

'Monograms' - 'Youngsters' Clash Today

TAR HEEL STARS RETURN FOR TILT

Captain Schwartz and Other Old-Timers to Don Uniforms Against Material Molded from Freshman Team of Last Year.

Captain Harry Schwartz and other Tar Heel stars who finished their grid careers last fall will once more don their moleskins as the "Monogram Men" of the Tar Heel squad play the "Youngsters" in Kenan Stadium this afternoon.

This classic, carded for 2:30 o'clock, is the annual feature of the closing of winter football maneuvers of the Tar Heels, and is expected to produce plenty of real action. Interest in this game is manifested by people throughout the state, and many outsiders are expected to attend.

Football fans of the Old North State saw the Tar Heels lick Duke 14 to 7 last December and mourned the passing of such brilliant figures as Schwartz, along with others like Odell Sapp, Sam Presson, Earl Donahoe, Shine Howard and Bud Shuler, for all of them were topping their grid careers. However most of them will wear "Monogram" colors against the Tar Heel "Youngsters" today.

This feature of the annual—closing the winter football maneuvers of the Tar Heels—promises to produce a real struggle. The Youngsters will be molded mostly from the freshman squad of last fall and those rookie stars know what it is to be undefeated. They will be out to keep their spotless record and to defeat Captain Harry Schwartz and his veterans in their very last football game.

As this game is always played for the benefit of the "Monogram Club," a charge of fifty cents will be made.

The line-up:

"Monogram Men"	"New Men"
Sapp	Nelson
Howard	Suggs or Brown
Farris	Hutchinson
Schwartz	Gilbreath
Eckew	Dunavant
Adkins	Buchan
Holt	Runnels
Wyrick	Branch
Magner	Houston
Nash	Slusser
Harden	McAllister

GOLFERS TO USE KENAN STADIUM

Action of Authorities Makes Link Game a Recognized Sport at University.

Kenan Stadium will find use this spring as the practice ground of the Carolina golf team. With the utilization of the stadium as a practice field, golf takes its place as a recognized sport. In addition to providing the stadium for a practice field the athletic authorities have placed Kenfield, tennis coach, as supervisor of the team.

Kenfield will devote part of his time to tennis and part to golf. The addition of Kenfield will mean that the sport will rank along with other minor sports at the University.

An unusually attractive schedule is to be played by the linkmen this spring. Beginning early in April the golfers will play dual matches with Davidson, Duke, Georgia Tech, and will enter the state championship matches in Greensboro at the Sedgewick course during the latter part of the month.

May will find the team opposing Sewanee, Duke, and Washington and Lee, besides participating in the Southern Conference matches which will be held in Asheville.

Last year the team won the State championship from Duke in Greensboro, but according to information from the Duke camp the Durham team will be much stronger in the sport this spring.

Practice will be held Monday afternoon in Kenan Stadium at 4 o'clock. Practice will be held three days a week during the spring quarter. June Adams has been selected as manager of the team.

A ladder will be arranged and matches for positions on the ladder will be played as last year.

MOUND TALENT IS DARK SPOT ON THE DIAMOND

Many of Last Year Freshman Twirlers Have Dropped Out of School; All Other Positions Will Have Hot Competition.

Now that the basketball season is completed the call for baseball candidates will be issued by Coach Ashmore in the near future. Captain Lufty has been emphasizing the need for prospective pitchers to limber their arms during the winter practice in the Tin Can and quite a few twirlers have been taking daily workouts. However no real practice will get under way until the weather permits the squad to get in some outdoor work.

Pre-season dope seems to point to a strong aggregation this spring if Coach Ashmore is successful in uncovering some latent mound talent somewhere on the Hill. As things now look there will be only one letterman back to fill the hurling role. Jim Ball, who worked the full route in some of the minor games last year and was used as a relief hurler in others, is the only man back with much experience. Ray Farris got into a few games near the end of the season last spring and on the basis of his showing then, bids fair to develop into a creditable mound performer. The Tar Baby nine last season produced quite a few good hurlers but none of these are in school at present. Edwards, lanky speedball artist, has dropped out for a while. Johnny Hurt who was another freshman star is not back in school this year.

The other positions seem likely to be well filled since there is a great deal of material from last year's squad and some good men coming up from Coach Cerney's freshmen. First base, so well covered by Ed Mackie, is left open by his absence. However, Phil Jackson and Billy Brown, both candidates last year will probably come through to make the competition hot for this sack. Ed Burt, a creditable performer at the keystone sack for the last two seasons will be back. Pete Wyrick who starred at this post with the freshmen last year will be out to get the job. With these two men on hand there should be little worry about this position. Henry Satterfield can be counted upon to cover the shortfield unless some mighty capable performer turns up. Captain Lufty will be back out for his third base job with competition being furnished by Burgess Whitehead, leading hitter and fielding star on last year's frosh. Jimmy Maus, all-state catcher last year will probably hold down this position with Henry House and Ellis Fysal as understudies. The outfield will find Tom Cox and Bob Jessup back in their places in center and right respectively. The other outfield post will be filled by Magner or some other of the crowd of capable fielders on hand.

