

GEORGIA ELEVEN TAKES PLACE OF HARVARD GAME

Eight Conference Tilts; V. P. I. Comes Back to Hill; Duke Game Date Has Been Decided; Gobblers Here October 26.

With eight conference opponents scheduled the University has announced a 10-game football card for 1929.

The schedule, it was announced by Charles T. Woollen, graduate manager of athletics, was approved by the athletic council some time ago but public announcement was withheld pending arrangements of certain details.

The menu is said to be the hardest ever undertaken by the Tar Heels, but no inter-sectional game is listed.

The University of Georgia replaces Harvard, the game, October 19, starting a four year home and home agreement. Presence of Georgia Tech on the list also shows a two year extension of the contract with the Tornado.

The complete card follows:
 Sept. 28—Wake Forest at Chapel Hill.
 Oct. 5—Maryland at Maryland.
 Oct. 12—Georgia Tech at Atlanta.
 Oct. 19—Georgia at Chapel Hill.
 Oct. 26—V. P. I. at Chapel Hill.
 Nov. 2—N. C. State at Chapel Hill.
 Nov. 9—South Carolina at Columbia.
 Nov. 16—Davidson at Davidson.
 Nov. 28—Virginia at Chapel Hill.
 Dec. 7—Duke at Durham.

BOXERS TO MEET WASHINGTON AND LEE ON SATURDAY

Tar Heels Will Make Their First Defense of Southern Conference Crown.

After winning the Southern Conference championship last year, the Tar Heel boxers are now preparing to open their 1929 season with Washington and Lee at Lexington next Saturday night. This was to have been the second meet of the season for Coach Butler's men but the bout with Clemson which was to have taken place last Saturday were called off on account of the flu situation at the South Carolina school.

Only two letter men from last year's champions are back out for the team so far. They are Captain Charley Brown and Archie Allen. Each of these won the Conference championship in his weight. Cheatham Coley who was the bantamweight fighter on last year's team has been kept from the ring by an attack of flu. However, as soon as he recovers he will return and fight for his old berth. Odell Sapp who fought in the light heavy weight class last season will not be back this winter.

Last year the freshmen had quite an array of fighters who showed promise. This fall some of them have been making strong competition for varsity positions. Vaughn, freshman bantamweight last season, has been giving Coley quite a bit of competition and will probably fight in the first meet since Coley has been sick recently. Davis has been showing promise in the welterweight division and will probably be Allen's understudy. John Warren, Add's brother, is the most outstanding candidate for the light heavyweight post.

The squad is working out daily under the supervision of Coach Ed Butler, captain of the team last season. While the boxers in each weight have not been definitely chosen, those who will fight against Washington and Lee will probably be selected from the following. Bantamweight: Coley and Vaughn; featherweight: Cummings; lightweight: Webb and Goodridge; welterweight: Allen and Davis; middleweight: Captain Brown and Presson; light heavyweight: Warren; heavyweight: McIver.

Track Men to Meet

There will be a meeting of the varsity track candidates Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the stadium according to an announcement made yesterday by Coach Dale Ranson. All members are urged to be present.

Send the TAR HEEL home. $3.00 per college year.

Rifle Club Will Hold A Practice For Coming Meets

There will be a meeting of the Rifle club Wednesday night at 7:00 o'clock at the office in the basement of the Alumni building to have target practice for the forthcoming matches that are to be held here during the winter quarter. These matches are with various teams from all over the country. About ten meets will be held here with such teams as the University of Southern California, University of Alabama, Cornell, and others.

Everyone is invited to try out for the team in these practice meets that are held every Wednesday night.

White Phantoms Lick Davidson in First State Tilt

Wildcats Lead the Tar Heels for First Half but Were Overcome in Last Part of Game.

Carolina jumped off to an early and advantageous start in the race for State championship honors when it defeated Davidson 34-21, in Charlotte Saturday night in the first Big Five game of the season. After trailing at the intermission by a 12 to 8 count, the basketball team of the University rallied in late stages of the game and turned in a victory by a comfortable margin.

The same fighting spirit that characterized the Carolina team on the gridiron last fall was manifestly present in the great comeback of the Tar Heels in the last half of their first basketball game in the state this year. Monk Younger's Wildcats outscored and outplayed the Tar Heels in the first half, but they could not cope with the flashy quint from the Hill in the second half.

George Cathey, center, carried off the scoring honors for the night, sinking six field goals for a total of twelve points. Carolina's guards, Marpet and Brown, played good floor games and the latter was runner-up in the scoring with eight points. Satterfield and Captain Hackney played their consistently brilliant brand of ball, ringing up three and two goals respectively. Coach Jim Ashmore made only one substitution in the Tar Heel line-up, sending Price in to replace Rufus Hackney at forward.

For Davidson, the work of Johnson, guard, was most effective in an offensive way. He caged three field goals for half dozen points. Scoring honors for the Wildcats, however, went to Captain Pritchett, who made good on five shots from the foul line and turned in a total of seven points.

The Wildcats made but six goals from action, but they turned into one-pointers nine tries from the free-toss mark. The Tar Heels got only two points on free shots.

Sports Question Box

Question—Who are the officers of the Western Association for the selection of football officials besides Walter Okeson, president?

Answer—Okeson is not president. He is commissioner of officials. Bill Roper is president. Harry Heneage of Dartmouth, secretary and Ernest Cozens of Penn treasurer.

Question—If a player has a contract with a major league club and that club sells his services to another major league club does the club that takes the player keep up the contract?

Answer—It does. If a player makes a bargain with a club for his services that bargain must be fulfilled in major league baseball as long as he renders faithful service.
