

HEEL CINDERMEN MEET GENERALS THIS AFTERNOON

Strong Team of Track Performers Are Expected to Show up Against Heels Today; Many Old Men Missing.

The Generals who represent Washington and Lee on the track this afternoon come southward with a team composed of veterans and cinder stars fully capable of offering a dangerous threat to the Tar Heels. In a dual meet last Monday the Generals easily subdued Maryland, showing unusual strength in all of the running events. Grant and Sandefer, star W. and L. sprinters, led the field in both the 100 and the 220 yard dashes. Sheppard, Williams and Dickey, famous Washington and Lee relay trio, towed in all honors in the 440 in the above named order. Captain Backus shattered the Generals' 880 record as he flashed through the half mile in an even two' minutes. The previous record stood at 2 minutes 1-5 seconds. In the javalin throw the Generals displayed marked superiority, placing all three men.

Undoubtedly the outstanding trackman on the field was Sandefer, who led the Generals with 15 points, having gained first place in the broad jump, tied for first in the high jump and placed second in both the 100 and 220 yard dashes.

The lineup that Coach Bob will offer to oppose the Generals this afternoon will in the most part be similar to the one that subdued V. P. I. last Saturday. Ken Gay, Ken Smith and Charlie Smith will be entered to oppose Grant and Sandefer in the sprints; Harrison, Nims, Garrett, or Medford will uphold Carolina's colors in the quarter; Nims, Hamer and Medford will be stacked up against Captain Backus in the 880; Brown, Cox, Baucom, Lowry, and Cohen will struggle to fill the gaps in the mile events; upon these men will undoubtedly lay the balance of victory or defeat for North Carolina. Perry, Stafford, Skinner, or Gresham will enter the high hurdles, while Perry, Stafford and Lowry will compete in the low hurdles; Cowper, Nieman, Dry or Arnold will meet W. and L. in the pole vault; Bagby, Rieves, Mebane and Hadley in the high jump; Nieman, Stafford, Bullard, Grey, or Arnold will attempt to place against Sandefer in the broad jump; Adkins, Ruble, and McKinney will heave the shot for points; Adkins, Harper, Dameron, and Ruble will enter the discus; and Lowry, Ruble, Spaulding, Gresham and Dry will be placed in the javalin throw.

The meet will begin at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon on Emerson field. Carolina men are urged to assist the team by their presence this afternoon in overcoming the handicap of the loss of Captain Johnny Henderson and his mile cohorts.

WRESTLERS AND BOXERS AT WORK IN TIN CAN

Attendance Good So Far But Coaches Urge That More Men Come Out.

Carolina's Southern Championship boxing team began work early this week. At the same time the wrestlers began their spring workouts. Last season the teams were the best ever to represent the Heels in their sports and Coach Quinlan is anxious to turn out two championship outfits in 1929.

Ed Butler, former Tar Heel captain and assistant coach last winter, is supervising the boxing workouts, while Coach Quinlan assisted by Mottsinger is handling the wrestlers.

Workouts in both sports have drawn good attendance, but both coaches are anxious to have more men out for the spring workout.

With the return of Vaughn, Sheffield, Goodridge, Allen, Davis, and Warren, the Heels will have a veteran outfit ready for the 1930 season. However with the increase in popularity of the sport, Carolina is expecting more competition in retaining its two year crown next winter. The weight left vacant by Captain Brown needs filling, and with the prospects of the Southern Conference adopting the recent division changes approved by the National Collegiate Association, the Heels will need another medium weight boxer for the 159 pound class.

Coach Quinlan will also have a large number of men back for the 1930 wrestling team, but the squad has plenty of room for additions.

Workouts are held every day.

RIFLEMEN LOSE ONE AND WIN ONE

Win Decisive Victory over Temple University of Philadelphia.

The University of North Carolina rifle team held its final gallery match of the season under Memorial Hall last Friday night, shooting a dual match against the Asheville Rifle Club and Temple. University of Philadelphia. The local riflemen lost to the Asheville team, but won decisively over Temple University.

The members of the Carolina rifle team who competed last Friday night were: H. H. Miles, W. Cooper, G. H. Holmes, Haywood Parker, Martin Kellogg, Sam Wiley, E. H. Denning, and P. G. Johnson.

The match of last Friday night marks the close of the gallery season, and members of the rifle club will start practice at once with Springfield rifles on the outdoor range which is located about two miles southeast of Chapel Hill.

The local team is expecting to enter the National Intercollegiate Rifle meet which will take place on May 12th at Annapolis, Md. Practically all rifle teams in the Atlantic coastal states are panning to send representatives to compete. Carolina took third place last year at Annapolis in competition against some of the best teams in the country. George Washington University and Navy were first and second respectively, with V. M. I. fourth.

In the gallery season that has just closed Carolina tied for second place in the South and West Intercollegiate Rifle League. The official rankings of the teams as released by the National Rifle Association are:

	W.	L.
Univ. of Cincinnati	5	0
Univ. of N. C.	3	2
Sacramento Junior Col.	3	2
Cleveland School of Tech.	2	3
Temple University	2	3
Lawrence College	0	5

The Pines is the favorite rendezvous for Club Gatherings, Bridge Luncheons and Fraternity get-togethers. We solicit this kind of patronage, feeling certain that everyone will be highly pleased. Mrs. Vickers has the happy faculty for assisting in the preparation for such functions and will cheerfully render her assistance to make such gatherings a huge success. For those associations and organizations which like to have dancing as a feature of their program we offer our dance floor. For a simple luncheon or a banquet, The Pines solves the problem.
