

Last Entertainment Set for Wednesday Night; Famous Danseuse Provides Program

Ronny Johansson, Swedish
Dancer, Will Perform in Program on Stage.

Ronny Johansson, Swedish dancer of world wide fame, will appear here in a program of dances in Memorial Hall Wednesday night, May 15, in the last student entertainment performance of the spring quarter.

Miss Johansson started her career in January 1917 when she made an extraordinarily brilliant debut at the Konzerthaus in Vienna, and she was acclaimed by all that saw her as the "Fanny Elssler," the most famous dances of all time, of our century; and as one critic so aptly said: "She is the visible expression of an inner life force, with which she transports us into the realm of pure art."

Following her great success in Vienna, Ronny Johansson began a triumphant tour through Europe, where her originality, piquant personality, great charm, and Puck-like humor won for her immediate recognition from laymen and artistic alike.

During her first American season, she gave two highly successful recitals in New York, and five in Chicago in addition to three appearances as a guest-artist with the Adolph Bolm Ballet. She was also enthusiastically received on a tour of the principal cities of the Middle West and South.

Her repertoires unusually varied, ranging from the lyrical and delicate to the vigorous character type of dancing. She has been especially happy in her creations in the humorous field which has been generally overlooked by dancers.

Miss Johansson has received favorable press comments in every city in which she has appeared. The Musical Courier says of her: "Miss Johansson is a dancer of grace and skill. She has her body under excellent control; her fine sense of rhythm is also a decided asset. Whether in the graceful "Minnet" or "Waltz, the humorous or roguish numbers, this delightful artist did not fail to win the approval of her audience."

The performance will begin at 8:30 o'clock.

German Club Completes Plans For Final Dances June 10 - 12

Dances Begin Monday Evening,
June 10, and Continue through Wednesday, June 12.

The final dances under the auspices of the German Club will be from Monday through Wednesday, June 10, 11, 12. Final plans are now being drawn up, and officials of the German Club expect the set of dances to be one of the best held here in years. Wedemeyer's Orchestra, well known collegiate and resort dance orchestra, has been engaged to furnish the music for the dances.

The first dance will be held Monday night, June 10. Three dances will be staged on Tuesday—a morning dance, an afternoon tea dance, and a regular dance that night. One dance will be held Wednesday morning, and the final ball, the culmination of the year's social season, is scheduled for Wednesday night, June 12.

Swain Hall will again be used for the dances, and will be attractively decorated in an elaborate futuristic scheme. Baron Holmes and Frazier Glenn will be in charge of the decorations.

Bill Marshall, secretary-treasurer of the German Club announces membership in the club is now open to freshmen and a limited number of others. Total charges for admission into the club and attendance at the final dance is fifteen dollars, including the ten dollar initiation fee. All who wish to join the club are asked to mail or give a check for the required amount to Marshall at the Sigma Nu house as soon as possible. Marshall asks that all present members of the club who have not paid their dues of three dollars do so at once and that those who have failed to pay their annual twelve dollar dues must make payment at once in order to be eligible for attending the dances.

Tar Heel Staff Meet

There will be an important meeting of the Tar Heel staff tonight at 9 o'clock. All Assistant Editors and reporters must be present. This meeting will replace the regular Thursday night meeting.

DR. HENDERSON WRITES ON 12 PERSONALITIES

University Professor Again Enters Literary Field; Discusses World's Most Vivid Personalities.

Quite a varied and vivid contrast marks the latest contributions to the field of biography of Dr. Archibald Henderson, noted mathematician, historian, and biographer of the University of North Carolina. The last series on "The World's 12 Most Vivid Living Personalities" is somewhat similar to his syndicated articles published last year, and are being published in papers in this and other countries. The first article is on Herbert Hoover.

The 12 persons whom he has written about in this series are: President Hoover, Queen Marie, King Alfonso, Kemal Pasha, and the Prince of Wales in what might be termed the "ruling" class. David Lloyd George, John D. Rockefeller, Paul von Hindenburg, and Gene Tunney are all fighters. Besides these there are Charles A. Lindbergh, America's eagle, Charles Chaplin, comedian; and Lady Astor, the English Parliamentarian.

The selection of these twelve personalities was made by a representative committee which represented many different fields. The Washington Herald, beginning the series, introduced Dr. Henderson as "internationally famous as author, educator, and scholar of diversified attainments; Professor of mathematics at the University of North Carolina, and a leading figure in the intellectual group that centers around that institution."

Temporary Change in Tar Heel Staff

Pending investigation by the Student Council of the recent Yellow Journal affair, in which certain members of the Tar Heel staff are supposed to be implicated, the places of five editors and reporters are being temporarily filled by other men.

Walter Spearman, Editor of the Tar Heel during the past year, will edit the paper until further notice and Will Yarborough, Associate Editor of the paper, will be managing editor of the paper.
W. H. YARBOROUGH,
Pres. P. U. Board.

Editors Apologize

To the Student Body of the University of North Carolina:

As your selection for the editorship of the Tar Heel, I offer you an apology. I am a member of Sigma Upsilon literary fraternity and was connected with the Yellow Journal; I have offended the students and the faculty of the University in certain respects, and I accept full responsibility.

