Plans Providing for Greatly Improved Entertainments Will Be Submitted to Student Vote

Students in the College of Liberal Arts and probably those in the School of Education will vote next Thursday on a plan to provide an entertainment fee to be used in bringing high class lectures, dramatic entertainments, and musical programs to the campus, it was announced yesterday by Ed Hudgins, President of the Student Body.

The entertainment fee idea is the outgrowth of a campaign carried on through the editorial columns of the Tar Heel for the past few weeks for better lectures and musical programs here. It was originally advanced by Dave Carroll, former associate editor of the campus newspaper. Definite decision to submit the plan to a vote of the Student Body was reached Tuesday night at a meeting of a newly created Advisory Committee, composed of six seniors and four juniors selected by the dean of the Liberal Arts College from a list of fifteen rising seniors and ten juniors, submitted by the class presidents.

Excellent Attractions

Under the proposed plan, Arts students would pay a fee of one dollar a quarter, which would be added to the fund provided by the University and used to bring a number of attractions to the campus during the school year. A tentative list of lecturers includes such men as Sherwood Anderson, world-famous writer, Von Luckner, German naval commander whose astounding feats wrecked havoc with the Allied shipping during the World War, Richard Halliburton, adventurer, writer, and explorer, Williams Beebe, naturalist and adventurer extraordinary, and a number of others of equal calibre. A large number of the best musical entertainments would be included in the schedule of attractions made possible by the fee, as well as dramatic presentations whenever first-rate attractions were available. The Arts schools would sponsor the plan, and only students in these schools would pay the fee. They would be issued season tickets covering the programs booked by the entertainments committee. Students in the other schools would pay single admissions for the various events or purchase season tickets.

Student Booking Committee

The plan provides for an entertainments committee, with students holding a majority of the places on the body. All attractions would be booked by this committee.

At present the University appropriation for lectures is five hundred dollars, the yearly sum that has been provided for entertainments here for the past thirty years. There is a possibility that this amount will be doubled in the budget for next year, according to officials of the Liberal Arts College. Only two or three first class lectures could be provided, however, even with the increased appropriation, according to authorities.

J. WINDY CREW IS NEW PHI SPEAKER

Literary Society Elects Officers At Final Meeting of Year

The Phi Assembly elected officers for next quarter at the final meeting of the year Tuesday evening. A large number of members were present. Five men, Wallace, Baldwin, Calhoun, Hammond, and Cheatham were initiated into the Assembly.

The following men were elected to offices: Speaker, J. W. Crew; Speaker Pro-tem, Linwood Harrell; Sergeant-at-arms, Leonard Crumpler; Reading Clerk, John Wilkerson; Ways and Means Committee; John Lewis, chairman, Lawrence Wallace, John Mewborn; Treasurer, J. A. Lang; Assistant Treasurer, James Harris.

BUSINESS STAFF OF Y. Y. MEETS TONIGHT

There will be an important meeting of all men who desire to try out for the business staff of the 1929 Yackety Yack, it was announced yesterday by Guy Hill, the Business Manager. He stated that it is absolutely necessary for all men who wish to be on the staff to attend the meeting.

Bill Chandler Wins Cheerleader Position

Bill Chandler defeated Guy Fulp in the election for next year's cheerleader by a vote of 365 to 180, it was announced by Ed Hudgins, President of the Student Body, last night. Both men are from Winston-Salem. Considerable interest was exhibited in the election yesterday, and a number of voters were around the polls all during the day. The voting took place at booths in front of Gerrard Hall.

GIRLS GALORE TO FEATURE ANNUAL

Eleven Full Page Cuts of Girls in Yackety Yack—Out First of June

The Yackety Yack will be out between June 1 and June 4, stated John Allison, the editor of the year book, yesterday. For a time it was thought that the publication would be late on account of a delay in the engraving work.

