

Relay Team Performs In Penn Track Carnival This Afternoon At Philadelphia Against Stars

FAST ARRAY EXPECTED

Pritchett and Elliott Expected to Make Excellent Showings in Annual Track Classic.

The Carolina four-mile relay team that enters the Penn Relay classic to be held this afternoon on Franklin Field at Philadelphia will face one of the hardest and fastest arrays of track talent ever entered in a meet of this type.

Two veterans and two sophomores make up the team that will carry Carolina's colors this afternoon. These men are Elliott, Pritchett, Barkley, and Fisher. Elliott holds the southern conference record for the mile and besides he is a miler of national repute. Last spring Elliott came in second to Ray Conger in the national meet in Chicago and last fall in the John W. Overton Memorial Mile held at Philadelphia he came in second to Lloyd Hahn. Pritchett holds the present record in the two mile and is a very good miler. He has been one of the members of the Carolina Relay team that has won the Georgia Tech Relay for the last three years. Barkley and Fisher are sophomore stars in the mile and half mile. Barkley formerly ran the mile but this year the coaches shifted him to the half-mile. He still retains his old time speed in the mile.

In this year's Georgia Tech relays the Tar Heels lost the four mile relay race to Indiana. The meet this afternoon will give the Carolinians a chance for a comeback against the Hoosier quartet.

The way the Carolina men will run and their records follow:

Lead off—Pritchett, time for mile 4:33 1-5, at Georgia, 1927.

Second, Fisher—time for mile, 4:31 1-5, at Ga. Tech, 1928.

Third, Barkley—time for mile, 4:32, State Freshman, 1927.

Anchor, Elliott 4:21.2, So. Conference, 1926.

Satterfield

Henry Satterfield, fast Carolina shortstop, whose hitting streak that had lasted through fifteen successive games was finally halted in the Georgia game on Emerson Field Thursday afternoon.

Electrification of part of the Madagascar government railways is to start late this year and be completed in about six years.

GOLFERS BATTLE GEORGIA TODAY ON LOCAL LINKS

Tar Heels Out to Avenge Defeat at Hands of Crackers Last Week.

Carolina golfers will meet representatives of the University of Georgia on the Hope Valley Country Club course today. The Tar Heels will be out to avenge their defeat at the hands of the visitors last week, when the Georgians handed them a 16 to 2 setback. The team will be composed of Beverly Mason, Luther Steward, Billy Vanstory, and Tom Royster, playing in order. June Adams, captain of the team, is ill at his home in Asheville and will be unable to participate in his usual number one position.

The Carolina linksmen found stiff opposition in the three teams encountered on their recent southern invasion, and returned Tuesday with only one victory to their credit. The difficulty of the Georgia courses proved somewhat of a handicap to the Tar Heel team. In the first match, that with the University of Georgia at Athens last Friday, the Carolinians suffered an overwhelming defeat. The next day at Atlanta, the Georgia Tech linksmen left the visitors on the small end of a 13 to 5 score.

Returning to the state for an engagement on the Charlotte course Monday, the Tar Heels were able to win their individual matches and chalked up a 9 to 5 victory over Davidson. Adams, Mason, Steward, and Vanstory played well in their singles matches, but the team did not function so brilliantly in foursome play. In the latter department, Davidson proved the superior, Martin and Mills downing Adams and Mason, 3 to 2, while Lingle and Wilson won over Steward and Vanstory, 2 up. In the morning play, Adams, Carolina, and Mills, Davidson, halved their match; Mason, Carolina, defeated Martin, Davidson, 2 and 1; Vanstory, Carolina, defeated Lingle, Davidson, 2 and 1; Steward, Carolina defeated Wilson, Davidson, 3 and 2.

The two losses to the Georgia team does not in any way affect the Tar Heel's standing in North Carolina golf circles. By their victory over Davidson, the Carolina team preserves a perfect record so far as state meets are concerned. The team won the State Intercollegiate championship for the season at Sedgfield a couple of weeks ago.

The Hope Valley Country club will be met in match play Monday on their

Carolina Track Team, Crippled Through Absence Of Stars, To Meet State On Emerson Field

The Carolina track team that meets the N. C. State cindermen here this afternoon at 3 o'clock on Emerson field will be greatly handicapped by the loss of its best and most consistent performers.

Elliott, Pritchett, Barkley and Fisher, distance men, will be in Philadelphia taking part in the Penn Relays. Heretofore the Tar Heels have relied on these men to take first or second places in their respective events. Pritchett, two mile champion, generally takes first place in that event and Elliott never fails to lead the field home in the mile. Barkley has consistently won the half mile this season, while Fisher is a good second to Elliott in the mile.