While the above is just a brief summary of what the prospects look like at present, there is great likelihood of there being some shifting done before Coach Ashmore sends his 1929 diamond performers into their first battle.

Gobbler Grappler Made Point Record

"Wee Willie" Davis, 230-Pounder, Scored Maximum Point Total Past Season

Blacksburg, Va., March 8.—Cadet William G. Davis, popularly known as "Wee Willie" in spite of his 230 pounds and his six feet four inches set a new scoring record this winter for V. P. I. wrestlers by rolling up 35 points in seven meets. Wrestling in the unlimited class, Davis made a perfect record in winning by a fall over every opponent. This feat amassed the maximum score possible in seven bouts and made him the first perfect scorer in Gobbler mat history.

The Tech giant wrestled in only five of the seven meets. He pinned to the mat the shoulders of Stout of N. C. State; Davenport, of Virginia; Thompson, of North Carolina; Davis, of Duke; and Crane, of U. S. Naval Academy, and won from Virginia Military Institute and Washington and Lee University by default.

Davis is a junior and has another year of competition. He also represents V.P.I. on the gridiron and is a heavy scorer in the weight events on the track team.

Winston and Wilmington Fight for Title Tonight

Three Carolina Grid Players Are Given Watches By Journal

At the end of the football season of last fall, the Atlanta Journal selected teams from the most outstanding men of the Northern and Southern Conferences and invited them to Atlanta to participate in a game between the two sections. Due to the "Georgia Tech" eleven going to the Rose Bowl, interest subsided in this venture and the game was called off.

Football fans will be interested in knowing that Harry Schwartz, Odell Sapp, and Ray Farris were among those selected. Since the game was cancelled, watches were sent to those players having been invited. These three members of the Tar Heels will be presented their this afternoon immediately preceding the game between the "Monogram Men" and the "Youngsters."

FENCERS DEFEAT CHAMPION BIRDS

North Carolina Swordsmen Decisively Whip Southern Conference Champs.

The Southern Fencing Conference champions of the University of South Carolina, meeting one of the few defeats of several victorious seasons, were decisively beaten by North Carolina swordsmen in the Tar Heels' first intercollegiate meet of the year in the Tin Can Thursday night.

A three-man foils team composed of Glickman, Hatem, and Estep, represented North Carolina, and Reese, Riley, and Cardwell of the Gamecocks were the contestants in the night's program. As the clashes were under Conference rulings, Hendlin, and Fred and Digby Wardlaw were disqualified, being first year men. These three compose the Tar Heel sabre team, and by mutual consent of the two University squads, only the foils matches were listed as official.

Captain Reese of South Carolina, champion of the Southern Fencing Conference and many other open and private meets, and who is heralded as one of the finest fencers in the South today, flashed excellent form at times, but was defeated in his first match by Herbert Estep, five touches to two. He retaliated, however, by defeating "Shag" Hatem, in his ensuing encounter, five to three.

Owing to the method used in conducting Conference meets, every man on each of the teams engages every other man of the opposing squad. Of the nine matches fought Thursday night, North Carolina was victorious in seven. Both of the losing bouts were closely contested, Glickman losing to Riley, and Hatem losing to Reese, by the score of five to three. Glickman, captain of the North Carolina team, probably showed slightly better form than his team-mates, although the others exhibited a highly finished skill.

A very satisfactory gallery was on hand for the matches and the crowd evinced much interest and enthusiasm in the encounters. Other intercollegiate meets are being contemplated, as the success of the contest Thursday night warrants further competition.

Complete scores are as follows, each touch counting as a point for the contestant making it, and five touches winning the bout:

N. C.	S. C.
Glickman—5	Cardwell—0
Hatem—5	Riley—0
Estep—5	Reese—2
Glickman—3	Riley—5
Hatem—3	Reese—5
Estep—5	Riley—2
Glickman—5	Holtiwaner—0
Hatem—5	Green—4

Substitutions: Holtiwanger and Green for Cardwell, South Carolina.

Track Coaches Need Young Distance Men

The Tar Heel track squad, long cock of the walk in Dixie distance circles, will find itself hard pressed this spring. Galen Elliott and Hoyt Pritchett, acknowledged the greatest distance men ever seen in the South, graduated last spring, and their places will be hard to fill. Coaches Bob Fetzer and Dale Ranson must develop younger men to fill the gaps.

Twin City Will Be Trying to Break Ten-Year Titleless Stretch—Wilmington Was Title Winner Last Year—Fast Hard Game Expected.

State champions for the last time in 1919, Winston-Salem high school basketballers will be trying to break a ten-year titleless stretch as they go up against the strong Wilmington New Hanovers here tonight in a battle that will determine the 1929 state quint championship.

The Wilmington team won the title last year, and they will be fighting equally hard to repeat. Irresistible force vs. immovable object or not, a hard and closely contested battle is expected in this final game of the state championship series in which eliminations began some three weeks back.

The game will be played in the Tin Can. It is carded for 8 o'clock and is expected to draw a record crowd.

Winston-Salem, after winning three titles in the first five years in which the contest was staged, through 1919, lapsed into basketball oblivion.