It is said that this will be one of the best and most complete Yackety Yacks published in recent years. The engraving was done by the Southwestern Engraving Company of Atlanta, Georgia, and the printing is being done by Edwards and Broughton of Raleigh.

The color scheme used this year is blue, black, and gray. The division pages are insert pages on antique laid paper. This feature adds much to the appearance of the book and makes the beginning of each section more attractive. The cover is in silver and blue.

Eleven full page cuts of the most beautiful girls that have visited the Carolina campus in the past year are in the Vanity Fair section. Florenz Ziegfeld, owner of Ziegfeld's Follies and a man recognized as an excellent judge of feminine beauty, has selected these eleven photographs out of one hundred and forty entries. The editor refuses to disclose the names of the girls who are shown in the section. Fourteen pictures of girls are in the Sponsor section for fourteen campus officers and athletic captains.

For the first time activities of the Juniors are listed under their pictures. No writeups will appear under the Senior's pictures, but a list of their activities will appear as usual.

Artists from Atlanta spent quite a while here last summer in arranging for the art work of the issue. The theme is local color, so this work last summer will add materially to this section.

Thirty-eight pages of the Yackety Yack will be given over to athletics this year. Individual pictures of each varsity and outstanding athlete will appear, as will the pictures of coaches and managers. Action pictures of all sport events will spread throughout the section. This will be a much larger athletics division than heretofore, as the usual number of pages for this section is twenty.

A sixteen page rotogravure section is another feature of the year book. Snapshots of all kinds will appear here depicting the story of the school year. Pictures of the Cheerios, initiations, and dozens of other phases of campus life will appear in the rotogravure division.

In the fraternity section an added feature is the pictures of all houses. This is the first time that the pictures of houses have appeared.

Second and Final X-Hi-Y Contains Self-Help Articles

The second and final issue of the year of The X-Hi-Y came out Tuesday of this week. The issue, while it contains articles of general information, is concerned chiefly with self help opportunities at Carolina. Grady Leonard, head of the self help bureau of the Y. M. C. A., has an article on this subject on the editorial page.

Dr. Forster Talks To The N. C. Club On Farm Taxation

Dr. G. W. Forster of State College addressed the North Carolina Club Monday night at its final meeting of the year in Saunders Hall on "Farm Income and Farm Taxes."

Dr. Forster has recently completed a farm survey for the State Tax Commission. It is said that this was the most comprehensive farm study ever made in the United States. The objectives of the survey were three: (1) to determine the percent of farm income absorbed by taxes; (2) to determine the ratio of assessed value of farm land to its true value; and (3) to determine the aggregate amount of taxes borne by agriculture and to what extent the taxes are burdensome. The investigation covered 1300 farms in 13 representative areas of the state. The farms were located in twenty-five counties. The farms were selected at random so as to obtain fair and comprehensive data. Tenant farmers were not considered, since these had little bearing on such a tax survey.

Mr. Forster pointed out that any effort to get an accurate estimate of the farmers' income is very difficult, because there are so many items to be taken into consideration. Some questions that arise in making these estimates are: what is the cost equivalent to home rent, firewood, and produce raised and produced on the farm, shall food consumed be estimated at selling price or buying price, how can one determine the amount of milk, eggs, and vegetables consumed on the farm? There were many more similar problems that had to be coped with.

This was the last meeting of the year, and a large percentage of the members were present. It is said that the club had a most successful year, and prospects are bright for even a better one next year.

Spanish Club Will Hold Last Meeting

The last meeting of the Spanish Club for the year will take the form of a Spanish supper at the home of Dr. N. B. Adams on Pittsboro Road tomorrow evening at six o'clock.

Cars will meet the club members at the southwest campus gate near the Carolina Inn at a quarter until six o'clock, and carry them to Dr. Adams' house.

A short business meeting will follow the supper at which the officers for next year will be elected.

The Zeta Psi Fraternity announces the initiation of Burges Whitehead of Windsor, N. C., on May 15, 1928.