State has a fair record this season. The Wolf Pack has lost a dual meet to Duke, won one from Davidson, and took second in a triangular affair with V. P. I. and Clemson.

State's great strength lies in the field events, with such men as Young, McDowall, Vinson and Patterson. Young is an excellent performer in the javelin and broad jump, while his teammate Vinson is an able second to him. Jack McDowall, of football fame is a star high and broad jumper. Patterson will throw the shot and discus for the Wolf Pack. In the sprints Jordan will represent State, while Captain Brimley, will do the honors in the middle distances. The State tracksters have an able two miler in Alexander.

Although handicapped the Tar Heels have an able performer in Johnnie Pearson, hurdler and high jumper. Pearson took second scoring honors last Saturday in the Georgia Tech meet with 14 points. He has also been high scorer for his team this season, having chalked up a total of 33 5-6 points. The Tar Heels will depend on Lacy Harper to win a few points in the weights. Carolina will have J. K. Smith in the sprints; Wrenn in the mile; Harrison in the quarter; Brown and Gallagher in the two mile, Evans in the half mile; Adkins in the shot; Dry in the pole vault; Harper in the discus; Patterson in the high jump; Gray in the broad jump and Ingle in the javelin.

Carolina has won all of its dual meets this season and came out second in a triangular meet with V. M. I. and Virginia. The Tar Heels defeated Duke 80 to 46 in the opening meet, won by a goodly score from W and L. and last week ran roughshod over Georgia Tech 72 1-2 to 53 1-2 in one of the best meets seen here this year.

WYRICK FEATUES AS FROSH WIN 7-2

Tar Babies Extend Their Winning Streak to Eight Straight Victories.

By defeating the Davidson freshmen 7-2 here yesterday, the Carolina freshmen kept their slate clean in the race for the state title. They also ran their winning streak to eight games. The game was a pitcher's battle between Hurt of Carolina and Marrow of Davidson. Hurt allowed only six hits while the Tar Babies touched Marrow for seven safeties.

Pete Wyrick, Carolina second baseman, led his team at bat, getting a home run and two singles out of five trips. Mack Howard hit a homer to help the Tar Baby attack. Goodson and Proctor each got two hits for Davidson.

Monday afternoon the Tar Babies play the Wake Forest freshmen on Emerson field in their last encounter before the Virginia trip.

Tar Heels Show Reversal Of Form To Vanquish Bulldogs

Carolina Outfit Evens Series With Georgia Team By 6-5 Win.

Playing an entirely different brand of baseball, the University of North Carolina defeated the Georgia Bulldogs on Emerson Field here Thursday, 6-5. The snappy play of the Tar Heels enabled them to take an early lead which they maintained throughout the contest.

Captain Joe Westmoreland was given great support by the entire Carolina outfit and with his own excellent pitching held the Bulldogs in check during most of the contest. Georgia gathered twelve hits but the Tar Heel pitcher kept them well scattered and tightened up with men on the bags. The Crackers, consequently, never put across more than one tally in any one inning.

Carolina got away to a three run lead in the first frame. Coxe drew a base on balls, Luffy singled, and Mackie followed with a triple bringing in two runs. A single by Barnhardt sent Mackie home for the final run of that inning. In the fourth the Heels scored two more when Coxe's triple sent Barnhardt and Westmoreland home. The final Carolina count came in the following frame on hits by Mackie and Barnhardt.

Georgia scored in the fifth and eighth due primarily to the pretty base running of Nash and Johnson. Coxe, Mackie and Barnhardt hit well for Carolina. Henry Satterfield failed to hit safely during the game for the first time in fifteen consecutive contests on the Tar Heel schedule.

Blindfolded in scientific test of leading Cigarettes, James Montgomery Flagg selects Old Gold

Photograph of JAMES MONTGOMERY FLAGG taken in his studio while test was being made

How Test Was Made

Subject was blindfolded, and, in the presence of two responsible witnesses, was given one each of the four leading cigarettes to smoke. To clear the taste, coffee was served before each cigarette... Mr. Flagg was entirely unaware of the identity of these cigarettes during test. After smoking the four cigarettes, Mr. Flagg was asked to designate by number his choice. He promptly replied, "Number 2," which was OLD GOLD.

JAMES MONTGOMERY FLAGG—Nationally known artist and creator of the famous Flagg girl.

After this test, Mr. Flagg wrote:

"Most of us smoke names and think we are smoking cigarettes! The blindfold test proved that to me. It proved also that it is difficult to tell one cigarette from another... except in the case of OLD GOLD... I spotted that... it suited me best even blindfolded. In fact, the man who said 'not a cough in a carload' knew whereof he spoke. It's the smoothness that identifies OLD GOLD. It needs no other trade mark."
