the last number of the Buccaneer off the press and ready for distribution by May 15. If the contributors observe the dead line, he says, this issue can be given to the students about the middle of May.

Andy added further that he wanted, for the most part, only short contributions in the last issue, and nothing over one half a page.

All material to be submitted may be left in the copy box outside the door of the Buccaneer office in the basement of Alumni or can be handed to the editor at the Sigma Delta House, 3 Fraternity Row. The editor welcomes new contributors.

Browning, of the North State Engraving company, who did the cover for the Girls' Number, has done the cover for the last issue.

Phi Kappa Sigma Fraternity Dance

Twilight Affair Saturday Completes the Week-end Social Whirl.

The Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity filled out the week-end with their dance at the fraternity house Saturday afternoon. With the Deke dance Friday night and the Senior Ball Saturday night, the visiting girls were insured a complete week-end by the twilight dance given by the Phi Kappa Sigmas.

Jack Wardlaw's orchestra furnished music for the occasion. This orchestra has won quite a name for itself recently and from all reports of the dance they lived up to their recently gained reputation.

The dance began at six o'clock and lasted until shortly after nine.

CHAPEL HILL HAS GOOD PROSPECTS FOR LATER MAIL

Service for an Outbound Mail Leaving Village at Fifty-third May be Secured

Prospects are in view for the establishment of an outbound mail leaving Chapel Hill around half-past five or six o'clock in the afternoon. An inspector from the Post Office Department came to the village last week to investigate the matter. This inquiry came as a result of appeals to Washington from the Chapel Hill Weekly and Colonel Pratt.

The authorities are contemplating sending the mail to Durham by automobile at the closing hour of the local post office. Letters posted before this time will catch both the eastbound and westbound trains leaving Durham early in the evening. The westbound train will connect with mails leaving Greensboro and with airplane mail flying between New Orleans and New York.

The northbound plane from New Orleans will leave Greensboro at 11:00 p. m. and will arrive in New York before five o'clock the next morning.

At the present time the latest that a letter can be posted at the Chapel Hill office for the eastbound train and get off the same day is 1:50 p. m. The deadline for the westbound and northbound mail is 2:30 p. m. The mail in the village is much heavier than that in other towns of the same size on account of the fact that there is a heavy volume of letters going out from the University offices and from the 2,700 students.