Governor McLean to Address the Seniors At Class Day Exercises

Angus W. McLean

Governor McLean (above) will speak at the banquet which will terminate the Class Day Exercises of the Senior Class June 8. His appearance here will mark the first time that the governor has spoken at such an occasion in a number of years.

ON HEAVY PROGRAM

Ed Hudgins, Senior President, Completes Ambitious Schedule for Class Day Exercises

CLASS DAY PROGRAM

9:45 A. M.—Seniors form a round well and, preceded by marshals, march to Davie Poplar.

10:00 A. M.—Senior Class Exercises. Exercises end with procession down Senior Walk.

2:00 P. M.—Senior Rehearsal at Memorial Hall. All Seniors must be present.

3:30 P. M.—Mangum Medal Contest—Gerrard Hall.

5:30 to 6:30 P. M.—Reception to the Seniors and their guests at the President's House.

7:00 P. M.—Senior Class Banquet—Swain Hall. Election of Permanent Class Officers. Address by Dean Bradshaw. Address by Governor Angus W. McLean.

A very unique program has been arranged for the Class Day Exercises of this year's graduating class, which are to be held Friday, June 8, it was announced yesterday by Ed Hudgins, president of the class. The General plan of former programs for this occasion was followed in preparing this year's program, but several outstanding features have been arranged by President Hudgins.

At 9:45 Friday morning the Seniors will gather around the Well and, led by the marshals, will proceed to Davie Poplar where the Senior Class Exercises will be held. Dr. Rozelle and Dr. Moss will open these exercises with invocations. Then R. W. Wilkins, Class Historian, will read the History of the Class of '28, followed by the reading of the statistics by the Class Statistician, J. T. Gresham. R. W. Noe as Class Lawyer will present the Last Will and Testament of '28; the Class Poet, Katherine Johnson, will end this part of the program with the reading of the Class Poem. The Class President, Ed Hudgins, will then deliver his farewell message to his classmates. Following this, the seniors will walk in procession to Senior Walk, the dedication of which will be a feature of the Exercises. The procession down Senior Walk will end with singing of "Hark the Sound!"

Senior Walk, beginning at the south end of Graham Memorial Building, extends eastward to Hillsboro Street, is situated immediately back of Spencer Hall and the Chapel of the Cross, and passes through a part of the Arboretum. The idea of setting aside this walk as Senior Walk belongs to the Class of '28. A large tablet has been erected about midway down the walk. Other markers set this pathway aside as belonging to the Seniors.

Senior rehearsal will be conducted by Dean Patterson at 2:00 P. M. at Memorial Hall. All Seniors must be present, for at this time Dean Patterson will be present.

The Freshman Council held a banquet Monday night at the Episcopal Parish House. The purpose of the banquet was to sum up the year's work and to lay plans for the work of the rising sophomore cabinet.

A three course dinner was served by the ladies of the church, and was enjoyed by the council. Ed Hamer, president of this year's cabinet, was toastmaster.

Freshman Council Closes Year's Work At Final Banquet

The principal talk at the banquet was given by Walter Crissman, while shorter talks were given by H. F. Comer and Nash Johnston. Clyde Dunn, rising president, briefly outlined the plans for next year.

Mr. Comer in his talk stated that he had received letters from as far as the state of Washington asking about the work of the freshman council here. Walter Crissman talked about the "Y" work of this year and said, to the expressed regret of all, that he would not be with the "Y" next fall.

THIRTY GERMAN EDUCATORS WILL VISIT UNIVERSITY

Group of Distinguished Germans to Arrive Tomorrow Under Conduct of Dr. Thomas Alexander

Thirty distinguished German educators will visit the University tomorrow. The party will visit Chapel Hill under the personal conduct of Dr. Thomas Alexander, of Teachers College, Columbia University.