The Yellow Journal was assembled hastily and without consideration of the import of several articles, which should never have been published under any conditions, even in a Yellow Journal. For that matter, the Journal should never have been issued. I am heartily ashamed of my connection with it.

GLENN HOLDER,
Editor Tar Heel.

To the Student Body:

Having been elected editor of the Carolina Magazine by the student body of the University of North Carolina, I am taking this opportunity to offer them an apology for my connection with the Yellow Journal published by Sigma Upsilon literary fraternity of which I am a member.

I am aware that my connection with its publication is entirely to my discredit and that the Journal is a discredit to the University.

I am also very sorry that in conducting a column called "Agonies" I proved myself an extremely poor editor, using, without careful editing, material which had been on the hook for the past three years.

I hope that the students will accept my apology as it is made in all good faith.

JOHN MEBANE.

Frosh Debaters Lose To Davidson

The freshman Carolina debating team lost to the Davidson freshman debaters here last Wednesday night in a contest over the query, "Resolved That the Jury System Should be Abolished."

The Davidson team composed of E. D. Kuykendall, of Greensboro, and W. Rule, of Charlotte, argued the affirmative side of the question. The University speakers were W. E. Connally, of Leasburg, and William Uzzell, of Louisville.

The debate was held in Gerrard hall with Prof. George McKie, faculty chairman of the University Debate Council, presiding. J. C. Stabler, W. E. Drake, and T. W. Sprinkle, University graduate students, served as judges.

Meeting of Debate Council Wednesday

J. C. Williams, President of the Debate Council, announces that there will be a meeting of that organization tomorrow night in 210 Murphey at 7:30.

Owing to the fact that several matters of policy are to be discussed, it is essential that the entire council be present.

The following issues are to be settled:

1. On what basis shall the gold monogram be granted in the future?
2. What relation shall Freshman debating bear to varsity debating?
3. The nature and extent of next year's debating schedule.

In consideration of the fact that the present requirements for the gold monogram are obviously too easy, the president asks that each member of the council bring a written statement of his plan as to the granting of the monogram. The main problem involved is: Shall the power to grant the monogram be lodged in the council, or shall it be granted according to some set rule?

Dialectic Senate To Meet Tonight

John Norwood, President of the Dialectic Senate, urges that all members of the senate be present at the meeting tonight in New West Building at 7:15. Owing to the fact that the election of new officers is only a short while off, the president feels that a renewal of interest is essential.

At this meeting the date for the Bingham Debate try-out will be set. Any bona fide member of the Junior class is eligible for the contest. The final debate will be held during commencement between the Di and the Phi.

The following resolutions appear on the calendar:

1. "Resolved, That national advertising in its present form is a curse to the American Public."
2. "Resolved, That the system of student government now in effect at the University of North Carolina is the best system yet to be successfully practiced."

Council Takes Action Against Sigma Upsilon

Council Begins Investigation
Following Appearance of Yellow Journal Last Friday.

German Club Notice

Bill Marshall, treasurer of the German Club, announces that membership in the club is now open to freshmen and a limited number of upperclassmen, and that all who wish to join the club must give him a check for fifteen dollars, the total charges for initiation and admission to the dances, at once. Marshall asks that all members who have not yet paid their dues and assessments do so as soon as possible.

Following the withdrawal of 19 faculty members on Saturday from Sigma Upsilon, due to publication and distribution by student members of the literary fraternity on Friday of The Yellow Journal, the Student Council met Sunday night and began action against both active members and initiates of the group.

Just what the action will be has not yet been revealed. It is understood, however, that the incident will be fully investigated with a view to fixing responsibility for the obnoxious articles, and for the editing and distribution of the paper on the individuals concerned.

Sigma Upsilon was warned by the Student Council last year that the publication was not wanted on the University campus, and Sigma Upsilon accepted the warning. In view of the flagrant violation this year of last year's warning, it is believed that drastic action may be taken against the parties responsible.

The Executive Committee of the faculty in a meeting Sunday censured the publication and recommended to the faculty committee on fraternities that Sigma Upsilon as a group be disbanded on the University campus.

In connection with the action of the Council, President Ray S. Farris appeared in chapel yesterday morning to explain to students that just action had been taken against the parties responsible and that after a complete review of the circumstances the case of each student concerned would be decided on its own merits.

The faculty members of the Odd Number Chapter of the fraternity have requested the General Council to investigate the activities of the local chapter.

In the letter addressed to the President of the General Council the faculty members stated that this year's issue of the Yellow Journal was coarse, indecent, and libellous in reference to young girls all of whom are locally known.

Signing the letter were the following faculty members: George Howe, N. W. Walker, Frederick H. Koch, J. O. Bailey, R. M. Wallace, M. L. Radoff, Howard M. Jones, W. D. MacMillan, 3rd, Harold D. Meyer, John M. Booker, H. K. Russell, George McKie, Albert Coates, Wm. S. Bernard, Norman Foerster, W. J. Olive, Jas. Willis Posey, Russell Potter, and Addison Hibbard.