This year the Tin City team pulled a big comeback and made everybody know they were very much in the running. Defeating High Point in the Western semi-finals, the Winston-Salem team pulled a sensational rally in the last three minutes of their Western titular game with Charlotte last night. They scored six points and won, 20-15, to enter the finals with Wilmington.

Weaver, rangy center, was one of the big guns in that attack, and he is expected to be a big factor in Winston's battle with Wilmington here tonight.

The Wilmington team, which has three veterans back from last year's title winning aggregation, beside a fine group of new men, arrived on the field this morning, and will take their first workout in the Tin Can this afternoon. The exact time of Winston's arrival is not known.

Heel Grid Captain Is Versatile Performer

Ray Farris, captain of the University of North Carolina grid squad, is one of the most versatile players in the Southern Conference. Farris has played every line position and filled in at halfback and fullback in winter practice games. His regular post is at guard, where he won many All-Southern mentions last year.

KAPPA SIGMA'S TO MEET CARR IN DORM-FRAT TILT

Captain Bo Shephard Has Fraternity Title Sewed up By a Win Over Dekes.

The Kappa Sigma basketballers, champions of the fraternity league for the second successive year, will battle the fast-moving Carr five in the annual dorm-frat classic for the campus title. The game, which brings two of the fastest interamural fives ever gathered on the campus into action, will be staged in the Tin Can Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock.

The Kappa Sigmas sewed up their fraternity title by defeating the Dekes 16 to 6 in the Tin Can on Thursday afternoon. The final battle proved more or less slow in comparison with the preliminaries that had carried the rival fives to the Greek letter finals. The Dekes had nosed out the Tau Epsilon Phi 14 to 13 in the semi-final of the upper bracket. The Kappa Sigs came back strong in the second half to whip the Betas 18 to 15 in the lower draw.

Captain Bo Shephard led his Kappa Sigma five's attack against the Dekes on Thursday afternoon, but the entire team showed some fast floor work. Charlie Chatham and Snake Willis teamed with the Gray brothers and Julian Fenner to uphold the Deke standards. They were unable, however, to penetrate the sterling defense of the Shephardites.

The Carr dormitory tossers present one of the fastest outfits seen this year, playing against dormitory competition. They may not show such a powerful attack against the fraternity champions, but Captain Shephard and his men have a hot night just ahead. The Carr quint is built around such stellar performers as Lingerfeldt, Hewitt and Rape. "Red" Rape, star guard, played with the New Dorms five that won the campus title last winter.

Tar Heel Vaulters Sets Record Jump For Indoor Meet

Vernon Cowper, star pole vaulter on the University of North Carolina track team, seems headed for a successful season. Cowper recently cleared over 12 feet indoors, breaking the University record in his first appearance this season. The Tar Heel star is just waiting for outdoor action.

'VIRGINIA' WINS CHAMPIONSHIP

Earned Title By Defeating "Georgia Tech" in Fast Game 8 to 6.

"Virginia" gained an undisputed right to the championship of the winter-football league by defeating the "Georgia Tech" eleven, runner-up for the title, last Wednesday afternoon 8 to 6. The teams were evenly matched, and it was one of the hardest fought games played during the season.

The first score of the game was made in the second quarter when Branch fumbled and was tackled behind his goal line giving "Virginia" a safety. "Virginia" strengthened her lead early in the second half when Wyrick passed to Jackson who ran the remaining distance for the winning touchdown.

"Tech's" touchdown came in the fourth quarter when Branch, freshman quarterback, started on an off-tackle run, reversed his field, and sped, almost untouched, across the "Virginia" goal. The "Tech" team was threatening to score as the final whistle blew, the ball being in their possession on the thirty yard line and their backs going strong.

Wyrick, one of last fall's varsity quarterbacks, stood out for the winning team and his passing and running featured the game. Suggs, Gilbreath, and Tabb also did stellar work for the "Cavaliers," Fenner and Eskew starred for "Tech."

"Virginia"	"Georgia Tech"
Position:	Fenner
Suggs	Left Tackle
Kerr	Left Guard
Gilbreath	Center
Rosenfeldt	Right Guard
Alexander	Right Tackle
Holt	Right End
Wyrick	Quarterback
Jackson	Left Half
Heller	Right Half
House	Full Back

Presentation of the Harvard dramatic club play, "Fiesta" at Boston has been forbidden by the mayor, because of its "objectional" qualities.

Drink Coca-Cola Delicious and Refreshing

PAUSE AND REFRESH YOURSELF

OF COURSE IT'S NO FAIR PLAYING THE PROCTOR AND SPYING OUT SUCH A DELICATE SITUATION AS THIS. BUT THEN, WE'RE NO PROCTOR. AND WE CAN RESIST ANYTHING BUT TEMPTATION.

All of which goes to prove (if we may be excused for saying so) that the pause that refreshes is the sanest temptation which millions ever succumbed to. And to these same millions the pause that refreshes has come to mean an ice-cold Coca-Cola. Its tingling, delicious taste and cool after-sense of refreshment have proved that a little minute is long enough for a big rest any time.