The group will arrive in Durham tonight, and will motor over to Chapel Hill tomorrow, arriving about nine o'clock. Twenty-five members of the faculty are on a special committee to welcome the visitors and to be prepared to conduct them personally on an inspection tour of any part of the University in which they might be interested. A luncheon will be given the visitors and entertainment committee by the University at the Carolina Inn at 1 p. m.

University officers and department heads are prepared to explain their work and to assist the visitors in any way possible. Special exhibits of the University's work are being arranged in the several departments.

"The group is trying to get a general picture of American educational systems, and our chief reason for coming to North Carolina is to show them what I consider to be one of our well-organized democratic school systems," wrote Dr. Thomas Alexander, an associate in the International Institute, to President Chase.

Dr. Alexander further stated, "The group is particularly interested in the place of the University in the life of North Carolina, especially as regards any phase of social betterment. The efforts of the state University to develop the literary life of the people will be of great interest to the visitors."

Members of the party visiting the University are: Dr. Thomas Alexander, Dr. Franz Hilker, Dr. Milton C. Del Manzo, Olga Behrens, Josef Diel, Louise Diel, Otto Dornier, Fritz Duhring, Margarete Ehlert, Otto Emerleben, F. Grussendorf, Franz Hilker, Julius Juschka, Hinrich Medau, Otto Metzner, Peter Peterson, Kurt Richter, Heinz Schiefer, Elisabeth Schulte, Otto Schultze, Sebald-Schwarz, Peter Trumm, Mara Typke, Dora Wagner, Nikolaus Wallner, Gotthold Wankmuller, Anna Wildermann, Elisabeth Studentin Winkelman, Albert Witte, and Theodora Zender.

Gray Succeeds Gold

Gordon Gray was elected business manager of the Carolina Magazine to succeed Tom Gold of Winston-Salem who will not return to school next year. This election took place at the meeting of the P. U. Board held last Tuesday.

GIVEN AGAIN TONIGHT

Girls Add Spice to Latest Wigwe and Masque Offering

(By Andy Anderson)

(Reviewer's Note: This review was done from dress rehearsal of "Whoops M'Dear" Tuesday night and should be read with this in mind. A bona fide review of the show Thursday night will appear in Saturday's Tar Heel. An early Tar Heel deadline made it impossible to review last night's show in today's paper.)

Little can be said of the Wigwe and Masque's revue of "Whoops M'Dear" except that in its entirety it is good. This has been said in pre-views but the reiteration is necessary.

Late yesterday afternoon over three hundred seats had been sold which is a record pre-sale for campus productions and late reserved seat sales plus the rush tickets last night should have given the show a sell-out. Be that as it may, crowd or no crowd, the show at rehearsal was good and I don't mean nothing else but.

There's no use in picking out an individual star because that would be practically impossible. The reader will have to list unto the praise given each performer in respective numbers.

The sets, costumes, and drops were all made and arranged by members of the production and the staff is to be complimented. The lighting effects are good and the sets merit much praise. The makers certainly succeeded in producing burlesques. Gene Erwin did more than well with the dances for they were great and Al Kahn arranged the skits, plus scenery, with a high degree of exactness.

Wex Malone performed well at the piano, considering an injured thumb, and the piano instead of an orchestra was an excellent idea. I liked it well and as much for the novelty as for the grace it lent the numbers.

"Buccaneer Bustle," "Ancient History," "Hello Sucker," "Daddy Goes A-Hunting," and "Collegians" were the hits of the show. But let's take the show in order.

JUNIORS WILL HAVE A SMOKER TONIGHT

The Junior class will hold its final banquet and smoker for the year tonight in Swain Hall. At the meeting the new officers for next year will be installed, and other business now pending for some time will be taken up.

Due to the fact that Red Ellison, president for the present year, has dropped out of school on account of sickness, the vice president, Ed Curlee, will preside.

Vice President Curlee has assured the class that some of the surplus money now in the treasury will be resorted to and that a real spread will be provided.

Jack Wardlaw's Orchestra has been secured for the occasion, and the last formal meeting of the class for this year is expected to be a very successful one.
